

perfection with a choice assortment of Blank Book and Stationery Merchandise. Of Stationery may be found a fancy or staple article, and of every shade, variety, and quality, suitable for either the Banker, Lawyer, or Accountant. Of Blank Books may be found every kind in general use (those of odd and difficult patterns made to order), from the metallic memorandum book up to the full sized, full bound ledger, including blank books for Banks, Associations, Insurance, &c., in short, for use in every department of trade, commerce, and manufactures.

In addition to the foregoing, and among their stock may be found a thousand and one different commodities, a detailed account of which would by far exceed our space. We can only notice a few of the leading articles, and for a more comprehensive list refer you to their advertisement on the accompanying pages. Prominent among their specialities we would mention their Cutlery, from celebrated English and American manufactures; also Twines of various material, and of English and American make; Letter, Copying, and Seal Presses; Arnold's, Maynard & Noyes', and other celebrated Inks; Joseph Gillott's and other celebrated Steel Pens; Playing and Printers' Cards, &c., to all of which we would add, last but not least, their Steam Job Printing, Book Binding, and Paper Ruling Department, making in the whole one of the most perfectly conducted and systematically arranged establishments of the kind, to be found on the Pacific Coast.

In conclusion, permit us on behalf of Messrs. Wm. B. Cooke & Co., to invite you, one and all, whether jobbers or dealers, families or children, ladies or gentlemen, to call at their elegant and spacious establishment and inspect their goods, with the assurance that you will be courteously received, and polite and gentlemanly attendants will await your pleasure.
