

DIRECTORY.

PUBLIC EXERCISES AND HOLIDAYS.—Professors Newcomer, Nash, Lenox, Flugel, and the Registrar.

STUDENTS' AID—Professors Wing, Green, Griffin, and M. R. Smith.

ATHLETICS.—Professors Angell, Wood, Murray, Richardson, and Branner.

HOPKINS LABORATORY.—Professors Jenkins, Gilbert, and Kellogg.

Students.—The following is a summary of the students for each year since the opening of the University. Figures are not available for the present year. The freshman class this year numbers 421.

| | 1891-92 | 1892-93 | 1893-94 | 1894-95 | 1895-96 | 1896-97 |
|------------------------------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|
| Old students. | | 380 | 498 | 671 | 702 | 695 |
| New students. | 559 | 384 | 477 | 429 | 367 | 396 |
| | 559 | 764 | 975 | 1100 | 1069 | 1091 |
| Men. | 417 | 537 | 678 | 728 | 691 | 691 |
| Women | 142 | 227 | 297 | 372 | 378 | 400 |
| Percentage of women | 25.4 | 29.7 | 30.4 | 33.8 | 35.3 | 36.6 |
| From California | 365 | 468 | 576 | 680 | 698 | 729 |
| From other States. | 194 | 296 | 399 | 420 | 371 | 362 |
| Percentage from other States | 34.7 | 38.7 | 41.0 | 38.2 | 34.7 | 33.2 |

Student Organizations.—

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS.—This Association is composed of all students of the University and is the body in which all matters of general interest to the students are considered.

EUPHRONIA.—The society aims to give general literary and forensic training. Prepared and extempore debating and speaking comprise the principal part of its work. The mem-

J. J. MORRIS has the Largest List to select from.