Party Line Pointers:

1. Space your calls instead of making a whole series.
2. If yours is an emergency call and the line is in use, explain the circumstances to the person using the line.
3. If you are calling from a dial telephone always make certain the line is clear before you dial.
4. When the children use the telephone, ask them to be considerate, too.
5. Replace the receiver properly when you finish your call.

Don't forget to plan for concealed telephone conduit and convenient locations for telephone outlets when you build your new home. These built-in telephone facilities add real value to a home, yet their cost is very small if they are installed during construction.
