

BOLTE'S JEANNE. MISS. SCHOOL. Location—2297 Sacramento street. While all due attention is given to English, it is guaranteed to teach the French and German languages as thoroughly and rapidly as if acquired abroad.

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF MECHANICAL ARTS, THE. Incorporated 1885. The school was founded by James Lick and endowed with $500,000, its object being, "To educate males and females in the practical arts of life, such as workers in wood, iron and stone, or any of the metals, and in whatever industry intelligent mechanical skill now is or can hereafter be applied, such institution to be open to all youths born in California. The academic buildings and shops are located at the corner of Sixteenth (Center street) and Utah streets, about one mile south of the New City Hall and one block east of Potrero avenue, accessible by Ninth street, Tenth street and Potrero avenue. Officers—Horace Davis, President; A. S. Hallidie, Vice-President; James S. Bunnell, Secretary; Horace Davis, A. S. Hallidie, John O. Earl, Horatio Stebbins, D. D. and James Spiers, Trustees; George A. Merrill, Principal.

COLLEGE OF NOTRE DAME. Location—Dolores street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. This institution, incorporated and empowered to confer collegiate privileges, is situated in one of the most agreeable and healthful portions of San Francisco, retired, yet easy of access by the street cars. The building is surrounded by spacious and handsomely laid-out grounds, admirably adapted for exercise and amusement; the rooms are sunny and well ventilated. The object of the institution is to impart an education, solid and refined, the course of instruction being well calculated to render the young ladies good members of society in this world, but, above all, to fit them for that Higher Society which should be the aim and end of all our life's work. The discipline is mild, yet firm and energetic, while the greatest care is taken to promote the health and comfort of the pupils. The course of studies is pursued mainly in the English language, but French, Spanish and German are taught with gratifying success. A partial course comprises Literature, English, Latin and modern languages; also any special branch desired.

DE FILIPPE'S ACADEMY OF LANGUAGES. This well-known institution of learning, which was established in 1871, is now pleasantly located at 320 Post street, opposite Union Square, and is patronized by the elite of our city. Prof. De Filipppe is a graduate of the academies of Paris and Madrid. He is one of the foremost imparters of instruction in Spanish and French on the Pacific Coast. He personally superintends the French and Spanish classes, and he has a corps of first-class assistants to teach any of the other languages that people may desire to learn. In the parlors of his academy may be found foreign periodicals, and a large and varied library of European works, free to the use of scholars.

HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW. Founded March 26, 1878, by S. Clinton Hastings, the first Chief Justice of the State of California. Martin Kellogg, LL.D., President; Hon. William H. Beatty, Sacramento, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, ex officio President of Board of Directors; Charles W. Slack, Ph.B., LL.B., Dean and Professor of Law; William B. Bosley, A. B., LL. B., Assistant Professor of Law; Warren Olney, Jr., A. B., LL. B., Assistant Professor of Law; J. H. C. Bonté, A. M., D. D., Professor of Ethics; Leonard Stone, LL.B., Mills Building, Registrar. College exercises held in the old Hall of Pioneers, 808 Montgomery street.

IRVING INSTITUTE. A select boarding and day school for young ladies, with preparatory department and kindergarten for children, is located at 1036 Valencia street, corner Hill, where young ladies are prepared for the universities, or are graduated upon completing its full academic course. Its buildings, furnished with every modern educational appliance, will accommodate fifty boarding pupils. During the past year the attendance exceeded 125. The Institute is now in its nineteenth year, and has an alumni association of more than 100. Thorough education is given in all its departments by a faculty of twenty teachers, resident and visiting. The musical and art departments are marked features of the school. When requested, the Institute's carriage calls for pupils. Rev. Edward B. Church, M.A., Principal.

SACRED HEART COLLEGE. Located on the southeast corner of Eddy and Larkin streets. Founded in 1874. Is conducted by the Brothers of the Christian Schools. The primary object of the Society of the Brothers of the Christian Schools is the moral and intellectual education of youth, and to give a thoroughly Christian and secular education, embracing the classical, scientific and commercial courses. The scholastic year is divided into two terms of five months each. The first term commences about the middle of July; the second on January 2. Brother Eruinold, President.

SACRED HEART PRESENTATION CONVENT. Location—corner Taylor and Ellis streets. A chartered institution conducted by the Presentation Sisters. Its aim is to give a thorough and refined education. The school is free of charge to all denominations.

THE SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY. Organized in this city November 7, 1871. It is a school for the training of young men for the Gospel ministry, and is under the control of the Presbyterian Synod of California. It is governed by a board of twenty-four directors chosen from the Presbyterian Synods of Oregon and California. For a number of years it was located at 121 Haight street. Four years ago it moved into its new and more commodious buildings at San Anselmo, Marin county. The institution has been liberally endowed. Tuition is free of expense to students of all denominations. Officers—Rev. William B. Noble, D. D., President; R. J. Trumbull, Secretary and Business Manager; George D. Gray, Treasurer. Business office—No. 419 Sansome street.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCHOOLS. Boys' school, conducted by the Brothers of Mary. Brother George N. Sauer, Principal. Average attendance nearly 700. The Girls' school is conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Name of Jesus and Mary. The school building is located at the corner of Tenth and Howard streets.

ST. PAUL'S GERMAN AND ENGLISH SCHOOL. Connected with St. Paul's German Lutheran Church. Location—Corner Eddy and Gough streets. Prof. J. H. Hargens, Principal.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES. (See Hospital for Children.)

UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC. A consolidation of the San Jose College, at College Park, and Napa College, at Napa City, universities established by and under the control of the California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Both institutions were consolidated in 1894, under one Board of Trustees, and reincorporated, with the principal place of business in San Francisco. The officers of the Board are I. J. Truman, Mills building, San Francisco, President; S. E. Holden, A. M., Napa, Vice-President; Rev. Thomas F. Ithen, D. D., San Francisco, Secretary. Office, Mills building.

WOMEN'S EDUCATIONAL AND INDUSTRIAL UNION. Location—7 Van Ness avenue, where one of the Ladies of the Directory may be seen daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M. The lessons taught embrace the English, German, French and Spanish languages; the art of painting, singing and of playing on the mandolin, guitar and violin; the milliner's and dress-maker's arts, and those of the manicure and the hairdresser and the typewriter. Cooking also is taught. Every Tuesday evening a social entertainment is held, free to all women. Employment bureau for women. Officers—Mme. Louise A. Sorbier, President; Mrs. Paris Kilburn, Mrs. Nellie B. Eyster and Mrs. P. D. Hale, Vice-Presidents; Mrs. L. C. Fraser, Treasurer; Mrs. C. F. Kapp, Recording Secretary; Miss M. B. Sorbier, Corresponding Secretary. Associate Directors—Mrs. R. J. Deane, Mrs. E. P. Keeney, Mrs. H. Lewis and Mrs. R. Searies.

ZISKA INSTITUTE. Its chief aim will ever be to furnish the best attainable advantages, to secure not merely culture, but the most healthful mental development. While not connected with any special denomination, the school is Christian in character and purpose. The methods of Miss Ziska's work will be preserved, modified by the results of her greater experience, her recent personal observation of the best educational institutions in America and Europe, and the demands of a progressive age. Located at 1606 Van Ness Avenue, in the most pleasant part of the city. The spacious house affords everything necessary for comfort and health, and is in perfect sanitary condition. The course of study is thorough and comprehensive, ranging from primary through collegiate departments.

UNITED STATES LAUNDRY ASS'N,
Office, 1004 MARKET STREET,
Near Powell St. Telephone South 420.

The Bulletin

Is valuable to advertisers on account of its superior clientele and large circulation. Telephone Main 926.