

OAKLAND HOSPITAL AND HOTEL FOR INVALIDS,

Central Avenue, between Jackson and Madison Streets,
OAKLAND, CAL.

This institution is under the direction of

E. H. WOOLSEY, M. D., Surgeon and Physician-in-Chief, and a Board of able Attending and Consulting Physicians, Surgeons, Obstetricians and Oculists.

Steam, Medicated and Electric Baths, and all the appointments of a first-class general Hospital, and all the requirements, conveniences and comforts of a Private Home for Invalids are here provided.

The Matron is an experienced nurse, and the nurses and attendants (male and female) are well trained and reliable.

The institution is healthfully, pleasantly and conveniently located, occupying an entire block, in a quiet neighborhood, surrounded by elegant private residences; and yet within four blocks of the Central Pacific and Narrow Gauge Railroads, and accessible to their stations by the Central Avenue street cars.

The sewerage facilities are perfect. The wards and private rooms are large, sunny, well ventilated and appropriately furnished.

The building exteriorly is shown in the above cut, together with its attractive grounds; interiorly the woodwork is of solid and carved walnut, the mantels of purest Italian marble and design, and the walls decorated with exquisite frescoes.

The Hospital Section, comprising Surgical, Medical and Convalescent Wards, is separated from the section for Invalids, each department being provided with special corridors, bath rooms, electrical appliances, etc.
