

JUNE 13. The steamer Constitution sailed with $822,340 69.

JUNE 14. J. C. Young, a well-known advertising physician, died of dropsy.

JUNE 15. The Bank of California filed articles of incorporation with the County Clerk. Capital, $2,000,000.

JUNE 16. Mary E. Collins, a child five years old, was killed by being run over by a car on Folsom Street, near Fifth.

JUNE 17. A card was published, signed by over 300 Hebrews, denying that an article headed "Our Superiority," in the Gleaner, reflected their sentiments....A man was wounded by a musket ball fired by the sentry on Alcatraz. The boat in which a party had been sailing had gone closer to the shore than regulations permit.

JUNE 19. Rev. John Maginniss, formerly pastor of St. Patrick's Church, died....A frame house on Folsom, near Second, destroyed by fire.

JUNE 21. Kate Mellen, a servant, while engaged about a stove, ignited her dress, and before the flames could be extinguished, was so badly burned as to cause death....Major Addison Garland died at Mare Island.

JUNE 22. A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors was held for the purpose of urging upon the Federal authorities the necessity of hastening the construction of the ironclad Monitor....Earthquake at 9 o'clock and 5 minutes....A row-boat, coming from Angel Island, capsized, and three men were drowned.

JUNE 23. The Uncle Sam sailed with $982,380 94. While backing out from the wharf the vessel ran upon the flats off Rincon Point, and stuck fast until flood tide.

JUNE 24. A telegraphic dispatch announces the death of Dr. William Rabe, a prominent Republican politician, and ex-U. S. Marshal....Very high winds prevailed. The ship Game Cock dragged her anchor, and would have gone ashore on Goat Island had not one of the Russian steamers gone to her relief.

JUNE 25. The Sophie McLane, plying between this city and San José, was withdrawn from the trade.

JUNE 26. A small tenement house on Natoma Street, between Beale and Fremont, was destroyed by fire. A little boy, son of Mrs. Quinn, was burned to death.

JUNE 27. The Board of Supervisors passed a resolution pledging the faith of the city for $60,000 to secure the construction of the Camanche.

JUNE 28. The Russian man-of-war Abreck sailed for a cruise in the South Pacific.

JUNE 29. The Golden Age, which had been due for twelve days, arrived in tow of the Golden City. She was detained at Acapulco by the breaking of a shaft.

JULY 1. Capt. George Peck, broker of this city, was killed near Gilroy by being thrown from a buggy....Bank of California, corner Battery and Washington streets, was opened for the transaction of business.

JULY 2. A fire in the German Club Room, corner of Sacramento and Kearny streets, destroyed books, etc., to the value of $20,000.

JULY 3. Amount of treasure shipped per P. M. S. S. Golden City, $1,155,571 67.

JULY 4. The anniversary of our National Independence was celebrated in grand style. At 10 o'clock a procession was formed, under command of Dr. B. A. Sheldon, Marshal, which marched through the principal streets. At the Metropolitan Theater, an oration was delivered by Rev. Dr. Bellows, and a poem read by J. F. Bowman. At night, a fine display of fireworks was given in the southern part of the city....J. Jaffes' coal yard, on Sutter Street, was destroyed by fire.

JULY 5. The Board of Education organized—the newly-elected members taking their seats. Mr. Michael Lynch was elected President.

JULY 6. E. L. Brittingham, a well-known copyist and political writer, died suddenly....Hattie Owens was run over by a bread cart at the corner of Second and Howard streets, and killed....Oscar H. Boyd, a well-known hatter, died of dropsy....A soldier, named John Barrett, while insane from liquor, shot John McGowan through the head, killing him instantly.

JULY 8. R. F. Ryan sues the American Flag newspaper for $1,000 damages, for publishing him as a traitor.

JULY 9. The aqueduct of the San Francisco Water Works burst, tearing up a large quantity of pipe, and flooding the neighborhood of Fillmore Street Wharf. The damage was repaired before any great loss was sustained.

JULY 10. The French store-ship Rhin arrived from Acapulco for stores for the French army and blockading fleet.

JULY 11. Capt. Josiah N. Knowles, charged with manslaughter, for neglecting to make any attempt to rescue a sailor who had fallen overboard during his trip from New York to this port, was tried in the U. S. Circuit Court and acquitted.

JULY 12. The contractors, Messrs. Donahue, Ryan, and Secor, began the work of putting the Camanche together.

JULY 13. The P. M. S. St. Louis, sailed with $1,806,704 96 in treasure.

JULY 14. The trial of James F. Rogers, for the murder of John Foster, resulted in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter.

JULY 17. The J. L. Stephens arrived from Victoria with $263,367 91.

JULY 20. The bark A 1 arrived from Philadelphia with ten 11-inch guns, and 2,500 shells, etc., for Government.

JULY 21. Several very severe shocks of earthquake....C. Holden fell from the scaffolding around the Camanche, and sustained a fracture of the leg.

JULY 22. A plot to demoralize and debauch school girls, by exhibiting to them obscene pictures, was discovered. Several of the ringleaders arrested.

JULY 23. David Scannell, Chief Engineer of Fire Department, was presented with a gold watch by D. S. Wambold, the balladist....The schooner Louise was sunk off Bolinas. She collided with the Ellen Adelia, and sunk almost immediately. Her crew was saved....Treasure shipment per P. M. S. S. Constitution was $2,158,582 20.

JULY 24. The Moses Taylor arrived from Panama with 560 passengers.

JULY 25. Charles L. Weller, ex-Postmaster, arrested by order of Gen. McDowell, for a speech delivered at Sequel Hall....Wm. Rogers, stage manager of the Enreka Theater, was severely stabbed by Henry Corby, the watchman of the house.

JULY 27. James M. McDonald instituted suit against the Omnibus Railroad Company for $25,000 damages, sustained by reason of the carelessness of the defendant's agents....Henry K. Van Pelt, a pioneer, died of typhoid fever.

JULY 29. 100 barrels of molasses, presented to the Sanitary Fund by Capt. Makee, of the Sandwich Islands, was sold at auction, realizing $1,286.

JULY 30. James W. Rogers, the murderer of John Foster, was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the State Prison.

JULY 31. The Pacific Insurance Company contributed $250 to the Firemen's Cemetery Fund.

AUGUST 1. The Young Men's Christian Association held their annual election....Postmaster Perkins established an all-night delivery of letters.

AUG. 2. Democrats held a meeting at Hayes' Park, for the purpose of expressing their indignation at the arrest of Charles L. Weller, by the military