SUPPLEMENTAL VIII.—An Act to confer further Powers upon the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco.—Approved April 27, 1863.

SECTION 1. The Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco shall have power, by regulation or order :

First. To license and regulate all such callings, trades, and employments, as the public good may require to be licensed and regulated, and as are not prohibited by law. And all licenses granted in pursuance of the provisions of this act, or the powers therein delegated, shall be signed by the Auditor of said city and county.

Second. To authorize the Auditor of said city and county to deliver, from time to time, to either the Treasurer or to the License Collector, as many of such licenses as may be required, and to sign the same, and charge them to the officer receiving them, specifying in the charge the business and amounts named in the licenses and class of licenses.

Third. To regulate and compel the payment to the County Treasurer, of all moneys received by any License Collector or Deputy License Collector ; and to fix the amount of the bonds to be required from such License Collector or Deputy.

Fourth. To appoint, instead of the present License Collectors, one person as Collector of Licenses, whose salary shall not exceed one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month, and two persons as Deputy Collectors of Licenses, whose salaries shall not exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each, the amount of each such salary to be fixed by the said Board of Supervisors ; which said Collector of Licenses and Deputy Collectors of Licenses shall have and exercise the same powers as Police Officers in serving process or summons and in making arrests ; also, shall have and exercise the power to administer such oaths and affirmations as shall be necessary in the discharge and execution of their official duties. The said Board of Supervisors shall have power to make all needful rules and by-laws regulating the official conduct or duty of said persons who shall be appointed Collector of Licenses and Deputy Collectors of Licenses, and alter or amend the same from time to time, in such manner as they may deem proper.—[Act April 27, 1863.]

To license and regulate hackney coaches, and other public passenger vehicles, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, and property, or either, therein ; and to license and regulate all vehicles used for the conveyance of merchandise, earth, and ballast, or either ; and also, to license and regulate persons and parties employed in conveying baggage, property, and merchandise, or either, to or from any of the wharfs, slips, bulkheads, or railroad stations within the limits of the City and County of San Francisco ; to appoint and license one Collector, in addition to the two now authorized by law, [amended, see preceding section] at a salary not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, which License Collector, and also those now authorized by law to be appointed, shall each have and exercise the same powers as Police Officers in serving process of summons and making arrest ; to fix and establish
