

entirely remodeled and rebuilt, and a separate parish constituted for it. The church will be formally dedicated April 20 of the present year. A pastoral residence will also be built during the year, in front of the one now occupied. The expenditures embraced in these improvements will reach $7,000.

Masses are said at eight and half past ten o'clock A.M. Sunday School at two o'clock P.M., and Vespers at half past three o'clock P.M.

St. Bridget's Church.

Location, southwest corner of Broadway street and Van Ness avenue. Rev. T. Callaghan, Pastor; Rev. John Kemmy, Assistant; residence, rear of church.

This church was completed and services first held in February, 1864. It is a wooden structure, cruciform, nave thirty-six by forty-two feet, transept thirty by sixty feet, erected upon a lot purchased by Archbishop Alemany, at a cost of $1,400.

Masses every Sunday at half past six, eight, and half past ten o'clock A.M. and Vespers at seven o'clock P.M. Catechism for the children at nine o'clock A.M. Masses on week days at seven o'clock A.M.

St. Peter's Church.

Location, west side of Columbia street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth. Rev. Thomas Gibney, Pastor; Rev. P. S. Casey and Rev. Edward Slaven, Assistants; pastoral residence, east side of Alabama street, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth.

Since its erection the church edifice has been considerably enlarged to accommodate the ever-increasing congregation.

The Academy adjoining the church, under the charge of the Sisters of Mercy, accommodates the youth of the parish.

Masses on Sundays at seven, half past eight, and half past ten o'clock A.M. Sunday School at twenty minutes past nine o'clock A.M. for boys, and one o'clock P.M. for girls.

St. Boniface's Church (German).

Location, south side of Tyler street, between Jones and Leavenworth. Rev. Sebastian Wolf, Pastor; residence, in rear of the church.

This church was dedicated June, 1870. Masses on Sundays at eight, and half past ten o'clock A.M. and Vespers at half past seven o'clock P.M.; week days, Mass at half past seven o'clock A.M.; Catechism, Sundays at a quarter to eight o'clock P.M., under the charge of the Sisters of St. Dominic.

Church of the Holy Cross.

Location, Calvary Cemetery. Rev. Andrew Cullen, Pastor; residence, 1110 Eddy street. Masses on Sundays at eight o'clock A.M. Sunday School after last Mass.

St. John the Baptist Church.

Location, north side of Eddy street, between Octavia and Laguna. Rev. A. Cullen, Pastor; Rev. E. Morrissey, Assistant; pastoral residence, 1110 Eddy street.

During the year a new pastoral residence adjoining the church has been built, which will be occupied during the present year.

Masses Sundays at seven, nine and half past ten o'clock A.M. Vespers Sundays, with instructions at half past seven o'clock P.M. Sunday School in the morning after nine o'clock Mass.

Instruction for children in Catechism every Saturday morning.

Iglesia de Nuestra Senora de Guadalupe (Guadalupe Church.)

Location, north side of Broadway Street, bet Mason and Taylor. Rev. Andres Garriga, Pastor; Rev. Charles Franchi, Assistant; pastoral residence 908 Broadway street.

This church was organized for the benefit of the Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese residents. The first services were held on Christmas Day, 1875. At present the basement only has been erected, where services are now held. It is intended to erect within the next two years an elegant structure. The lot cost $11,000, and with the completion of the church and parsonage is estimated to cost about $40,000, of which $30,000 has been raised, nearly the whole having been subscribed by the Spanish residents of this city.

Services are held in the Spanish language at ten A. M., and in the Italian language at nine o'clock A. M., on Sundays and Festival days. Masses at seven, nine and half past ten o'clock A. M. Vespers at half past seven o'clock P. M. Mass on week days at seven o'clock A. M. The Sunday School has already an attendance of over two hundred scholars; meets at two o'clock P. M.

Chapels.

In addition to services held at the different Roman Catholic churches throughout the city, religious exercises take place regularly at the following institutions: Presentation Convent Chapel, Powell street; St. Rose's Convent, corner Steiner and Tyler streets; New Presentation Convent, corner of Taylor and Ellis streets; St. Mary's Hospital Chapel, corner of First and Bryant streets; Magdalen Asylum Chapel, Potrero avenue, near Twenty-first street; St. Mary's College Chapel, San Jose Road; St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, South San Francisco; Sacred Heart College corner of Larkin and Eddy streets, and St. Dominic Church and Monastery, northwest corner of Bush and Steiner streets.

SWEDENBORGIAN.

First New Jerusalem Church.

Location north side of O'Farrell street, between Mason and Taylor. Rev. John Doughty, Pastor; residence, 1508 Leavenworth street.

This society was organized February 15, 1852. It has erected upon an eligible lot, measuring fifty-five feet front by one hundred and thirty-seven feet deep, a very neat church edifice in the Gothic style, capable of seating about three hundred and fifty persons, and at a total expense, including lot and church, of a little over $12,000. The seats are entirely free to the public.

There is a library connected with the church, containing all the theological and nearly all the scientific books of Swedenborg, both in English and Latin, and a large number of collateral works by various authors, explanatory of the New Church faith, which is free to all who desire to inform themselves concerning this peculiar religious system.

Services are held every Sabbath at eleven o'clock A. M. and half past seven o'clock P. M. Administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the close of the morning service on the first Sundays in January, April, July, and October. Sabbath School at half past twelve o'clock P. M.

Church Officers.—Charles Pace, President; G. H. Sanders, Secretary and Treasurer; B. Shellard, C. C. Webb, T. S. Miller, O. Davidson, A. W. Manning, Trustees; Dr. A. Kellogg, John McCraith, J. Mathewson, E. Ecklund, E. A. Sawyer, E. D. Fensler, G. W. G. Harford, Church Committee; H. L. Hoerner, Secretary of the Society; U. Boynton, Librarian.

New Jerusalem Church.

Rev. Leonard E. Jordan, Pastor; residence, 212 Franklin street.

This society was organized April 3, 1870, with twenty-eight members. Present membership fifty.

Services are now held every Sabbath in the church of the First Society, O'Farrell street, between Mason and Taylor streets.

Church Officers—Oliver Eldridge (Chairman), J. H. Purkett, David Wilder, H. H. Ingerson, and Rev. Jos. Worcester, Church Committee.

UNITARIAN.

First Unitarian Church.

Location, south side of Geary street, between Dupont and Stockton. Rev. Horatio Stebbins, Pastor; residence, 831 Bush street.

This church was organized September 1, 1850. The first edifice owned by them was erected in 1852, on Stockton street, between Clay and Sacramento. The first regular Pastor, the Rev. Joseph Harrington, arrived August 27, 1852, and died November 2 of the same year, of Panama fever. The second regular Pastor, Rev. F. T. Gray, arrived June, 1853, left June, 1854, and died in Boston February, 1855. The third regular Pastor, the Rev. R. P. Cutler, arrived August 31, 1854, and continued his ministrations