

the Union army at Laurel Hill and adjacent cemeteries.

May 31. The body of N. Lovick is found in the bay.

June 1. Second anniversary of the Knights of Pythias at the City Gardens.

June 2. Captain David Van Pelt, an old steamboat captain, dies, aged fifty-four years.....The body of John Daly is found floating in the bay.....Anniversary of the French Benevolent Society held at Alameda.

June 4. An attempt is made to assassinate Mons. E. Brouil, the French Consul, by E. Guignault, a lunatic.....John McVey and Thomas Martin die suddenly.....Samuel W. McCune commits suicide.

June 5. Arrival of the German sloop-of-war Hertha.

June 6. The news of the nomination of Grant and Wilson is received with enthusiasm.....Henry Rose and Mrs. R. Smith are seriously injured by a blast.....A fire in the St. Lawrence Stables, suffocating five horses; loss, $10,000.

June 7. George Lyon is drowned in Merced Lake.....Laura D. Fair is denied a change of venue.

June 8. Sixth anniversary of the Caledonia Club is held at the City Gardens.....J. H. Mansfield, in a fit of jealousy, fires two shots at Mary Hein, seriously wounding her, and then attempts suicide.....Jerry Jones is arrested for an attempt on the life of the doorkeeper of the Alhambra Theater.

June 9. Miners' Festival at the City Gardens, which is attended by the officers of the Hertha.....Frank Simmons is run over by a street railroad car and instantly killed.

June 10. The officers of the Hertha visit Mare Island.

June 11. A large and enthusiastic Grant and Wilson ratification meeting at Platt's Hall, which is addressed by Governor Booth, Hon. J. B. Felton and others.....The body of C. Johnson is found in the bay.....Mrs. H. B. Wheeler dies suddenly.....A seaman named Adam Jensen, of the bark Atalanta, is accidentally drowned.....State Dental Association commences its Third Annual Meeting at Mozart Hall.

June 12. The S. F. Verein entertain the officers of the Hertha at their club rooms.

June 13. The German sloop-of-war Hortha leaves port.

June 14. R. B. Swain, one of the leading merchants and a most esteemed citizen, is killed by taking an overdose of laudanum by mistake, aged forty-eight years.

June 15. The S. F. Olympic Club celebrate their anniversary at Belmont.....Frederick Chapman is fatally injured by falling down a cellar stairs.....E. Duntoun is found dead in his room.

June 16. F. A. Fabens, one of the Justices of the Peace, dies suddenly at Sausalito, aged fifty-eight years.

June 17. The obsequies of R. B. Swain take place at the First Unitarian Church, the community generally participating in evincing their respect for the memory of one who had always identified himself with the welfare of the city.....Cornelius McAller commits suicide.

June 18. The State Democratic Convention commences its session at Platt's Hall.....The Art Association dedicate their rooms by a brilliant reception.....Edith O'Gorman, the escaped nun, lectures before a large audience at Platt's Hall.....Woman's Suffrage Convention held at Mercantile Library Hall.

June 21. Severe explosion at the Works of the Giant Powder Co., causing considerable damage to the neighboring buildings.....Henry Witte is struck on the head with a club and fatally injured by John McNamara.

June 22. Senator Cole arrives and is warmly welcomed and serenaded by his friends.....The $20,000 purse won by the trotter Ajax at the Oakland Trotting Park.....E. J. C. Kewen, candidate for Congress, is serenaded.

June 24. The Grand Lodge of Colored Masons hold their annual session.....Eight cases of small pox are reported.

June 25. Addie Mustard, a child three years of age, is run over by a street car and killed.....The French Ransom Fund amounts to $36,433.

June 26. The body of J. S. Mitchell, for several weeks missing, is found near Oakland.

June 27. Three men are seriously burned by an explosion of gas from the street main on Mission Street.....E. Maguire, a boy four years old, is run over by a truck and killed.....A. McLean is killed by falling into the hold of a vessel.

June 28. Small pox reported on the increase and district vaccinators appointed.....Captain Goddough arrives from Puget Sound, a distance of eight hundred miles, in a sailboat twenty-two feet long.....The wife of H. Pierce surprises her husband by presenting him with triplets, each weighing eight pounds.

June 29. Noah Mullendore is shot fatally by Henry R. McCauslin.

June 30. Henry Disci is fatally stabbed by Henry Riceo.

July 1. The body of E. Godbeyson found floating in the bay.....A fracas occurs between T. J. Crowley and G. F. Knight at the Potrero, which results in the latter being fatally wounded.....Fifty banished friars from Central America arrive, and are received and provided for by their religious brethren.....Large meeting at Platt's Hall in favor of the thirty-fifth parallel route.

July 2. The National Guard of Virginia arrive, to participate in the celebration of the Fourth of July.

July 4. Independence Day appropriately celebrated by a military and civic procession and an oration by Hon. J. F. Swift, and other exercises at the California Theater.....Several fires occur, one of which, on Drumm Street, destroys property to the amount of $50,000.....Nicholas E. Carr murders his wife and then attempts suicide.....Annual regatta of the Master Mariners' Association. First prize is won by the Caroline E. Mills.

July 6. A difficulty occurs in a liquor saloon between B. J. Shay, M. J. Kelly and J. R. Deardorff, during which several pistol shots are fired, without any serious result.

July 7. John Cullen is killed by being thrown from a buggy.

July 8. Dr. E. H. Koon commits suicide.....George Knight dies from the effects of injuries received during a fracas with T. J. Crowley.

July 9. Peter L. Webb, a pioneer merchant, dies suddenly, of heart disease, aged fifty-six years.

July 12. Hon. Edward Stanly, a distinguished and highly esteemed member of the bar, who at different times ably filled offices of honor and trust, dies from paralysis, aged sixty-three years.

July 13. The Japanese Embassy arrive in the city.

July 14. James Muir is fatally shot by James Lyons.....Samuel Platt, a well known attorney, dies, aged fifty years.

July 16. Frank Burkhardt is killed by falling down stairs.....John Sullivan is found dead.

July 17. George Wenzel is found dead in his room.

July 19. Noah Mullendore, who was shot by H. R. McCausland, dies.

July 20. Bridget Davy is killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of Catherine Murphy.

July 22. A fire on Second Street, near Stevenson; loss, $12,000.....Louis Millor is killed by a truck.

July 23. John Coyne and Thomas Gallagher are killed by a cave.

July 24. H. McMenomy is arrested for the murder of James Hogan.

July 26. Thomas Flanigan is killed by falling from a wagon.

July 29. William Stanwood, a highly-respected pioneer citizen and Deputy County Assessor, dies, aged forty-two years.....H. L. King is appointed Superintendent of Construction of the New City Hall.....A Chinese gardener is fatally shot by William Bryan.

July 30. W. W. Bennett drops dead.

July 31. News reported of the discovery of extensive diamond fields in Arizona.

August 1. Charles Wilson is fatally stabbed by John Sampson.

Aug. 2. James Crotty is fatally shot by Charles A. Russell.

Aug. 7. C. R. Winslow commits suicide.....Lieut.-Col. Thomas Grey, U. S. A., dies of apoplexy.

Aug. 10. Elisha Kingsbury commits suicide.

Aug. 13. Henry Rosenweig is found dead in his room.