The building was constructed by a society of Baptists, and at the date above given was disposed of to the present owners. It has a ground base of fifty by one hundred feet, is a very beautiful and massive brick structure, and with its basement, which is intended for school rooms connected with the church, has a capacity of comfortably seating seven hundred persons.

Mission Dolores.

Rev. THOMAS CUSHING, Pastor; Rev. Father Delmas, Assistant. Services at 8 and 10½ o'clock, A.M., on Sundays and Festivals. This adobe church is located on the southwest corner of Sixteenth and Dolores street; was dedicated on the ninth of October, 1776, although projected in 1769, by Father Junipero Serra, the Father of the California Missions. The first Friar who had charge was Francisco Palou, who was assisted in his labors by Benito Cambon. At the organization of this Mission, and for its protection, there were fifteen soldiers located at the Presidio, under the command of S. Flores. A cemetery is attached to the church, in which the first interment was made in September, 1776. The first Indian convert was baptized on the twenty-seventh December, in the same year. In the introductory portion of the San Francisco Directory for 1862, page 5, will be found further details connected with the history of this Mission. Attached to this church is a large day school.

St. Joseph's Church.

Rev. H. P. GALLAGHER, Pastor; residence, next door to the church. Location, Tenth Street, between Folsom and Howard. Services on Sundays and Festival days. St. Joseph's Church was opened for divine service on the eighth day of December, 1861. The building is a neat and substantial one-story frame, sixty feet long by thirty-seven feet wide, and stands on the one hundred-vara lot donated by Horace Hawes, Esq., for the future Cathedral of the Arch Diocese. The fore-mentioned building, removed back for a school, has been replaced by a new edifice, over thrice the size of the above. It is cruciform gothic, and elegantly finished. The new building is designed to be, as nearly as possible, earthquake and panic proof, the ceiling being done in finely finished wood, and the large entrance door to slide on rollers. During the past year two side galleries and a transit pave have been added to the church.

St. Rose's Church.

Pastor—(Vacant). Attended from the Cathedral. Location, Bryant Street. Mass: Sundays, at 8 o'clock, A.M. St. Rose's Church was dedicated on the Festival of Pentecost, June 8th, 1862.
