EMPIRE LAUNDRY CO., 755 BRYANT ST., Phone South 277. Phone South 277.

Colleges and Private Schools.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

Colleges and Private Schools.

in wood, fron and stone, or any of the metals, and in whatever industry intelligent mechanical skill now is or can hereafter be applied. The institution is open to all youths residing in California, and is free of charge for tuition. The academic buildings and shops are located at the corner of Sixteenth (Center street) and Utah streets, about one mile south of the New City Hall and one block east of Potrero avenue, accessible by Ninth, Eryant, Fillmore and Sixteenth streets. Officers—Horace Davis, President; A. S. Hallidie, Vice-President; James S. Bunnell, Secretary; Horace Davis, A. S. Hallidie, John O. Earl, Horatio Stebbins, D. D., and James Spiers, Trustees; George A. Merrill, Principal. Principal.

Principal.

Cogswell Polytechnical College. Was founded by Dr. H. D. Cogswell and Caroline E. Cogswell, with an endowment valued at $1,000,000. The academic building is a three-story brick structure at the corner of Twenty-sixth and Folsom streets. The shop building, a two-story frame structure, is located in the rear. The school year consists of forty weeks divided into two terms; the first term begins on the first Monday in January. The time of the students is equally divided between academic and technical work, seven courses being open for selection. Officers and Trustees—Dr. H. D. Cogswell, President, Marechal Niel Hotel, 404 Ellis street; Mrs. Caroline E. Cogswell, Marechal Niel Hotel, 404 Ellis of Stutter street; Robert Ewing, 336 Sutter street; Thomas G. Knight, 134 Golden Gate avenue; Oscar Lewis, Mills Building; J. H. Culver, Secretary and Manager, College Building; W. H. V. Raymond, Superintendent of Instruction. Raymond, Superintendent of Instruction

COLLEGE OF NOTRE DAME. Location -- Dolores street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. atreet, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. This institution, incorporated and empowered to confer collegiate privileges, is situated in one of the most agreeable and healthful portions of San Francisco, retired, yet easy of access by the street cars. The building is surrounded by spacious and hand somely laid-out grounds, admirably adapted for exercise and amusement; the rooms are sunny and well ventilated. The object of the institution is to impart an education, solid and refined, the course of instruction being well calculated to render the impart an education, solid and refined, the course of instruction being well calculated to render the young ladies good members of society in this world, but, above all, to fit them for that Higher Society which should be the aim and end of all our life's work. The discipline is mild, yet firm and energetic, while the greatest care is taken to promote the health and comfort of the pupils. The course of studies is pursued mainly in the English ianguage, but French, Spanish and German are taught with gratifying success. A partial course comprises Literature, English, Latin and modern languages; also any special branch desired. also any special branch desired.

DE FILIPPE'S ACADEMY OF LANGUAGES. This well-known institution of learning, which was established in 1871, is now pleasantly located at 320 Post street, opposite Union Square, and is patronized by the élite of our city. Prof. De Filippe is a graduate of the academies of Paris and Madrid. He is one of the foremost imparters of instruction in Spanish and French on the Pacific Coast. He personally superintends the French and Spanish classes, and he has a corps of first-class assistants to teach any of the other languages that people may desire to learn. In the pariors of his academy may be found foreign periodicals, and a large and varied library of European works, free to the use of scholars.

HASTINGS COLLEGE OF THE LAW. Founded March 26, 1878, by S. Clinton Hastings, the first Chief Justice of the State of California. Martin Kellogs, LL,D.,President; Hon, William H. Beatty, Sacramento, LL.D., President; Hon. William H. Beatty, Sacramento, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, ex. officio President of Board of Directors; Charles W. Slack, Ph. B. LL.B., Dean and Professor of Law; William B. Bosley, A. B., LL. B., Assistant Professor of Law; Warren Olney, Jr., A. B., LL. B., Assistant Professor of Law; Louis Theodore Hengstier, Ph. D., Assistant Professor of Law; Louis Theodore Hengstier, Ph. D., Assistant Professor of Law; Louis de F. Bartlett, Ph. B., LL. B., Instructor in Law; Leonard Stone, LL.B., 620 Parrott Bullding, Registrar. College exercises held in the old Hall of Pioneers, 808 Montgomery street.

IRVING INSTITUTE. A select boarding and day school for young laddes, with a thoroughly equipped preparatory department for children. This school is in its twenty-second year, and is accredited by the University of California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity of California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the Acceptance of the California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the Acceptance of the California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the Acceptance of the California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the California and the Leland Stanford Juniversity and the California ior University. It has lately been moved to its new home on the northeast corner of California and Buchanan streets, where it occupies an elegant and commodious building fitted with every modern convenience for light, heat, health and comfort. The play grounds are ample for swings, tennis, basketball, and croquet. It continues under the ownership and management of the Reverend Edward B. Church and wife, who give their personal supervision to every department, the Conservatory of Music still being a realized feature of the school. being a marked feature of the school.

Being a marked feature of the school.

SACRED HEART COLLEGE. Located on the southeast corner of Eddy and Larkin streets. Founded in 1874. Is conducted by the Brothers of the Christian Schools. The primary object of the Society of the Brothers of the Christian Schools is the moral and intellectual education of youth, and to give a thoroughly Christian and secular education, embracing the classical, scientific and commercial courses. The scholastic year is divided into two terms of five months each. The first term commences about the middle of July, the second on January 2. Brother Erminold, President.

SACRED HEART PRESENTATION CONVENT. tion, corner Taylor and Ellis streets. A chartered institution conducted by the Presentation Sisters. Its aim is to give a thorough and refined education. The school is free of charge to all denomina-

ST. IGNATIUS COLLEGE. The St. Ignatius College, located on the west side of Van Ness avenue, and extending from Hayes to Grove streets, ranks among the oldest and most prominent of the colleges of San the oldest and most prominent of the colleges of San Francisco, opening for the reception of students ou October 15, 1855. It was incorporated under the law of the State April 30, 1859, and empowered to confer degrees and academical honors. The number of students usually in attendance is upwards of four hundred, with a staff of twenty-two professors and teachers. The college edifice consists of two main buildings, connected by spacious corridors. On the corner of Grove and Van Ness avenue, the first two stories are used for class and lecture rooms and the corner of Grove and van Ness avenue, the first two stories are used for class and lecture-rooms, and the two upper floors as an exhibition hall. The church and college combined front two hundred and ninety feet on Hayes street, and run through to Grove street, a depth of two hundred and seventy five feet. It is one of the largest and most magnificant of the control of the co cent edifices the city contains.

ST. Joseph's Schools. Boys' school, conducted by the Brothers of Mary. The Girls' school is conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. Average attendance nearly 800. The buildings are located at the corner of Tenth and Howard streets.

ST. PAUL'S GERMAN AND ENGLISH SCHOOL. Connected with St. Paul's German Lutheran Church. Location—Corner Eddy and Gough streets. Prof. J. H. Hargens, Principal.

J. H. Hargens, Frincipai.

THE SAN FRANCISCO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.
Organized in this city November 7, 1871. It is a school for the training of young men for the Gospel ministry, and is under the control of the Presbyterian Synod of California. It is governed by a board of twenty-six directors chosen from the Presbyterlan Synods of Oregon. Washington and California.
For a number of years it was located at 121 Halght street. Six years ago it moved into its new and more commodious buildings at San Anselmo, Marin county. The institution has been liberally endowed.
Tuition is free of expense to students of all denom-County. The institution has been interanty endowed. Tuitfon is free of expense to students of all denominations. Officers—George D. Gray, President; R. J. Trumbull, Secretary and Business Manager. Business office—No. 419 Sansome street.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES. (See Hospital

TRINITY SCHOOL. Location-3300 Washington street, northwest corner of Central avenue. The school prepares young men and boys for college or business and provides instruction as far as the third, business and provides instruction as far as the third, or junior year, in the ordinary university course. For convenience it is divided into four departments —the Preparatory, Lower School, Upper School and Graduate Departments. The school is an accredited school with the University of California, the Leland Stanford Jr. University and Trinity College. By this privilege graduates of the school will be admitted to these institutions upon the recommendation of the rector without the usual entrance examinations. inations.

University of the Pacific. Rev. E. McClish, D. D., President of University, College Park. A consolidation of the San Jose College, at College Park, and Napa College, at Napa City, universities established by and under the control of the California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal

DAWSON'S "PERFECTION" SCOTCH