

Mission Dolores.

Location, southwest corner Sixteenth and Dolores streets. Rev. THOMAS CUSHING, Pastor; Rev. Dennis Keily, Assistant; pastoral residence adjoining the church.

The church was dedicated on the ninth of October, 1776, although projected in 1769, by Father Junipero Serra, the Father of the California Missions. The first Friar who had charge was Francisco Palou, who was assisted in his labors by Benito Cambon. At the organization of this Mission, and for its protection, there were fifteen soldiers located at the Presidio, under the command of S. Flores. A cemetery is attached to the church, in which the first interment was made in September, 1776. The first Indian convert was baptized on the twenty-seventh day of December, in the same year. In the introductory portion of the San Francisco Directory for 1862, page five, will be found further details connected with the history of this Mission. Attached to this church is a large day school.

St. Joseph's Church.

Location, west side of Tenth Street, between Folsom and Howard. Rev. H. P. GALLAGHER, Pastor. Rev. Andrew Cullen and Rev. J. A. Gallagher, Assistants; pastoral residence, adjoining the church.

This church was opened for divine service on the 8th day of December, 1831. The building first erected was a neat and substantial one-story frame, sixty feet long by thirty-seven feet wide, and stands on the one hundred-vara lot donated by Horace Hawes, Esq., for the future cathedral of the Arch-Diocese. The forementioned building, removed back for a school, has been replaced by a new edifice, over thrice the size of the above. It is cruciform Gothic, and elegantly finished. The new building is designed to be, as nearly as possible, earthquake and panic proof, the ceiling being done in finely finished wood, and the large entrance door to slide on rollers.

Services on Sundays and Festival days. Masses: Sundays at half past six, eight, nine, and half past ten o'clock A.M.; Catechism at half past nine o'clock A.M. and Vespers at seven o'clock P.M.; Mass: week days at seven and half past seven o'clock A.M.
