

MARCH 2. Angello Azgopardi was fatally stabbed by his partner named Louis....The dead body of an infant was found under the sidewalk on Brannan Street.

MARCH 3. Thomas McAlpin, a pioneer Californian, died, aged 52 years.

MARCH 4. Inauguration day was celebrated by the firing of cannon and a liberal display of flags.

MARCH 5. The P. M. S. S. China sailed for China.

MARCH 6. Francis A. Bartlett, a pioneer Californian, died, aged 44 years.

MARCH 8. A fire, 1 A.M., corner of Washington and Hyde streets; damage trifling.

MARCH 10. Maurice Walsh was shot and killed by William Voll....The P. M. S. S. Golden City sailed for Panama with $1,109,118.85 in treasure.

MARCH 12. A fire, 1 A.M., 228 Clara Street, destroyed two frame buildings....Joseph L. Josephson was run over and fatally injured by a truck.

MARCH 14. A fire, 9 A.M., Ellis Street near Jones, destroyed a frame building.

MARCH 15. A fire, 1 1/2 A.M., 22 Geary Street; damage slight....William Oregon Smith and Thomas Savage were sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the State Prison for the murder of Commander John G. Mitchell.

MARCH 16. Mrs. B. F. Moses committed suicide by taking poison...An explosion of powder occurred on board the steamer Chrysolis while a salute was being fired, severely injuring several members of the Emmett Guard of Sacramento.

MARCH 17. St. Patrick's day was celebrated by a military and civic parade, and religious exercises in several churches.

MARCH 18. The body of a man was found floating in the bay....The P. M. S. S. Montana sailed for Panama with $681,912.20 in treasure....A soldier, named Andrew Roman, was killed at Alcatraz by the accidental discharge of his musket.

MARCH 21. A fire, 1 A.M., 125 First Street, doing considerable damage.

MARCH 23. George C. Harriman, a well-known citizen, died of heart disease, aged 34 years.

MARCH 24. Henry Haight, a pioneer and respected citizen, died, aged 48 years.

MARCH 25. A fire, 9 A.M., Vulcan Iron Works; damage trifling.

MARCH 26. John B. Gallen committed suicide at St. Mary's Hospital....The ceremonies of the Jewish Passover were commenced in the various synagogues.

MARCH 28. A whale of the species known as the California, was thrown ashore near the Cliff House....A German, named Hetsch, committed suicide in Calvary Cemetery by shooting himself through the heart.

MARCH 30. The P. M. S. S. Colorado sailed for Panama with $857,734.33 in treasure.

APRIL 1. A shock of earthquake occurred at 5 1/4 P.M., lasting about 18 seconds....Robert L. Smith, an Englishman, aged 63 years, was killed by falling over an iron railing.

APRIL 2. The body of an unknown man was found floating in the bay near Folsom Street Wharf.

APRIL 3. The steamer John L. Stephens was seized by the U. S. Marshal for alleged violation of the revenue laws....Lewin and Simon Isaacs, two brothers, had a dispute about money matters, when the former struck the latter, fracturing his skull and causing death.

APRIL 4. J. D. Derrick committed suicide by shooting himself after having shot his wife and a man named Frank Edwards.

APRIL 5. The P. M. S. S. Great Republic sailed for China with $491,237.34 in treasure....News received of the death of Charles S. Fairfax, formerly Speaker of the California Assembly, who died at Baltimore, Md....Alphonse Den, aged 54 years, died suddenly from apoplexy.

APRIL 6. A house on Geary Street, undermined by excavating, fell, killing two men and wounding two others....Madame Olga Von Plittersdorff, a celebrated German actress, committed suicide.

APRIL 7. Charles J. Byrne died suddenly of disease of the heart.

APRIL 8. An immense excursion train left by the San José Railroad, to participate in the celebration of the opening of the Southern Pacific Railroad to Gilroy.

APRIL 9. Ah Kow, a Chinaman sentenced to be hung for the murder of a countryman, hung himself in his cell....The P. M. S. S. Constellation sailed for Panama with $737,738.19 in treasure.

APRIL 10. John Conway, a pioneer and old policeman, died at St. Mary's Hospital, aged 33 years.

APRIL 11. A fire, 3 1/4 P.M., on board the schooner Mary Ellen, Clay Street Wharf; considerable damage to vessel and cargo.

APRIL 12. J. Gellineard, a Frenchman, died suddenly, aged 35 years.

APRIL 14. A fire, 5 A.M., Jackson Street, near Dupont, destroyed several buildings; damage $20,000.

APRIL 15. A boy named Martin was run over by a wagon on Market Street, and seriously injured.

APRIL 17. Catherine Thompson was found dead in her saloon, on Jackson Street, near Drumm....The P. M. S. S. Golden City sailed for Panama with a large list of passengers and $655,539.43 in treasure.

APRIL 18. The U. S. steamer Resaca arrived from Mazatlan with $160,550 in treasure.

APRIL 22. Henry Bockman committed suicide.

APRIL 23. Thomas Sawyer was run over by a hook and ladder truck and seriously injured....Bernard McDonald was fatally injured by a boiler falling on him at the Portland Boiler Works.

APRIL 24. Benjamin F. Moulton, a pioneer citizen, died, aged 51 years.

APRIL 25. John Johnson, aged 30 years, dropped dead in the street.

APRIL 26. The fiftieth anniversary of Odd Fellowship was appropriately observed by the Order throughout the State....Miss Cook died from the effects of arsenic taken to beautify her complexion.

APRIL 29. The body of an unknown man was found floating in the bay.

APRIL 30. The P. M. S. S. Montana sailed for Panama with a large list of passengers and $995,905.56 in treasure.

MAY 2. A German named Eichborn, aged 40 years, committed suicide.

MAY 4. News received of the death of Colonel William G. Wood, a California pioneer, aged 59 years....The P. M. S. S. Japan sailed for China with passengers and $1,333,921.48 in treasure.

MAY 5. Charles Elze, aged 51 years, committed suicide....The anniversary of the victory of the Mexicans over the French, at Pueblo, was celebrated by the Mexican residents.

MAY 6. Mrs. John Patton, aged 50 years, was found dead in her bed.

MAY 8. The celebration in honor of the completion of the Central Pacific Railroad across the continent, took place with civic and military processions, displays, etc....The P. M. S. S. Colorado sailed for Panama with a large number of passengers and $630,116.28 in treasure.

MAY 11. Colonel J. D. Hawks, a well-known citizen and pioneer, died, aged 57 years....E. F. Stewart, an old San Francisco fireman, died in Virginia City, Nevada, aged 33 years.

MAY 12. A fire, 1 A.M., International Hotel; damage trifling.

MAY 13. A fire, 5 A.M., Minna Street; damage slight.