SUPPLEMENTAL XII.—An Act to authorize the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco to regulate and license Intelligence Offices in said City and County.—Approved May 17, 1861.

SECTION 1. The Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco are hereby authorized to direct the Auditor of said city and county to issue licenses to so many and to such persons as they shall deem properly qualified to keep intelligence offices in said city and county.

SEC. 2. Each license shall designate the house in which the person or persons licensed shall keep his or their office, and said license shall be paid for quarterly, in advance, and shall continue and be in force during the current quarter and no longer, unless revoked by order of the Board of Supervisors.

SEC. 3. Every person so licensed, under and by virtue of the provisions of this Act, shall pay to the Treasurer of said city and county the sum of fifty dollars per quarter, one-half for the use of said city and county, and the other half for State purposes.

SEC. 4. Each and every keeper of an intelligence office, licensed under the provisions of this Act, shall keep his books in the English language, and, on the receipt of any money from any person applying for a situation, or other intelligence, for which fees are demanded, shall furnish to the said applicant a statement in writing of the amount received, on what account received, and what the intelligence office keeper agrees to do for and on account of said payment, with the date thereof, and to be signed by the said intelligence office keeper with his signature.

SEC. 5. Any person violating the provisions of this Act, or keeping an intelligence office within the limits of said city and county, without being duly licensed, or after the same shall have been revoked by order of the Board of Supervisors of said city and county, or at any other house or place than is designated in such license, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the County Jail for not less than twenty days nor more than three months.

SEC. 6. Any person who shall obtain information or employment from an intelligence office keeper, and who shall communicate the same to another person, or send another person in his or her stead, with intent fraudulently to obtain the return of the money paid for such information, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

To expend a sum not to exceed four thousand dollars, payable out of the General Fund, for constructing a new bridge over Mission Creek at Brannan street.—[Act February 14, 1866.]

To allow and order paid out of the General Fund, for the fiscal year of eighteen hundred and sixty and eighteen hundred and sixty-one, not exceeding the sum of ten hundred dollars, for compiling and publishing the laws and ordinances relating to the City and County of San Francisco; and for any fiscal year thereafter a further sum, not exceeding three hundred dollars, for the same purpose.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 3.]
