

SUPPLEMENTAL I.—An Act to change the time for holding Municipal Elections in the City and County of San Francisco, and to define the Official Terms of certain Officers therein mentioned.—Approved April 2, 1866.

SECTION 1. There shall be elected hereafter for the City and County of San Francisco, by the qualified electors thereof, at the times hereinafter mentioned, and in the manner prescribed by law for the election of State and County Officers, one Mayor, who shall be ex officio President of the Board of Supervisors; a County Judge,* Police Judge, an Attorney and Counselor, Probate Judge, District Attorney, Sheriff, County Clerk, Recorder, Treasurer, Auditor, Tax-Collector, Assessor, Coroner, Public Administrator, Surveyor, and Superintendent of Common Schools, [the Act of March 30, 1868, authorizes the Boards of Supervisors and Education to elect the Superintendent of Public Schools in joint Convention on the first Monday after the expiration of the term of the present incumbent, and fixes the term at four years] Superintendent of Public Streets, Highways, and Squares, Chief of Police, Harbor Master, and State Harbor Commissioner. There shall be elected in each of the twelve present election districts of said city and county, which shall hereafter constitute municipal districts, and be designated and known in law as wards, by the qualified electors thereof, one Supervisor and one School Director.

SEC. 2. The County Judge, Probate Judge, and Police Judge,* shall be elected at the special judicial election, and shall hold their offices as provided by law.

SEC. 3. All elections for city and county officers, except as provided in section two of this Act, shall be held in said city and county on the days prescribed by law for holding the general elections throughout the State, except in the years when no general election is provided for by law, when elections for city and county officers shall be held on the first Wednesday of September of said years.†

SEC. 4. At the first election held under this Act, on the first Wednesday of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and at the election held every second year thereafter, there shall be elected an Attorney and Counselor for said city and county, an Auditor, a Tax Collector, a Public Administrator, a Superintendent of Public Streets, Highways, and Squares, a Chief of Police, and in each of the First, Third, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, and Eleventh wards, one Supervisor and one School Director, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years from and after the first Monday of December subsequent to their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.‡

SEC. 5. At the second election, held under this Act, on the day of the general election held in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and at the election held every second year thereafter, there shall be elected a Mayor, who shall be ex officio President of the Board of Supervisors, a District Attorney, a Sheriff, a County Clerk, a Recorder, a Treasurer, an Assessor, a Coroner, a Surveyor, a Harbor Master, and in each of the Second, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, and Twelfth wards, one Supervisor and one School Director, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years from and after the first Monday of December subsequent to their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 6. In and for the city and county at large, at the general election in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, and at the general election every two years thereafter, there shall be chosen by the qualified electors of said city and county, five Justices of the Peace, to hold office for the term now prescribed by law; and all laws are repealed which require or authorize Justices to be elected at a special judicial election.

SEC. 7. At the election held under this Act in eighteen hundred and sixty-nine, and at the election held every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected a State Harbor Commissioner† as provided by law, who shall hold his office for the term of four years from and after the first Monday in December subsequent to his election, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 8. All of the present city and county officers as designated in sections four, five, and six of this Act, and the State Harbor Commissioner as designated in section seven, shall continue in office during the entire term for which they were elected, and until their successors are elected and qualified, as provided for in this Act: provided, that any officer elected or appointed to fill a vacancy which may in any manner occur, shall serve only during the unexpired term of his predecessor, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

SEC. 9. It is hereby made the duty of the Mayor to issue his proclamation by publication

* The terms of the County Judge, (See State Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 1) and Probate Judge, (See Act of Legislature, April 20th, 1863, Sec. 43) are four years each, commencing on the first day of January next succeeding their election. The terms of the present incumbents expire January, 1872. The term of the Police Judge, (See Act of Legislature, April 20th, 1863, Sec. 57) is two years, commencing on the first day of January next succeeding his election. The term of the present incumbent expires January, 1869.—COMPILED.

† Except in the year when the Presidential election occurs. When it takes place on the same day, see General Election Law.
