African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Location west side of Powell street, between Jackson and Pacific. Rev. George Jamison, Pastor; residence, Oakland.

The society worshipping here was organized in 1859, and is the same that formerly occupied the St. Cyprian Church. Under the pastorate of Rev. T. M. D. Ward, they reorganized in 1856, and secured the Scott Street Church property, where they continued to worship until March, 1862, when they purchased the property, which, up to that time, had been known as Grace Church, for $5,500. Rev. J. B. Sanderson was Pastor from May, 1857, to June, 1859. At this time Rev. T. M. D. Ward again took charge, and remained Pastor until May, 1868, when he was consecrated Bishop. From July, 1869, to June, 1870, Rev. John R. V. Morgan acted as Pastor. The Rev. R. Dorsey next took charge, and was succeeded by the Rev. J. H. Hubbard March 30, 1872. He was succeeded by the Rev. I. N. Triplett, who officiated until 1876, when the Rev. John L. Dyer took charge, officiating until the latter part of 1877, from which time until December, 1878, the pastorate remained vacant, when the present pastor took charge. During the year 1865 three deacons were ordained by the Rt. Rev. Jabez P. Campbell, Bishop of California.

Chinese Mission House of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Location, north side of Washington street, between Stockton and Powell. Rev. Otis Gibson, Superintendent; Rev. A. J. Hanson, Assistant Superintendent; residence, 916 Washington street. Lau Hok Han, Chan Pak Kwai, and Chan Hon Fan, native helpers.

This Mission House, erected in 1870, is a neat and commodious edifice, fifty-six by seventy feet, and three stories high. On the main floor are three school rooms, with double folding doors between, so that when desirable they can all be thrown into one room for general school exercises or religious services. On the second floor of the Chinese department are two school rooms, also connected by folding doors, and rooms for a missionary family. The third floor of this portion of the building contains four fine rooms, designed for, and used as, an Asylum for Chinese women and girls, who may be saved from lives of slavery and shame. Mrs. Jane Walker is employed as teacher and missionary in this department. Sabbath School for women at twenty minutes past one o'clock P. M. every Sabbath. The entrance to the Chinese department is on Stone street, and to the Parsonage department, 916 Washington street.

The total cost of the property is $32,000, one-third of which has been contributed by friends on this coast, and the balance has been paid by the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to which society the property is decreed.

The schools are graded into five classes, employing five experienced teachers, and are open every evening
