

"Katie Pease" wins the race for five half-mile heats, at the Bay District Track.

Feb. 14. Delegates from Irish societies select O'Connell French as orator for St. Patrick's Day....Immense meeting of Protestants at the Tabernacle express their indignation at outrages upon Christian missionaries at Acapulco.

Feb. 15. Official report that the subscriptions for Kansas and Nebraska sufferers amount to $8,000.

Feb. 16. The Grangers' Business Association organized....Banquet to A. S. Hallidie, President of the Mechanic's Institute, by its trustees....Arrangements completed for a rifle-shooting match between the Summer Light Guard and a New York company.

Feb. 17. Mass meeting of Grangers and Temperance men, for the purpose of taking political action....Two Sicilians, convicted of counterfeiting, sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 each, and imprisonment for six years.

Feb. 18. The Supervisors engaged in investigating the affairs of the Tax Collector's office.

Feb. 19. August Hennie gives $30,000 to the Central Tabernacle....Rev. E. P. Hammond, the evangelist, arrives.

Feb. 20. Joseph Casey, poll-tax forger, sentenced to eleven years' imprisonment....A committee and five hundred persons assemble and make arrangements for the Hammond revival meetings....Steamship City of Peking departs on her first voyage to China....Annual meeting of the Pacific Coast Turner societies.

Feb. 21. Immense meeting of Catholics to protest against the expulsion of Sisters of Charity from Mexico.

Feb. 22. General suspension of business and observance of Washington's Birthday....Members of the Academy of Sciences make their annual visit to the State University.

Feb. 23. Mrs. James Baker suddenly dies while riding in a hack.

Feb. 24. Shooting scrape between Henry Blumenthal and Thomas Wagner....Governor Booth issues a complimentary order relative to the drill of the Second Brigade at the Presidio on the 22d inst.

Feb. 25. Marland R. Magee shoots himself through the heart at the American Exchange Hotel....Great interest manifested in the Hammond revival meetings.

Feb. 26. Judge Wheeler decides that the city must pay the salary of the commander of the training ship....Eunejorgensen J. Brodersen commits suicide at the Swiss Hotel.

Feb. 27. John Kelley shot and killed by Joseph F. Weine in self-defense.

Feb. 28. James R. Kendall, a distinguished musician at the California Theater, drops dead in the music room.

March 1. Supervisors order an investigation of License Collector Buckley's office....Seven hundred Cambrians celebrate St. David's Day.

March 2. The "Underwriter's Fire Patrol of San Francisco" is organized....Orders received by the agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. to dispatch only one steamer per month to China and Japan.

March 3. Revival among Catholics, under the preaching of the Paulist Father Elliott....The Tabernacle and Columbia Square Baptist churches unite, under the name of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, and choose Rev. I. S. Kallioh as pastor.

March 4. Furious affray among Chinamen, with knives.

March 5. Captain Charles Avery commits suicide at the Oriental Hotel.

March 6. Wrestling match for $2,500, won by Louis Bauer over Leopold Vanderveken.

March 7. Intense religious excitement; the churches and public halls are filled with large congregations.

March 8. The Commercial Bank is organized, with a capital of $5,000,000.

March 9. Mrs. B. Bonnet endeavors to kill Kate Crowley, prompted by jealousy.

March 10. Steamship City of Tokio arrives from New York....Mrs. Minnie Boyce commits suicide by taking morphine....Michael Casey, mate of the steamer Amador, shot by poll-tax collector M. A. Wilson.

March 11. Rifle match between Col. J. McCombs, Col. G. W. Granniss, and Colonel A. Wason. At 500 yards won by Col. Granniss, and at 200 yards by Col. Wason.

March 12. The members of the San Francisco Stock Exchange give $3,345 for the Nebraska sufferers.

March 13. Thomas Brady, a Custom House watchman, commits suicide....G. W. Stone found dead in his room....Isaac E. Record, jailor at the County Jail, convicted of brutality to a prisoner....Capt. S. E. Oakley, of the steamer Express, commits suicide by taking laudanum.

March 14. The California Bible Society celebrates their quarter-centennial anniversary.

March 15. The Emmet Guard arrive from Virginia City, on a visit.

March 17. St. Patrick's Day celebrated by a military and civic procession, and literary exercises.

March 18. Thomas Cushman drowned while bathing off Hunter's Point....The Internationalists celebrate their anniversary.

March 19. William Gately, 14 years old, knocks down a countryman and robs him.

March 20. The Emmet Guard, of Virginia City, and San Francisco Sharpshooters, have a match, resulting in favor of the latter....Oliver C. Reed found dead in his room....Caleb M. Sickler found dead in his room.

March 22. Large donations sent to the Nebraska sufferers....Destructive fire at the Alhambra Building.

March 24. William Cooper commits suicide by drowning.

March 26. The dead body of Jule Mialon found floating in the Bay off North Beach.

March 27. James Lick revokes his deed of trust executed in July, 1874, which conveyed all of his property for benevolent purposes.

March 29. David F. McCarthy, late clerk of the Police Court, found to have been a defaulter for about $20,000.

March 31. The Spiritualists celebrate their twenty-seventh anniversary.

April 1. C. A. Peterson found dead in his room, from the effects of charcoal fumes....Passengers by the steamer Oregon, in 1849, hold a reunion.

April 2. Rosenthal's great picture "Elaine," cut from its frame and stolen.

April 4. G. A. Fisher commits suicide at the Coso House....Five thousand Irish-Americans form a procession and participate in a demonstration in honor of the memory of the late John Mitchell....The lost "Elaine," is found, and six thieves arrested....University Mound College Building, worth $40,000, destroyed by fire.

April 6. D. K. Meek commits suicide by taking laudanum.

April 7. Explosion of giant powder at Harrison Street Wharf, causing the loss of four lives and the destruction of Hathaway's Warehouse, and other buildings, by fire....Public reception of Senator Sargent, by the military and the mayor....J. J. Daly commits suicide by poisoning.

April 8. Mrs. H. Anderson found drowned on the beach at the Potrero.

April 9. The State Controller brings suits against various banks to enforce the collection of moneys belonging to escheated estates....Veterans of the "California Hundred" celebrate the tenth anniversary of Lee's surrender.

April 10. Victor O'Neill attempts self-destruction by cutting his throat.

April 11. Continued excitement on religion; the churches and public halls are thronged, and there are three meetings in the open air.

April 12. Military parade and banquet to General Crook.

April 13. Frederick Brandenberger found buried under a pile of lumber, where he had been imprisoned for a week; he dies shortly afterwards....J. J. Valentine, of Wells, Fargo & Co., reports that the donations sent from the Pacific Coast to the Kansas and Nebraska sufferers amount to $37,000....California State Medical Society of Homeopaths convenes....Miller and Vanderveken have a wrestling match for $2,000, which is won by the former.

April 14. George Albert commits suicide by shooting himself.

April 16. Revivalist Hammond holds his farewell meeting.

April 17. David J. Fogarty, in a fit of temporary insanity, stabs and kills his infant daughter.

April 19. City Engineer Scowden presents his report on the question of water supply, and recommends the Calaveras Creek scheme.

April 20. Colored people celebrate the fifth anniversary of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment.

April 21. Suit commences in the U. S. Circuit Court to compel the Central Pacific Railroad Co. to pay to the Government $1,336,000—five per cent. of its earnings....Antonia Fox found dead in her room, asphyxiated.

April 22. William Bell thrown from his wagon on the Ocean House Road and killed....State Rifle Association organized.

April 23. Eckstein, indicted for forging poll-tax receipts, is acquitted.

April 24. Six hundred passengers arrive from the