

FEB. 5. George W. Colmere, under sentence of death for the murder of his wife, commits suicide by opening a vein in his arm with the tooth of a comb.

FEB. 8. E. B. Goddard, of the Pacific Foundry, a prominent citizen, died suddenly.

FEB. 10. Emanuel Odiardo was adjudged guilty of manslaughter....Conrad Luce was indicted by the U. S. Grand Jury for libel.

FEB. 11. A heavy storm prevailed during the day....The Narragansett returned from a Northern cruise.

FEB. 12. George F. Batchelder was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the State Prison for manslaughter....Treasure shipment per P. M. S. S. Constitution, $2,620,421 81.

FEB. 14. John Foster was killed by James F. Rogers, in the Plaza Saloon....Capt. Gultudine, of the Russian corvette Calavala, was thrown from a carriage and badly injured.

FEB. 15. Dr. A. S. Baldwin, appointed Supervisor of the Fifth District, vice E. C. Kennedy, resigned....Carlo Emanuel Odiardo, sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary for manslaughter....Ridgley Greathouse, the captain of the Chapman pirates, was released upon taking the oath prescribed in the President's Amnesty Proclamation.

FEB. 16. The Germans held a preliminary meeting for the purpose of arranging for a mass meeting to express the sense of our German population on the Schleswig-Holstein question....Three houses on Clay Street, near East, settled into the bay, the piles having been destroyed.

FEB. 18. The Central Railroad completed to Lone Mountain.

FEB. 19. The stockholders of the Real del Monte Mining Company held a meeting to consider the conduct of trustees. Committees were appointed and instructed to examine the books of the company and report at a subsequent meeting.

FEB. 20. Dr. Wm. Rabe was ordered to be taken to the Insane Asylum at Frankfort, Pennsylvania....Residence of Mr. P. Kearney, Minna Street, destroyed by fire.

FEB. 21. Mrs. B. P. Moore was thrown from a carriage and sustained a fracture of the thigh....Chadbourne's Bakery on Jackson Street was destroyed by fire.

FEB. 22. A foot-race for the champion belt took place at Bay View Park; John McGreavy, Charles Driver, and Wm. Sargent as competitors. John McGreavy was the winner....N. W. Hart, a contractor, committed suicide by taking strychnine.

FEB. 23. Four thousand five hundred jars Chinese wine were seized by the revenue officers....Shipment of treasure per P. M. S. S. Golden Age, $943,433 17.

FEB. 24. A woman of the town, named Mary Smith, was found murdered in her bed, in Ross Street. She was stabbed in ten or a dozen places. No clue was left by the murderers....The Germans held a mass meeting at Platt's Hall, relative to the Schleswig-Holstein affairs....Caleb T. Fay decided that all stock sold required a new revenue stamp.

FEB. 25. James Grant, ex-County Recorder, died....A telegram received announcing the death of J. Sewell Reed, Captain of the California One Hundred....The Bay City Restaurant, on Clay and Drumm streets, was destroyed by fire.

FEB. 26. Three very severe shocks of earthquake felt.

FEB. 27. The schooner Louis Harker, lying at Clay Street Wharf, sunk....The Evening Journal changed to a morning paper.

FEB. 28. Gen. La Vega and family arrived from Mexico....Gov. Kennedy, of British Columbia, arrived en route.

MARCH 1. A rowing match for $500 a side took place between Thomas Kirby and H. C. Hoyt; won by Mr. Hoyt....George Finch, Samuel Johns, and Jeremiah Owens were arrested, charged with the murder of George Wilkes, near Redwood....Requiem mass performed at St. Mary's Cathedral for the repose of the souls of those who perished in the church at Santiago, Chile, when it was destroyed by fire.

MARCH 2. The anniversary of the birthday of the Emperor of Russia was celebrated by the Russian men-of-war in port....M. Wächter, a German artist, blew his brains out at Seal Rock House—cause, disappointment.

MARCH 3. The Golden City sailed with $2,599,312 84....Asbury Harpending, a Chapman pirate, took the oath of amnesty and was released from custody.

MARCH 4. Rev. Thomas Starr King, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, died, which event caused a profound sensation throughout the city and State. Many public edifices were draped in mourning, and some of the Government offices were closed in consequence....E. E. Bryan committed suicide.

MARCH 5. The body of Joseph Barrett was brought to this city for interment....Two shocks of an earthquake were felt....The dwelling house of Mr. White, on Devisadero Street, was burned.

MARCH 8. John E. Castera, liquor and wine importer, arrested, charged with defrauding the revenue by means of false invoices.

MARCH 9. The flour-dealers combine and increase the price of flour....Sullivan Brown was convicted of robbery, and Frank Congdon of grand larceny.

MARCH 10. William Clark Bennett, U. S. Deputy Marshal, died of consumption.

MARCH 11. A slight earthquake felt at 9:15 A.M. ....A gang of pickpockets, embracing five individuals, arrested.

MARCH 12. The steamer Orizaba sailed with $1,060,935 82 treasure....Charles Moore was sentenced to State Prison for five years for burglary; Frank Congdon, for grand larceny, five years; Sullivan Brown, for robbery, for ten years.

MARCH 14. Fred. G. Tittel and his wife celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding....A heavy rain fell—the first for 47 days.

MARCH 16. George H. Hossefross died of consumption.

MARCH 17. The Irish celebrate St. Patrick's day.

MARCH 18. Very heavy hail—the streets covered to the depth of an inch or more.

MARCH 19. H. M. Graham sues steamship Moses Taylor for $2,500 damages for violation of passenger contract....James McCready was sentenced to State Prison for ten years for grand larceny; James Marin for five years, for similar offense.

MARCH 20. The funeral of George H. Hossefross took place from Monumental Engine House.

MARCH 23. The steamer Constitution sailed with $1,074,927 34 treasure.

MARCH 25. The planing mill of Mr. Thomas, on California Street, between Davis and Drumm, partially destroyed by fire.

MARCH 29. The dwelling occupied by Mr. Housman, on Fourth Street, between Howard and Tehama, was partially destroyed by fire.

APRIL 1. The iron-molders strike for higher wages.

APRIL 2. A quantity of arms on board the steamer Panama, bound for Mazatlan, were seized by the Federal authorities....The Golden Age sailed with $1,052,963 11 treasure....The suits against the Omnibus Railroad Company, for overcharging fare, was terminated—Judge Cowles holding that the Federal law permitted them to add to each fare the amount of the Federal tax.

APRIL 3. A gale prevailed, the bark Metropolis dragged her anchor and a boat from the U. S. steamer Saranac was sent to her relief....Amount