

SEPT. 12. The Sierra Nevada arrived from the north with a number of passengers, among whom was Hon. J. M. Ashley, Member of Congress, a large quantity of Oregon produce, and treasure amounting to $480,759.

SEPT. 13. The Del Norte arrived from the north with $8,000 in treasure.

SEPT. 15. The Mexican residents of San Francisco celebrated the fifty-sixth anniversary of Mexican Independence, in spirited style.

SEPT. 19. The Sonora arrived from Panama with six hundred and twenty-six troops belonging to the Second Artillery, U. S. Army.

SEPT. 21. A fire broke out about one o'clock, A.M., in a saloon on Montgomery Street between Clay and Merchant. Damage slight.

SEPT. 22. A fire broke out about seven o'clock, P.M., on the corner of Mason and Chestnut streets. North Beach, occupied as a whisky distillery and petroleum refinery, which was destroyed together with a dwelling-house in the rear. Loss $12,000.

SEPT. 23. The body of a sailor named William Green was found floating in the bay, under one of the city wharfs.

SEPT. 23. A fire broke out about seven o'clock, P.M., in a frame building on Washington Alley, destroying property amounting to about $250.

SEPT. 25. Ground was broken on Sutter Street below Montgomery, for the track of the Front Street, Mission, and Ocean Railroad.

SEPT. 26. The body of a dead soldier named Sullivan was found lying on the road between the city and the Presidio....The first regular rain of the season fell to-day.

SEPT. 27. Cooke performed the promised feat of walking the rope at the Cliff House.

SEPT. 28. The remains of Samuel Woodworth, author of "The Old Oaken Bucket," arrived on the ship Orpheus, for interment with the family dead....The Sierra Nevada arrived from the North with treasure amounting to $498,772.

SEPT. 29. A fire about 1 o'clock, P.M., at the corner of Howard and Third streets; damage slight.

OCTOBER 1. An affray took place at the Wil-lows, in which Frank Riley, the proprietor of the saloon, was severely wounded by a pistol shot....Cooke performed his rope-walking feat for the second time, before a large crowd, at the Cliff House.

OCT. 2. The Del Norte arrived with numerous passengers, and the remains of Mrs. Gen. Wright and other victims of the Brother Jonathan disaster.

OCT. 3. The Constitution left for Panama with treasure amounting to $1,141,822.

OCT. 5. The military funeral of Lieut. E. D. Waite, aide-de-camp to Gen. Wright, who perished with the wreck of the Brother Jonathan, took place to-day....A meeting of the Fenians, numbering over five thousand, took place at Union Hall in the evening.

OCT. 6. The Orizaba arrived from the North with treasure amounting to $277,565....The new screw steamer California arrived from New York, through the Straits of Magellan.

OCT. 8. Two severe earthquake shocks occurred at fifteen minutes to 1 o'clock, P.M., throwing down and badly shattering walls of buildings, breaking windows and fragile wares, and doing a large amount of damage. As a large proportion of the people were in attendance at church, no personal injury resulted from this disaster, which extended to a considerable distance in the interior, serious damage having been done to brick buildings in Santa Cruz, San José, and other towns.

OCT. 9. Two distinct earthquake shocks were felt between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning, causing no damage, however.

OCT. 11. A fire occurred at Black Point, between 2 and 3 o'clock, P.M., destroying the stables of Alpheus Bull.

OCT. 12. The Del Norte arrived from the North with numerous passengers and treasure amounting to $3,000. The remains of Gen. Wright and other parties lost on the Brother Jonathan were brought down by the steamer.

OCT. 13. As the steamer Yosemite was leaving the wharf at Rio Vista, on the downward trip, her starboard boiler exploded, blowing off the entire forward portion of the boat, and killing and wounding a large number of passengers. The unfortunate affair cast a universal gloom over the city.

OCT. 15. The Sierra Nevada arrived from the North with treasure amounting to $331,000.

OCT. 16. Gen. Rosecrans returned from his tour among the mines of Nevada, on his way East.

OCT. 17. A difficulty occurred on Kearny Street, between A. G. Hargrove and Peter Campbell, in which the latter shot the former, killing him instantly.

OCT. 18. The Golden City left for Panama with treasure amounting to $1,661,565.29....The Judicial election passed off quietly.

OCT. 20. Mrs. Bridget Baldwin, a respectable widow lady, laboring under depression from unfortunate mining investments, committed suicide.

OCT. 21. The funeral of Gen. Wright and wife took place to-day at Calvary Church. The military escorted the remains to the steamer, by which they were conveyed to their last resting-place, at Sacramento.

OCT. 25. Robert H. Parker, one of the earliest pioneers of California, and well known from his connection with the Parker House in 1849, died at San Diego, on his way from Lower California.

OCT. 26. A fire broke out at 6 o'clock, P.M., on Kearny Street, near California; before the flames were arrested the interior was thoroughly burned out.

OCT. 27. The Orizaba and Del Norte arrived from the North, the former bringing treasure amounting to $332,330.

OCT. 29. The funerals of John S. Benton, one of the officers of the Brother Jonathan, and Charles H. Belden, clerk in the Paymaster's office, victims of the wreck of that steamer, took place to-day.

OCT. 30. The Colorado left for Panama with treasure amounting to $1,141,822.84.

NOVEMBER 1. Amount collected in Police Court for month of October, $2,772.10....The Sierra Nevada arrived from Portland with treasure amounting to $293,000....The Internal Revenue receipts in this city for October were $704,000....A Frenchman named DeKerguidu, committed suicide by taking laudanum, at the California Hotel.

NOV. 4. The California Steam Navigation Co.'s new steamer "Capital" was successfully launched at Hunter's Point....Information received of removal of Collector James, and appointment of J. F. Miller his successor.

NOV. 5. Michael Hynes shot and instantly killed Thomas F. Hayes in Pollard Place....A young man named Slocumb was thrown from a horse and instantly killed, corner Bush Street and Van Ness Avenue....A fire, corner Washington and Davis streets, destroyed property to the value of $3,000.

NOV. 6. Collector Miller filed his official bonds, in the sum of $100,000....The U. S. steamer Suwanee returned from an unsuccessful search after the pirate Shenandoah.

NOV. 8. One of the cars of the Omnibus Railroad was completely demolished at the corner of Montgomery and Bush streets, by a runaway team, injuring several passengers.

NOV. 9. An Italian fishing-boat was run down on the bay, by the Oakland boat, and a man named Tomlinson killed.

NOV. 10. Wm. D. Palmer, a truckman at National Mills, committed suicide with a pistol, at his room, cor Fremont and Folsom streets....Stm Sacramento sailed for Panama, with $1,367,917.48 in treasure.