

visors shall determine to be necessary;* thereof an equal number in proportion to population, as near as may be, shall be selected from each district that shall be situated, wholly or partly, within the limits specified in section second of the Act now repealed, entitled "An Act to incorporate the City of San Francisco," passed May sixth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.†

SEC. 24. No person can be appointed Captain of Police or Police Officer unless he be a citizen of the United States and of this State, and a resident and a qualified voter of the city and county; and, in case of each Police Officer, a resident of the district from which he is chosen, and also, before his appointment, shall produce to the said President of the Board of Supervisors, Chief of Police, and Police Judge, a certificate, signed by at least twelve freeholders and qualified voters of the said city and county, who, in case of application for appointment of a Police Officer, must also be a resident of the district from which he is to be appointed, stating that they have been personally and well acquainted with the applicant for one year or more next preceding the application, and that he is of good repute for honesty and sobriety, and they believe him to be, in all respects, competent and fit for the office. All the certificates so produced shall be carefully preserved in the office of the Chief of Police.

SEC. 25. Police Captains and Officers may be suspended from office by the Chief of Police, and with the concurrence of the President of the Board of Supervisors and Police Judge removed from office for official negligence, inefficiency, or misconduct, under such general rules and regulations, not contrary to law, as may have been established by the Board of Supervisors. They shall receive from the treasury of said city and county, payable out of the Police Fund, such compensation as may be fixed by the Board of Supervisors, not exceeding one thousand eight hundred dollars a year each for Captains, and one thousand five hundred dollars a year each for Police Officers.—[See Supplemental Act VIII, page 892.]

SEC. 26. Neither the Chief of Police, Captains, or any other officer of Police, shall follow any other profession or calling, become bail for any person charged with any offense whatever, receive any present or reward for official services rendered or to be rendered, unless with the knowledge and approbation of a majority of the Police Commissioners, to wit: The Police Judge, President of the Board of Supervisors, and Chief of Police of the City and County of San Francisco—such approbation to be given in writing; nor be allowed pay for any period during which they shall absent themselves from public duty, unless such absence necessarily result from indisposition or disability occasioned by injuries suffered while in the discharge of official duty. Police Officers in subjection to the orders of the respective Captains, and all under the general direction of the Chief of Police, shall be prompt and vigilant in the detection of crime, the arrest of public offenders, the suppression of all riots, frays, duels, and disturbances of the public peace, the execution of process from the Police Judge's Court, in causing the abatement of public nuisances, the removal of unlawful obstructions from the public streets, and the enforcement of the laws and regulations of police.—[Amendment March 24, 1859.]

SEC. 27. In case of great public emergency or danger, the Chief of Police may appoint an additional number of Policemen, of approved character for honesty and sobriety, who shall have the same powers as other Police Officers, for twenty-four hours only, but without pay. The Chief of Police, Captains, and every officer of the permanent force, shall provide themselves with a uniform and badge of office, to be prescribed by regulations of the Board of Supervisors, which shall be worn by them upon all occasions, with such exceptions as may be permitted by the Chief of Police in the performance of detective duty.

SEC. 28. Charges of oppression or official misconduct, when presented by any citizen of the said city and county, against any Police Captain or Officer, and verified on oath, setting forth the specific acts complained of, shall be received and attentively considered and determined by the Police Judge, President of the Board of Supervisors, and Chief of Police, giving to the accused due notice and an impartial hearing in defense. The Chief of Police, Police Judge, and all other officers, now acting or hereafter to be elected or appointed under the provisions of this Act, may be accused, tried, and removed from office, in the mode prescribed by the laws of this State for the removal of civil officers otherwise than by impeachment.

SEC. 29. The Board of Supervisors shall from time to time establish a convenient number of Police Stations; determine within what districts the Police Officers and Captains shall usually be distributed and employed; designate the prisons to be used for the reception of all persons arrested or convicted and sentenced for public offenses, in cases not provided for by law; [and] appoint, during the pleasure of the Board, the Keeper of such prisons.

SUPPLEMENTAL V.—An Act to prescribe the Jurisdiction of the Police Judge's Court of the City and County of San Francisco.—Approved January 27, 1864.

SECTION 1. The Police Judge's Court of the City and County of San Francisco shall have jurisdiction:‡

* The Police Commissioners may be empowered by the Board of Supervisors to appoint and regulate local Policemen, whenever necessary, provided that no money shall be paid out of the city and county treasury for their services.—[Act April 4, 1864.]

† The City of San Francisco shall be bounded as follows: On the south by a line drawn parallel with Clay Street, two and a half miles distant from the center of Portsmouth Square; on the west by a line drawn parallel with Kearny Street, two miles distant from the center of Portsmouth Square; its boundaries on the north and east shall be the same with those of the County of San Francisco.—[Act May 6, 1855.]

‡ Also jurisdiction for violations of Sec. 16 of Street Law; see Article IV, Sec. 16, page 909.
