

Stanislaus Mills,

Knights Ferry.

San Joaquin Co.

LOCKE & CO.,.....Proprietors.

THESE mills were built in 1853 and '54; and in the fall of 1855 large quantities of flour was manufactured by Messrs. Locke & Co., which has proven the best article ever manufactured in the State, in fact the flour manufactured at these mills is equal in every respect to the best flour known anywhere in the habitable globe.—Connected with the flour mills is a splendid saw mill, and an immense lumbering business is destined soon to be carried on at this point. The logs are "run" on the Stanislaus river on the "down east" plan. There is an immense warehouse, fire proof, connected with these mills, capable of storing 2000 tons of wheat, the storage is free. These mills are situated at the most important water privilege in the State, the site alone is estimated to be worth at the present time $75,000. The mills and warehouse have cost the proprietors over $50,000.

Below will be found the opinions of the well known merchants and bakers concerning the Stanislaus mills flour.

"We have always made it a point in our business to secure for our customers the best flour to be had in the State, and have used Horner's, Golden Gate, Stockton City Mills, San Joaquin, Pilot, Santa Clara, Alvino, and numerous other brands, and for the past five months have used exclusively the Stanislaus mills flour, and without hesitation pronounce it far superior to any brand we have ever used, and fully equal, to give it age, to the celebrated brands of Richmond flour, Haxall and Gallego.

McKENTY & CHURCH.

KNAPP & CO.

Columbia, Feb. 1st, 1855.

MESSRS. LOCKE & Co, Gentlemen: Having heard the Stanislaus mills flour so highly spoken of, I was induced to try it in my bakery, having obtained a parcel from Messrs. Hester & Co. of this place, I gave it a thorough trial and to my great surprise I found it equal in every respect, excepting age; to the Haxall and Gallego, and if you will let it remain in store four months after grinding, I will use it altogether if you will furnish me at the same price I can obtain Haxall and Gallego.

A. GALL, Massachusetts Bakery.

STOCKTON, Feb. 12th, 1856.

MESSRS. LOCKE & Co., Gentlemen: I have used the Stanislaus mills flour in my Bakery, and find it superior to any California flour I have ever used, and I am of the opinion, that if stored so as to become of proper age, it will prove fully equal to the Haxall and Gallego brands.

J. M. BUFFINGTON.

MESSRS. LOCKE & Co., Gentlemen: We have sold large quantities of the Stanislaus mills brand of flour, and take pleasure in stating that it is equal to any manufactured in the State.—

Some of our customers, who are Bakers, we supply with it altogether.
