*The city is divided into ten Senatorial and twenty Assembly Districts, the boundaries of which are established by an act of the Legislature, and are subject to change, as provided in the Constitution. The Assembly Districts are subdivided into Election Precincts by the Board of Election Commissioners at each general election and are changed from time to time so as to come within the requirement, as near as possible, of each precinct having three hundred voters. The Ward boundaries being permanently established by the Consolidation Act are given as above.
