EDITORIAL

SINCE 1872, young men and women have been leaving the Oakland High School until, up to this June, exactly 5,000 persons have received their diplomas from this old institution. The largest class ever graduated from the school thus far will leave this June with over 130 members in it.

But the noteworthy thing about the alumni of the Oakland High School is not the greatness of their number; neither is it so much the age of the school. It is rather the great things which have been accomplished by our graduates. Positions from the most ordinary to the highest and most responsible have been filled by our predecessors. And regardless of what the position has been, it has been filled in a manner that speaks volumes for the training and ideals instilled into a young person as he or she goes through the Oakland High School.

As you go through the long list of the graduates of Oakland High, which is given further on in this book, you will note with pleasure many of the outstanding names, including bank and railway presidents, renowned scientists, etc. But with deeper thought will come the question: "What will I be fifty years after?"

Regardless of how many of us may become financiers, or world-famed diplomats, we should bear in mind that if we all put into our life-work what we have learned in O. H. S., we will be bound to succeed.

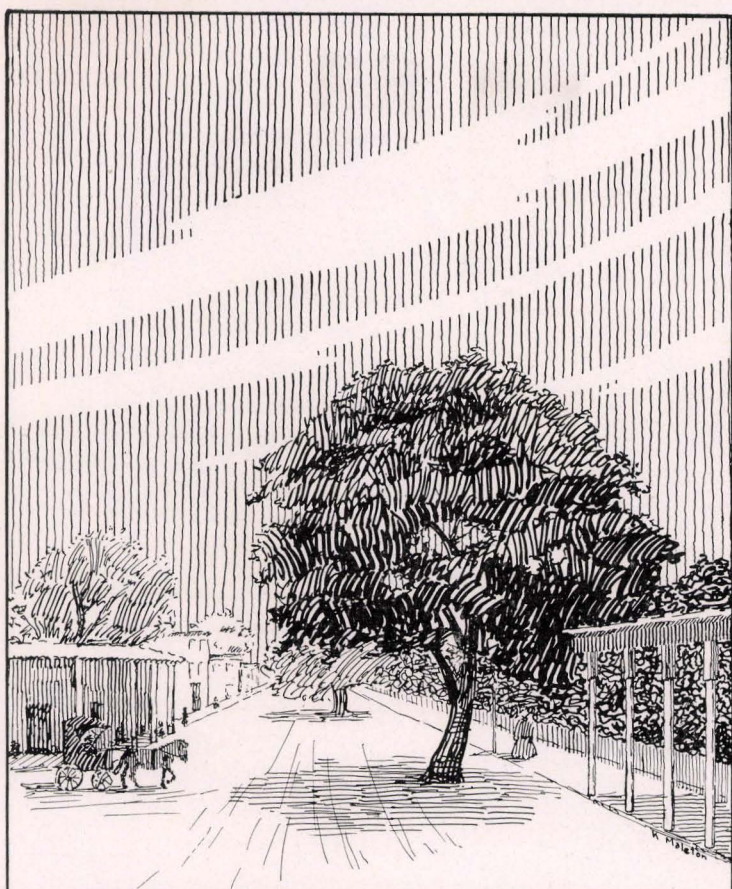

But still it is going to be interesting to look back fifty years hence and see how our records compare with those of the "first five thousand."

THE OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL IN 1872 AND AT PRESENT

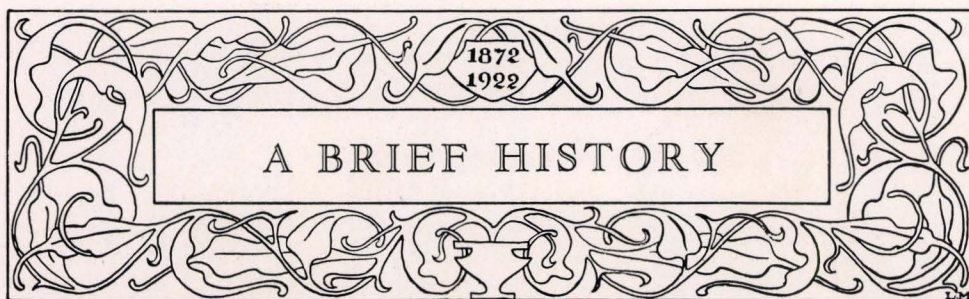

The Oakland High School has from the first been extremely fortunate in the choice of its principals. The school was started in a four-room building in 1869 by Mr. McChesney. He led the school through the early years and saw it rise to a pre-eminent position among like institutions in the state.

When Mr. McChesney resigned in 1901, the most suitable man to be found to fill his responsible position was Mr. James Pond. Mr. Pond is affectionately known by hundreds of his students as "Jimmy" Pond. Our second principal served until 1908, when he left to go into professional life.

Our third and present principal, Mr. C. E. Keyes, took Mr. Pond's place. The most brilliant testimonial of his career as head of the school is the position the school has taken and maintained since Mr. Keyes came to us. Student self-government has been successfully introduced and the Oakland High system is now the model for many other schools. Mr. Keyes has improved the school in many ways since his assumption of office and his efforts have not gone unappreciated by the students.

THE first class of the Oakland High School graduated in the spring of 1872, just fifty years ago. The surviving members of that class are to participate in our graduating exercises at the end of this term, June, 1922. The present class sincerely appreciates the honor conferred upon it by the first class. In commemoration of this happy event, this issue of the Aegis gives the names of all the 5,000 boys and girls who have graduated from the Oakland High School.

A brief historical sketch of the school may not be out of place at this time. The Oakland High School was organized in the fall of 1869. At that time the school system of Oakland consisted of fifteen teachers and something over one thousand pupils. There were four grammar schools, and the high school was organized in one of these—the Lafayette School—located at the corner of Twelfth and Jefferson streets, on the site now occupied by the Oakland High School. The city then had a population of about 10,000. Previous to the organization of the high school, young people wishing an education beyond the eighth grade attended private schools, a number of which were established in Oakland.

The most noted of these was the College of California, located at Twelfth and Franklin streets. This college was organized in 1855. It merged into the University of California, which was first organized in the buildings of the College in September, 1869. Thus the Oakland High School and the State University began their careers at the same time, within four blocks of each other.

In the fall of 1871 the high school moved from the Lafayette Grammar School to a new high school building at the corner of Twelfth and Market streets, the present site of the Vocational High School. At the time of this removal the school had about seventy-five students and two teachers.

As the city increased in population, the high school also grew in numbers. In 1879 it had 325 students, and 450 in 1889. On the evening of April 6, 1889, the high school building burned. The foundation and something of the first story were saved, but six months were required to rebuild it. In the meantime the school occupied Hamilton Hall, an old building on the southeast corner of Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, and a Jewish synagogue, just one block east on Clay street. The school moved into the reconstructed building October 21, 1889, and on the evening of November 6, just sixteen days later, another fire consumed the roof and the second story. The remainder of the year was spent in Hamilton Hall and the synagogue, with some classes in the first story of the school building.

In August, 1890, the school was once more back at Twelfth and Market in the building which had been a second time reconstructed on the old foundations. It is this building which now houses the Vocational High School.

In January, 1895, the school moved into the building which it now occupies. Thus, after an existence of twenty-five years, the Oakland High School came back to the spot where it was born. The Lafayette Grammar school in the meantime had moved into its new home at the corner of Seventeenth and West streets.

During all these years, Mr. J. E. McChesney had been principal of the school. He was the principal and the only teacher in 1869, when the school was founded, and remained principal until 1901, when he resigned. He was followed by Mr. J. H. Pond, who served as principal until 1908, when he resigned and was succeeded by Mr. C. E. Keyes, the present head of the school. It would be difficult to find stronger and more efficient men than these three, and the high standing of the school is due largely to them.

When the school moved in 1895, it was still a three-year school. The grammar schools at the time gave a nine-year course, and the high school course began with the tenth year. In 1896 the ninth grades from all the grammar schools of the city, except the Franklin School, were concentrated at the old high school building at Twelfth and Market streets, which had been renamed the Central Grammar School. Tenth and eleventh grade classes in home economics and commercial subjects were also added. This school was really a second high school, and in a short time its name was again changed to the Central High School.

When the Oakland High School occupied its new home in 1895, it had an enrollment of about 500. In 1901 all ninth-grade students from the Franklin School, and all from the Central High School except those taking commercial and home economics courses, were transferred to the Oakland High School. The school then had some 900 students. By 1909 there were 1100.

The Central High School had its name twice changed, first to the Polytechnic High, and then to the Manual Training and Commercial High. It was steadily growing into a well-equipped high school.

For a number of years after 1910 there was a falling off in numbers at the Oakland High School. This was due to the annexation of the Fruitvale district to Oakland, which opened the Fremont High School to the young people of the city; to the building of the new home for the Manual Training and Commercial High School, which at the time of its removal in 1915 was renamed the Oakland Technical High School; and to the organization of two new schools, the Vocational High School and the University High School. In 1917 the enrollment of Oakland High School was only 650. After this the numbers began to climb. In 1919 the school had 950 students; in 1920, 1150; in 1921, 1325; and in the spring term of 1922, 1450.

Throughout its career the Oakland High School has been an academic or cultural school. To prepare young people for college has always been one of its principal aims. But in 1915 the scope of its work was enlarged by the addition of a commercial and a home economics department. The music department has been enlarged and the work of the other departments has developed a more practical character. What is needed is a new site and a new building, in order that the school may become an all-around, modern, cosmopolitan high school.

CHARLES KARPO.....	Sergeant-at-Arms.....	MILO RATKOVICH

THE timid freshmen of 1918 have become the mighty high seniors. Last term these same Highs, then the low seniors, walked away with Senior Day, and made a success of everything they attempted, including the dance—the Senior Farewell. This term is even a greater one for these seniors, now that they have become Highs. Although the class of June '22 is very large in numbers, it is “immense” in pep, spirit, and co-operation. They have made the spring term of '22 truly worth while and memorable.

THE Low Senior class is not a large class in regard to students, having only two-thirds the number of members of the High Senior class, but it is a large class if measured for its pep.

Ever since the present Lows have been in O. H. S. they have been doing big things as a class. They have had dandy leaders and have co-operated well in all their efforts. It looks as though the school is due for a splendid and peppy Fall Term under the leadership of the December '22 Class.

THE WEEKLY AEGIS of the fall term of 1921-1922 had a most successful semester under the leadership of Edwin Duerr and his able assistants, Philip Berger and Ruth Mack. Many new ideas and features, such as funny feature columns, real short stories, spirited editorials and snappy news articles, in addition to football and freak editions, and the first issue of the Argus were the high lights of Volume XX.

UNDER the leadership of Raeburn Hubbard the Weekly Aegis for the spring term was a huge success. Many new ideas were brought forth to create a better feeling between the student body and their school paper, especially on the part of the girls. Previous to this term girls' affairs, socially and athletically, were never mentioned in the school paper, but Rae brought the girls' news to the front. The "G. A. A. Gab" was the means of letting the fellows know what the girls were doing along the line of school activities.

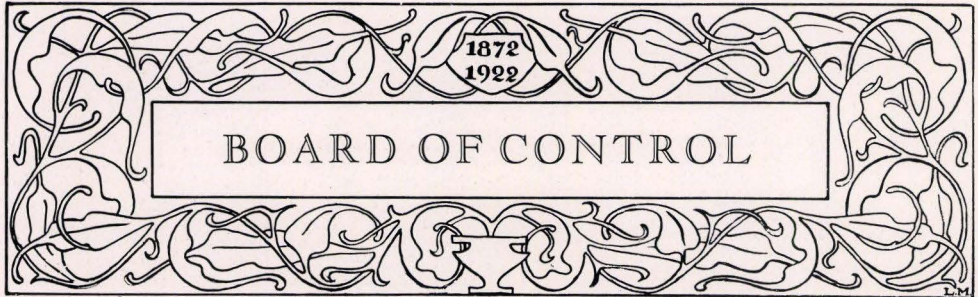

His coworkers, Philip Berger and Dorothy Keane, helped put out the sensational edition on which many of the local newspapers made such favorable comment. Dorothy Keane edited the Girls' Edition which she managed in fine style Rae Hubbard, Phil Berger, and Dot Keane need a word of appreciation for the fine manner in which they managed the Weekly Aegis for the spring term of 1922.

ALL business of the fall term of last year was most ably handled by the school's governing body, the Board of Control. Every member of the board was perfectly fitted for the office and proved that students can take responsibilities on their own shoulders.

Praise should be given Hilmar Munster, Miss Fraser and Mr. Gridley for the capable manner in which they held their offices.

THE predominating features of the Board of Control of this semester were the seriousness of purpose and the individual spirit of co-operation shown by all the members. It is no wonder, then, when looking over the term's work, that we find that the board has done much in its position of the governing body of the Oakland High School.

Meetings were held every Tuesday and student business was always properly taken up and settled, organization and team budgets passed upon, dates for school events arranged, different funds taken care of, and many other governmental duties attended to efficiently.

The great success of the board was due to its membership. Every member was well qualified for his office and handled the position to perfection. A great deal of credit must be given to the president, George Blume, for his able manner of performing his duties. Miss Fraser must be thanked for her numerous helpful suggestions. Mr. Gridley is to be praised for the capable manner in which he handled the finances of the term.

THE members of the Self-Government for the fall term stepped into their difficult police jobs at the beginning of the term and with hard and careful work soon succeeded in bringing about order in school. All their dealings were just and impartial and trials were properly taken care of by Charles Carney and Ruth Mack.

Self-Government in the Oakland High School is relatively new, being instituted in 1911, but it has already proved its value to the students and its existence has been a marked success. Many schools throughout the country have installed our system. The last committees have lived up to and exceeded the records of past committees. The future of self-government in the Oakland High School is certainly promising.

The wearers of the blue button have certainly done their share toward making our school a well-regulated institution and they deserve the thanks and co-operation of the whole student body.

THE ideal in government in the Oakland High School is real self-government by the students. To help attain that ideal the school has a Student Self-Government Committee that has done great work towards that end. This term's committee did its share. The members accepted their duties and responsibilities and sat down to a term of real hard, earnest work, and the result was soon evident.

The members of the committee were each and every one capable of their positions of trust and all performed their tasks with a will. Edwin Duerr and Dorice Smith were chosen Boys' and Girls' Chairmen. It was largely through their efforts that the meetings were properly conducted.

One of the new duties of the term was that of patrolling the halls, and this was well taken care of by the Honor students under the leadership of the members of the committee. At the regular meetings, held on Fridays, all students were given a fair and square trial and the committee endeavored to be just in its sentences.

The backing and support of the entire student body was noticeable during the term. The time has come when the students are realizing the benefits of self-government. It was this spirit and the hard work of the officers that accounted for accomplishments that really meant something.

THE JOINT

DURING the last two terms and under the names of "Morris and Swift," and "Morris and Bridges," respectively, the Joint did a larger business than it has done at any time in the last three years. As "Morris and Swift," the staff that worked hard and gave extra time for its success was composed of the following: Raeburn Hubbard, Kenneth Bridges, Rollin Hand, and George Mikulasek.

At the opening of the spring term several changes were made that increased the volume of business considerably. The "Morris and Bridges" crew, George Mikulasek, James Bridges, Ray Boston, and Bud McClelland, painted the Joint; a new counter was put up, and butterhorns, "choc" doughnuts, and milk were added to the variety. "We sell a mile of hot-dogs a week, or over 200 a day," said Malcolm Morris. "We are indeed grateful for the increased support we are being given by the student body, and are thankful for the publicity we have received through the Weekly Aegis."

LIBRARY

OUR library now contains more than fifteen thousand volumes and means more to us as each year passes because of the great help it has been to us in studying.

The library consists of three attractively arranged rooms with a seating capacity of fifty. It is under the supervision of Miss Browning and has proved to be an alluring spot for students from "Room 23."

During a single day as many as two hundred books have been borrowed by students. Some students fail to take back the books which are so willingly loaned and they thoughtlessly make the librarian and her staff trouble.

A fourth of a credit is given to students wishing to work on the library staff during their study hours. Those on the staff this semester are: Arline Guter, Eleanor Irvine, Joy Langevin, Ina Davis, Isabel Mosely, Marie Hughes, Betty Boehnke, Dorothy Borba, Bess Garfinkle, Helene Ingersoll, Stella Shatzkin, Dorothy Brandon, Gussie Jacobs, Dorothy Wieking, Margaret Kirsten, Bess Boyarsky, La Verne Malott, Frankie Watson, Marie Gochring, Barbara Toll, Wanda Berges, Janet McDermed, Beatrice Quimby, Irene Knowles, and Carmen Martinez.

THE BANK

THE bank is the center of the financial activities of the school and has proven to be very successful.

The bank takes care of all money collected from the student body dues; laboratory and key deposits; funds of the various classes and societies; the Joint; Aegis sales; admission to entertainments, games and dances; and savings deposits. The last is a branch of the Farmers and Merchants Bank and at present there are two hundred and sixty-five depositors and more than six thousand dollars have been deposited.

Mr. Gridley has charge of the bank and also is the head of the Commercial department.

Those who worked in the bank this term are Verna Medlin, Rose Lum, Janet Dalziel, Allene Sandusky, Martin Rotke and Grace Megladdery: Etha Mohr, auditor.

CAPWELL CUP CONTEST

ON JANUARY 11, the annual Capwell Cup Contest was held at Chabot Hall. Out of the fourteen who spoke before a faculty committee in the preliminaries, five were selected for the finals. The five chosen were Philip Berger, who spoke on "Success", Virginia Waters, on "The Irish and British Agreement", Charles Hogan, on "Position of the United States", George Roudebush, on "A Year of President Harding", and Edwin Duerr on "Practical Peace". The latter was the winner of the contest this year, while Virginia Waters was given honorable mention.

Mr. Capwell donated the first of the two loving-cups about ten years ago, and on these cups every year were placed the names of the winners. Last Year, John Truman was the first to have his name engraved on the second cup.

GARFIELD COTTAGE

OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL has sponsored Garfield Day Nursery since September, 1920. At that time $200 was advanced by the A. Y. W. S. to equip the cottage for immediate use. The sum was soon paid back and a new revolving fund established to meet such emergencies as might arise. The work has proved both interesting to the school and beneficial to the cottage. The past year has witnessed various improvements in the welfare of Garfield. The cottage has moved to its new home on East Seventeenth Street and Twenty-second Avenue, the old home being included in the enlargement of Garfield School's playground. The present nursery is better suited to the needs of the youngsters. There is more yard space, more sun, and less noise from the outside. The cottage will be equipped to accommodate fifteen children. The present Garfield Nursery fund is $377, which makes possible all necessities, such as cribs, food, and toys. Toys have also been donated by the students, thus helping to keep down expenses. Each term a committee is chosen to manage the cottage for six months. The committee for the Spring term of '22 consisted of the following students: Editha Beckett, Marion Norris, Bernice Pardee, Edith Hunt and Myrtle Hamilton.

DEBATING

DEBATING is once more coming back into a position of prominence among the activities of high schools throughout the country. This resurrection of debating has been quite noticeable in the Oakland High School, especially during the last year. Not only did clubs thrive, but students interested themselves in debates, a league was formed, and a class in debating was instituted. Altogether, the past year has been a banner year for debating; a year of debating the like of which will not be seen soon in the future.

An important factor in bringing about the renewed interest in debating was the reorganization of the Tri-City Debating League. This league was tri-city in name only, for it consisted of Oakland, Technical, University, Fremont, and Berkeley High Schools. Its purpose was to promote interest in debating and to offer opportunities for interscholastic debates. Three debates were held during the last year. The one held in the fall term was on the question: "Resolved, That the East Bay Cities Should Own and Operate Their Own Water System." Thomas Hill, Salvador Sunseri, Philip Berger and George Roudebush were the Oakland debaters. They lost the decisions but gained experience.

The first debate of the spring term was on the question: "Resolved, That the East Bay Cities Should Furnish Work for the Unemployed." Edwin Duerr, Philip Berger, Thomas Hill, and Pardee Lowe were the Blue and White debaters who lost the oratorical combats by close decisions. The last debate was on the question: "Resolved, That the Two Remaining East Bay Cities Should Adopt the Manager Form of Government."

In addition to Tri-City League debates, the Oakland fellows met Santa Cruz on the question: "Resolved, That the Philippines Be Given Their Immediate Independence." The affirmative team, Thomas Hill and Sanford Braunstein, lost, 2 to 1, and the negative team, Emil Gubin and Pardee Lowe, also lost, being conquered by two girls.

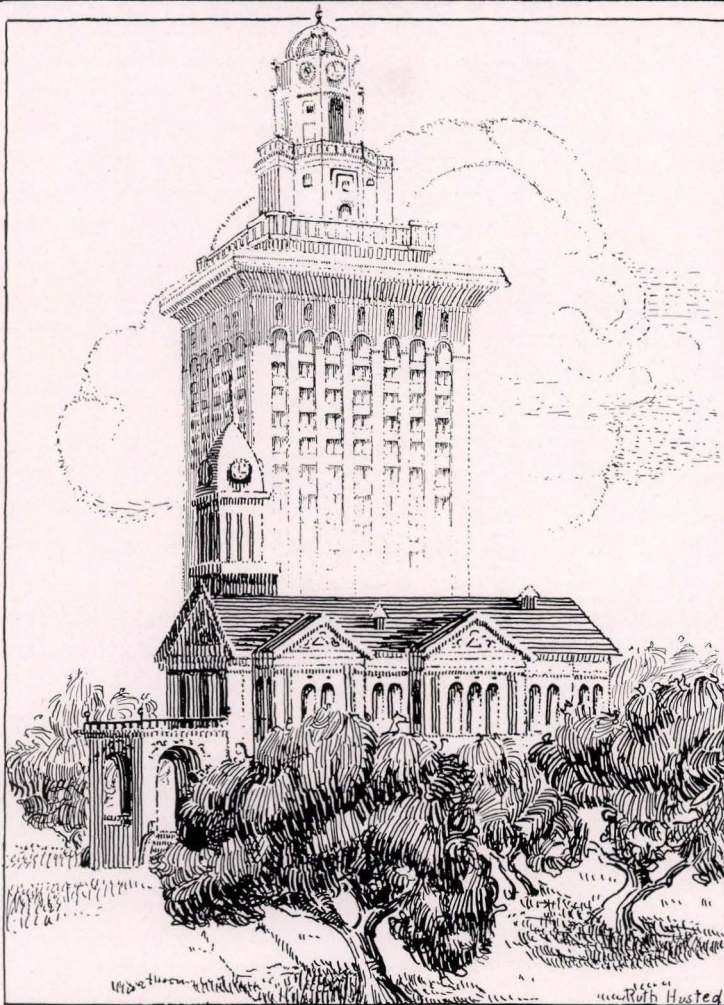

The class in argumentation under Miss Bennett has also helped much to put interest in debating during the past year. It has been a success and is the only class of its kind in Oakland.

The two debating organizations, the Senate and especially Congress, have been the source of our excellent debaters. In fact, the career of debating and a certain group of fellows, our departing seniors, have been identical. From freshmen to seniors the following have backed up debating: Pardee Lowe, Edwin Duerr, Philip Berger, Thomas Hill, Walter Davis, Charles Hogan, Emil Gubin, Grace Megladdery, Virginia Waters, Sanford Braunstein and George Roudebush.

A great amount of helpful criticism has been given by Miss Johnson, Miss Fraser, and Miss Schneider.

ORGANIZATIONS

L.M.

HONOR SOCIETY

AN ORGANIZATION of all stars is the Honor Society. We hear of the stars and heroes on the track and court, but in the past we have heard practically nothing about the stars in the classroom. Everyone should be at school primarily to get an education; so it is proper within a school to give credit and recognition to those scholastic stars who so nobly deserve to be lauded. Greater than any distinction that may be gained from consistently pursuing studies, however, is the satisfaction one feels when he knows he has done his best.

The emblem of the Society is a silver O pin, which is seen on members' coats or dresses, to indicate that the wearer has been a diligent student, and has the qualifications requisite: that he must have received term marks, no less than ones and twos, for two consecutive terms.

When the Society was organized, in the fall of 1921, there were 92 members, and the officers elected for that term proved their efficiency by handling the business of this honorable organization and executing their duties in commendable fashion. They were as follows: George Blume, president; Philip Berger, vice-president; and Jean Wessels, secretary and treasurer.

The problem arose of raising funds without asking the members to pay dues, and was solved very satisfactorily. A dime noon dance in the gym and an Honor Society Jinx at Chabot Hall furnished the necessary money to buy pins. These are very sensible ways of raising money, because they relieve the members of all financial obligations.

There were 131 members at the opening of the spring term of 1922; this number includes 60 new members. Of 21 who were excluded from the organization at the opening of the spring term, 14 were graduates, and only 7 failed to keep up to the standards. The high seniors are allowed to retain their pins after they have graduated. Some thought has been given to the possibility of getting gold pins for those who have been in the Society for five consecutive terms, but finances may be a handicap.

The officers during the spring term were: President, Kenneth Bridges; vice-president, Fred Hansen; secretary and treasurer, Dorothy Furch. These officers have been striving to gain certain privileges for the honor students, one of which is the right to leave the study-hall without being questioned.

The existence of the Honor Society tends not only to stimulate the desire to get into the organization, but it also serves to maintain a higher scholastic standard, because when a student is once admitted he feels obliged to work hard to hold his place.

THE JUNIORS

KOFORD COAKLEY.....	President
MABEL SWAIN	Vice-President
DOROTHY SMITH	Secretary
EDAUN LARSON	Treasurer
LINCOLN MALMQUIST.....	Sergeant-at-Arms

FROM all appearances the school is going to have a dandy bunch of leaders in the near future. This conclusion is reached after looking over the term's work of the junior class and the many peppy students who are identified with this organization.

The junior class is the lowest class organization in the school and yet this has not hindered the juniors from showing pep and spirit that rivaled the senior organizations. Their success this term has largely been due to the excellent leadership afforded by a capable set of officers.

Koford Coakley, Block "O" man and star athlete, was the class pilot and by his discreet leadership proved that brains and beauty can go together.

Mabel Swain, operetta star and R. O. T. C. sponsor, was a fine under-study to the president.

Dorothy Smith, with a term of secretarial experience behind her as a member of the Board of Control, kept the minutes in fine shape.

Edaun Larson, football captain, held down the office of treasurer with ease.

Lincoln Malmquist, Aegis artist of great fame, saw to it that meetings were properly conducted.

Many peppy meetings were held during the term and a novel idea of junior hats was introduced. However, it was not quite a success. But the idea was original.

The event in which the class really showed its ability was a most successful Junior Dance. This semi-annual dance is the main event in the existence of the class and each year the class tries to outdo its predecessor. The dance of the term was equal to the best of the past. The crowd was not so very large, but it was exclusive—only O. H. S. students. The music for the occasion was furnished by Norm Leet's College Four, a group of O. H. S. Alumni.

Koford Coakley, Dorothy Smith, and Mabel Swain had charge of the dance.

When the juniors become seniors, watch them do things. They are true Blue and White students. 1923!!!

DRAMATIC CLUB

Fall Term		Spring Term
GEORGE BLUME.....	President.....	RUTH MACK
MABEL SWAIN.....	Vice-President.....	FRANCES GUE
MYRTLE HAMILTON.....	Secretary.....	HELENE STRAUSE
MALCOLM MORRIS.....	Treasurer.....	EDWIN DUERR

THE Dramatic Club has sprung to the front as the school's peppiest club and its growth and development during the last year have been phenomenal.

During the fall term the plays given by the club were "Lima Beans" with Clarence Raulin and Gladys Moore, and "The Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil" with Myrtle Hamilton, Frances Gue, Rosalie Pfluger, Sam Gold, Margaret Kirsten, Lou Carroll, and Charles Hogan. Many interesting speeches and musicians entertained at the meetings, also.

In the spring term "Overtones," with Helen Peterson, Minnie Cortage, Helen Staib and Leola Frederickson, directed by Ruth Mack, was given.

Several jinks and a performance in Bohemian Grove were also features of the semester.

The progress of the club has been due to the interest of the students and the help of Miss Loop, faculty advisor.

GRANDPAS CLUB

A CLUB that is meeting with favor, and is considered a great asset to the Oakland High School, is the Grandpas Club. It was organized in the beginning of 1921, for the purpose of bringing the older fellows of the school closer together. All of them have been out of school for at least a year, during which time they have had experience on the outside, either in government employ, or in private positions. Most of them are now working their way through school.

The activities of the club have been a dance given in the gym, which a big part of the student body enjoyed; a luncheon meeting at the Peerless Cafe, to which members of the faculty were invited; also regular meetings held in the school.

The officers for the fall term of 1921 were: Rudolph Nittler, president; Stafford Prante, vice-president; Alexander Mendosa, secretary; and Everett Richardson, sergeant-at-arms.

Spring term 1922 officers were: Rudolph Nittler, president; Earl Swift, vice-president; Alexander Mendosa, secretary; and George Thomas, sergeant-at-arms.

CONGRESS

Fall Term		Spring Term
WALTER DAVIS.....	President.....	EMIL GUBIN
GRACE MEGLADDERY.....	Secretary.....	THOMAS HILL
MYRON WIENER.....	Treasurer.....	EDWIN DUERR
THOMAS HILL.....	Debating Manager.....	WALTER DAVIS

CONGRESS securely held its position as one of the school's leading organizations during the last year and was the only survivor of a number of debating organizations that formerly existed.

Several changes were made regarding eligibility for membership in the club. In the fall term an amendment was made to the constitution, allowing girls to enroll and in the spring term membership was opened to freshmen.

Many different activities of the club all made for a highly successful year. Several hikes were held, and parties and pie-feeds added to the merriment.

Many of the members are now leaving school with the class of '22 and the club's future is uncertain. The members appreciate the help of Miss Johnson and Miss Fraser, faculty advisors.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Le Cercle Français		El Club Castillan
MARTHA MONTGOMERY.....	President.....	RUTH GIBSON
FRANCES GUE.....	Vice-President.....	MYRON WIENER
RUTH HUSTED.....	Secretary.....	ANGELINA TALLARICO
IRIS YOUNG.....	Treasurer.....	VIRGINIA WATERS

UPON the opening of the spring semester two language clubs, "Le Cercle Français" and "El Club Castillan," were organized. They are meeting with great success. Language clubs have been formed in Oakland High before, but have never proved the success that these promise to be.

"Le Cercle Français" was organized by Mrs. Price of the French department, and its purpose is to promote interest in French socially and otherwise. It is planned to have one social meeting a month and regular business meeting once in two weeks.

The purpose of "El Club Castillan" is to further the knowledge of the Spanish language and customs. Several speakers well versed in the knowledge of Spanish have spoken at the meetings. Social meetings have been enjoyed by all the members. Students who have completed two years of Spanish are eligible for membership. The faculty adviser for the club is Miss Wolfenden.

LEW BULLOCK.....	President.....	SHIRLEY SNOW
BOB SIBBETT.....	Vice-President.....	STEWIE BENNETS
CLAUDE HAMMOND.....	Secretary.....	BOB SIBBETT
CHARLES BARNARD.....	Sergeant-at-Arms.....	REGINALD KELLER
SHIRLEY SNOW.....	Yell Leader.....	KIRK BEAL

THE Boys' Athletic Association had a most successful year under the leadership of capable officers. Lew Bullock and Shirley Snow were first-class prexies and it was through their efforts that much was accomplished.

Many meetings were held during the past year, which were all excellently attended. Much pep was displayed and the fellows certainly backed up all the teams in a fine manner.

The changes in the constitution made the previous year prove satisfactory and many fellows were voted their respective emblems for doing things for Oakland High. Among these were a host of weight fellows who carried off first-place honors in the basketball season.

Many fellows received their block "O's" for being on championship teams or on four varsity teams. Block letters were given basketball men for the first time since 1914.

G. A. A.

Fall Term		Spring Term
ELSIE COX.....	President.....	IRIS YOUNG

BERNICE PARDEE.....	Secretary-Treasurer.....	HARRIET BAKEWELL
.....	Recording Secretary.....	BERNICE PARDEE
ROSE BLUME.....	Sergeant-at-Arms.....
FANNY ROTKE.....	Jinks Manager.....	MERLE NANCE

THE difference in the offices filled this term is due to the fact that the G. A. A. adopted a new constitution this term. The aim of this constitution is to make the G. A. A. an athletic association rather than a social club. Under this constitution the G. A. A. is governed by an executive committee consisting of the above officers, with the exception of the Jink's manager, and the senior managers of the different teams.

To be a member of the G. A. A. a girl must have been on one team or have gained 100 points for something else, such as walking so many blocks a day, etc. To be an officer, a girl must have at least 300 points.

DURING the fall and spring terms the problem that was uppermost in the minds of the girls was the care of the Garfield Cottage. At Christmas the girls gave a lovely party for the little tots at the Cottage. Many toys were gladly donated to help make the kiddies enjoy their Christmas.

The main accomplishment of the A. Y. W. S. during the spring term was the A. Y. W. S. luncheon and circus, which is given each year to raise funds to help a deserving girl through the San Francisco Normal School.

PIANO CLUB

Fall Term		Spring Term
GRACE FURCH.....	President.....	GRACE FURCH
THEODORE AYDELOTTE.....	Vice-President.....	RUTH HUSTED
MADELINE SIEBE.....	Secretary.....	DORIS WRIGHT
ALLENE SANDUSKY.....	Treasurer.....	TRIXANNA TAYLOR

THE Piano Club was established last year for the benefit of the students interested in music and its advancement, and it has proved to be one of the up and coming clubs of the school. Any student who has only a slight knowledge of the piano is welcome to membership. The club meets every Monday noon in room 44. The programs this year enjoyed by the young pianists consisted of selections rendered by some of the members and from outside sources. Talks were also given on musical subjects of interest.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

THE work of the Publicity Committee is to place the name of the school and happenings before the public through the medium of the city newspapers. It is a small, new group of students selected by Miss Crise and under her supervision.

Great work has been done during the past year, especially during the spring term, when Oakland High led in the amount of publicity received.

The fall committee consists of Hilmar Munster, Marion Norris, Philip Berger, and Edwin Duerr.

The spring committee was made up of George Blume, Edwin Duerr, Dorothy Keane, and Raeburn Hubbard.

SCIENTISTS CLUB

Fall Term		Spring Term
WALTER DAVIS.....	President.....	HARRY PERL
THOMAS SMITH.....	Vice-President.....	THOMAS SMITH
MYRON WIENER.....	Treasurer.....	CHARLES BARNARD
CHARLES BARNARD.....	Secretary.....	GEORGE JUNG

THE Scientists Club is the result of the union of the former separate Science and Radio Clubs. The organization is the only one of the many science clubs that have been formed here to last.

Its purpose is to continue in the practical scientific work a student begins in his science classes. Radio, wireless telephony, electrical phenomena, etc., have all been discussed and studied by the club's members.

Various men prominent in their respective lines of work have addressed the club at its weekly meetings. Some of these men were Mr. Anskell of the Kimball Electric Company, Mr. Caldwell, city fingerprint expert, and Mr. Griffith of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

The organization has well fulfilled the purpose for which it was organized and it is hoped that it will continue to do so in the future.

THE Happy-Go-Lucky Club is a popular and prosperous Y. W. C. A. organization, featuring varied activities that range from hikes to taffy pulls. Last fall a Freshman Reception was held at the Y. W. C. A. "Wild Nell," a popular skit, proved a decided hit, to which the "chow" only was superior.

During the spring term a field meet between all of the Oakland High School clubs was a big feature. Tennis, swimming, basketball, and track were among the events of the day, and O. H. S. girls surely made a good showing.

The entire term was filled with good times, enjoyable to everyone. The club is open to every girl in O. H. S., and is assured another successful semester.

ORCHESTRA

THE Oakland High School has two orchestras, which are under the supervision of Mr. Nord. The First Orchestra consists of ten first violins, eight second violins, two violas, two basses, two cellos, a flute and a clarinet, four horns, two solo cornets, three second cornets, one trombone, two saxophones, a drum and trap, one tympany and two pianos.

The solo players are: violin, Ester Lando and Alfred Zahlout; cello, Mary Cadwell and Vernal Deane; cornet, Charles Richardson.

The concert master is Charles Richardson.

The orchestra's program consists of the "Bohemian Girl Selection," "Poet and Peasant Overture," "Grand Opera Selections," "Aida," "Tannhauser," "The Chocolate Soldier Operetta," arranged by Mr. Nord and copied by members of the orchestra; and "Brother Bill March," arranged by Theodore Aydelotte, a member of the orchestra.

The Second Orchestra consists of fourteen members. Their program is the following: "Encouragement Overture," "Chocolate Soldier Selections," "Wedding of the Winds," "Concert Waltz," and "Trinity Cadet Corps March."

The Girls' Glee Club has just finished a very successful year. The Select Glee has thirty-five members and these girls have made many public performances, such as singing for the Civic Center at the Aahmes Temple, before the Oakland and Ebell Clubs, and helping with the dances and choruses of the "Chocolate Soldier" operetta. Mrs. Bernice Jenkins and Frank Svenson are the accompanists.

R. O. T. C.

THE R. O. T. C. has enjoyed a successful and busy year. Although there was a great deal of doubt whether the R. O. T. C. would be continued in Oakland schools, as the War Department has made regulations which require schools to have units with no less than a hundred men, Oakland High was able to keep that number and now has more than one hundred. Oakland stood highest in the inspection drill, with a higher per cent of attendance than any of the other three schools.

The Third Annual Military Tournament of the R. O. T. C. was held on May 12, 1921, in the Oakland Auditorium, with the public as spectators. It consisted of exhibition drills and competition between the various high schools in Oakland. The school winning the competitive drill was presented with a beautiful cup by the Rotary Club, and the winning company received the City of Oakland cup.

Besides the cups, three medals were given for best individual work: a gold medal from R. C. Durant; a silver one from Leroy Goodrich; and a bronze one from W. N. Jenkins. Fred M. Hunter, Superintendent of Schools, presented the medals. The cadets deserve a great deal of credit for their faithful and tireless work in preparation for this annual contest.

Last term the R. O. T. C. went on a hike to Redwood Canyon, where they all had a thoroughly good time. Basketball squads were organized and competed against the R. O. T. C. teams of other schools. The O. H. S. teams beat those of Tech and also some San Francisco teams. Last Armistice Day the Oakland High R. O. T. C. made a splendid showing in the parade, with more cadets from the O. H. S. than from any of the other schools.

A new policy has been established concerning the promotion of officers. At the end of each semester a practical and theoretical examination is given for commissioned and noncommissioned officers, and only those who pass this examination with high marks are in line for promotion.

The officers for this term are:

Major Roberts, Captain Thornton, First Lieutenant Taylor, First Lieutenant Cook, Second Lieutenant Kimball, Second Lieutenant Swanson, Second Lieutenant (of Band) Richardson.

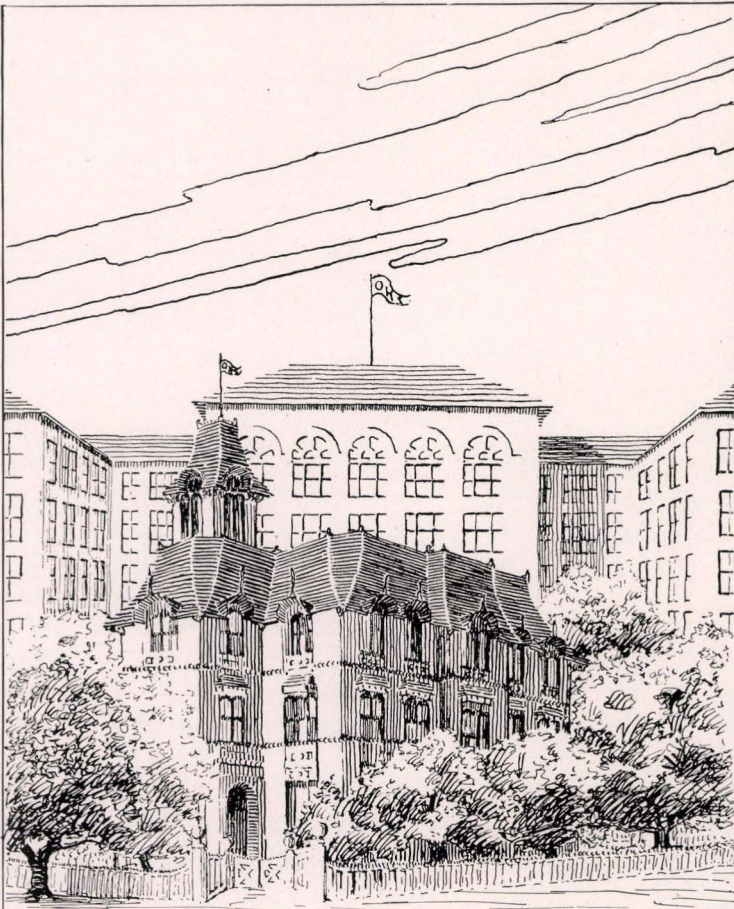

The R. O. T. C. is also helping the girls in the Rifle Team after school. This is a new activity in the school and already many girls have tried out.

The R. O. T. C. has become one of the strongest assets in the Oakland High.

- 9—Assembly at Chabot. They come every Wednesday.
- 10—Berger sneezes while calling R. O. T. C. roll and Zinkand answers, "Here."
- 11—No school. Everyone marches in the big parade.
- 14—Morris catches Hubbard absconding with a hot dog. Hubbard is severely bawled out for "eating up the profits."
- 15—Hooray! Playing up to their ears in mud, O. H. S. beat U. H. S. 13-7! !
- 16—Spanish teacher suggests that everyone do his own work. Goble's ears turn red.
- 17—Morris threatens Hubbard with death at sunrise if the Joint's livestock keeps on disappearing.
- 18—Goofy edition of the Aegis makes its appearance. Mr. Knudson was seen to laugh.
- 21—Mr. Nord's piano disappears. Later in the day it is found in the R. O. T. C. Armory (?) (?).
- 22—Edaun Larson is chosen captain of '22 football team. Let's see you go, Larson!
- 23—Today is Wednesday. Tomorrow is

Thursday and Thanksgiving and no school, and turkey.

- 28—O. H. S. student body resembles a bunch of pictures in an indigestion pill ad. Faculty also looks slightly stuffed with turkey.
- 29—Whom are you taking to the Junior Dance?
- 30—"Ain't We Got Fun," says boys, as "Pop" shags them out of basement in fourth period.

DECEMBER

- 1—Spanish teacher asks Goble what the Spanish word for water is. Goble says he doesn't think water is what they drink in Spain. The teacher smiles as she jots down Goble's mark in her book.
- 2—Best looking Weekly Aegis of term appears.
- 3—Saturday night and the Junior Dance. Some jig. The best in years, '23.
- 5—Lows beat highs in basketball.
- 6—Lows win Senior Day, 4-3. June '22 surely has the old pepper.
- 7—League debates. Oakland doesn't come up to expectations.
- 8—General Wright doesn't show up. The R. O. T. C. inspection is off. All those shines for nothing!
- 9—"Buy your tickets for those big plays," orate husky-voiced ticket sellers in front of office.
- 12—Goble asks Spanish teacher if he'll be in the Honor Society next term. Spanish teacher says, "No."
- 13—"Vote for me!" say nineteen candidates for eight offices.
- 14—Nomination speeches at Chabot. Miss Schneider sees many faults that need correcting, but the Assembly lasts two periods and we're satisfied.

15—Report cards again. Teacher, have a heart! Maybe everybody in the class of Dec. '21 won't graduate in Dec. '21.

16—Elections. Morris and Berger only ones to fight it out in finals. Faculty acts young at Chabot. "Pop" gets his hair cut (?). Plays at night. Some plays and some dance afterwards. Altogether, quite some day!

19—Christmas vacation!

JANUARY

3—Most of the students return to school. Others forget about it.

4—Looks as if some of the present Honor Society members won't be such next term.

5—B. A. A. elects Kirk yell leader, Shirley prexy.

6—Last day of school for highs who go to Cal. Senior to freshman in three days!

9—The term grows shorter. Teachers look amused for some reason or other (?).

10—Hair-cutting party enlivens otherwise dead noon dance.

11—Capwell Cup Contest. Duerr wins, hands down.

12—Goble knows his Spanish lesson. The teacher faints.

13—The first 13th of 1922 is a Friday!!

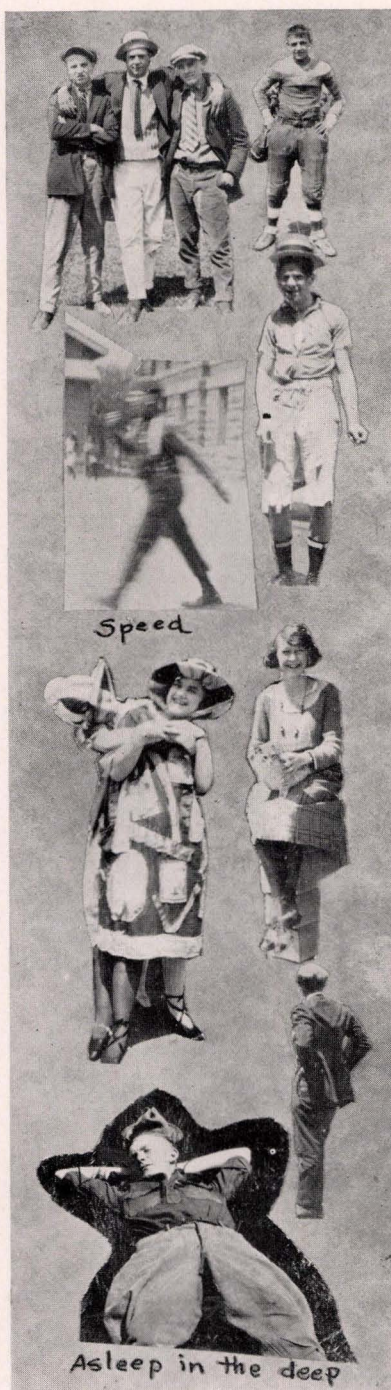

14—Saturday night and the Senior Prom. Good time for all.

16—Last week. Maybe we ought to begin to study.

17—Make out new program. Some job!

18—R. O. T. C. examinations. Who wants to be an officer?

19—Ben Franklin's birthday week is cause of Thrift Assembly.

20—Last day. New Board of Control and Self-Government inaugurated. Mourning in the afternoon because the final marks are out.

SPRING TERM

JANUARY

23—Our last semester starts—Freshmen take their first peek at O. H. S.

24—We exhibit our class pins and are quite proud of them.

25—The "frosh" are hazed.

26—"Stewie" holds the first "noon dance."

27—Jimmy Lund makes a lot of good resolutions. O. H. S. defeats Lowell.

30—The Class of Jan., '22, graduates at the Auditorium. Snow fight takes place in the court after school.

31—Prexy Blume holds the opening assembly for the even-numbered majors.

FEBRUARY

1—Another opener for the odd-numbered majors.

2—O. H. S. basketball team defeats Poly College. The second squad beats Hayward High.

3—Hubbard's first paper. We hold our first meeting as Highs, and elect Helen "prexy."

6—Charley Barnard boxes for the boys on the steps.

7—Phil Lampkin stars for the "nine."

8—O. H. S. smothers Snow's all-stars in a basketball game.

9—Manager Karpo is on the job getting practice games for the baseball team.

10—We high seniors hand in our records to Phil the Ed.

13—Harry Rimmer speaks at the boys' assembly.

FRESHMAN RECEPTION

THE A. Y. W. S. Freshman Reception for the girls of the class of June '25 was held November 9, and they were surely given a royal welcome by the upper-class girls, under the management of Mary Kelly.

The feature of the program was a one-act skit entitled "The Kleptomaniac," which was well done and received. The star of the skit was Florence Laufer, who played the rôle of a maid and was a perfect scream.

Several dances and choruses were given, then last, but not least, was the exquisite fashion show, which displayed all the latest styles for various occasions.

February 28, Marion Norris, Commissioner of Girls' Affairs, staged a "preliminary" freshman reception; the regular A. Y. W. S. Jinx will probably follow. The program consisted of a few words of welcome to the girls from Marion. Miss Fraser advised them to get into the spirit of the school. Several musical and dancing selections were given and the rest of the time was spent in getting the girls acquainted with one another.

SENIOR DANCE

FOLLOWING custom, the low senior class gave a senior farewell in honor of the dear departing highs in early June.

The dance was strictly a senior affair and both the highs and lows enjoyed a pleasant evening, dancing in the gymnasium, and seemed to be friendly for once.

The decorations and music were all that could be desired. The lows displayed their knowledge of how a dance is to be given.

Let it be said that the highs will not forget their pleasant send-off and only wish that the lows may enjoy such a fine farewell when they graduate.

ASSEMBLIES

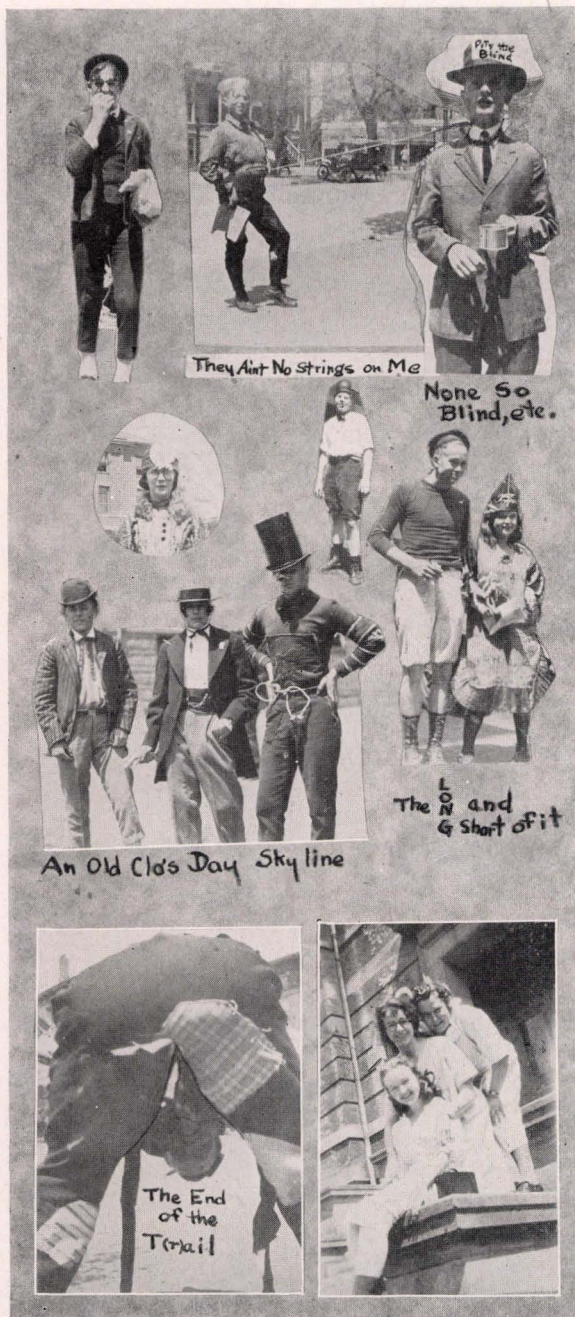

IN THE past term, due to the increased number of students who have enrolled in the school, it has been necessary to change the usual custom of assembling the entire student body at Chabot on Wednesday morning. Instead, the odd and even number major rooms attend alternately. Much more talent is required to satisfy the two audiences and during the last semester both audiences have been highly entertained, due to the efforts of President George Blume and his assistants in obtaining speakers and musicians.

One of the most notable speakers of the term was Colonel Havers, whose subject was "The Sword and Pen." The most interesting assembly featured motion pictures of the Yosemite Valley and a talk on the same subject.

Virginia Waters was in charge of the musical program and conducted several very successful assemblies in which music was the feature. One of the most entertaining was the Boys' Glee Club Assembly.

Our student body president is to be congratulated on the material he provided for the assemblies and in general for the way they were conducted.

OLD CLOTHES DAY
 THE annual Old Clothes Day was again held this semester in celebration of the O. A. L. track meet. At first it was uncertain whether the celebration was to be held, but finally Kirk Beal received permission and everyone participated with a will.

On Friday, April 28, every student came to our institution clad in clothes which had been resurrected from basements and attics. Sedate seniors were clad as freaks, freshmen donned short pants, and the girls wore gingham and calico. Many other unusual, fantastic and freak outfits were donned to add to the day's gayety.

A. Y. W. S. LUNCH

THE A. Y. W. S. Luncheon and Circus was one of the high spots in girls' activities during spring term. This annual affair of the Associated Young Women Students was in charge of Elsie Cox and her assistants, Bernice Pardee, Merle Nance, and Helene Strause. It was their hard work that made the affair a success.

Though not so elaborate as past luncheons, the amount of money taken in and the pleasure given the students are equal to previous offerings of the A. Y. W. S.

DRAMATICS

OAKLAND HIGH accomplished wonders in the past year along the line of dramatics. Many splendid performances were given, and the plays and the players will long be remembered by the students for the excellent work which was shown. The high mark set by dramatics during the last year will be a goal for future thespians to reach.

For the fall term two excellent plays were offered in the gymnasium.

DUST OF THE ROAD

"Dust of the Road," a dramatic morality play about Christmas, was the first play given. It was directed by Miss Schneider with the following cast.

Tramp.....George Blume	Peter.....William Thornton
Prudence.....Ruth Mack	Old Man.....Charles Carney

The leads were capably handled by George Blume and Ruth Mack and William Thornton and Charles Carney gave fine characterizations.

THE POT BOILER

The second play given was a screamingly funny farce, "The Pot Boiler." It was one of the best comedies ever given in school and was directed by Miss Loop. The cast:

Mr. Sud.....Edwin Duerr	Miss Ivory.....Hazel Rasmussen
Mr. Wouldbe.....George Thomas	Mrs. Pencil.....Muriel Laufer
Mr. Ivory.....Clarence Raulin	Mr. Inkwell.....Charles Hogan
Mr. Ruler.....Dale Miller

The leading parts were well portrayed by Clarence Raulin and Edwin Duerr and every character was excellently handled by this fine cast.

During the spring many productions were given and they were all superb and showed what Oakland High can do in dramatics.

MANIKIN AND MINIKIN

Miss Loop directed a charming playlet, "Manikin and Minikin," with the following cast:

Minikin	Ruth Mack
Manikin	Edwin Duerr

The production was artistic in every sense of the word and this beautiful Dresden doll play will always be remembered.

CHOCOLATE SOLDIER

The big feature of the spring term was the stupendous production of Shaw's "Arms and the Man" and Strauss' "Chocolate Soldier," which was given May 19 and 20 in the gymnasium. It was one of the most pretentious productions ever attempted by the music department and will always be remembered as one of the banner offerings of the school.

The plot provided plenty of laughs, and the military drill, dancing choruses, and celebrated songs, all combined to make a superb presentation.

THE CAST

Chocolate Soldier.....	Lucius Schaff	Popoff.....	Clarence Raulin
Nadina	Mabel Swain	Aurelia.....	Sadie Volovich
Alexius	Frank Davis	Massackroff.....	Raeburn Hubbard
Mascha.....	Bernice Jahnigan	Nicola.....	Charles Hogan

Mabel Swain and Lucius Schaff filled the stellar roles to perfection. Miss Loop and Miss Eggers must be praised for their excellent direction. Mr. Nord must be thanked for his orchestration of the music and his work in conducting the large orchestra.

John Kendricks Bangs' "The Real Thing" and Lord Dunsany's "Night at an Inn" made up an excellent program of one-act plays which were given June 9. Miss Schneider and Miss Loop presented the plays.

THE REAL THING

"The Real Thing" was a screamingly funny farce concerning the servant problem. It was well given by this capable cast:

Michael Maginnis.....	Edwin Duerr	Mrs. Browning.....	Katherine Taylor
Mrs. Thaddeus Perkins.....	Ruth Mack	Mrs. Hawkins.....	Helene Strause
Mrs. Delancy Pell.....		Mrs. Bridget O'Hara.....	Karmen Reeves
.....	Martha Montgomery	Bill	Frank Johns

A NIGHT IN AN INN

"A Night at an Inn" was a thrilling melodrama concerning a stolen ruby and Hindu priests and idols. It was well received. The cast:

The Toff.....	George Blume	Bill.....	William Thornton
Sniggers.....	George Thomas	Albert.....	Charles Hogan
Priests—	Malcolm Morris,	Sam Gold,	Russell Tate

The former play was directed by Miss Schneider, and the latter by Miss Loop.

FOOTBALL

Ira Merrill

CAPTAIN OSWELL (Fat) was one of our best piston-plunging half-backs. He ripped up the line and made his yardage regularly.

Emmett Geiser (Speedball) was chosen on the all-city eleven. He passed the ball well and prevented center rushes with unquenchable fight.

Paul Keane (Dimples) was our mainstay at guard. He was at the bottom of every play. "Dimples" was a choice for second city eleven.

Latham Goble (Gobble) was the lightest guard in the league. He held his position like a brick wall and mussed up plays in their infancy.

Clarence Raulin (Fat) by his weight made a valuable guard. He flattened out many an opponent. "Fat" played good, hard football.

William Thornton (Bill) played a hard and consistent game at guard. He was a formidable man at one of the hardest line positions.

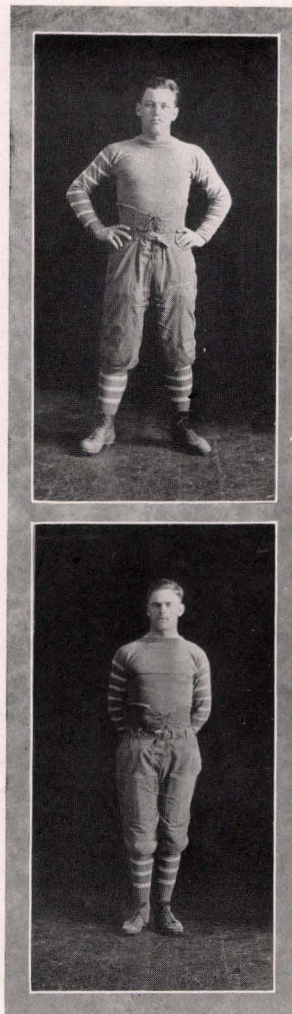

Reginald Keller (Reggie) was a husky tackle. Every now and then when he got mad, he would rip up his opponents rather ruthlessly.

Jack Collins (Valentine) at tackle ripped up holes in Lincoln Highway fashion. On the offensive he couldn't be beaten. "Valentine" was a most dependable player.

Jack Maginnis (Mac) at tackle rarely let an opponent by him. Attempts at his position for gains were, in the end, pure losses.

Charles Carney (Charley) charged his opponent off his feet. Charley nipped tackle plays in the bud by his uncanny playing.

Fremond Frembling (Husky) was a choice for all-city eleven end. Rarely did a man circle his end. He tackled hard and hung on to forward passes.

Koford Coakley (Ko) often confiscated the oval from the atmosphere for gains. Ko ran down punts beautifully and got his man before he could move.

Robert Brown (Bob), with his uncanny ability of grabbing passes, was one of our finest players.

Edaun Larson (Kidglove) barked the signals at quarter. Playing only two league games, he was a choice for all-city eleven. "Kidglove" is next year's captain.

Milo Ratkovich (Venus) was our best defensive player. He backed up the line wonderfully. "Venus" reeled off yards on his fine plunges.

Henry Chan carried the ball to advantage at halfback. Chan pulled off some of the prettiest tackles in the league games. He gained whenever he toted the oval.

George Blume played a shifty and wily game at halfback. He was a fast man and hard to stop. George ran pretty end runs.

Jack Helm with all the audacity of a steam-roller drove his way through his opponents' line. Jack played at half and fullback.

TECH HIGH 25, OAKLAND HIGH 0

Our first league game in American football was a disheartening game for the rooters, who turned out en masse. Oakland High was known as a forward-passing team. Tech used our so-called adeptness at the aerial attack and used it too well, much to our sorrow.

Oakland kicked off to Tech, who ran the ball back 30 yards. The going was rather rough for Tech and they were forced to kick. Then Oakland started a series of smashing drives that netted two first downs. In midfield we opened up with an aerial attack. Fullback Cowes of Tech intercepted a pass and with good interference scored their first touchdown. The play seesawed up and down the field. Occasionally Tech used a forward pass to perfection, meaning of course another touchdown. Geiser, our stonewall center, and Frembling, All-City end, were the linesmen most prominent in the plays.

FREMONT 14, OAKLAND 7

Coming back a million, our pigskin chasers, though downed by Fremont, had the Tigers' hair standing on end. The Oakites tackled and slipped like a mob of enraged demons. By continual line bucks, the Fremonters bucked over the ball for their first touchdown. After a few inconsequential plays, the Tigers pulled a forward pass on our 30-yard line. It was intercepted by "Red" Karpo. The ball was safely deposited in midfield. After two line bucks Larson, our diminutive quarter, called a play that completely dazzled the Fremonters. They stood motionless. Ere they awoke, Frembling, our left end, crossed their line after nonchalantly catching a forward pass. The game was beginning to get dangerous for the Fremonters when Domoto, the highly touted end of Fremont, received a forward pass on our 10-yard line and Mason bucked it over. It was converted, the final score being, F. H. S. 14, O. H. S. 7.

VOCATIONAL 7, OAKLAND 6

For the first time in Oakland's athletic history Vocational triumphed over Oakland High. The score, 7 to 6, seems to convey the fact that our footballers outplayed the mechanics. The Vocational backs could make little yardage through our line or skirting our ends. Whenever our backs had the ball, they smashed and plunged for their yardage with slow but tremendous power.

After ceaseless hammering, we put the ball on Voc's 5-yard line. With the fourth down and four to go, the Oakites could not penetrate the mechanics' line.

Blume, on a pretty end run, scored our tally. Conversion failed. Vocational's safety was responsible for large gains in yardage, as he fumbled Red's punts.

In the second half, on Voc's 25-yard line a forward pass was pulled by our quarter. Voc's quarterback intercepted it and ran 75 yards to a touchdown. It was converted. Thus ended a bitter game.

OAKLAND 13, UNIVERSITY 7

On a muddy gridiron, the Blue and White lads ended their league games by downing U. N. I. Hard, straight football and the prettiest aerial attack of the league won the day. After Uni kicked off to Oakland, we began a march to their goal. Then on Uni's 20-yard line we lost the ball. It was Uni's ball. A fake punt formation enabled their fullback to run the ball within striking distance. Kanzee, Uni quarter, bucked it over.

In the last few minutes of the first half a short pass from Larson accounted for Blume's crossing the Uni goal line. Conversion failed. Again in a few minutes of play, after the ball had been worked within scoring distance, another lateral pass was made to Blume, who scored. It was converted by Blume. Our fellows played with a steady, incomparable spirit and well deserved their hard-earned victory.

BASKETBALL

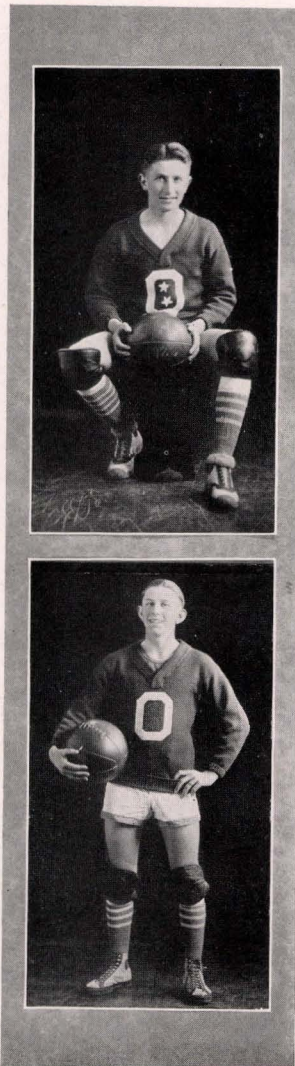

THE 1922 basketball season of the O. A. L. proved to be more successful for Oakland High than any since the year of 1914. Oakland High fought her way on to victory by downing the opposing four teams of the league—Tech, Vocational, Fremont, and University in the order named. The main features of the team were the unsurpassed teamwork and accurate and peppy passing.

During the pre-season menu that Manager Sibbett dished out, Oakland was not so successful. They lost to some of the best teams in the bay region by close margins, but took many other prep quintets into camp. Among the San Francisco schools to fall at our team's heels were Poly (twice), Lowell, and Mission.

Captain Al Levit was a very able leader and his fight and headwork were a large part of the team's success. Al was a perfect example of a basketball player and set a high standard throughout the team. Al played the whole league with only one foul called on him. This is a record hard to beat.

Manager Sibbett was the man seen every place on the floor and the fellow responsible for so many of the points made by Oakland. "Sib" was a bad man to stick and always had his opponents hunting and worrying.

"Coak" Coakley was one of the best all-around men on the team. He made center his permanent position throughout the league and played the position in class A style. "Coak" was the most active man on the team and he surely made it tough for all of his opponents.

Leo Barrett was one of the finds of the season. In Leo we found a wonderful forward, for he was one of the high point men of the team. He displayed his class in the Fremont and Vocational games, starring as a point-maker in each. Leo has another year for basketball.

"Lefty" Caldwell was the other forward with Manager Sibbett. He surely dropped the ol' sphere for plenty of the w. k. two points. This was "Lefty's" first year on the big team, but not his first year of basketball, as he worked up on four championship weight teams. "Lefty" leaves us this June.

Jack Hughes, the fellow who played guard with Captain Levit, well earned the honor of being the best guard in the league. Jack stuck his man just as some of Mr. LePage's bread-earner sticks between paper. Jack, with Coakley, Sibbett and Barrett, will form the nucleus of next year's team.

Bob Conner, the substitute guard, had little chance of showing his stuff. But the few games in which Bob took part surely earned him his block letter.

The other fellows to earn their "blocks" for taking part in some of the games were: Wallace, a promising center; Coughlin, another pivot man; Walker, a peppy and accurate forward; Carmichael and Ratkovich, guards of ability; and Geiser, Brock and Weiss, also guards.

The ability of the players to work together in such a way as to win the championship is entirely due to Frank Boek, our untiring coach. Frank developed the championship team from material that looked hopeless at the start of basketball practice; we mean hopeless to the eye of the spectator, but not to Coach Boek. Frank spent with pleasure many an hour giving pointers on the game, and we take the privilege of thanking Coach Boek, in behalf of the student body, for his untiring work.

Koford Coakley, the center cog of the team, was unanimously chosen by his teammates to guide the team through the season of '23. We wish you all the success in the world, "Coak."

TECH GAME

In the first game of the season Oakland downed Tech by the score of 18-15.

This victory over Tech was the first one since '19 in the hoop sport. The game was hard fought from beginning to end, with neither team sure of victory until the final whistle.

Every man on the team fought hard from start to finish. There were no individual stars.

VOCATIONAL GAME

Next on Oakland's basketball program was Vocational. This game was a poor exhibition of basketball, for Oakland realized an easy victory. The score at the final whistle was 35-10 in favor of Oakland. Coakley, Levit, and Barrett were the bright lights of the game for Oakland.

FREMONT GAME

The next quintet to bow their heads low to our fighting squad was that of Fremont. This was the best exhibition of basketball put on by any two local high schools for many a moon.

Oakland entered the game with a fighting chance for victory, while Fremont entered with all the confidence in the world. At the end of the first half the score stood 11-8 in favor of Fremont. The second half brought forth Oakland's fight and skill and the game ended with the score of 27-22 in favor of Oakland.

The one big star of the game was Jack Hughes. Jack held the well-talked-of Prelli boy to one basket.

UNIVERSITY GAME

After downing the first three high schools to face them, Oakland had just one little obstacle between her and the w. k. flag; that was University.

This obstacle was demolished when the boys bearing the colors of Oakland High romped over the University quintet by the score of 26-5. This game was easy pickings and every man on the squad earned his chance for a block letter.

TRACK

THE old, old story of "In and out again, Fin-negan" worked with a vengeance upon the track team. Tech nosed us out by a margin of only $5\frac{1}{4}$ points. Despite the fact that Oakland captured seven first places and copped the relay, we wound up as runners-up. Two new O. A. L. records were established by Oakland High men. Cecil Wright, captain of '23 squad, set a new mark in the running broad jump with a leap of 20 ft. $11\frac{1}{2}$ in. Charles Karpo established a new height in the pole vault with a flight of 10 ft. 8 in.

There were only nine fellows who placed in the meet.

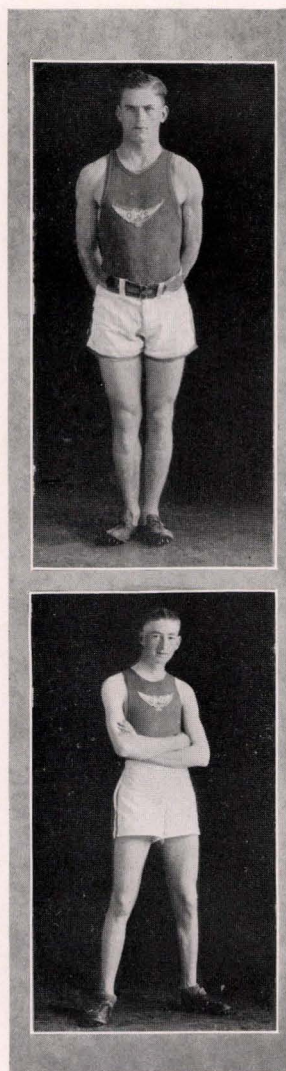

George Blume, ex-captain, was caught by two watches at 10: and a third at 10:1 in the 100-yard dash. The judges gave him a time of 10:2. He took first in the 220 also at 23:1. George took the last lap in the relay.

Jack Merrick ran a good race in the 440, but was beaten out by Prelli of Fremont, a heady and experienced quarter miler. He established a good lead in the relay when he ran first.

Cecil Wright was the high point man of the day, totaling $16\frac{1}{4}$ points. Besides setting a record in the running broad jump, he took first places in the high jump and low timbers.

John Truman, who participated in his first track meet, ran in the 880. He took third place. Had John possessed a wee bit more experience, he would have been up amongst the leaders.

Jack Hughes hopped into third place in the running broad jump. Jack will be here for several more meets, and there will be no doubt as to his taking the honors in the future.

Charles Karpo was conceded first place in the pole vault in pre-season practices.

Leo Barrett, despite a weak ankle, and somewhat weakened by his exertions in the high and low sticks, tied for fourth in the pole with three other fellows.

William Lynch was our smallest man on the track team, yet he attempted great heights and incidentally tied for fourth in the pole vault.

Henry Driscoll, teammate of Lynch, performed in the hurdles and in the pole vault. The trio were among our best.

In March the Cal frosh held a meet against the combined high schools of Oakland. The frosh had a clean sweep of the events. They scored $102\frac{1}{2}$ points to the combined schools' $14\frac{1}{4}$.

Captain Blume ran a third in the 100. The time was 10:1. Leo Barrett was tied for third in the pole vault. Cecil Wright leaped in the high and running broad jump.

Early, very early, the Stanford freshmen issued an invitation to O. H. S., Tech, and Berkeley to participate in a quadrangular track meet. Berkeley made 22 points, Oakland 8 points, and Tech one point. The final score was: Stanford freshmen, 91; O. T. B., 31.

George Blume ran the century in 10:1, taking third place. Jack Helm with very little training took a third in the high hurdles and ran second in the low timbers. Cecil Wright was beaten out for first place in the broad jump by only a few inches. Oakland was third in the relay.

The other fellows who made the squad and who fought hard odds were:

Mile—Milo Ratkovich, Norman Henderson, and Charles Williams.

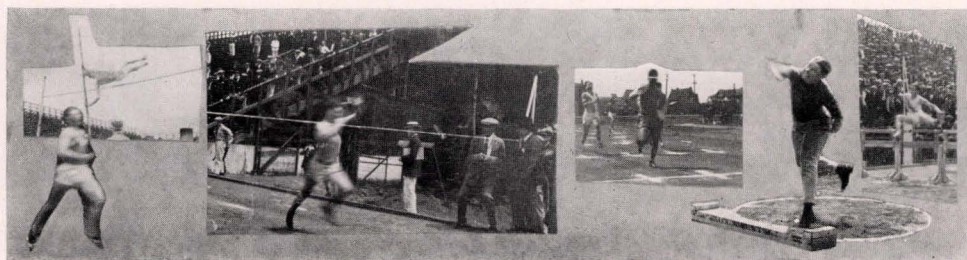

Hurdles—Jack Minchin and Dick McCarthy.

Sprints—Roy Merrick, Pardee Lowe, and Edwin Duerr.

Shotput—Wendell Ingram, Paul Keane, Al Levit, and Reginald Keller.

High Jump—Fremond Frembling and Paul Le Strange.

Running Broad Jump—Harry Brock and Thomas Hill.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL got off to a poor start this season when the first game was called, on account of rain. It was played a few days later. The rest of the games were postponed because of some irregularity until after the Aegis had gone to press.

Oakland High won its start from University High by the score of 7 to 4. The team was conceded a good chance to repeat last year's victory by again winning the O. A. L. championship.

In practice the squad broke about even, winning half its starts and dropping about half. Some of the opponents the Acorns played were the Concordia College team, the Colored Giants, several San Francisco high schools, Centerville High School, and Hayward High.

The finds of the season were Gardner and Levit, who took the place Kenny Martin held last year on the mound.

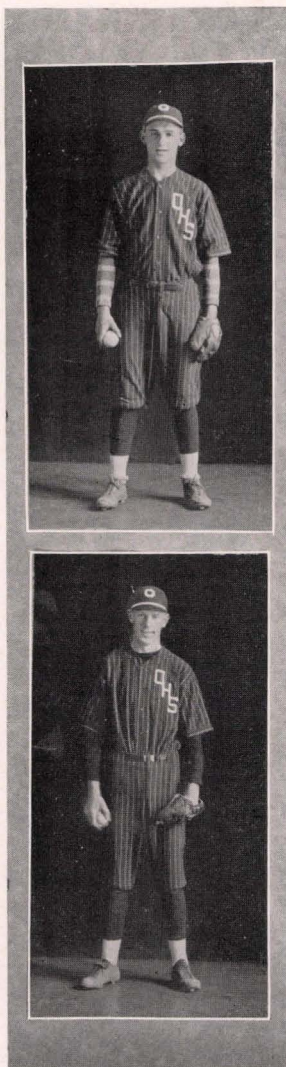

Bill Tobin made good behind the plate. The infield found in him a good pivot man.

"Red" Karpo held down first base and the put-outs after his name on the box score tell the tale of his efforts.

Captain Ratkovich was a second baseman, second to none in the league. He put that "big league" snap into the infield's work.

Al Levit, Jack Hughes, and Clarence Gardner took turns at shortstop and any one of them was always dependable when an error might mean the game.

In the outfield we had three experienced players,

Cooper, Ingram, and Rotke. Their fielding was above par and their hitting determined the outcome of many a game.

Al Phlughaupt and Kenneth Keegan, freshmen, and Johnny Truman, Arnold, Emmett Geiser, and Lloyd Coughlin made second team suits.

The fact that freshmen made the team speaks well for our teams for the next few years.

Coach Daugherty spent his afternoons coaching the team, and all success that is theirs is due to his efforts.

Last year's captain, Sam Goldberg, showed up at practice very often to help the team gain some more of the necessary teamwork, and a great deal of thanks is due him also.

The smaller fellows in the school formed weight baseball teams to play against like teams from other schools. Our smaller fellows weren't so brilliantly successful, but the real value of their playing this year is the training that will make big-team players of them next year, or the year after.

TENNIS

THE tennis team's practice meet that was held previous to the printing of the Aegis was against San Mateo High and ended entirely in our favor.

Five fellows are chosen to represent O. H. S. in tennis each year. This time Captain Risso, Manager Truman, Latham Goble, James Higgins and Ian Malcolmson made up the team.

Risso's strong point is his wily playing. He seizes upon every unguarded moment of his opponent and then plunges in for a point.

Truman has a difficult chop that makes him a bad opponent for any high school tennis player. He and Risso make up a doubles team.

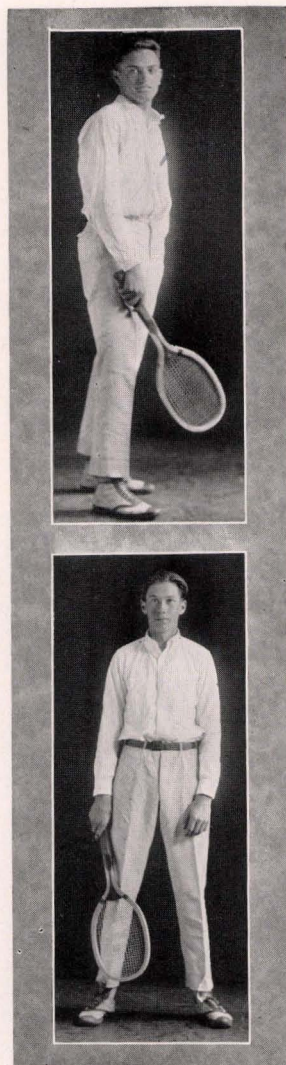

Goble has a dangerous slashing drive which won him a place on the team. He is an experienced and heady player.

Higgins is an orator of the courts. He has talked opponents without number out of tennis games. At times, though, he keeps still long enough to win a few tournaments.

Ian Malcolmson is a new fellow around school, but he isn't new at tennis. His ability won him fifth place on the squad.

For six out of the last seven years Oakland High has cleaned up in tennis. This year's team, from early indications, bids fair to repeat the great performance of its predecessors.

However, most of the fellows who made this team are seniors. If future tennis teams are to be turned out here as they have been in the past, more beginners will have to learn the racquet game.

SWIMMING

THE O. A. L. swimming meet was scheduled for too late a date to permit the results to be published in the Aegis, but on the strength of last year's showing and the work the team has been doing in its pre-season training, Oakland High stood a good chance of winning the aquatic event.

Fifteen fellows made the team. Captain Keane participated in the sprints, distances, and plunge with equal facility. Manager Houston is the premier diver and one of the best sprint men on the team. The other sprinters are Keller, Lowden, Carmichael, Hacker, and Coakley. In the distances Ratkovich, Sardell, Lowden, and Truman swam. In addition to Houston, Sullivan and Morris participated in the dives. Taylor and Winham plunged for distance. Our ace in the strokes was Kirk Beal.

Much credit is due Coach Daugherty, for it is his efforts that have brought swimming back to a place of importance among sports.

BOAT CREW

(Earle Swift, Captain; William Cook, Manager)

THIS spring the first boat crew was organized since 1919. Boating had never amounted to much until lately, and consequently it is not now a major sport. But this year the interest has been worked up to a high point and two crews have been organized.

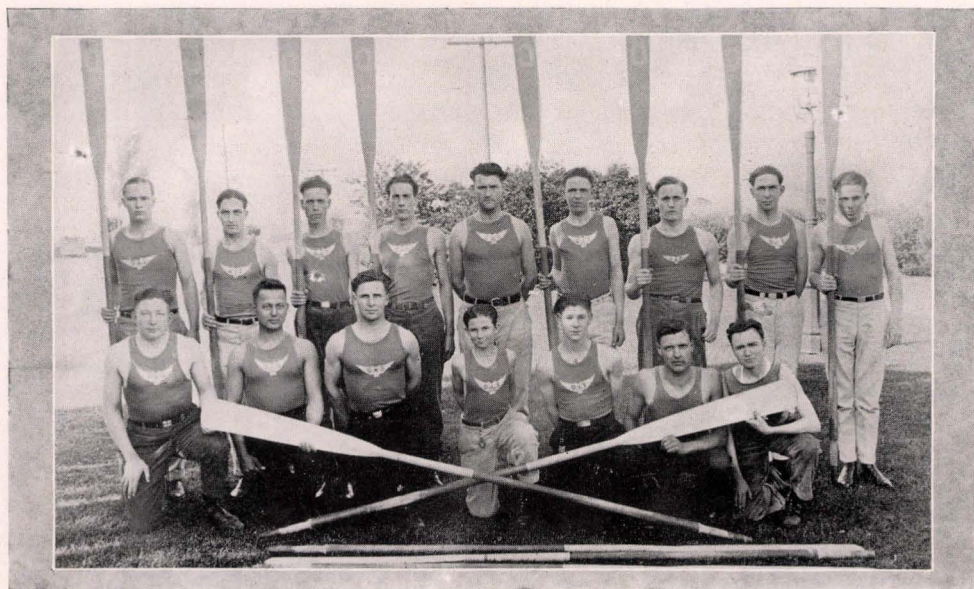

Regular practice has been carried on at Lake Merritt since early in April, under the careful instruction of Earle Swift, acting as coach and coxswain. The crew has been giving way to a husky oar and has developed a strong and efficient stroke, with which it expects to win the regatta that is to be held on May 20. The personnel of the crew has been altered some, but the regular members and the positions they hold, for the present, are as follows:

Port	Strokes	Starboard
1. Nelson		1. Bridges
2. Cook		2. Coleman
3. Morris		3. Winham
4. Olson		4. Montague
5. McTavish		5. Jones
6. McCracken		6. Moe

Substitutes: Stephenson and O'Conner.

Coxswain: Swift.

Tillerman: Kirk.

WEIGHT BASKETBALL

THE basketball cup became the school's permanent possession when the O. H. S. weight basketball teams lived up to expectations and won in their respective divisions. Four out of the five teams were declared victors and gave emphasis to the statement that the school is first in weight sports.

In the 90's they had the old fight and had an easy time winning. They plastered a 29-2 defeat on Vocational, a 30-8 defeat on Tech, an 18-5 defeat on Fremont, and a 29-9 defeat on University. The fellows who played were: Captain Bristow, Manager Ward, Shuster, Goldstein, Chow, Stultz, Kirk, Norris, Gallagher, Clecak, and Baker.

The 100's also exhibited the old pepper and easily vanquished their opponents. They won from Vocational, 22-2; Tech, 34-8; Fremont, 25-17, and University, 18-12. Those who played were Captain Billy Quayle, Manager Wy Wing, Gus Malmquist, Fred Chang, Bink, Shapiro, Thomas, Burpee, Christy, Kingston, and Lincoln Malmquist.

The 110's appeared to be about the niftiest team out and it is no wonder that they cleaned up with their fast teamwork. They hung a 29-10 defeat on Vocational, a 42-12 defeat on Tech, a 48-18 defeat on Fremont, and a 26-11 defeat on University. The crack players were: Captain "Mose" Breslov, Manager Norman Henderson, "Bobby" Wilson, Donovan, Bridges, Keifer, and Weiss.

The jinx team, the 120's, broke even, winning two and dropping two. They all tried hard, but—someone had to lose. They were swamped by Tech, 9-26. They beat Fremont, 29-22, and lost to University, 15-16. The players were Captain Al Chinn, Manager Ed Duerr, Al Phlughaupt, Bill Lynch, Dave Blumberg, Sullivan, Nelson, Silveria, Smith, Kibbard, and Goldberg.

The 130's were the fourth victorious team. A good bunch of fellows, full of fight, had an easy time winning. They won all games by the following scores: Vocational, 28-6; Tech, 26-14; Fremont, 51-15, and University, 29-4. The basketeers were, Captain Claude Hammond, Mark MacDonald, McDermid, McCarthy, Donovan, Cook, Driscoll, Sangineth, Wong, Gold, Tuckler, Wiener, Hill, Brenton, Dean and Smith.

All the members of the victorious teams were awarded their respective emblems and two, Mose Breslov and Wy Wing, were given 4-inch Block O's for being on four championship weight teams.

The teams came out on top because they had behind them the excellent coaching of Frank Boch. His work is appreciated by all.

ROOTING

THE "Old Oakland High Spirit" has been quite evident this last year at O. H. S.

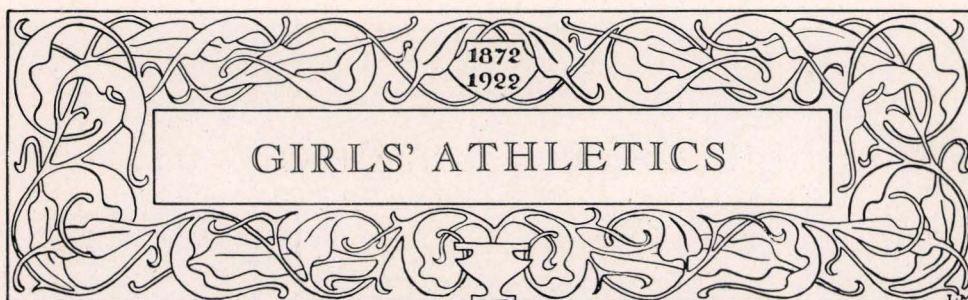

In the fall term, with the hard-fighting but losing football team, the students showed their school spirit in large volume. At the first game with Tech we had more rooters than our opponents from that large mansion out on Broadway. Although we lost that game, the rooters came strong to the next with "Voc." Then we lost to F. H. S. in the third game, but still the rooters came. After losing these three important games some real spirit was exhibited when, after it had rained all day, our rooters went out and showed up "Uni" in rooting and we won the final game.

In this term with a winning basketball team, our rooters went wild and fairly raised the roof off the Auditorium.

Then came Old Clothes Day, and then the Track Rally followed the next morning with the O. A. L. Track and Field Meet. Although we were nosed out of the meet, we had the largest rooting section. The same pep continued right through the baseball season and the R. O. T. C. competition.

It is this kind of school spirit that brings victory and success and it is the real "Oakland High Spirit."

BASKETBALL

THE girls surely showed some pep in basketball this season. More girls showed up for the practices than ever before. Good teams were picked from each class.

There was good competition in the interclass games, which were played off in the girls' gym. The freshmen succeeded in beating the sophomores and the juniors. Mabel Fenstermacher is some little hoopringer. The sophs lost every game, but deserve credit for their spirit and fight.

One of the snappiest games played was the junior and senior basketball game. It was doped out that the juniors would win. After a hard struggle the juniors came out broken-hearted. The seniors won 12 to 5.

The seniors, due to their science, copped the interclass basketball championship. The girls who received stars on the senior team were: Iris Young, Carmen Anderson, Elsie Cox, Florence Bodin, Sumile Morishita, Bernice Pardee, Fannie Rotke.

TENNIS

TENNIS is the sport for which most girls come out. A good many sophomores and freshmen came out this year and there was some new material for the other girls to compete with.

Emma Schwedler was senior manager for tennis this season. The practices were held at the De Fremery and Lakeside courts. The preliminaries and interclass games were held and those who won the singles were Marie Goehring, freshman; Leonora Fitzpatrick, sophomore; Evelyn Forsyth, junior; Elsie Cox, senior.

The doubles were won by Phyllis Hannon and Mona Gentis, freshmen; Agnes Johnson and Amy Frages, sophs; Genevieve O'Hara and Isabel Kelly, juniors; Emma Schwedler and Florence Blume, seniors.

The girls who won in the preliminaries had the chance to compete with the other Oakland high schools at a big tournament which is held in the Claremont courts annually.

HOCKEY

THE main sport of the fall season for the girls is hockey. Hockey this year was under the management of Frances Kiser. After a good many practices two teams were picked, one of the junior and sophomore girls, the other of senior and freshman girls.

When each team had practiced enough to think that it could beat the other, the long-planned-for game was played off. The girls played for over an hour, but the teams were so evenly matched that the score was 0 to 0.

The lineup was as follows:

Margaret Pardee.....	Right Wing.....	Francis Kiser
Grace Megladdery.....	L. Half.....	Jean Wessels
Theo Bruce.....	L. Wing.....	Ruth Tucker
Sumile Morishita.....	R. Inside.....	Martha Montgomery
Florence Bodin.....	Center Forward.....	Iris Young
Helen McGregor.....	R. Half.....	Robertha Wells
Fannie Rotke.....	C. Half.....	Minoru Aoki
Anna Avilla.....	R. Fullback.....	Evelyn Johnson
Leonora Fitzpatrick.....	L. Fullback.....	Lily Peters
Thelma Santee.....	Goal.....	Ruth Lee

PLAY-DAY

THE annual girls' play-day was held at Mosswood Play Grounds on May 20. The time was from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning. On this day the girls had a chance to compete with other Oakland high schools in athletic work.

The first event was the parade. All the girls came dressed in spotless white middies, with black bloomers and ties. This event was the only one for which a trophy was awarded. A large silver cup is given to the school which wins this parade for three consecutive years. Fremont and University have already won it once.

After this event came the decathlon events. These are five in number, the basketball goal shooting, baseball throwing for accuracy, volley serve, baseball strike, and the run and catch relay. The girls were divided into squads for this event, which went around and competed with other high schools. Oakland High School is proud of its girl athletes.

Dere Pop:

I was talkin' to one of my teachers the other day an' she was tellin' me about famous authors an' she says I ought to read Shakespeare an' she says one of the things he said was "All the world's a stage," an' I says "Well, if Shakespeare was alive now he would say "All the world's a gymnasium," an' the teacher says "Why so?" an' I says "'Cause it's full of dumbbells" an' she looked at me close an' says "It certainly is" an' I laffed, only then I thought of what she said an' then I never laffed any more.

The other day in Spanish the teacher was callin' on the students an' pretty soon she called out "Senyor Greene" an' nobody answered an' then she yells "Senyor Greene" again an' still nobody said anything an' then she got excited an' said "John Greene, I've been callin' your name!" an' I says "Oh! did you mean me when you said 'Senyor Greene'?" an' she says "Yes!" so I says back "Well, I'm not a seenyor, I'm only a freshmen!" an' everybody laffed except the teacher so I never laffed 'cause I think I said somethin' that must have made her mad.

Yure's truly,

Johnny Greene,
Son.

ice, you will soon get them so rheumatic that they cannot fly about and bother you.

The fowl that laid the Golden
Egg was fed on Christmas tree ornaments and tinsel.

THE WAY THEY SAY IT

"Say it with bricks," says Ignatz
Mouse.

"Say it with rolling-pins," says
Mrs. Mutt.

"Say it with vases," says Maggie Jiggs.

TO YOU

As the roses need the sunshine,
As a hammer needs a nail;
As an old maid needs a fellow,
As a sail boat needs a sail;
As a suspender needs a button,
As an oyster needs a stew;
Even so we all need someone,
And that's how I need you.

Virginia had a little quart
Of cider hard as steel,
And everywhere she went 'twas sport
To watch Virginia reel.

In order to get all one's and two's
I study awfully hard;
But now I've got the blues
Because—you ought to see my card!
It started out all black and white,
Two one's and then a two;
But after all it is a sight—
The numbers grew and grew!

—••••—

Here's a bit of poetry,
The teacher calls it junk;
I guess I'll have to write some more,
Unless I want to flunk.

—••••—

TUT, TUT

Little drops of water,
Little raisins, too,
But Uncle Sam won't let us
Tell you what they'll do.

—••••—

TO THELMA

Your thrilling eyes,
They tantalize
Me sorely.
Why can't I be Allowed to see
Thee morely?

TREES

Redwood is the Bolshevist's favorite tree.

Beech is the bathing girl's favorite.

Fir is the lady of fashion's favorite.

Pear is the poker player's favorite.

Peach is the youth's favorite.

To find your train on a time table, open it carefully, hold it upside down and then ask the man at the information window.

* * *

I was trying to hammer a nail in a box. The first time I missed and the second time I hit it in the same place.

* * *

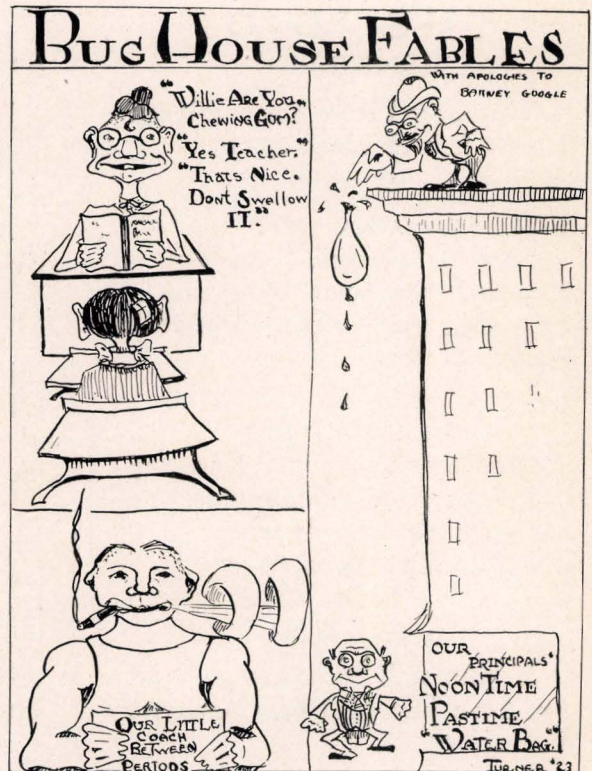

Place an egg on the car track. If the car is derailed but the egg uninjured, the egg is probably indigestible.

I had a tooth pulled yesterday and the dentist did not use gas. He used pincers.

THANK GOODNESS, THIS IS THE BOTTOM OF THE PAGE!

A TALE OF WOE

A little girl with a freckled face
Fell in love with a Cracker boy,
And the Cracker boy for a fleeting space
Filled her heart with joy.
But he sailed away, alas, alack!
He bade her a fond good-bye.
He told her some day he'd come back,
And he heaved a mighty sigh.
But, like others who in times gone by
Have heard the same old tale,
She ever looked with wistful eye
At the sea without a sail.

GUESS WHO?

We talked to her,
It was no use;
She merely asked:
"Where's the excuse?"

Charlie, Little Charlie
Is the greatest orator.
He spels the old announcements,
As they were never spieled before.
