TAHIR'S AMERICAN FAMILY — Loette, Tony Zablackis, Tahir, Mrs. K. Zablackis, and Earl.

One of his American pleasures is talking to one of his friends on the telephone.

This is a year which I will never forget during all my life, because, this is the year I've learned more about people, the world, and even about myself.

I want to thank the A.F.S. organization which gave me the wonderful opportunity to spend a year in this country. I also want to thank the Zablackis family, Miss Kathleen McCarthy, Mrs. Betty Stott, Mrs. Weaver and all the teachers and students of Richmond High which have made it possible for me to spend this year in the best way.

Sincerely,
TAHIR SUMER

Honors for the Humanities

These Two Splendid People Share So Many

The Library without Mrs. Kertis? The mind boggles. But she has folded her tent like the Arabs and is really going away. Those thousands of books she selected, catalogued, and looked after for twenty-eight years are already beginning to look forlorn. No books anywhere have ever had a more faithful guardian, no library a more dashing collection, no school such a jewel for Librarian.

Book-lover Mrs. Kertis assuredly is. But she loves Richmond's with a passion. When the old school was going to be torn down, Mrs. Kertis received repeated summonses to become head of Pinole Valley's brand new library. After a few daydreams, she divided Richmond's library in half, made the hair-raising move to South Campus, and a second one back, three years later. This was like taking down the Great Pyramid and putting it back up.

Of course Mrs. Kertis loves Richmond High, too. She is not, after all, a book, or even bookish; no one knows her like a book, either. She is a rather mysterious, private, sensitive, yet wonderfully friendly and kind human being. Even those who never willingly open a book, love to come to her library. The pictures, flowers, plants, as well as the happy atmosphere, reflect her own spacious personality: her love of beauty, art, the out-of-doors, wildlife and all things growing.

Mrs. Kertis inherited expansive qualities from two seafaring grandfathers, who settled in California after the Civil War. Her father, the distinguished landscape painter, John Henry Ramm, taught her to love poetry and literature; her mother, Antoinette, instilled in her a madness for scenic nature. Her love of music, however, came out of the air in San Francisco. For not surprisingly, Mrs. Kertis is a native San Franciscan. She is also a U.C. Berkeley graduate with a Phi Beta Kappa key. After a stint with "Sunset Magazine" she fled to Northern California, where she taught English and Chorus in the village of Fort Jones and more of same in Placerville later on. Placerville was Camelot, for here she met and married handsome John Kertis. From romantic countrysides she went back to college for librarian credentials. Finally, in 1945, she became the new and peerless bibliophile of Richmond High School.

Mrs. Kertis was suddenly widowed in 1959 when John was taken by a heart attack while both were clearing brush from the grounds of their Placerville home. This blow to her personal happiness she gamely, gradually learned to deal with. Books helped; she still has the habit of reading far into the night. And faithfully she journeys between her and John's house in San Rafael and the one in Placerville, just as in the old John and Beatrice days. Perhaps in retirement she will break out of this orbit and take in the whole world, like her forebears or like her marine-artist brother, John Milton Ramm, of Alameda. Whatever she does, she will have her very own book, this SHIELD, to take with her. For we, also true though odd book-lovers, have dedicated it to her.

and Fine Arts

Unusual Traits, We Dedicate This Shield to Both

We are not far off the track when we say that Mr. Briggs is the least obtrusive member of this human ocean we call Richmond High School. Mr. Briggs simply does not advertise himself. But neither does a gem on the bottom of the sea. Some of us divers have found him. We are so bedazzled that we insist he share the dedication of our Shield.

You will find Mr. Briggs in the print shop, up to his eyebrows in work he is too good-natured to turn down. He is there all day long, Saturdays, too. You won't believe this, but printing is a craft he began to learn in 1968, and to teach in 1970. Before that he taught Art and Stagecraft in the old school. But to say that he is really an art teacher turned printer is scratching the surface. Actually, Mr. Briggs is a master craftsman — painter-sculptor-architect-builder, who reads everything and knows almost everything. He has a wife, Anna, who is both his treasure and his right arm, and a son, Ron, a Ph.D. candidate, who is teaching at the University of Illinois. He even has a grandson named Jonathan.

Do not get the idea that school and reading consume all his time. He spends his prime time building houses. Not many, since he and his wife make them by hand. He has been working on the one in Kensington, his local dwelling, for twenty years. Happily, it is nearly finished, adding up to 4000 square feet. Even so, the Briggs' often prefer to sleep in their camper. This we cannot explain. The last house, just getting underway, is in Groveland, near Yosemite. Here Mr. Briggs hopes to retire someday and confine his interests to birds, plants and geology. Fat chance. More likely he will start a Daisy Hill Puppy Farm.

Mr. Briggs himself grew up on a farm near Lodi, Ohio, his birthplace. His colleges are Ohio Wesleyan, Kent State, Cincinnati Art Academy, U.C., Berkeley, and California College of Arts and Crafts. From these he obtained his A.B., M.A., teaching credentials, and scholarships in art, painting, sculpture. His latter-day schools are Laney College and San Jose State for his fling at printing. Good for the printer's life, we say. If he had not taken it up, we would not have stumbled upon him in the print shop. We certainly would not be flashing his gem-like personality before your eyes. Nor would we have given him this elegant Shield setting.

A Life Full of Activity

The Winchester House begins in Kensington in 1949. It took our hero 20 years to complete this three-story house, which is his home now.

"Kyrie," his German Shepherd and dear friend, has a very special place in Mr. Briggs' heart.

Round the Clock at RHS

Foreword

Every day at Richmond High is exciting and full of events. Although each day is different from the next, the careful observer will detect a pattern. At certain times each day specific things happen. It is these times we have selected to portray in our Shield.

Activity begins at our school at 7:30 am, as shown on the Administration Division page, with the arrival of Journalism and Driver's Ed students. As the Government Division page shows, things really pick up at Richmond High at 8:30 am with the arrival of the rest of the students, who trudge off to homeroom. The Senior Division page displays our school at 10:00 am with most of the student body in class. The Underclassmen Section exhibits 12:00 pm and the mad rush for lunch. The Activities Division page is adorned with cheerleaders and the like at the 2:00 pm rallies. The much anticipated 3:00 pm is depicted on the Organization Division page with students leaving RHS for home. The Athletics Section is rightly portrayed by the 3:30 pm games. Lastly are the Advertisements, whose division page shows students and teachers alike enjoying themselves at evening functions.

This is a day at Richmond High School and appropriately the theme of our 1973 Shield.

ADMINISTRATION

7:30 A.M. —

At 7:30 every morning, while most of Richmond High's faculty and student body are still asleep, a handful of teachers, students, secretaries, and custodians are already at work.

The Hi - Nus Staff is busily putting together the next edition of the newspaper, the Driver's Education Class occupies itself with the vehicle code, and a few ambitious students come to school early just to study in the mall.

TO THE CLASS OF 1973:

Congratulations on finishing your high school education. You have done an excellent job in continuing the traditions of Richmond High School. I know you will appreciate the memories of the good times you had here. You are facing a society that needs your creative talents to help solve the many problems of today. I am confident that you are prepared to meet the challenges of your time.

Sincerely,

TO THE CLASS OF 1973:

Suddenly, in the school year 1972-73, led by the graduating Seniors, school spirit and class spirit sprang like a Phoenix from the ashes of lethargy. The Pep Club was reactivated, competitive class yells at rallies brought out the crowds, and the fine old traditions that had been missing and presumed lost the past few years burst into full flame again, as rich and strong as ever. This was the year of the Red and the Blue — and this graduating Class of '73 showed the way. Your future successes are assured if your excellent spirit is maintained in future years.

With Affection,
Dee Merritt

TO THE CLASS OF 1973:

My heartiest congratulations to the Senior Class of 1973. These past four years at Richmond High School will be one of your most memorable and fondest experiences in years to come. Take these experiences with you and put them to good use. Think positive, be constructive and continually strive toward your personal goals. Only through your desires, ambitions and perseverance can we continue to be a great nation.

Good luck to all of you.

My warmest regards,

10:30 A.M. —

By the time 10:30 rolls around, Richmond High is usually calmed down and a bit quieter.

The reason is most of the students are by now in class, and are trying to further their education. After all, isn't that why they come to school?

12:00 NOON —

Twelve o'clock may not be lunch time for everyone at Richmond High, but for a large portion of students, it is. This is the time when the cafeteria becomes a mass of people with one thing on their minds, FOOD! But getting something to eat is only half of it, then comes the hard part — finding somewhere to sit.

ACTIVITIES

2:00 P.M. —

Two o'clock is a special time for Richmond High on rally days. This is when Richmond students with the band and spirit girls to lead them go to the rallies to show their support for the team and their class. The excitement mounts when it comes time for competitive yelling, as each class gets its chance to show that it has the most spirit and the loudest voices.

Alan visits the equator with his brothers, Matover and Kasibante.

Shelling ground nuts for dinner is one of Alan's chores in Uganda. Helping him is his brother Wakulirah and his sister Nangiri.

The American student poses with his family, the Eriabu Kabigiyas'. He had eight brothers and three sisters.

American Field Service Sends Alan Weaver to Uganda for the Summer

170 Often the Richmond High ambassador attended school with his brother Baala.

The family sits down to a dinner of Matoke, cooked bananas, the main diet in Uganda.

Loette relaxes at the beach with her family, the Bennani's.

While in public it is customary for Moroccan women to "cover-up".

While Loette Zablackis Lives in Morocco for Ten Weeks

The women do a folklore dance at Loette's cousin's birthday party.

Loette and her family pluck chickens for dinner.

ATHLETICS

3:30 P.M. —

During football and basketball season, 3:30 is an important time for Richmond High. The students crowd into the gym or onto the football field to watch the Richmond Oilers in action. And with the help of the Cheerleaders, Pom-Pom Girls, Lettergirls and Band, they cheer the team to victory, and occasionally, defeat. But either way, they end up having a good time.

Norman Woodrow tosses the ball to Ricky Williams (40) for an easy two points.

Earl Zablackis shows off his running ability in a cross country meet.

The Richmond defense shows gang tackling in the El Cerrito game.

8:00 P.M. —

Usually by 8:00 p.m. Richmond High School is empty and quiet, but once in a while one of the many organizations at RHS sponsors some sort of a function — a fun nite, dinner, drama, or occasionally a dance. Student body and faculty members return to school once more, but this time just to be with friends and have a good time.

Congratulations, Seniors

LEADERS JOIN THE ROTC

WHY?

Because they are men who have a rare capacity to give so that others, in all walks of life, can continue to take their rights for granted.

Let us make you a better leader

WHO ARE THEY?

Of the over 5,000 young men who were awarded four-year scholarships from 1965 to 1970

92% were in the upper 20% of their class.

53% were presidents of their student bodies or were class officers.

18% were editors of school publications.

61% were varsity letter winners.

Looking Ahead

Step from classroom to a bright future at Metropolitan Life. Good starting salaries, regular raises, frequent promotions. Stop in after school and let us tell you about it. As a Metropolitan employee, you'll enjoy many benefits. Insurance benefits, for instance, include life insurance, disability insurance, hospital, surgical, and major medical expense benefits. There are liberal vacations and holidays and cash awards for suggestions. There is a well-stocked library, free to employees, of course. Many different social and athletic groups help you get to know your co-workers. Stop in to see us soon, at the address below.

A Special Thank You Goes to . . .

Many people helped us put this book together. Without their help and cooperation we could not have completed our task. The staff would like to thank the following people:

Capwell's Photo Studio for taking the Senior and Administration pictures and also for their promptness in returning the pictures to us.

Steve Breazeale for the many pictures he took for us and also Larry Hoki for photographing "Room 222" and Russ Taylor for pictures of Homecoming.

The Independent-Gazette for its sports action pictures and other prints.
The Hi-Nus Staff for delivering blue slips.
Principal Elmer McCormick and Harry Ells High School for the use of the darkroom.

The Taylor Publishing Company and Fred Dahlinger for their professional advice and service.

Mrs. Marialyce Lage, cashier, for selling Shields and taking care of our business.

Journalism 1 students for their assistance in various projects.

Pat Branum for the outstanding clock on the Foreword Page.

Mrs. Anna Briggs for information and pictures of Mr. Maynard Briggs.

Miss Sidney Price and Mr. John Ramm of Alameda for information and pictures of Mrs. Beatrice Kertis.

Miss Dorothy Madison for assistance in writing the dedication.

Patty Casady for her assistance with the band layouts.

Mr. Jack Wood for getting the graduation robes for graduation pictures.

Mr. John Maltester for pictures of band combos.
