St. Luke's Church.

Location, south side of Pacific street between Polk street and Van Ness Avenue. Rev. S. Gregory Lines, Rector; residence, 1222 Pine street.

The first services of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Spring Valley, which led to the organization of this church, were held by the Rev. Giles Easton, Assistant Rector of Grace Church, in Spring Valley School House, on Broadway street, between Larkin and Polk, on the fourth of March, 1866.

A Sunday School was shortly after organized, with Mr. John Wigmore as Superintendent, and Mr. Edward Barry as Librarian. The Mission was at that time called St. Andrew's Church.

On the twelfth of August, 1866, Rev. D. J. Lee took charge of the Mission, and changed the place of holding service to Pixley Hall, on the corner of Pacific and Polk streets. Shortly after, a society of ladies, under the name of Martha Society, was formed for the purpose of raising a fund to purchase a lot and to erect a church building thereon. About this time the name of the Mission was changed to the Church of the Nativity.

The Rev. Dr. Lee having resigned in October, 1867, Rev. F. O. Barstow was appointed as missionary to the station. After the resignation of Mr. Barstow, the vestry elected the Rev. J. B. Gray, Rector, who entered upon his duties the first Sunday in September, 1869. The Rev. E. S. Peake succeeded to the Rectorship December 1, 1870, and officiated until June, 1878, when he was succeeded by the present Rector.

In March, 1868, the ladies of the Martha Society having been requested to furnish a name for the Church suggested St. Luke's, under which the parish was incorporated. The building now occupied by the congregation was completed September 26, 1868, and consecrated April 13, 1873. It was enlarged, and a Guild room added, December, 1878. The church will now accommodate over three hundred persons.

The church is supported by offerings and monthly subscriptions, and seats are free. Services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock A. M. and at half past seven o'clock P. M.; and on Saints' Days, and other Holy Days at eleven o'clock A. M. Sunday School meets at half past nine o'clock A. M.

St. Peter's Church.

Location, northeast corner of Stockton and Filbert streets. Rev. M. C. Lightner, Rector; residence, corner of Eighteenth and Guerrero.

This parish was organized in July, 1867, through the zealous efforts of several earnest laymen, with a view to supplying the large population resident in that portion of the city known as North Beach, with the ministrations of the church. On many accounts a difficult field of labor, it is hoped that in time, through faith and earnest missionary zeal, a self-supporting parish will be established. The parish is incorporated, and also admitted into communion with the Diocesan Convention.

The church building was erected at a cost of $4,500, and accommodates three hundred, the sittings being free.

Services every Sunday at eleven o'clock A. M. and half past seven o'clock P. M.

The Sunday School connected with the church is in a very flourishing condition. Meets at half past nine o'clock A. M.

St. Alban's Church.

Present place of worship, Cambrian Hall, 1133 Mission street. Rector, vacant.

Organized in 1870, as a Free Episcopal Church, with full choral services: has since been conducted, part of the time, as a Mission, under the name of Trinity Chapel, being managed by the Rector of Trinity Church.

Services for the present are discontinued, but the Sunday School, under the superintendence of W. G. Badger, meets at fifteen minutes past nine o'clock A. M.

St. Stephen's Church.

Location, north side of Fulton street, between Webster and Fillmore. Rev. Edgar J. Lion, Rector; residence, 723 Grove street.

This church was organized early in the year 1879, upon the basis of the congregation, which had been gathered by the mission services, conducted in the locality during the preceding four years. The church building now occupied is on the rear of the lot owned by the parish, it being the intention of the Vestry to build a suitable church edifice within the next few years in front of the present structure, which will then be converted into and used exclusively as a Parish School.

The congregation now numbers about two hundred and fifty. Services are held on Sundays at eleven o'clock A. M. and a quarter to eight P. M. The Sunday School, which numbers about two hundred, meets at half past nine o'clock A. M.

Officers.—E. H. Rixford, Thomas Menzies, E. B. Holmes, George J. Vincent and A. J. Fairweather, Vestrymen.

All Saints' Episcopal Church.

Location, Grand Central Hall, corner of Market and Sixth streets. Rev. W. Fred. Morrison, Rector; residence, 1429½ Mission street.

This church was organized November 1, 1878, and owes its origin to a desire for service upon the Cathedral or choral order among many of our Episcopal people, as well as in some measure to supply a local want. Although as yet under only a temporary organization, the membership numbers one hundred and fifty, the congregation averages over two hundred, and the Sunday School has an attendance of sixty. The Sunday School meets at ten o'clock A. M. Church services at eleven A. M. and half past seven P. M. The music in the church service is performed by a supplied choir of boys. Connected with the church is a very efficient guild divided into four departments: social, musical, visiting, and boys club; it meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Temporary Church Officer.—Mr. Kampion, Senior Warden.

Mission Services.

ST. PAUL'S MISSION.—Southeast corner of California and Steiner Streets. Rev. James McElroy, D. D., Minister in charge; residence, 2519 Sacramento street.

This mission grew out of the want long since felt by several residents in the Western Addition of having a Sunday School, and, if possible, a Sunday service within a convenient distance from their homes. It was organized October 1, 1873. The average congregation is about ninety.

A half fifty-vara lot has been secured for the Mission, and a neat and commodious edifice erected.

Services are held every Sunday at eleven o'clock A. M. and half-past seven o'clock P. M. The Sunday School,
