

First. To proceed with and anchor his vessel at the place assigned for quarantine, when legally directed so to do; or,

Second. To submit his vessel, cargo, and passengers, to the examination of the Quarantine Officer, and to furnish all necessary information to enable that officer to determine to what length of quarantine and other regulations they ought respectively to be subject, or neglect to report all cases of disease mentioned in this Act, and all cases of death occurring on his vessel, and to comply with all the sanitary regulations of said bay and harbor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 10. All vessels arriving off the harbor of San Francisco, from ports which have been legally declared infected ports, and all vessels arriving from ports where there shall be prevailing at the time of their departure, any contagious, infectious, or pestilential diseases, (especially small-pox, Asiatic cholera, or yellow fever) or vessels with decaying cargoes, or which have unusually foul and offensive holds, shall be subject to quarantine; and it shall be the duty of the master, owner, pilot, or consignee, to report any and all such vessel or vessels to the Quarantine Officer without delay. No such vessel shall cross a right line drawn from Black Point to Alcatrazes Island, till the Quarantine Officer shall have boarded her and given the order required by law, except some other line may be hereafter fixed by the Board of Health, and approved by the Governor.

SEC. 11. It shall be the duty of the Health Officer to aid in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and also to perform such other duties as now are or hereafter may be required of him by the Board of Supervisors not inconsistent with any provisions of law.

SEC. 12. The Board of Health shall establish the rates of fees which shall be charged vessels in pursuance of this Act, which shall not exceed fees for similar services allowed in New York, and the Quarantine Officer shall collect the same, and pay them weekly into the city treasury, to the credit of the General Fund; and he may be allowed for his services as Quarantine Officer, one hundred dollars per month, by the Board of Supervisors, and such necessary expenses as he may incur in the discharge of his duties, after the same shall have been approved by the Board of Health, to be paid out of said General Fund; provided, he collect so much for fees; but in no case shall he receive more in any one month than he collects during said month.

SEC. 13. The Board of Health may appoint a Clerk, and the Supervisors may order paid, the Auditor audit, and the Treasurer pay, twenty-five dollars per month from the General Fund; the Auditor shall audit, and the Treasurer pay, all other sums allowed under this Act out of said General Fund.

SUPPLEMENTAL XXIV.—An Act respecting the Police Court of the City and County of San Francisco.
Approved December 9, 1865.

SECTION 1. Any Justice of the Peace of the City and County of San Francisco, who may be designated in writing by the Mayor, or President of the Board of Supervisors, for the purpose, shall have power to preside in and hold the Police Judge's Court of said city and county, in case of the temporary absence of the Police Judge, or his inability to act from any cause; and during such temporary absence, or disability, the Justice so designated shall act as Police Judge, and shall have and exercise all the powers, jurisdiction and authority, which are or may be by law conferred upon such court or judge.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the office of Police Judge, the Board of Supervisors of said city and county shall have power to appoint some suitable person, who is a resident and legal voter thereof, to fill the vacancy, who shall take the constitutional oath of office and enter upon his duties immediately. The person so appointed shall hold office until a Police Judge shall be elected at the next judicial election, and qualified according to law.
