[No. 998.]

Is a case wherein the State was the prosecutor and a Mexican by the name of —, Barretta defendant. The trial lasted for near two days, and most of the legal profession were engaged to prosecute and defend. At the conclusion of the trial Justice Barry took the case under consideration and after several hours of investigation and reflection, returned the following written document.

State of California. }
County of Tuolumne. } Having investigated the case wherein —, Barretta has been charged by an old Mexican woman named Maria Toja, with having abstracted a box of money which was buried in the ground, jointly belonging to her self and daughter, and carrying it, or the contents away from her dwelling, and appropriating the same to his own use and benefit, the supposed amount being over two hundred dollars; but failing to prove positively that it contained more than twenty, and that proven by testimony of his own witness and by his own acknowledgment, the case being so at variance with the common dictates of humanity, and having been done under very painful circumstances, at the time when the young woman was about to close her existence, the day before she died, and her aged mother, at the same time lying upon a bed of sickness unable to rise or to get a morsel of food for her self, and he at the time, presenting him self, as an angel of relief to the poor and destitute sick, when twenty poor dollars might have relieved the immediate necessities of the poor, infebled, sick, and destitute old woman, far from home and friends. Calls imperitively for a severe rebuke and reprimand for such inhuman and almost unprecedented conduct, as also the necessity of binding him over to the Court of Sessions in the sum of $500.00.

R. C. BARRY, Justice Peace.
