Our Saviour's Scandinavian Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Rev. CHRISTIAN HVISTENDAHL, Pastor; residence, 874 Mission Street.

Present place of worship, St. Paul's German Evangelical Lutheran Church, on the south side of Mission Street, between Fifth and Sixth.

This church was organized on the 20th of October, 1870, by its present Pastor, who came to San Francisco under the auspices of the Norwegian Lutheran Synod of America. Having labored here for six weeks he went to the East, but returned in April, 1871, in accordance with a unanimous call from the congregation to become their pastor. In June, 1872, he visited the Scandinavian countries, principally for the sake of his health, and returned in October to resume his labors. The project of starting a Scandinavian Church has, during the last twelve years been tried three or four times without success, and these failures have, more than anything else, hindered the present work. The church has, however, been self-supporting from the start, and its friends are confident that they will have at no distant time their own place of worship. There is at present in the Building Fund about $5,000. A Ladies' Society to promote the interests of the church has lately been organized. Services in the Scandinavian language Sundays and holidays at two o'clock P.M., and occasional services in the week at forty-five minutes past seven o'clock P.M. The seats are always free. This is the only Scandinavian Church on the Pacific Coast that has any membership.
