

MAYFIELD

The town of Mayfield is one of the oldest in this part of the country. It was organized long before Palo Alto was founded, but the making of Palo Alto the university town gave it a great advantage. Mayfield's population increases very slowly. Most of the people there are either old residents or natives. City officials are as follows:

Board of Trustees—Myron H. Tichenor, chairman; Allison Peacock, Steve Anderson, Bert R. Holston, George B. Moore.

Committees of the board of trustees are made up as follows:

Lights and Streets—Steve Anderson, George B. Moore.

Water—Tichenor, Peacock.

Building—Anderson, Moore.

Parks and Amusements—Tichenor, Holston.

Finance—Tichenor, Holston.

Clerk—S. M. Cuthbertson.

Treasurer and Water Collector—R. L. Pitcher.

The appointive officials are:

Marshal and Tax Collector—F. D. Minaker.

Town Engineer—Charles E. Moser.

Town Attorney—Charles E. Eastin.

Town Recorder—Bernard Mayer.

Water Engineer—P. A. Crowley.

Health Officer—Elsie G. Roberts.

Librarian—E. J. Roberts.

Traffic Officer—Orville Overturf.

Mayfield School

Mayfield's school district embraces a territory fully four times as large as the town itself. A commodious building is provided for the children of grammar school grades. Members of the board of trustees and teachers are as follows:

Trustees—George O. Call, clerk; Mrs. Adelaide M. Coburn, Sherman Van Gorden.

Teachers—E. M. Knight, principal; Annabel Mitchell, fifth grade; Helena G. Hansen, seventh grade; Mrs. Viola B. Daugherty, first grade; Mrs. Eleanor Stalter, eighth grade; Janet A. Thain, second grade; Ethel Topham, fourth grade; Dorothy Cupper, third grade and domestic science; Jessie Sommerville, sixth grade.
