St. Ignatius Church.

Location north side of Market Street between Fourth and Fifth. Served by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus, connected with St. Ignatius' College. The old building, dedicated July 15th, 1855, being found too small for the rapidly increasing congregation, the new hall of the College is at present used as a church, and accommodates about three thousand persons. The present portion of the institution, recently erected, cost about $120,000. Masses: Sundays, at five, forty-five minutes past five, half-past six, fifteen minutes past seven, eight, forty-five minutes past eight, half-past nine, and half-past ten o'clock A. M.; Vespers at half-past seven o'clock P. M.; week days, at five, forty-five minutes past five, half-past six, fifteen minutes past seven, and eight o'clock A. M.

Notre Dame des Victoires.

Location north side of Bush Street between Dupont and Stockton. Rev. HENRI DE CLERC, Pastor; residence 516 Bush Street.

The congregation was organized May, 1856, and its edifice dedicated on the fourth of the same month. The building was constructed by a society of Baptists, and at the date above given was disposed of to the present owners. It has a ground base of fifty by one hundred feet, is a very beautiful and massive brick structure, and with its basement, which is intended for school rooms connected with the church, has a capacity of comfortably seating seven hundred persons.

Services at eight o'clock A. M. every day. Sundays at eight and half-past ten o'clock A. M.; also, Vespers at three o'clock P. M.

Mission Dolores.

Location southwest corner Sixteenth and Dolores streets. Rev. THOMAS CUSHING, Pastor; Rev. William Bowman, Assistant; pastoral residence adjoining the church.

This church was dedicated on the ninth of October, 1776, although projected in 1769, by Father Junipero Serra, the Father of the California Missions. The first Friar who had charge was Francisco Palon, who was assisted in his labors by Benito Cambon. At the organization of this Mission, and for its protection, there were fifteen soldiers located at the Presidio, under the command of S. Flores. A cemetery is attached to the church, in which the first interment was made in September, 1776. The first Indian convert was baptized on the twenty-seventh day of December, in the same year. In the introductory portion of the San Francisco Directory for 1862, page five, will be found further details connected with the history of this Mission. Attached to this church is a large day school.

Services at eight and half-past ten o'clock A. M. on Sundays and Festivals.

St. Joseph's Church.

Location west side of Tenth Street between Folsom and Howard. Rev. H. P. GALLAGHER, Pastor; Rev. Joseph A. Gallagher, Rev. A. Cullen, and Rev. John McNally, Assistants; pastoral residence adjoining the church.

This church was opened for divine service on the eighth day of December, 1861. The building first erected was a neat and substantial one-story frame, sixty feet long by thirty seven feet wide, and stands on the one hundred-vara lot donated by Horace Hawes, Esq., for the future Cathedral of the Arch-Diocese. The forementioned building, removed back for a school, has been replaced by a new edifice, over thrice the size of the above. It is cruciform Gothic, and elegantly finished. The new building is designed to be, as nearly as possible, earthquake and panic proof, the ceiling being done in finely finished wood, and the large entrance door to slide on rollers.

Services on Sundays and Festival days. Masses: Sundays at half past six, eight, nine, and half past ten o'clock A. M.; Catechism at half past nine o'clock A. M., and Vespers at seven o'clock P. M.; Mass, week days at seven and half past seven o'clock A. M.

St. Rose's Church.

Location Brannan Street near Fourth. Pastor (vacant). Attended from St. Ignatius.

This church was dedicated on the Festival of Pentecost, June 8th, 1862. There is connected with the church a school for girls, in charge of the Sisters of St. Dominic, which contained, within one month after its establishment, one hundred and fifty six pupils. There are now about four hundred girls in regular attendance.

Mass, Sundays at eight o'clock A. M.

St. Bridget's Church.

Location southwest corner of Broadway and Van Ness Avenue. Rev. B. M. DOOGAN, O.P., Pastor; Rev. P. Callahan, O.P., Assistant; residence rear of church.

This church was completed and services first held in February, 1864. It is a one-story wooden structure, forty by seventy-six feet, erected upon a valuable lot purchased by Archbishop Alemany, at a cost of $5,000. An addition, at a cost of several thousand dollars, has lately been made to this church, and it is now about twice its former size.

Services are held every Sunday at eight and half past ten o'clock A. M., and seven o'clock P. M.; week days, at seven o'clock A. M.

St. Peter's Church.

Location west side of Columbia Street between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth. Rev. — GIBNEY, Pastor; Rev. William B. O'Connor, Assistant; pastoral residence, east side of Alabama Street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth.

It is the intention of the Pastor to enlarge the Church to accommodate the ever increasing congregation.

Services on Sundays at eight and half past ten o'clock A. M. Sunday School at half past nine o'clock A. M.

Church of the Holy Cross.

Location Calvary Cemetery. Rev. JAMES LARGAN, Pastor; residence north side of Genry Street, between Devisadero and Broderick. Services are held at the usual hours.
