

A GREAT SUCCESS!

California Agriculturist

—AND—

LIVE STOCK JOURNAL.

A Household Magazine and Rural Monthly for In-doors and Out.

Is growing rapidly in the favor of the people of this State, and all over the Western Slope. The people everywhere, of every business pursuit, appreciate and are calling for it. Subscriptions have increased so steadily the past year that the publishers are resolved to make the Subscription List

Fifteen Thousand before 1878.

Volume VIII, commencing with the new year, will introduce some writers of ability, in the various departments of Instruction and amusement.

Correspondence will be published from every part of the Pacific Coast. The Recipes alone will be worth ten times the price of the paper. The Information to Farmers will more than doubly repay the cost of the paper. The advice in Conservatory and Window Gardening will save more than the price of the paper. Talks to Mothers and Housekeepers on the Care of Children and in Household Matters, will be worth all the rest of the paper. The Hints to the Young in Industrial Pastimes, will prove to be of great value. The

MONTHLY PREMIUMS

Will each be worth the cost of the paper three times over. The Bound Volume at the end of the year will contain more practical information than any TEN DOLLARS' WORTH OF BOOKS that can be selected. As we make some profits from the advertisements, our subscribers get the paper for less than cost. All enterprising farmers and families should have it. Many of our principal citizens are already subscribing for it. They find it interesting and profitable reading for themselves and their families, and just the

JOURNAL TO SEND BACK TO OLD FRIENDS IN THE EAST

The Volume for 1877 will be a MOST COMPLETE ONE in all its Departments.

Subscription Price only $1,50 a Year.

Cal. Agriculturist Publishing Co.

Office, No. 338 First Street, San Jose, Cal.