

JUNE 22. The P. M. Steamship Golden Age sailed for Panama with $527,383.07 treasure....A fire broke out about 6 P.M., at 24 California Street; loss estimated at $30,000....The bodies of William Bannister and James Riley were found on the beach on Goat Island.

JUNE 23. Thomas Hill, a prominent member of the Board of Stockbrokers, and formerly Secretary of the California Senate, died, aged 41 years....Hubert Outerbridge was convicted, in the United States Circuit Court, of murder on the high seas.

JUNE 24. A fire broke out at 5 P.M., corner of Gough and Eddy Streets, destroying a two-story frame building.

JUNE 25. Benjamin Mitchell, aged 49 years, was found dead in a house on Spear Street....A fire broke out at 4 A.M., in the Eureka House, No. 335 Pine Street; loss slight.

JUNE 26. A fire occurred at 5 P.M., on Broadway, between Kearny and Dupont Streets; loss about $600.

JUNE 29. At 2 A.M., two small frame buildings on Green Street, near Taylor, were destroyed by fire; loss about $2,000....Mrs. Ellen C. Dix committed suicide at No. 509 Dupont Street, by shooting herself through the heart with a pistol....A man named Charles Gillingham committed suicide at the Golden Gate Hotel, by taking an overdose of morphine.

JUNE 30. The P. M. Steamship Sacramento sailed for Panama with $470,667.16 treasure.

JULY 1. A fire broke out at 5 A.M., on the southwest corner of Sansom and Washington Streets; loss estimated at $6,000....J. P. Pulaski committed suicide at the Oregon House on Commercial Street by taking morphine....The body of Oloff Mattson, aged 9 years, was found in the bay near pier No. 2 Stewart Street.

JULY 4. The national anniversary was celebrated with a grand civic and military parade, and literary exercises at Platt's Hall....An appalling accident occurred about 4 P.M., at the terminus of the Oakland Railroad, by the breaking down of the suspended gang-plank. Over one hundred people were precipitated into the bay, and fifteen or twenty of the number were drowned.

JULY 6. The P. M. Steamship Montana sailed for Panama with $475,530.39 treasure.

JULY 7. A fire broke out at 11 P.M., on Filbert Street, near Polk, destroying a two-story frame building.

JULY 9. A woman named Annie Aldrich was found dead in her bed at Gailhard's Hotel.

JULY 10. Captain Robert H. Pearson, a pioneer steamship commander of this coast, died, aged 51.

JULY 12. John Lannigan, alias Dublin Jack, was shot and almost instantly killed by Alexander Green, at the corner of Sansom and Pacific Streets....A fire occurred at No. 315 Pacific Street, partially destroying a frame building.

JULY 13. About 4 A.M., a frame building on Carlos Alley, near O'Farrell was totally destroyed by fire. A girl, named Mary Kenny, residing in the house, perished in the flames; and her brother, a lad of 17 years, was severely burned while attempting to rescue her....B. S. Blitz, a pioneer of 1849, and a member of the San Francisco Police Department since 1852, died at Warm Springs.

JULY 14. The P. M. Steamship Constitution sailed for Panama with $814,983.61 treasure.

JULY 17. A fire broke out on Jackson Street, between Kearny and Dupont; loss trifling....The body of a female infant was found at North Beach, near the foot of Mason Street.

JULY 20. A fire broke out at 1 A.M., at No. 5 Jessie Street; loss about $200.

JULY 22. The P. M. Steamship Golden City sailed for Panama with $401,865.35 treasure....Captain Phil Smith, a pioneer Californian, died in the City and County Hospital, aged about 40 years.

JULY 23. A fire broke out at 6 A.M., in the San Francisco Glass Works on Townsend street, destroying property to the amount of $10,000.

JULY 25. Joseph Davis, a native of England, aged 61 years, committed suicide by taking poison.

JULY 30. The P. M. Steamship Golden Age sailed for Panama with $847,624.57 treasure....James C. Hassan, a pioneer of 1849, died, aged 55 years.

AUG. 2. A fire broke out at 3 A.M., No. 21 Ellis Street; loss slight.

AUG. 4. Captain Charles Liscom, a pioneer of 1849, died suddenly at the Russ House, aged 55 years.

AUG. 6. The P. M. steamship Sacramento sailed for Panama with $514,375.51 treasure....A fire broke out at 2 A.M., on Spear Street, near Mission, destroying two frame dwellings....Captain Roland Gelston, a pioneer Californian, died, aged 67 years.

AUG. 8. The Sixth Industrial Exhibition under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute was opened at the Pavilion on Union Square, with appropriate ceremonies.

AUG. 9. A slight shock of earthquake was felt about 10 P.M.

AUG. 10. August Johnson, a native of Prussia, aged 42 years, was found dead in his room on Leidesdorff Street.

AUG. 12. Hiram Pearson, a well known pioneer citizen, died, aged 57 years....Captain Henry S. Brown, a pioneer of 1849, died of apoplexy, aged 63 years.

AUG. 14. The P. M. steamship Montana sailed for Panama with $363,211.01 treasure....A fire broke out at 8 A.M., No. 115 Virginia Street, destroying two frame dwelling houses. Another occurred at 3½ P.M., destroying a hair mattress factory on Islais Bay bridge.

AUG. 16. The body of a male child about two months old was found buried in the sand in Yerba Buena Cemetery.

AUG. 18. A fire broke out at No. 327 Mission Street, partially destroying two frame buildings....The body of August Rochart was found in the bay near Folsom Street Wharf....The corner stone of the new Hall of the Order of Red Men, on Bush Street between Stockton and Dupont, was laid with solemn and impressive ceremonies.

AUG. 19. The body of a Frenchman, known by the name of Frank, was found hanging by the neck in his room on Pacific Street.

AUG. 20. A man named Robinson, a native of New York, dropped dead while at work on a farm on the San Bruno Road, near St. Mary's College....The body of a German named Miller was found under a house on Francisco Street, between Powell and Mason.

AUG. 22. The P. M. steamship Constitution sailed for Panama with $414,747.93 treasure.

AUG. 24. A slight shock of earthquake was felt about 11½ A.M.

AUG. 25. A woman named Mary Heidenger, boarding at the Tremont House, while in a fit of insanity, killed her son aged eighteen months, by cutting his throat with a razor, and immediately after cut her own, inflicting a mortal wound.

AUG. 26. The body of an unknown man was found floating in the bay near Pleasant Rock.

AUG. 28.—A shock of earthquake was felt about 1 A.M....The body of an unknown man was found floating in the bay near North Point.

AUG. 29. The P. M. steamship Colorado sailed for Panama with $34 904.52 treasure.

AUG. 30. At 1 A.M., Irving's soap factory on the Potrero, was destroyed by fire; loss estimated at about $5,000....Chung Lock, a well known and highly respected Chinese merchant, died, aged 53 years.