Benevolent.

ORPHAN ASYLUM (CATHOLIC).—Market near Kearny Street. Organized March 23, 1851, and placed under the care of the Sisters of Charity. A frame building for this purpose was commenced in July, and completed in September, 1851. It was occupied in part for a school, and a portion was temporarily used as a church, under the pastoral charge of Rev. John Maginnis. The present capacious brick building was completed in November, 1854, at a cost of $15,000. It is a source of gratification to behold the consoling appearance presented by the 320 little ones now provided for in the institution, which speaks audibly of the benign influence of their guardian sisters, and of the true liberality of our community in their noble efforts to lend a helping hand to the fatherless. Another spacious brick building of the same dimensions as that erected in 1854, was completed in January, 1859, for a school, in which 550 children, day scholars, receive a useful education. The asylum is conducted under the sole management of Archbishop Alemany, and the Sisters of Charity.

A farm of fifty-three acres has been purchased at Hunter's Point, where a branch Orphan Asylum has been established for very young children. A large and commodious brick edifice will soon be erected thereon.

SAN FRANCISCO ORPHAN ASYLUM SOCIETY (PROTESTANT).—Organized January 31, 1851, and incorporated February 10, 1851.

Original Officers—President: Mrs. Albert Williams; Vice President: Mrs. S. H. Willey; Secretary: Mrs. E. A. Warren; Treasurer: Mrs. Boring; Managers: Mrs. R. H. Waller, Mrs. C. V. Gillespie, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Joice, Mrs. A. Dubbs, and Mrs. O. C. Wheeler; Trustees: Charles Gilmore, D. L. Ross, and S. Franklin. It originally occupied the building on the corner of Second and Folsom streets, owned by Mr. H. W. Halleck, whence they removed the children in March, 1854, to the present building, just then completed at a cost of $30,000. This house, built of stone and brick, expressly for the purpose, is highly creditable to the institution, and one of the noblest monuments of San Francisco benevolence. During the year 1862-'63, a large and convenient addition was made to the present building, at an expense of $30,000, which, together with the main building, will accommodate 250 children. As a compliment to the Sansom Hook & Ladder Co., who, upon disbanding, donated to the Asylum the building and lot owned by them, the new addition is called the "Sansom Wing." The number of children under the care of the asylum is 131, of which 84 are boys and 47 girls.
