

July 27. George Hanson commits suicide.
 July 29. S. D. Freeman is found dead in a chair in the Chicago Hotel.
 August 2. The first car is run over the track of the Clay Street Hill Railroad.....Louis Ottman commits suicide.
 August 7. James Kupfer commits suicide.
 August 8. James Otis is nominated for Mayor, by the Tax Payers' Convention.
 August 9. Thomas Levy commits suicide.
 August 11. William Johnson is fatally shot by Thomas Curtin.....John J. Wurzen commits suicide.
 August 12. Henry P. Barber, a well-known lawyer and pioneer Californian, dies, aged 54 years.....Samuel E. Smith, a prominent lumber dealer, is killed by falling into the hold of the ship Carrier Dove.
 August 14. Major A. H. Gillespie, who participated in the conquest of California under General Kearny, dies, aged 61 years.
 August 15. Jennie Daly is found dead in her room.
 August 16. A body of a Chinaman, supposed to have died from small-pox, is found in a basket, at the foot of Pacific Street.
 August 18. The Chicago Brewery is partially destroyed by fire.
 August 19. John Dennis is found drowned in a pool of water.
 August 20. Charles Burroughs is killed by falling down stairs.
 August 22. Mrs. Mary Kelso is crushed to death by the falling of an old building.....Desire Chalafure is sentenced to two years' imprisonment for killing Ramon Mott.....Henry Burton is found drowned in the bay.
 August 30. The billiard tournament for the championship of the Pacific Coast results in the first prize, a silver cup, being awarded to J. F. B. McCleery.
 September 1. William J. Bryan is sentenced to two years' imprisonment for killing a Chinaman.
 Sept. 3. John Gallagher is fatally shot by John F. Jones.....The election results in the success of the Independent Legislative ticket and the Taxpayers' Municipal ticket, with a few exceptions.
 Sept. 5. William Dwyer is fatally stabbed by John Harrington.
 Sept. 8. A woman named Williams is found dead in bed.....James Douglass commits suicide.
 Sept. 9. The admission of California into the Union is celebrated by the Society of California Pioneers.....John F. Jones, who killed John Gallagher, is exonerated by the Police Judge and discharged.
 Sept. 11. A boy named Corcoran is fatally injured by being run over by a street car.
 Sept. 12. John Dunn is killed by falling upon a piece of rod iron.
 Sept. 13. Governor Booth arrives in the city and is enthusiastically received.....The examination of John Harrington for the killing of Dwyer results in his discharge.
 Sept. 14. Jack Sheppard, the pedestrian, completes his task of walking one thousand miles in one thousand hours.
 Sept. 15. Patrick Carroll is found dead in bed.....The Veterans of the Mexican War celebrate the anniversary of the capture of the City of Mexico.
 Sept. 16. The Mexican residents celebrate the sixty-third anniversary of their national independence.....James Neely is found dead in the bushes near Golden Gate Park.....William M. Tweed arrives in the city.
 Sept. 17. The steamer Costa Rica runs ashore on the North Heads during a dense fog.....Mrs. Catharine Erni is found dead in her room, supposed to have been murdered by her son.....Joseph Tucker drops dead at Fort Point.
 Sept. 18. The sixty-third anniversary of Chilean independence is celebrated by a salute and a display of flags.
 Sept. 21. William Packer and Hermann Frank are drowned in the bay by the capsizing of a boat.
 Sept. 22. P. G. Postel falls dead on the street.
 Sept. 23. The Board of Underwriters elect Charles R. Story Fire Commissioner, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of John C. Merrill.....William Conn is found drowned in the bay.....William P. Pritchard is found dead in his room.....Dexter Taft, a pioneer Californian, dies, aged fifty-nine years.....John Curtin is killed by falling from a bluff on Telegraph Hill.

Sept. 24. The steamer Costa Rica is hauled off the rocks and towed into the harbor.
 Sept. 25. Samuel J. Bookstaver, a well-known citizen, commits suicide.....Edward Kennedy, a well-known flour merchant, dies, aged thirty-eight years.
 Sept. 27. Several buildings, corner of Fourth and Market streets, are partially destroyed by fire.....The ship Sunrise arrives from New York, and the crew report excessive cruelties committed by the officers during the voyage.....Frank Kelly is drowned in the bay.
 Sept. 29. The Oakland Ferry steamers commence half-hourly trips.
 Sept. 30. The annual Fair of the Horticultural Society opens at Horticultural Hall.....The commencement of the Day of Atonement is observed by religious exercises in the Jewish synagogues.....Joshua Malloy drops dead in the What Cheer House.
 October 1. Patrick Kelly drops dead.....Captain Clarke of the ship Sunrise is arrested on charges of excessive cruelty to his crew.
 Oct. 2. Mary O'Neill is burned to death.....Robert Burke, a member of the Police Force, commits suicide.
 Oct. 6. Mrs. Charles Betts commits suicide.....Major Charles E. Hinckley, an old and esteemed resident, dies, aged forty-three years.
 Oct. 7. William Francis is found dead in his room.
 Oct. 10. The trial of Thomas Curtin for killing William Johnson results in his acquittal.....Thirty-three horses in the stable of David Stewart are poisoned by some unknown person; twelve cases prove fatal.
 Oct. 11. Herman Humpert is found dead in bed.....A man, known as Professor Allen, is killed by being run over by a train of cars on the Oakland Wharf.
 Oct. 12. The anniversary of the discovery of America is celebrated by the Italian residents.
 Oct. 14. Ernest Reichart commits suicide.
 Oct. 15. The Judicial Election results in the election of E. W. McKinstry, Supreme Judge; E. D. Wheeler, Nineteenth District Judge; and Davis Louderback, Jr., Police Judge.
 Oct. 16. Owen Gillen is murdered in a bar-room on Drumm Street, and Lloyd Bell is arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime.
 Oct. 20. Mrs. Rachel Larkin, a highly esteemed lady and resident of California since 1832, dies, aged sixty-six years.....Timothy Tormey is found in an out-house in a dying condition.....At a meeting of the Academy of Sciences, the President, Prof. Davidson, announces that James Lick, Esq., proposes to appropriate ample means to erect an astronomical observatory in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, to be furnished with the largest and most perfect telescope which the skill of American mechanism can produce.
 Oct. 21. John Hogan is killed by falling down stairs.
 Oct. 23. The trial of Edward Lemon for killing Benjamin Palmer results in his acquittal.....Peter Thompson is found drowned in the bay.
 Oct. 24. The clipper ship Three Brothers, one of the finest vessels afloat, sails for Havre with a cargo of grain valued at $199,000.
 Oct. 25. The remains of Antone Wirtz, supposed to have committed suicide, are found near Lake Honda.....The billiard match between Anthony Kraker and John F. B. McCleery, for the championship of the Pacific Coast and the silver cup results in the success of the former.
 Oct. 27. Algernon Smith, an old and well-known citizen, dies, aged forty-three years.....Henry Franks commits suicide.
 Oct. 28. Christian Schreiber & Co.'s furniture factory is partially destroyed by fire.....The trial of Captain Clarke of the ship Sunrise results in a verdict of guilty on seven counts.
 Oct. 28. A raid is made by the police on a gambling establishment at 112 Sutter Street and several persons arrested.
 Oct. 30. Benjamin Collins drops dead.
 Oct. 31. Mary Montgomery is sentenced to two years' imprisonment for killing Henry Sanchez.
 November 1. Edward Allen is fatally stabbed by an unknown person.....James Gunning found on the street fatally injured, states that he was beaten and robbed by some unknown persons.
 Nov. 3. Bartlett J. Free is arrested on suspicion of being the murderer of Edward Allen.....Richard Brand is drowned in the bay.

ATNA INS. CO. of Hartford has a Paid-up Capital of $3,000,000, and Cash Assets of nearly $6,000,000, GEO. C. BOARDMAN, Manager.