

not named in this Act, are hereby repealed.—[Section 1, Act February 5, 1872.] The salaries provided for in this Act shall be audited and paid in the same manner as the salaries of Deputy Clerks in said City and County of San Francisco have been audited and paid heretofore.—[Sec. 2, Act February 5, 1872.] The County Clerk of said city and county is hereby authorized to employ as many Copyists (not to exceed three in number) as may be necessary to perform the duties of his office, who shall severally be paid such reasonable compensation as their services may be worth, not to exceed six cents a folio of one hundred words, for the matter copied or recorded by them respectively: provided, the amount paid to such Copyists in any one month shall not exceed three hundred dollars.—[Sec. 3, Act February 6, 1872.] The County Clerk shall certify, monthly, on the demands of said Copyists, the number of folios copied by each one of said Copyists, and such certificate of said Clerk shall be conclusive and sufficient evidence to authorize and require the Auditor of said city and county to audit, severally, the accounts of said Copyists, monthly, and the payment of such demands by the County Treasurer, out of the Special Fee Fund, as is provided for the payment of other officers of said city and county.—[Sec. 4, Act February 5, 1872.]

Sheriff, eight thousand dollars per annum.* Deputies [see Acts May 17, 1861, March 20, 1860, April 4, 1864, March 20, 26 and 31, 1866, March 9, 31 and April 4, 1870]: One Under Sheriff, two hundred dollars per month; twelve Deputies—nine, one hundred and fifty dollars, and three, one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each, respectively; six Jail Keepers [two additional allowed, Act April 1, 1872], one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each; one Bookkeeper, two hundred and fifty dollars per month; one Assistant Bookkeeper, one hundred dollars per month; one Matron and Assistant Matron, for County Jail one hundred dollars per month; two Court Room Porters, seventy-five dollars per month each and one driver for Jail Wagon, seventy-five dollars per month. An allowance of twelve hundred dollars per annum is allowed for the expenses of the Sheriff for counsel and attorney's fees.

Coroner, four thousand dollars per annum.—[For salaries of Deputy, Messenger, etc., see Supplemental Act III, Secs. 28-30, page 775.]

Mayor, three thousand dollars per annum. Clerk, one hundred and fifty dollars per month.—

[Amendment April 4, 1864.]

Health Officer, two hundred dollars per month.—[Re-enacted, Act April 4, 1870.] City and County Surveyor, five hundred dollars per annum, which shall be in lieu of all fees or other charges for official services, which would otherwise be a city and county charge and he shall charge and collect, for services rendered individuals, such fees as may be prescribed and allowed by the Board of Supervisors.

Assessor, four thousand dollars per annum, which salary shall be in full for all services required of him and for all contingent expenses of his office, except necessary books; and he shall devote his whole time, during office hours, to the business of his office, and shall keep his office open to the public during the same hours provided by law for the City and County Auditor. To assist him in making the assessment, he shall be allowed the following deputies for the office: one Chief Deputy, two hundred dollars per month, and seven Deputies, one hundred and fifty dollars per month each, four of whom shall be employed and paid only from the first of February (of each year) until the assessment roll is finally completed and handed over to the Auditor; one Head Draftsman, two hundred dollars per month, and one Assistant Draftsman, one hundred and fifty dollars per month; for the Field, one Chief Deputy, two hundred dollars per month and eighteen Under Deputies, whose term for payment shall not exceed an average of three months each, one hundred and fifty dollars per month each.†—[Amendment January 25, 1870.]

Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, two hundred and fifty dollars per month.—[Amendment March 30, 1872.] He shall be entitled to receive from the parties at whose instance the service may be performed (the city and county excepted), twenty-five cents for administering an oath twenty-five cents per folio of one hundred words for writing out affidavits and sixteen cents per folio for certified copies of any records, papers or documents in his custody.‡ He has authority [Act February 14, 1866] to appoint a Deputy or Assistant Clerk, to be approved by said Board, whose salary shall be fixed by the said Board at a sum not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per month [Act March 30, 1872], payable out of the General Fund; said Deputy when required by the Board, to act as Sergeant-at-Arms at its meetings, without additional compensation therefor.

Porters (three‡) not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month each.—[Act April 4, 1864.] Janitor of the City Hall, seventy-five dollars per month.—[Act March 19, 1870.]

* The Act of March 30, 1872, authorizes the Sheriff to charge three dollars per day for keeper's fees on all property in his charge, seized on attachment or on execution; and in case no keeper is required, the such sums of money as he shall reasonably and necessarily incur and disburse in taking and preserving the same. The Sheriff is also allowed to charge twenty-five cents per mile, as mileage to cover the traveling expenses of himself and Deputies for services on all process issued from any Court or any officer in a criminal action.

† The Act of March 30, 1872, authorizes the Assessor, Tax Collector and Auditor to employ additional clerks when absolutely necessary.

‡ Payable into the Special Fee Fund.—[Act May 17, 1861, Sec. 2.]

§ To the principal Porter, ninety dollars per month.—[Act April 4, 1864.]