ON THE FRONT COVER

The Sacramento Memorial Auditorium, built in 1927, is dedicated to those who have died in defense of our country in all wars. Resting on a foundation of 1,100 concreted piles, the building is equipped for multiple use by conventions and trade shows, for opera and philharmonic performances, for boxing, wrestling, ice shows and circuses. The main floor can be changed from theater slope to flat floor in four minutes by giant hydraulic jacks.
