

and fire engines now in possession of the city shall be used in such manner and under such regulations as the Board of Commissioners, with the approval of the Board of Supervisors, shall direct until such steam fire engines shall have been purchased to the number of six.

SEC. 11. Any person who may have been an active fireman in the Fire Department of said city and county for three years and six months immediately preceding the time when this Act shall take effect, shall be entitled to enjoy all the privileges and immunities now enjoyed by exempt firemen in said city and county, under the existing laws of this State. Any such person shall, upon application and proper proof of such service, receive a certificate to that effect from the person or persons now issuing such certificates, and in the same form as exempt firemen in said city and county are now entitled to receive such certificate.

SEC. 12. This Act shall take effect immediately, so that the Paid Fire Department herein provided for and established may be fully organized prior to the first Monday of December next, at which time, and not before, except in the contingency provided for in section seven of this Act, said Paid Fire Department shall go into full operation and supersede the present organization of the Fire Department, and thereupon the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the Fire Department of the City and County of San Francisco," approved March twenty-five, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and all Acts supplementary or amendatory thereof, shall be repealed; and until the said first Monday of December, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, the present Fire Department of said city and county shall continue under the present laws and organization, except as in this Act excepted: provided, the salaries of the Chief and Assistant Engineers, and the Secretary, shall be paid until December fifteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, on condition that they continue faithfully to perform such duties, and none others, as may be required of them by the Board of Supervisors in protecting the property of the Fire Department, and in establishing and carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.—[Amended April 2, 1866.]

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

To Chief of Police, four thousand dollars per annum.

To four Captains of Police, one hundred and fifty dollars per month, each.

To Policemen, not exceeding one hundred, the number to be determined from time to time by order of the Board of Supervisors, one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, each.—[Act April 4, 1864]; provided, that one of the same detailed for Clerk in the office of the Chief of Police, to be appointed by him, shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars per month.

To the Resident Physician of the City and County Hospital, two hundred dollars per month, in full compensation for all duties as such, and also for his attendance on the Small-Pox Hospital, County Jail, and City Prison.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 1.]

To the Visiting Physician and Surgeon of the County Hospital, one hundred dollars per month, each.—[Act April 27, 1860.]

The several officers named in this Act, who are entitled to charge and collect, or receive any fees, commissions, per centages, or other compensation, of whatever nature or kind, allowed by law for services rendered by them or their Deputies, in their several official capacities, or for the performance of duties appertaining to said offices, shall collect and safely keep the same, and on each Monday they shall pay the total amount by them received to the Treasurer of said city and county, who shall set apart the same as a Special Fee Fund, for the payment of the respective salaries of the several officers entitled to charge and collect fees, commissions, or other compensation. And the salaries of all other officers shall be paid out of the General Fund; provided, that the Assessor, so far as relates to the collection of poll tax, and the City and County Surveyor, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. It shall be, and is hereby made, the duty of all such officers who are entitled to charge and collect or receive fees, commissions, or other compensation for their official services, to keep a book or books, in which shall be entered by items the amount received for all official services performed by them or their Deputies, showing the date and nature of such services, and the amount received therefor, which book or books shall, at all office hours, be open to the inspection of the Board of Supervisors or any citizen; and each of said officers shall, at the expiration of each month, make out and verify by oath, and file with the Auditor, a full and accurate transcript, from his said book or books, of the entries for the preceding month.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 2.] It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of said city and county to receive, receipt for, and safely keep all moneys paid over to him under the provisions of this Act, and to make up, on the first day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and quarterly thereafter, an accurate statement of said Special Fee Fund, showing the actual condition of the same up to such time, when, if any balance remain in said fund, after satisfying all demands payable out of the same, the Treasurer shall transfer such balance to the General Fund; but should such Special Fee Fund be insufficient to satisfy all of the demands payable therefrom, then the Treasurer shall, at the request of the holder, register such unpaid demands against, and pay the same in their order of registration out of the General Fund, as in other cases.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 3.] All demands upon the treasury, allowed by this
