number of courses are also offered for the special benefit of teachers. Summer courses may receive the same credit as the same amount and kind of University work. For this purpose sixteen weeks is considered a full semester; and courses running four, six, eight, or more weeks are estimated at the proper fractional equivalent of a full semester's work. No student is given more than ten hours of University credit for work done during any summer vacation. The fees for summer courses are fifteen dollars for a six weeks' course and twenty dollars for an eight weeks' course, unless otherwise specified.

Telephone and Telegraph.—The Western Union Telegraph and the Sunset Telephone each have an office in the Electrical Engineering building.

Public Lectures.—Public lectures on subjects of general interest, by members of the faculty or by persons invited from abroad, are given in the chapel, usually on Tuesday evenings.
