

Introductory

The fifth revised edition of Polk-Husted Directory Co.'s San Jose and Santa Clara County Directory is presented herewith and the publishers feel confident that it will meet with the approval that has been given to the former editions of the same work. All information has been gathered from original sources, and the entire city as well as all towns in the county have been carefully canvassed by men who devote their entire time to work of this nature.

In no line of business is experience more necessary than in directory work, and the experience gained in more than forty years in this kind of work has been used to great advantage in producing the present volume. One of the features which has been added to this year's directory is the addition of the wife's name following the name of the husband. This information having been added where we were able to obtain it.

A complete Business Directory follows in which are listed all persons doing business in the county under their appropriate heading. This Business Directory will be found valuable as a purchaser's guide by both local and foreign patrons.

The Directory is a necessity in every community. No publication is more generally used. No better advertisement for a city can be sent out to all parts of the country than a representative City Directory, this is done for San Jose and Santa Clara County by means of our exchange system whereby a San Jose Directory can be found in all the prominent directory libraries of the country.

This volume contains the names of 24,990 residents of San Jose and suburbs, an increase of 1358 names over the Directory of 1911.

We are indebted to our patrons for their continued support and for the courtesies extended to our representatives in supplying information.

Respectfully,

POLK-HUSTED DIRECTORY CO.
