

four thousand dollars per annum, which salary shall be in full for all services required of him and for all contingent expenses of his office, except necessary books; and he shall devote his whole time, during office hours, to the business of his office, and shall keep his office open to the public during the same hours provided by law for the City and County Auditor. To assist him in making his assessments, he shall be allowed the following deputies, for the office: one Chief Deputy, five office Deputies, and one Draughtsman; for the Field, one Chief Deputy and fourteen Under Deputies. Four of the office Deputies shall be paid at the rate of one hundred and fifty dollars per month, each, and shall be employed and paid only from the first day of February until the assessment roll is finally completed and handed over to the Auditor, and only for such time as they shall be actually employed in the discharge of their duties. The fourteen Under-Field-Deputies shall be paid at the rate of one hundred and fifty dollars per month, each. The term for which such Field-Deputies shall be paid, shall not exceed an average of three months each. The Chief-Office-Deputy, Chief-Field-Deputy, Under-Office-Deputy, and Draughtsman, may be employed the entire year, and shall be paid as follows: the Chief-Deputies two hundred dollars per month, each; the Under-Office-Deputy and Draughtsman, one hundred and fifty dollars per month, each.—[Amendment February 8, 1868.]

SUPPLEMENTAL II.—An Act relating to the Board of Supervisors, and more particularly defining its powers and duties.—Approved March 30, 1868.

SECTION 1. Each member of the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco, excepting the Mayor, ex-officio President of said Board, shall, after the passage of this Act, be allowed a salary, during the time he is in office, of one hundred dollars per month; and the Auditor of said city and county is hereby directed to audit, and the Treasurer to pay, such salaries monthly out of the General Fund.

SEC. 2. The votes of seven members constituting the Board of Supervisors shall be necessary to pass any ordinance, order or resolution; but in the event of a veto by the Mayor, then nine votes shall be necessary to pass any ordinance, order or resolution over such veto; otherwise such ordinance, order or resolution shall be of no validity.

SEC. 3. If a member of said Board of Supervisors shall hereafter absent himself from the State, or shall neglect to attend the meetings of said Board, for the period of ninety days, his office may be declared vacant by the Board, and a successor may be appointed* for the unexpired term, as provided in other cases.

SEC. 4. This Act shall be construed so as to harmonize with existing laws in regard to the powers and duties of said Board of Supervisors; and all such laws shall continue in full force except so far as they may be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act; and only so far as they are inconsistent or in conflict with this Act, they are hereby repealed.

To the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, two hundred dollars per month.—[Amendment April 4, 1863.] And in addition to this salary, the compensation allowed by law to the Clerk of the Board of Equalization for official services relating to the collection of Poll Taxes. He shall also be entitled to receive from the parties at whose instance the service may be performed, (the city and county excepted) twenty-five cents for administering an oath, twenty-five cents per folio of one hundred words for writing out affidavits, and sixteen cents per folio for certified copies of any records, papers or documents in his custody.*

The Clerk of the Board of Supervisors has authority to appoint a Deputy or Assistant Clerk, to be approved by said Board, whose salary shall be fixed by the said Board at a sum not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, [Act March 14, 1868,] payable out of the General Fund; said Deputy, when required by the Board, to act as Sergeant-at-Arms at its meetings without additional compensation therefor.—[Act February 14, 1866.]

To three Porters,† not to exceed seventy-five dollars each per month.—[Act April 4, 1864.]

To the Auditor, four thousand dollars per annum.

To one Clerk of Auditor, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.—[Amendment April 2, 1866.]

To the Tax Collector, four thousand dollars per annum.‡ The Tax Collector shall be allowed, one Chief-Deputy and one Cash-Deputy, each at a monthly salary of two hundred dollars; three General-Deputies, each at a monthly salary of one hundred and fifty dollars; also, extra Clerks, at salaries at the rate of one hundred and fifty dollars per month each for the time actually employed; provided, said Tax Collector shall not be allowed exceeding twelve thousand dollars for salaries of all such Deputies and Clerks during any one fiscal year. The Clerks herein
