SANTA CLARA

Is a thriving city of over 5000 inhabitants, 3 miles west of San Jose on the S P R R. Has telegraph, post, express and telephone offices. It is extensively known by its municipal ownership, owning its gas, water and electric light plants, the profits from which go to keep up its excellent streets and highways. The town is one of the old communities of the State, the mission having been founded by the Spanish padres in the year 1777. It is connected by an excellent street car service with San Jose. It is situated in the center of one of the richest and most attractive "garden spots" in California, surrounded by beautiful homes and orchards. There is no isolation of country residents.
