AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY—PACIFIC AGENCY.—Rev. Frederic E. Shearer, Secretary. This society was organized in 1825, to diffuse Gospel truth through the printed page. Its headquarters are at 150 Nassau street, New York. It prints the Gospel in one hundred and forty-five languages or dialects, publishes over thirteen hundred different books, thirty-five hundred tracts and cards, and seven periodicals. The Pacific agency was established in December, 1869, and employed last year twenty-two colporteurs. Its missionary work in this field, with the aid rendered to churches and Sunday Schools, was at a cost of $10,000.

Its depository, at 757 Market street, is also the depository of the California Bible Society, the American Sunday School Union, the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and the Congregational Publishing Society. Two hundred and ninety-two new publications were issued during the past year.

CALIFORNIA BIBLE SOCIETY.—Organized October 30, 1849. The location of the society's building was on Stockton street until the present building on Market street was erected, the corner stone of which was laid May 2, 1862. The building has two stores on the ground floor, one of which is now occupied as the depository of the society. The name of the society was changed by Act of the Legislature, 1859, from the San Francisco Bible Society to its present title. New constitution adopted November, 1860. Depository, 757 Market street. Meetings of the Board of Trustees are held by appointment, on the Tuesday after the first Sunday of each month. Officers—Annis Merrill, President; William Abbott, Secretary; Edward P. Flint, Treasurer.

CHURCH SOCIETY OF ST. FRANCIS PARISH.—Organized February, 1874. Number of members, twenty-five hundred. Meets monthly at St. Francis Church.

The object of the society is to promote the spiritual and temporal well-being of the parish, and to co-operate with the clergy in all matters in which they may require the assistance of the laity.

Officers.—Myles D. Sweeney, President; Robert J. Tobin, Vice-President; John Mulholland, Secretary; Rev. John Harrington, Treasurer.

LADIES' PASTORAL AID SOCIETY OF TRINITY CHURCH.—Organized 1873. Meets every Friday at Trinity Church, after morning service. The object of the society is to take under its care the destitute and friendless within the bounds of Trinity Church parish, to find employment for those requiring it, and to provide clothing and assistance for such as may be in need of it; to visit and comfort the sick and the afflicted; to endeavor to bring to the church those who are neglectful of its services, and particularly the poorer and friendless classes; to gather children into the Sunday School, and to aid in providing active and competent teachers; in short, to do all in its power, under the guidance and direction of the Rector of the parish, to advance the interests of the Church of Christ, and to extend to those around the privileges and blessings of the gospel.

Officers.—Mrs. J. B. Moss, President; Mrs. H. W. Beers, Vice-President; Miss Huddart, Secretary; Mrs. J. Mathieu, Treasurer.

METHODIST BOOK DEPOSITORY.—PACIFIC COAST BRANCH.—The Book Concern was established in 1789 on a borrowed capital of $600. The total sales of the Eastern and Western concerns for the last fiscal year were $1,566,739. The records show that, by order of the General Conference, the Concerns have paid, for religious and benevolent interests and objects outside of their own business, $1,753,590. Net capital, per report of 1877, $1,403,666.

The San Francisco Depository, 1041 Market street, Rev. J. B. Hill, Agent, was established in 1864, and entered its own present commodious building in 1877. The National Temperance Publication Society of New York, and the Publishing House of the M. E. Church South, of Nashville, are represented by full lines of stock.

OCCIDENTAL BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Organized March, 1874, and has for its especial field of labor the evangelization of heathen women on the Pacific Coast. Thirty-one auxiliary societies have been formed on the coast, seven of which are located in this city. The society purchased in June, 1876, the property at 933 Sacramento street for the purposes of the Mission Home. Daily school in English and Chinese is maintained, and Chinese women are in cases of persecution afforded shelter in the Home.
