SPECIAL DIRECTORY LISTINGS

Subscribers whose business and residence telephones are not connected with the same exchange, may, if they so desire, have the residence telephone mentioned under the business listing. For example, Mr. Jones having a business telephone in San Francisco and a residence telephone in Oakland, would, under the above arrangement, be listed in the San Francisco section of the Directory

Kearny 1—Jones, L. C., Broker, 240 California St.
Residence (See Oakland)

and in the Oakland section of the Directory

Oakland 426—Jones, L. C., r 2428 Telegraph Ave.

For this additional listing the charge is Twenty-five Cents (25c) per month for not less than four months.
Please use attached form when ordering this service.

TELEGRAMS
SENT BY TELEPHONE

TO THE

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH
COMPANY'S OFFICE

Are placed upon the wires promptly, and given the same quick service as if filed at the Telegraph Company's Offices in the usual way.

Say to Central, "Telegram" or "Western Union"; the connection will be made immediately, and you may dictate your message to an expert operator.

The charges will be collected later.

OCEAN MAIL SERVICE, by which Telegrams (NIGHT LETTERS) are sent by wire to a prominent seaport, and from there mailed to a foreign address, with only an additional five cent charge for postage, is a new and valuable facility, and a great benefit in communicating with people in foreign lands.

Western Union NIGHT LETTER SERVICE is unrivaled.
