

To the Resident Physician of the City and County Hospital, two hundred dollars per month, in full compensation for all duties as such, and also for his attendance on the Small-Pox Hospital, County Jail, and City Prison.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 1.]

To the Visiting Physician and Surgeon of the County Hospital, one hundred dollars per month.—[Act April 27, 1860.]

The several officers named in this act, who are entitled to charge and collect, or receive any fees, commissions, per centages, or other compensation, of whatever nature or kind, allowed by law for services rendered by them or their Deputies, in their several official capacities, or for the performance of duties appertaining to said offices, shall collect and safely keep the same, and on each Monday they shall pay the total amount by them received to the Treasurer of said city and county, who shall set apart the same as a Special Fee Fund, for the payment of the respective salaries of the several officers entitled to charge and collect fees, commissions, or other compensation. And the salaries of all other officers shall be paid out of the General Fund; provided, that the Assessor, so far as relates to the collection of poll tax, and the City and County Surveyor, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. It shall be, and is hereby made, the duty of all such officers who are entitled to charge and collect or receive fees, commissions, or other compensation for their official services, to keep a book or books, in which shall be entered by items the amount received for all official services performed by them or their Deputies, showing the date and nature of such services, and the amount received therefor, which book or books shall, at all office hours, be open to the inspection of the Board of Supervisors or any citizen; and each of said officers shall, at the expiration of each month, make out and verify by oath, and file with the Auditor, a full and accurate transcript, from his said book or books, of the entries for the preceding month.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 2.] It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of said city and county to receive, receipt for, and safely keep all moneys paid over to him under the provisions of this act, and to make up, on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and quarterly thereafter, an accurate statement of said Special Fee Fund, showing the actual condition of the same up to such time, when, if any balance remain in said fund, after satisfying all demands payable out of the same, the Treasurer shall transfer such balance to the General Fund; but should such Special Fee Fund be insufficient to satisfy all of the demands payable therefrom, then the Treasurer shall, at the request of the holder, register such unpaid demands against, and pay the same in their order of registration out of the General Fund, as in other cases.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 3.] All demands upon the treasury, allowed by this Act, shall, before they are authorized to be paid, be duly audited, as in other cases of demands lawfully payable out of the treasury. The several salaries named shall be payable monthly by the Treasurer upon the audit of the County Auditor, who is hereby directed to audit the salaries herein provided for.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 4.] The Board of Supervisors may, from time to time, authorize the appointment of such additional Deputies, for any of the various city and county offices, and for such period of time as in their judgment may be necessary for the proper and faithful discharge of the duties of such office. Deputies appointed under the provisions of this section, shall receive not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars per month, each; but in no case shall the aggregate pay of such Deputies exceed three thousand dollars per annum.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 5.] The fees receivable by the several officers named in this act, shall be payable in advance.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 6.] It shall be the duty of the Sheriff to bestow the advertising of his office on either of the three daily papers having the largest circulation in the county, who will do the same at the lowest rates. He shall, every six months, publish three successive times in one or more daily papers published in the County of San Francisco, for such bids, and the daily paper offering to do the work at the lowest price shall be awarded the contract for such advertising; provided, it be one of the three papers having the largest circulation, and the proprietors or Chief Clerk of said papers are hereby required to verify, under oath, the amount of their circulation; and, provided, also, that no bids so made shall exceed seventy-five cents for one square of three hundred ems for the first insertion, and fifteen cents for each subsequent insertion. Should the proprietors of the aforesaid papers decline to do said advertising at the prices as aforesaid, then the Sheriff shall advertise and give the same to the daily papers published in the English language offering the most favorable terms for doing such advertising.—[Amendment March 1, 1864.] For a willful neglect, or refusal to comply with any of the provisions of this act, by any officer or officers herein named, he or they shall be deemed guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, in the Court of Sessions, be subject to a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars, and a forfeiture of office, or to imprisonment in the State Prison not less than one nor more than three years, or to both such fine and imprisonment; provided, that nothing herein shall be held to release such officer from the obligation to give the official bond required by law, or from any civil responsibility arising from his official duties.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 8.] All requisitions for books, blanks, and stationery, for any of the offices named in this act, shall be made by such officers respectively, upon the Board of Supervisors, stating the amount and description thereof, and that the same are essential and necessary for the
