

The LICK HOUSE was opened to the public, in 1862, by Messrs. Tubbs & Patten, who continued as proprietors up to 1863, at which time the House passed into the hands of Mr. S. Alstrom, Mr. G. J. Johnson, and Mr. John M. Lawler, under the name and style of S. Alstrom & Co. Subsequently, and during the same year, Mr. Lawler retired from the firm, and the proprietorship of the premises devolved on Mr. Alstrom and Mr. Johnson, under the name and style as set forth in their card on the preceding page. This magnificent and palatial edifice was built with a view to all the modern applications and arrangements belonging to a first class hotel, is of fire-proof construction, and contains one hundred and eighty elegantly furnished, airy, and spacious apartments, including bathing and billiard rooms, also reading rooms, in which files are kept of all the leading newspapers and journals published in both the Pacific and Atlantic States.

The table is supplied at all times with every delicacy the market affords, and no pains or expense are spared calculated to render comfort and convenience to their guests. Taken altogether, this House has proved, under the able management of its proprietors, a success in every sense of the word.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS. — This popular watering place is pleasantly situated in Napa Valley, about eighteen miles from Napa City, and eight miles this side of Calistoga Springs. The Sulphur Springs is fast becoming a favorite resort not only for pleasure seekers, but also for those who would while away a few days, weeks, or months, in agreeable and pleasing recreations, free from the dust, care, and bustle incident to city life. Those who have not frequented the place recently will be surprised on their next visit at seeing the extensive improvements, consisting in part of the most elaborate arrangements and artistic adornments in both the buildings and grounds; also of the excellent provisions made in the culinary department of the establishment.

Mr. S. Alstrom, now sole proprietor of the premises, designs making it more than ever, a resort worthy the attention and patronage of the public, and will spare no pains or expense in furthering that object. We can assure those who wish to spend a short period in pastime and recreation, that there is no place to be found on this coast that offers inducements so favorable as the White Sulphur Springs.
