

SCRIBNER'S LIBRARY OF MODERN AUTHORS

NO SUCH LIST of the works of standard authors, English and American, has ever been offered to the public as that which Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons now present. This list includes the works of distinguished authors which have not hitherto been available in uniform sets—Kipling, Stevenson, Barrie, Stockton, Field, Riley, Tolstoi, and an entirely new edition of Dickens.

THE PLATES are in all instances new, the deckel-edged paper was specially manufactured for use in these editions, and each page bears in water-mark the initials of the author or publisher. The type is clear and readable, the printing is of the best, while the elegance and simplicity of the various bindings will delight the cultivated book-lover and collector.

THESE EDITIONS are sold only by subscription, and orders are taken only for complete sets. They can not be bought in the book stores, and all requests for information should be sent direct to the publishers:
