

SEC. 8. The Sheriff, County Clerk,* County Recorder, Treasurer, District Attorney, Auditor, Tax Collector, Superintendent of Public Streets and Highways, Surveyor, Harbor Master, and Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of said city and county, shall keep public offices, which shall be kept open for the transaction of business every day in the year except Sundays, Christmas, New Year's, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, the twenty-second of February, and on any days during which a general election shall be held, between the hours of nine o'clock, A.M. and four o'clock, P.M.—[Amendment May 14, 1861.]

SEC. 9. Whenever vacancies occur in any elective office of the said city and county, and provision is not otherwise made in this or some other Act for filling the same until the next election, the Board of Supervisors shall appoint a person to discharge the duties of such office until the next election, when the vacancy shall be filled by election for the term. All persons so appointed shall, before entering upon their duties, take the oath of office and give bond as required by law. But in an action or proceeding where the Sheriff of said city and county is a party, or is interested, or otherwise incapacitated to execute the orders or process therein, the same shall be executed by a suitable person, residing in said city and county, to be appointed by the court, and denominated an "Elsor," who shall give such security as the court in its discretion may require, and shall execute the process and orders in the same manner as the Sheriff is required to execute similar process and orders in other cases.†

SECS. 10 and 11.—[Amended April 18, 1857 and May 17, 1861]: Salaries shall be allowed and paid to the following officers of the City and County of San Francisco, as in this Act provided and not otherwise, and shall be in full compensation for all official services required of them by law:

To the County Judge, five thousand dollars per annum.

To Associate Justices of the Court of Sessions, five dollars per day for each day's actual attendance, not to exceed six hundred dollars per annum each.

SUPPLEMENTAL I.—An Act providing for an Attorney and Counselor in and for the City and County of San Francisco.—Approved March 25, 1862.

SECTION 1. There shall be elected, hereafter, for the City and County of San Francisco, by the qualified electors thereof, on the third Tuesday of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and every two years thereafter, one Attorney and Counselor, learned in the law, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, and shall be paid, by said city and county, a salary of five thousand dollars per annum, to be audited and paid monthly, in the same manner as the salary of the County Judge is by law audited and paid. Said Attorney and Counselor shall perform such duties as Attorney and Counselor in and for the said city and county as the Board of Supervisors of said city and county shall from time to time prescribe.—[Amendment, Act April 27, 1863.]
