IN THIS '59 IGNATIAN WE HAVE ATTEMPTED TO CATCH THE SPIRIT OF A CENTURY PLUS FOUR. THIS, WE FEEL, IS MIRRORED IN OUR HUNDREDTH GRADUATING CLASS.

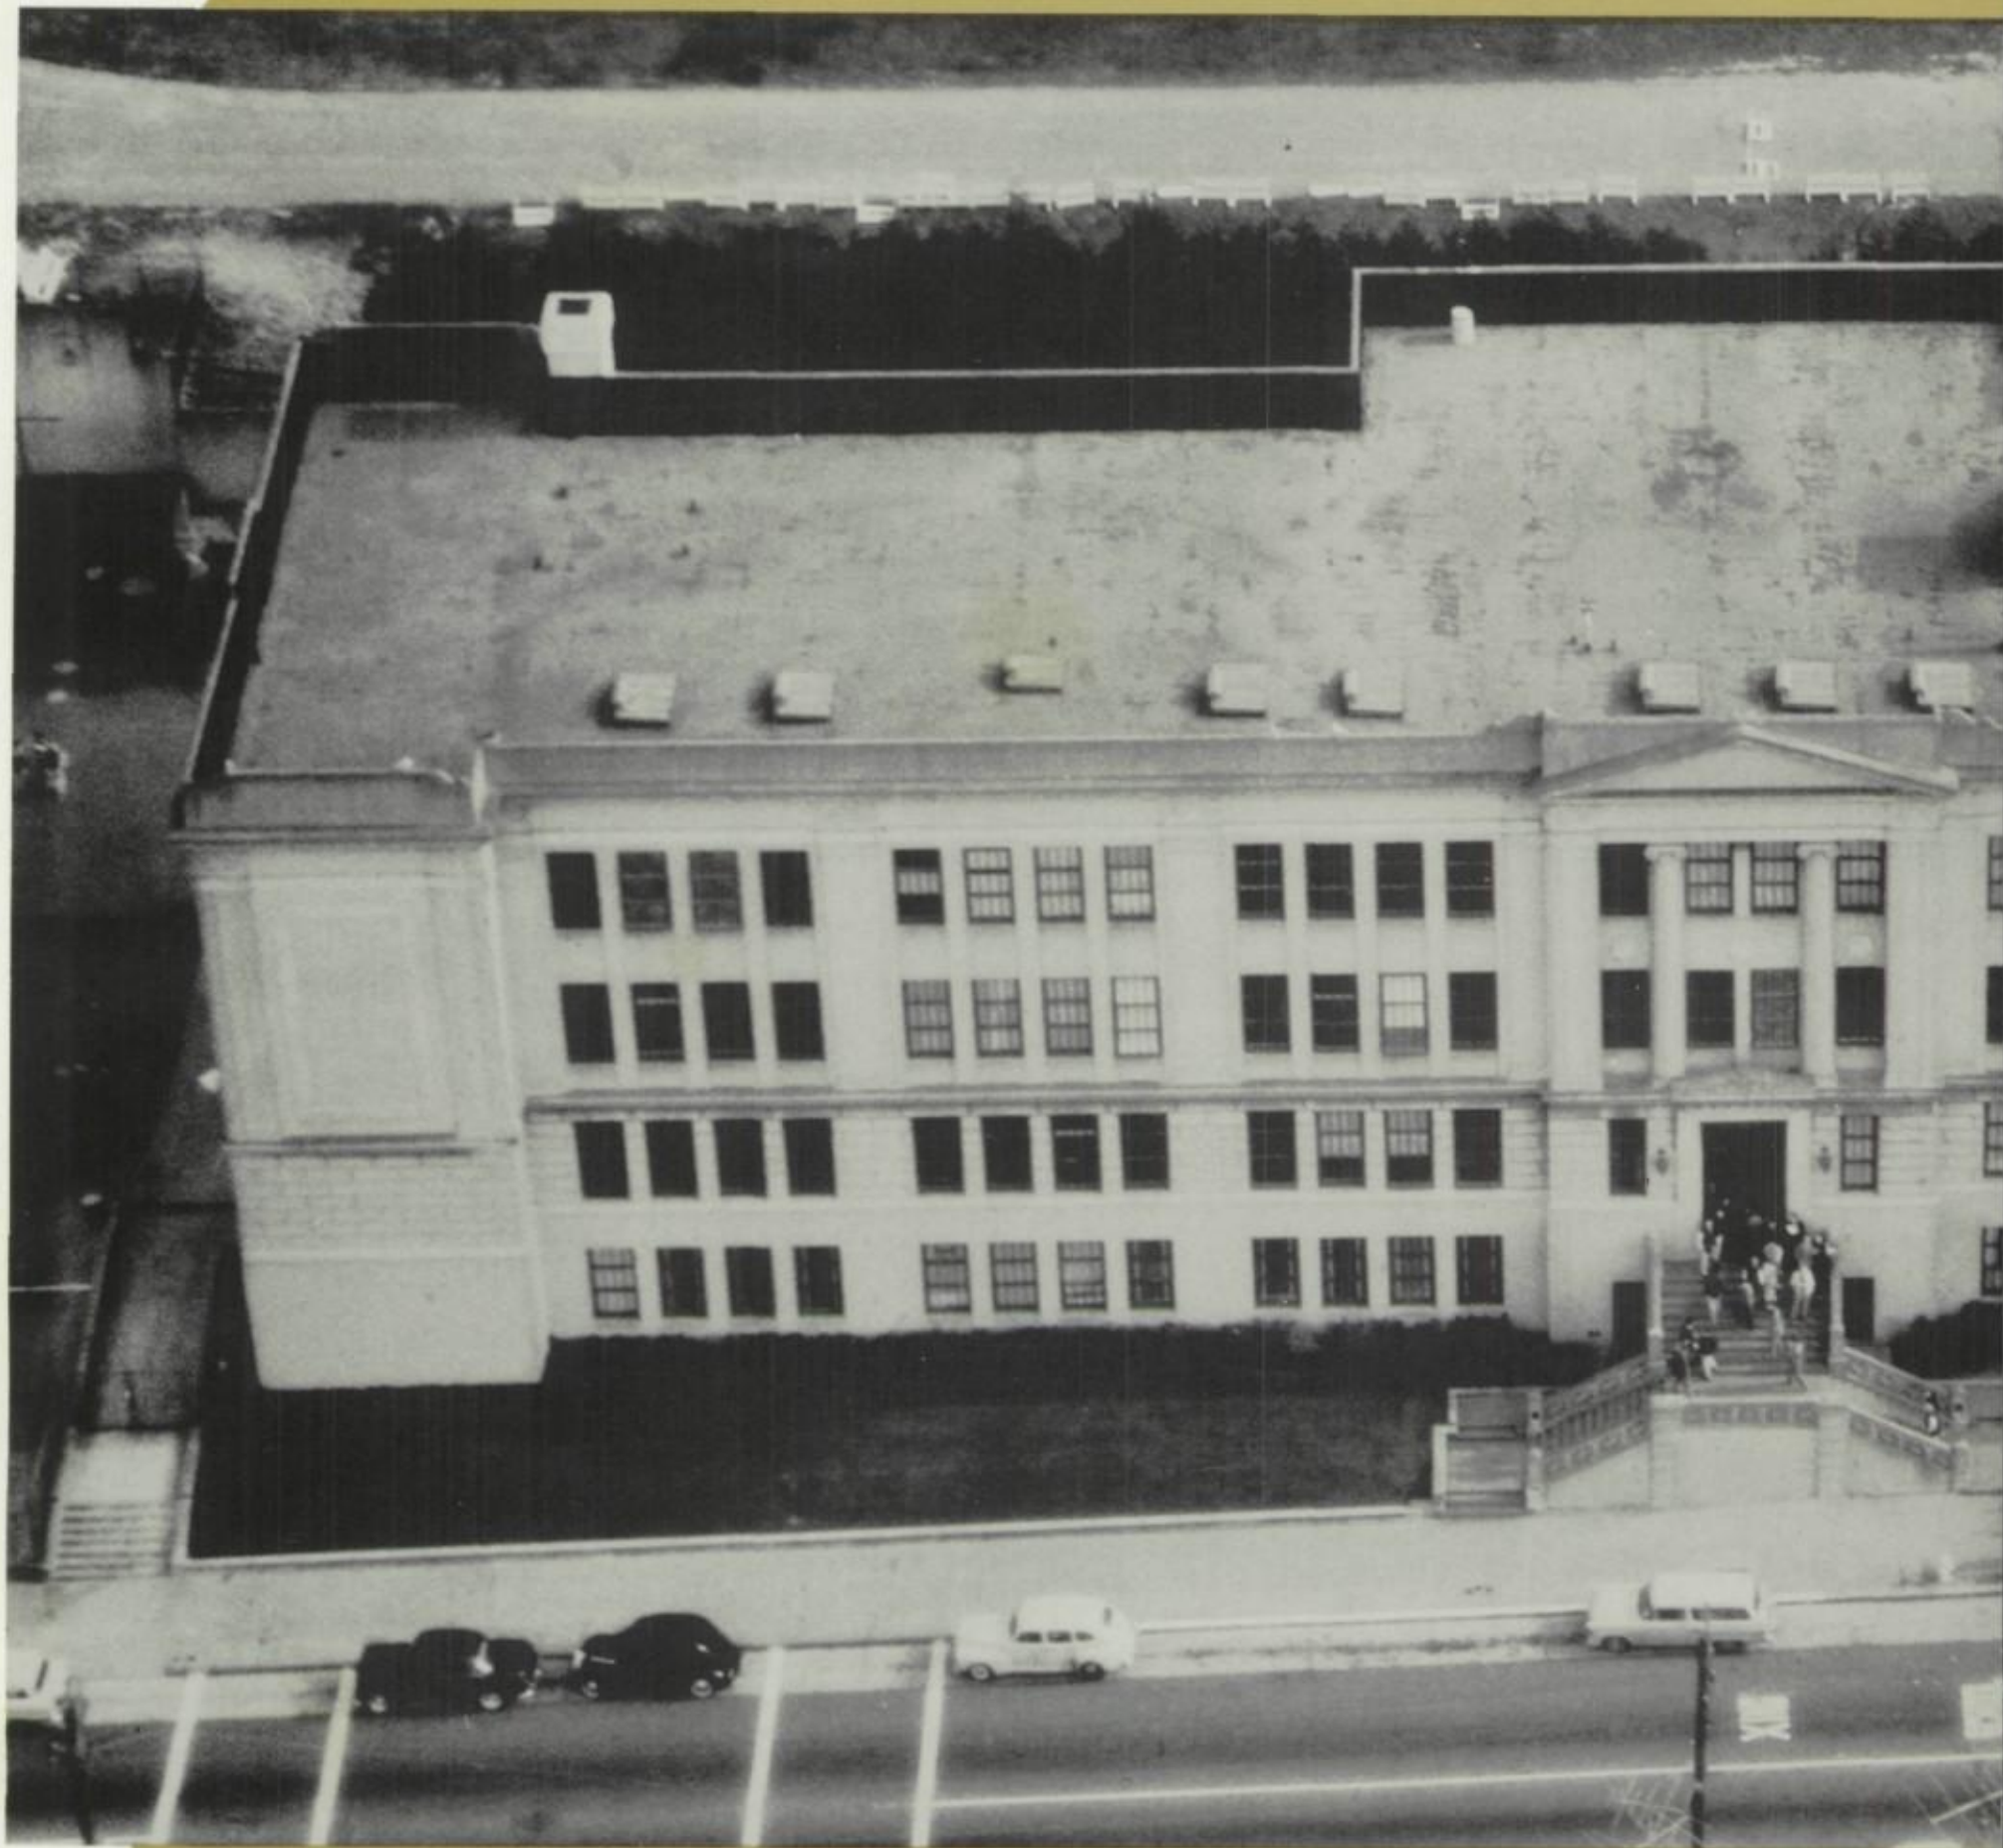

FR. CHARLES LARGAN, S.J., HOLDS A UNIQUE POSITION AMONG JESUIT FACULTY MEMBERS OF THIS OLD YET NEW SCHOOL OF OURS. FOR FIFTEEN CONSECUTIVE YEARS, LONGER THAN ANY OF THE OTHER PRESENT JESUIT FACULTY MEMBERS, HE HAS BEEN FRIEND, TEACHER, AND INSPIRATION. MAY HE CONTINUE TO BE SO FOR MANY, MANY YEARS TO COME.

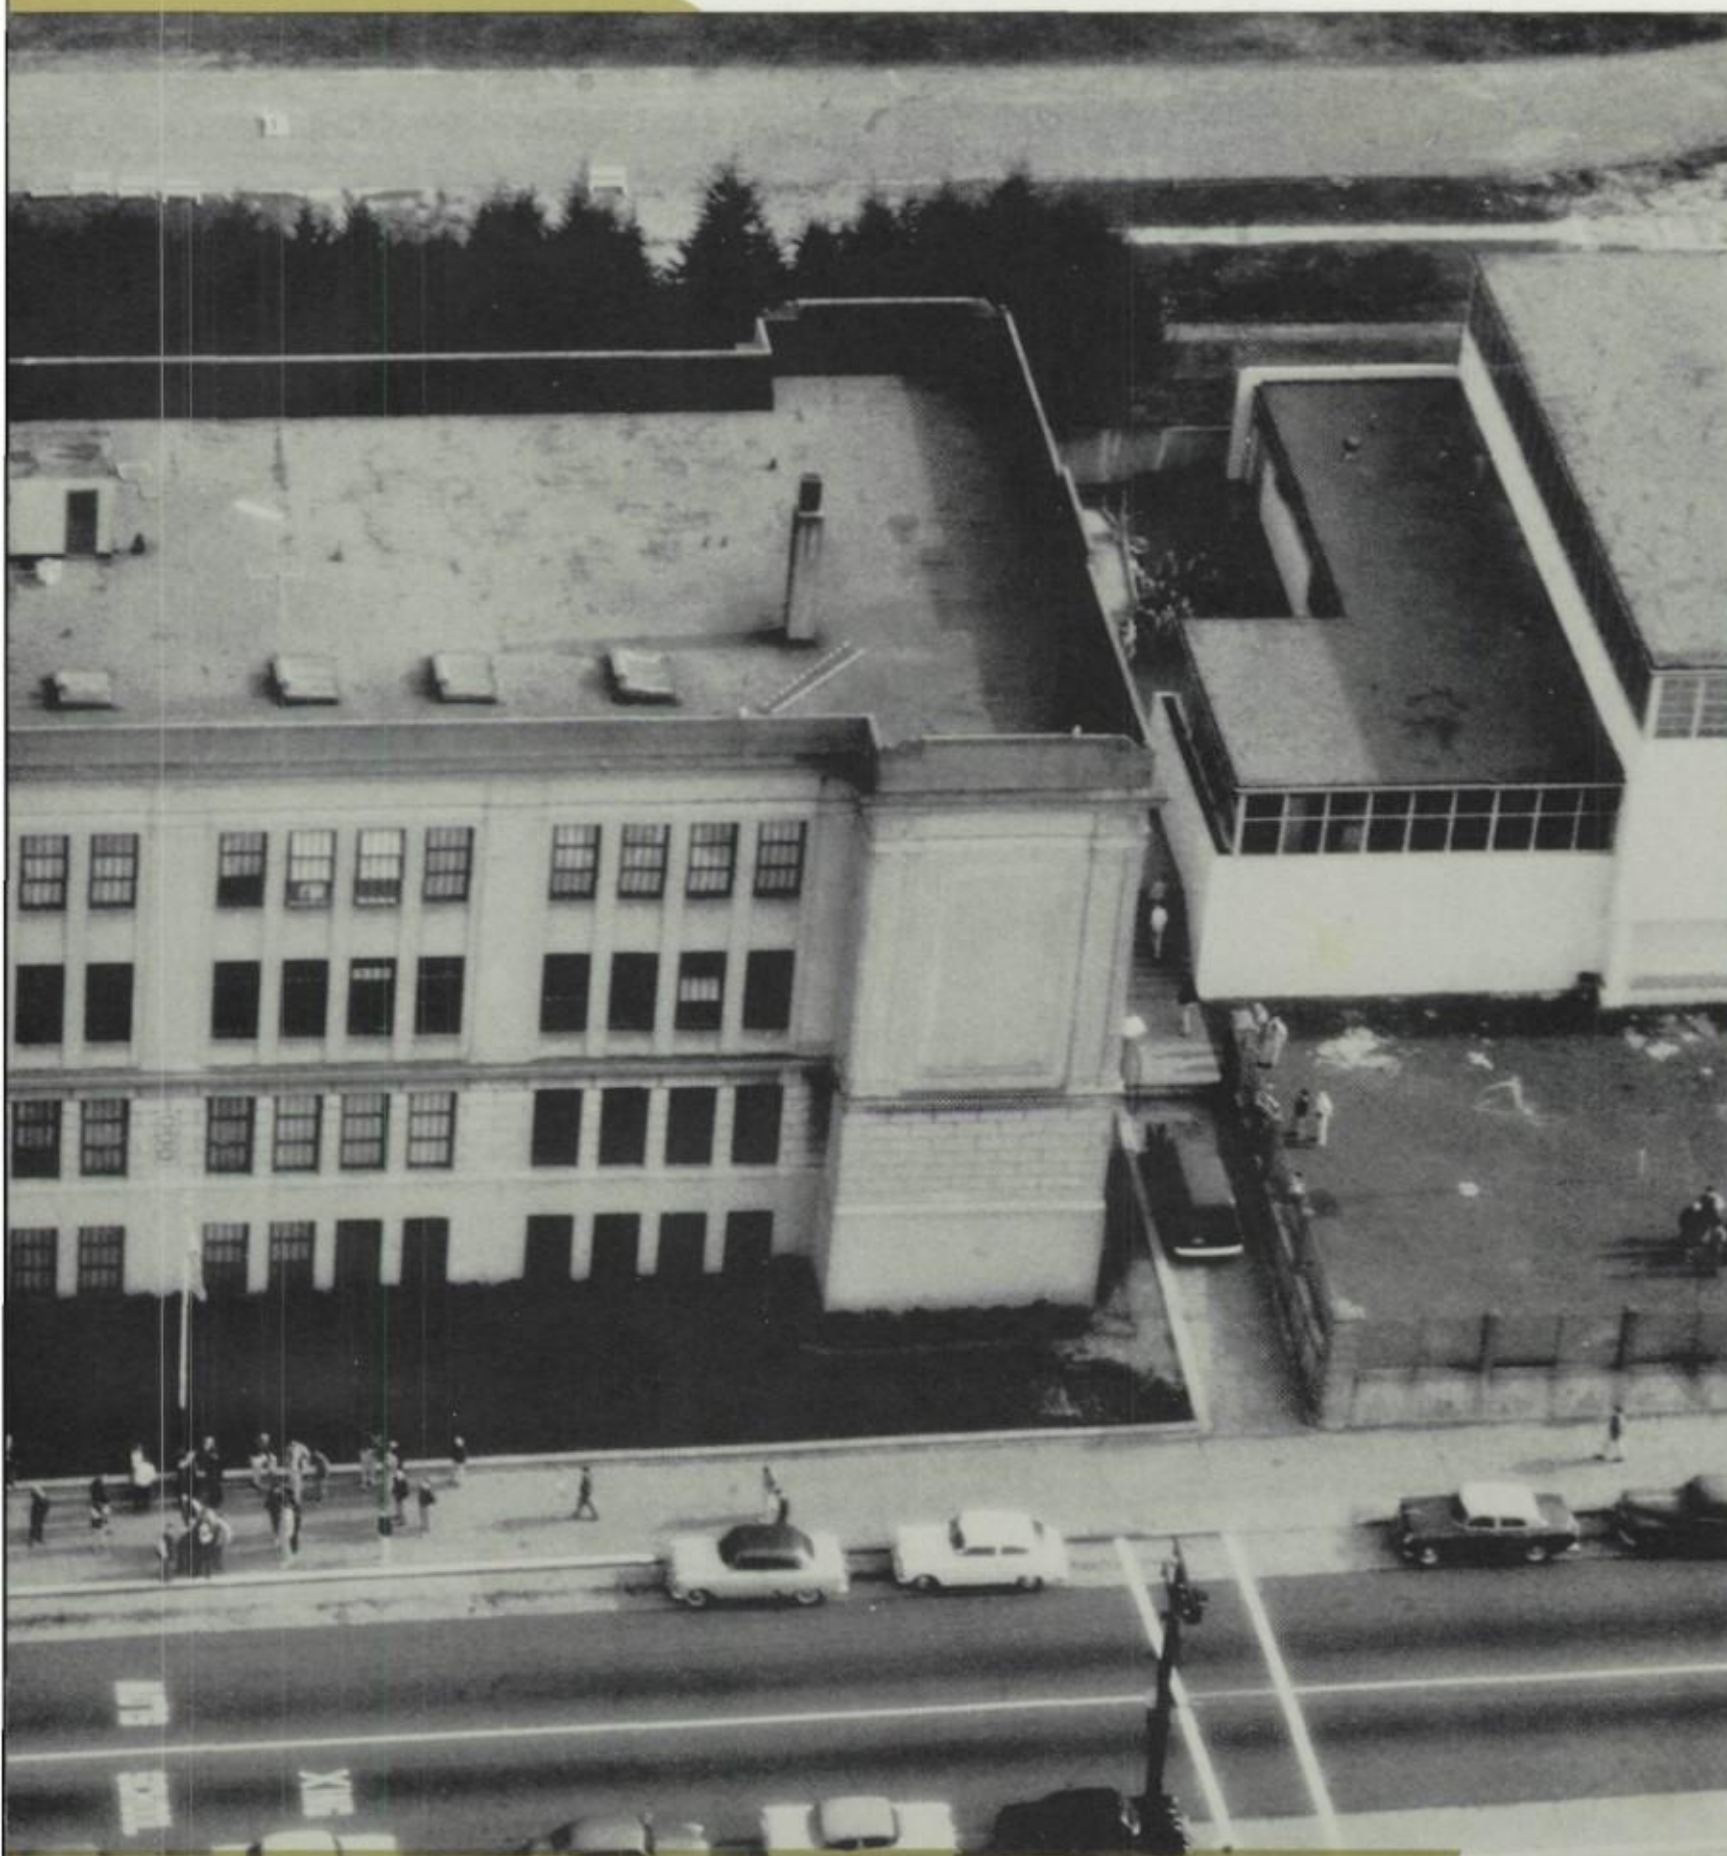

YET IGNATION SPIRIT IS NOT SIMPLY A GLORY IN THE PAST: IT IS A LOVE OF CHRISTIAN LIFE AND A BOLD ACCEPTANCE OF THE CHALLENGE OF THE FUTURE. AND SO, FROM ANOTHER POINT OF VIEW, OUR GRADUATES, JUNIORS, SOPHOMORES, AND FRESHMEN, IN THEIR OWN WAY, ARE HELPING SHAPE DESTINY. WE HAVE ATTEMPTED TO CHRONICLE THEM AS THEY ARE RIGHT NOW: STUDENTS IN A WORLD THAT STANDS ON THE BRINK OF THE SPACE AGE.

Student Leadership

This year, the year of S. I.'s hundredth graduating class, students and faculty both have felt with justifiable pride the fact that St. Ignatius has completed the full cycle begun one hundred and four years ago. In the old days of the one room school house surrounded by sand dunes in St. Anne's valley, student leadership was probably limited to one all-purpose class officer, the "Beadle." Today S. I. functions under the more complex organization known as the Student Council, of which the Student Body President and his Officers play the principal role, and the Council members, representatives of the school's chief organizations, advise and co-operate with him. The job well done by the members of this year's Student Council is a fine tribute to the progress S. I. has made in student government over the past century and to the Council members themselves.

This year, more than ever, every student at S. I. was encouraged to partake in school activities and to voice his opinion; and all worthwhile suggestions were brought up for consideration. Several new activities, such as the National Honor Society, INSIGHT, Math and Science Clubs, have been added to the school's program of extra-curriculars. And the spirit shown by the entire student body at all games, socials, and during drives, such as the Christmas Drive, was excellent. Under the careful moderation of Fr. Carlin, S.J., and the leadership of Student Body President Tim Reardon, a spirit of great unity predominated. Especially worthy of praise was Vice-president Tony Harrison; Cliff Martin, whose diligence at bookkeeping made him an outstanding Treasurer; and Larry Alioto, who efficiently carried out the duty of correspondence with other schools.

GRADUATES

Dear Class of 1959:

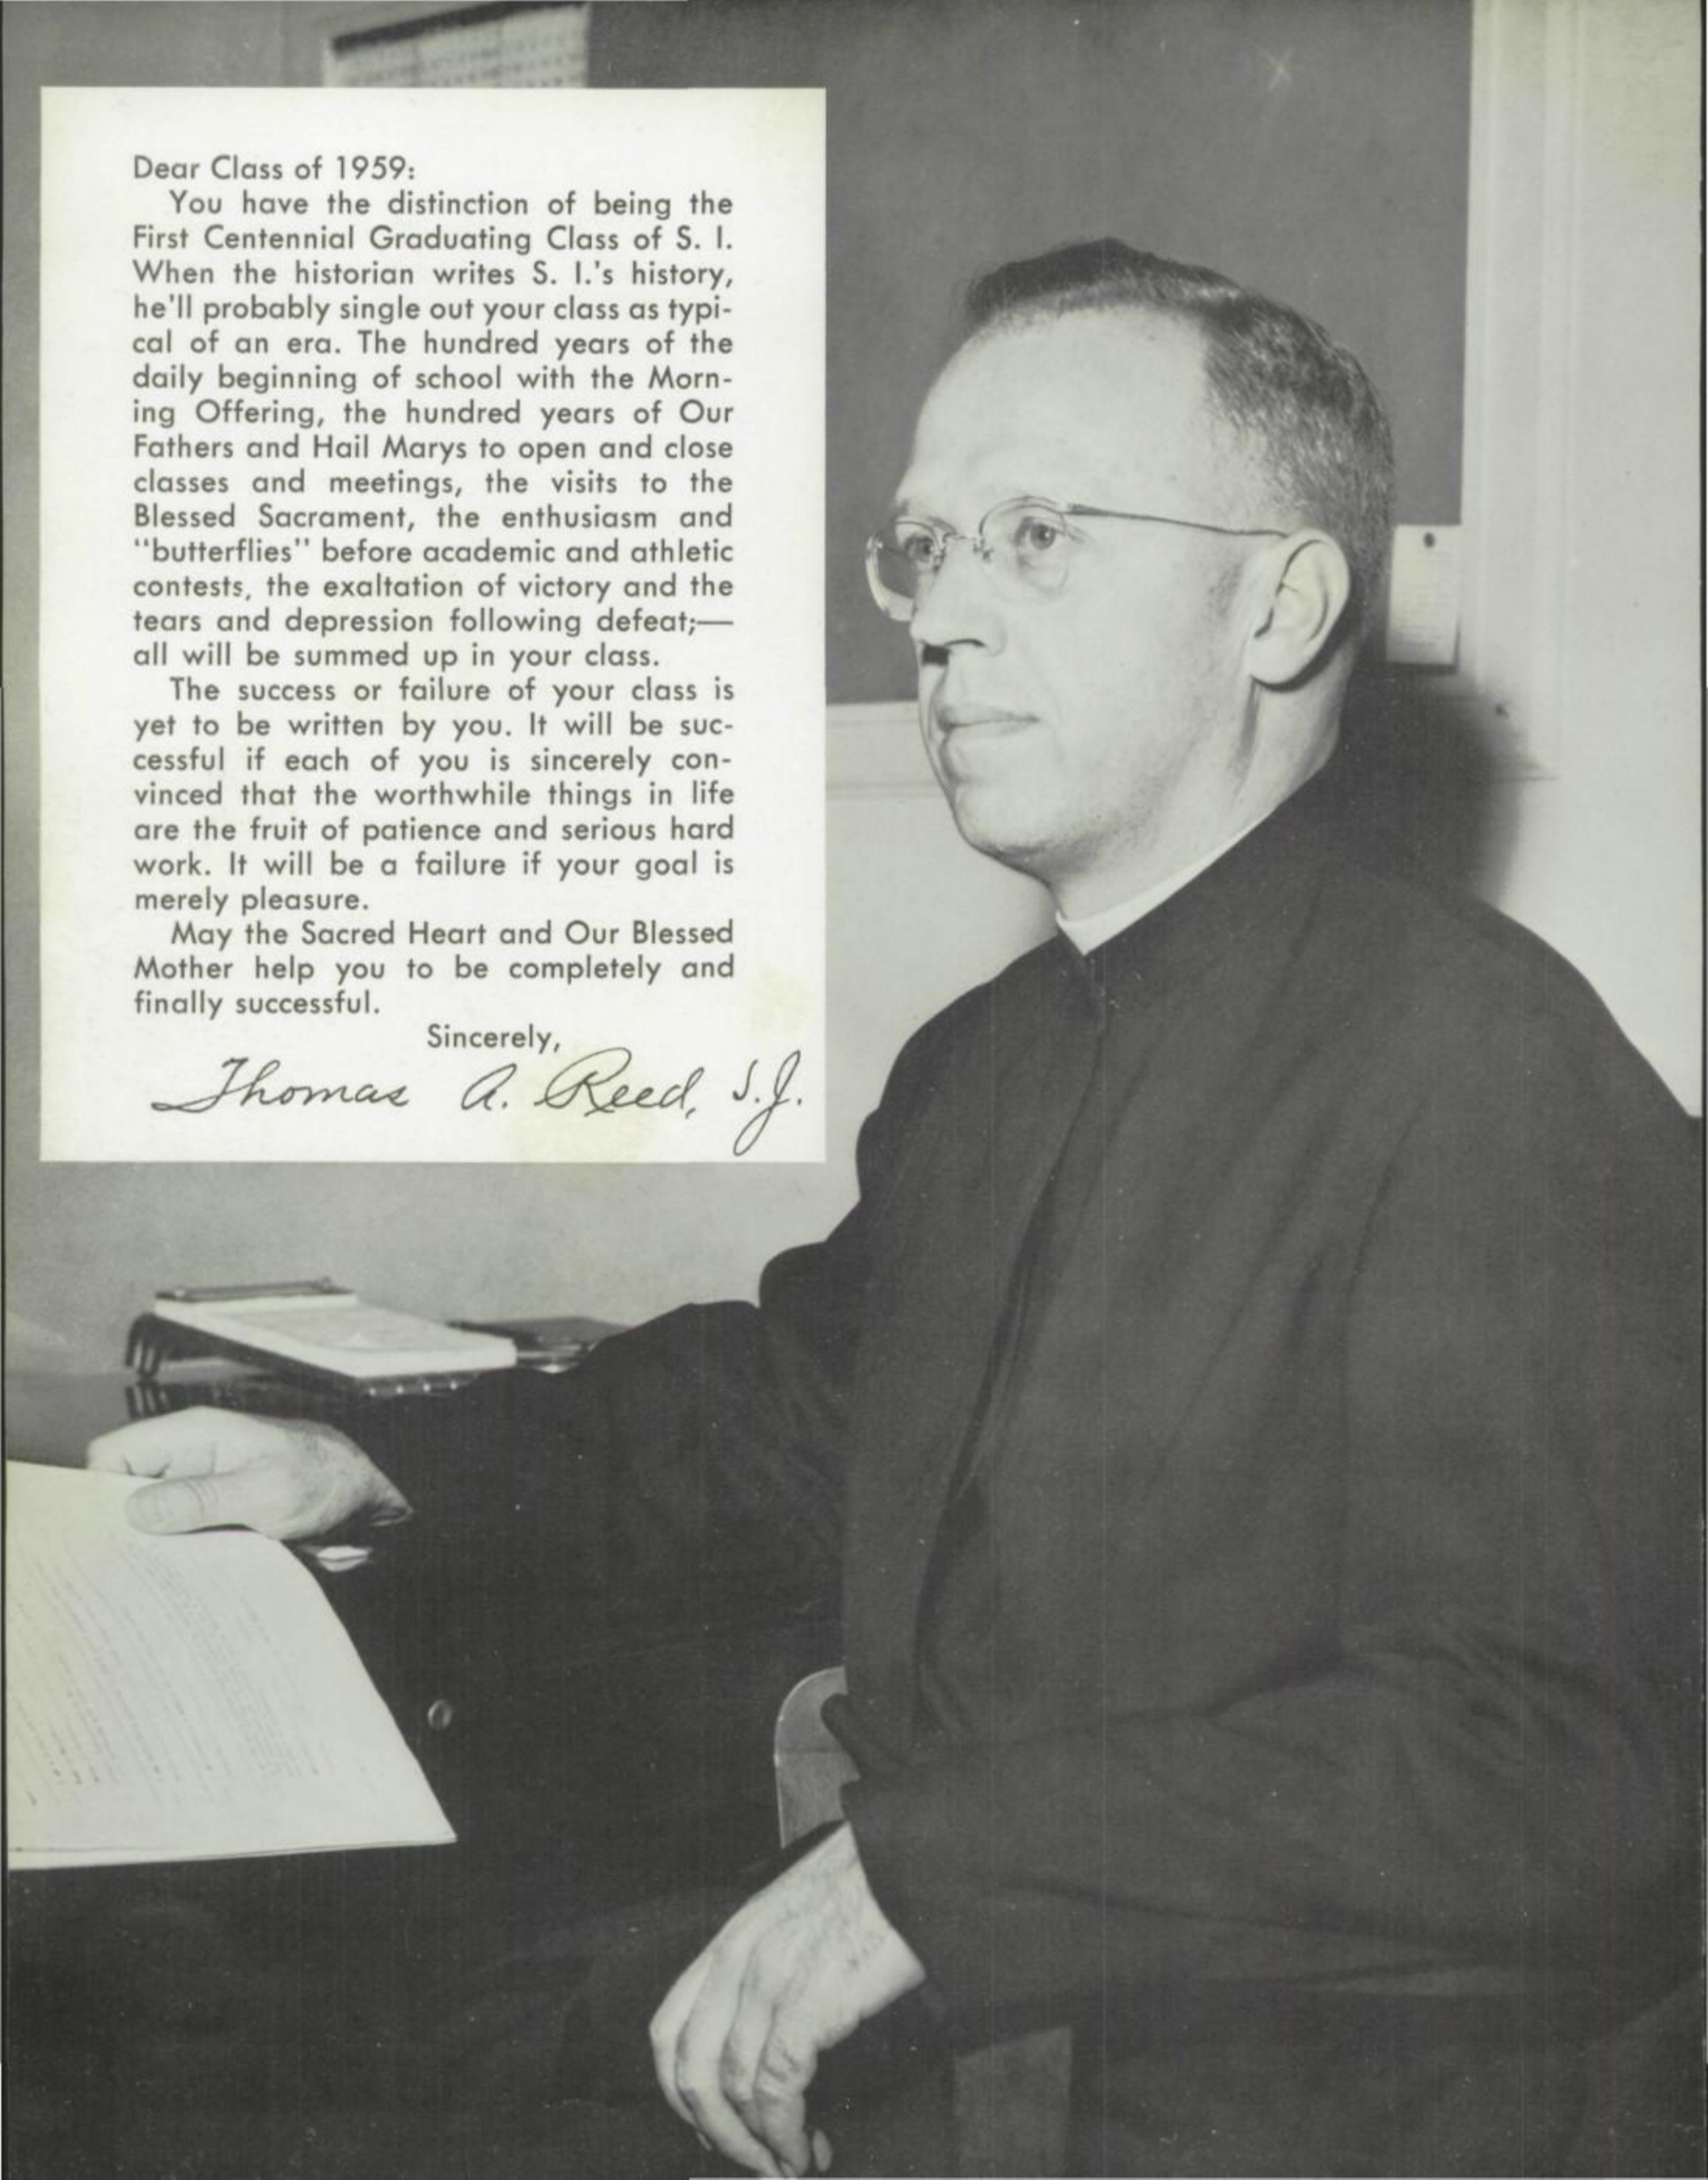

You have the distinction of being the First Centennial Graduating Class of S. I. When the historian writes S. I.'s history, he'll probably single out your class as typical of an era. The hundred years of the daily beginning of school with the Morning Offering, the hundred years of Our Fathers and Hail Marys to open and close classes and meetings, the visits to the Blessed Sacrament, the enthusiasm and "butterflies" before academic and athletic contests, the exaltation of victory and the tears and depression following defeat;—all will be summed up in your class.

The success or failure of your class is yet to be written by you. It will be successful if each of you is sincerely convinced that the worthwhile things in life are the fruit of patience and serious hard work. It will be a failure if your goal is merely pleasure.

May the Sacred Heart and Our Blessed Mother help you to be completely and finally successful.

Sincerely,

Thomas A. Reed, S.J.

Peter J. Ackenheil

PETER ACKENHEIL . . . "Tender Toe" Ackenheil used his kicking ability to help the school win many a football game. In his four years at S. I. Pete has given unselfishly of his time and skill both on the basketball court and on the gridiron to uphold the name of the school.

FREDERICK ALBAN . . . known for his warm smile and great personality during his four year stay at the Hilltop, was a faithful member of S. I.'s Sodality, taking an active part in all of its charitable work. No job was too tough for Fred. Next year Fred plans to take up the field of engineering at Santa Clara.

Frederick A. Alban

GARY ANALLA . . . Active, talented, humorous are all words which fit the character of Gary Analla. Gary was known for his lively participation in the N.F.L. and the debating team. He was also editor of the yearbook, secretary of his parish Holy Name Society, treasurer of the Sanc and a member of the grievance committee. He plans to go to U.S.F.

Gary J. Analla

Richard J. Andrews

1959

Jean G. Ashton

William F. Ayooob

John F. Azevedo

RICHARD ANDREWS . . . Rich played football all four years. His promising career as a half-back was cut short by a broken leg received in spring practice. However, his determination to play soon saw him back in the line-up. Rich hopes to study at M.I.T.

JOHN AZEVEDO . . . entered St. Ignatius from St. Cecilia's School. In his four years at S. I. John has shown the outstanding S. I. spirit. He played football and baseball, was a class officer, and a member of the Sodality in his freshman and sophomore years. John intends to enter U.S.F. and from there to go into the jewelry business.

JEAN ASHTON . . . one of the best football players the school has seen for some time, played a major role in winning the football championship. He was also prominent in the IGNA-TIAN, Sodality, and the Block Club. His Presidency of the C.S.F. proves him a hard-working student. Next year it's Santa Clara and Engineering.

GARY ATTELL . . . from Aptos Junior High came to S. I. in his sophomore year, and he immediately joined the baseball team. He has played varsity for three years and sparkplugged the team to its championship. Gary's hobby is golf; he shoots a terrific 120. Next year Gary is going to U. C. to become a teacher of Math.

WILLIAM AYOOB . . . Bill's interests at S. I. have included both studies (a member of the C.S.F.) and athletics (a valuable varsity baseball man). His broad grin was also seen standing proudly in front of a bright green Chevy which bears the sticker: "All mine!" Next year Bill plans to take up Business Administration at the University of California.

Gary R. Attell

LAWRENCE BACKSTEDT . . . was one of the valiant few that trudged to the field every day to represent S. I. in soccer. Larry is an old-time debator, having participated for four years. U.S.F. will be Larry's home for the next four years where he will study pre-med for a career in psychiatry.

JAMES BAFFICO . . . as most of us, started in at Saint Ignatius with only a few activities. But in his four years he has rotated between sports and writing. Some of his activities were baseball, and the Block Club, and the Brendon Club. Jim, sports, and his education, head for Holy Cross next year.

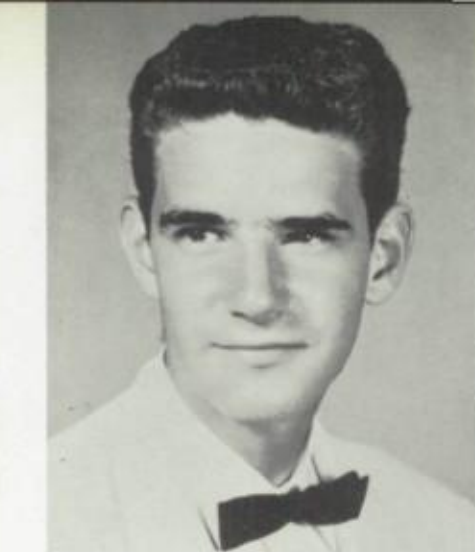

WILLIAM BARRETT . . . came from "Harold's Club" in the Sunset District, after a tough 8th grade course. He joined the cross-country team, but changed the scene of his efforts to the football field. Bill has been in the Sanc., N.F.L., debating, and the Art Committee. He hopes to spend the rest of his life looking at the world through a port-hole with the U.S. Navy.

RICHARD BASSI . . . "Come and get your wheat germ." For four years at S. I. Rich lived in fear of these words. These were the years he participated on the swimming team, stroking it to a championship, breaking records as though they were nothing. Next year Rich hopes to brighten Donville and graduate with a Liberal Arts degree.

ARTHUR BELLI . . . a member of the Saint Agnes Teen Club, is a veteran baseballer, winning a prized block sweater. He is also an avid fan of the other sports at S. I. and a member of the Sodality and the Art Committee. Next year the home of the Golden Bears will claim Art for its Nuclear Physics department.

LEON BELLI . . . hails from St. Peter and Paul's parish. He was a member of the St. Bridgid's Teen Club, and a member of the St. Francis Squires—a junior Knights of Columbus. Beside all this he kept a job after school. Leon plans to enter U.S.F.

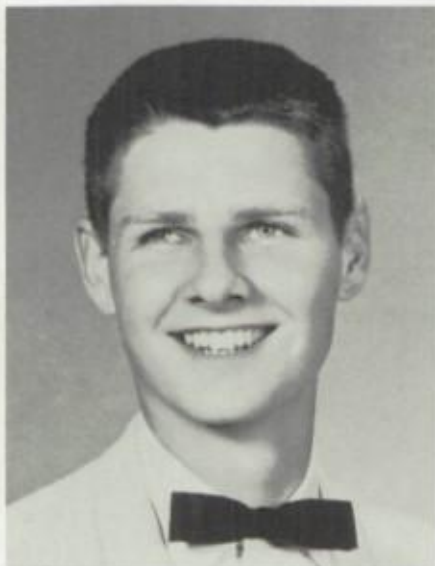

DANTE BELLUOMINI . . . Senior class prexy, varsity basketball, and a terrific guy; add these qualities up and the answer is Dan Belluomini. During his stay at the Hilltop, Dan has earned the admiration and respect of all for his genuine friendliness. Next year will find Dan a "Fightin' Bronco" of S.C., preparing for his degree in Liberal Arts.

Lawrence H. Backstedt

James A. Baffico

William A. Barrett

Richard A. Bassi

Arthur J. Belli

Leon P. Belli

GEORGE BERNARDI . . . was an industrious and able student during his four years at S. I. He was very loyal and studious in all his undertakings. J.V. and varsity football were George's main contributions to sports. The C.S.F. honored him as a member also. Next fall George is going to take the train to Cal Tech. Good luck!

JOHN BEVIAQUA . . . A calm, easy manner, casual clothes, and a hot '57 Plymouth are the characteristics of John Beviaqua. When not driving down Stanyan Street, John found time to participate in S. I.'s Sodality and the school drives. Next year John will take his car up to U.S.F. or to Santa Clara.

RICHARD BLACKMAN . . . was an extremely active Ignatian during his four years at the Hilltop. Dick found time to participate in the Sanc., the Sodality, the tennis team, the Art and Dance Committees, and the S. I. literary efforts. Next year this honor student plans to continue his studies at Georgetown where he will undertake pre-med.

MICHAEL BODISCO . . . His fame as the manager of the baseball team went unchallenged. During baseball season, Mike could usually be found at Big Rec after school, chasing foul balls. Unquestionably, he has done a fine job and is a credit to the school.

Dante F. Belluomini

George F. Bernardi

John M. Beviacqua

Joseph R. Boehle

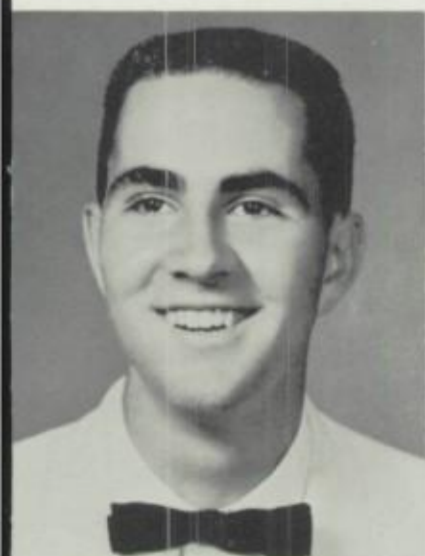

James F. Bone

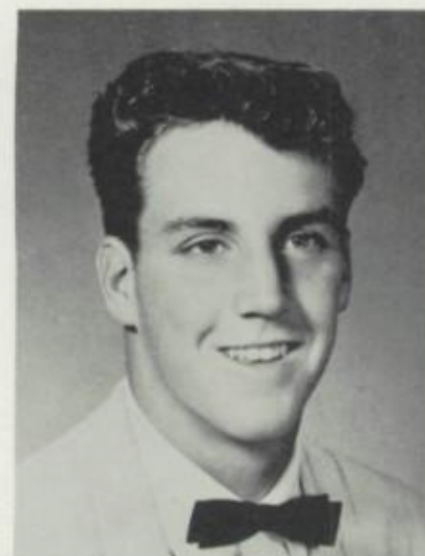

James R. Brady

Michael Bodisco

Richard B. Blackman

John J. Brennan

Michael J. Browne

JOSEPH BOEHLE . . . a loyal Sodalist for four years and a member of the C.S.F., has been noted as one of the few who readily understands mathematics. Also he has contributed to the IGNATIAN. Next fall Joe plans to attend Santa Clara and take up Engineering.

JAMES BONE . . . came to our illustrious portals from the Rose City of Portland, Oregon. He has been active in the Forum and the Sodality. Jim is going to U.S.F. to study in the College of Business Administration after his exit from these hallowed halls.

JAMES BRADY . . . came to S. I. in his Freshman year from St. Joseph's. "The Mighty Mite" has impressed us all with his affable personality. His major activities have been the mastering of Spanish with Senor Martinez, and a certain girl who goes to Presentation. Next year Jim wants to attend U.S.F. and major in Science.

JOHN BRENNAN . . . If someone should ask you who some of the busiest men at S. I. are, John Brennan's name would have to enter the conversation. He played 3 years Varsity baseball, 1 year J.V. football, 1 year Varsity football, was senior class officer, and a really swell guy. John will be a Fresh at U.S.F. in the fall.

MICHAEL BROWNE . . . comes to us from the Richmond District. A one year soccer player, he switched his talents to the Radio Club. He is now a member of Fr. Spohn's "Wonders." Between physics experiments, Mike found time to participate in the Sanc. and the Sodality. Next year Mike will venture to U.S.F. and work more physics experiments.

CALVIN BUSSI . . . A perpetual smile, a great sense of humor, a powerful personality, and a casual way with clothes, these are the ingredients which go to make Cal. He has probably made more friends at S. I. than the average person would in a lifetime. S. I.'s loss will be U.S.F.'s gain.

JOHN CABRAL . . . John entered S. I. from Most Holy Redeemer. He was a member of the Dance and Art Committee for four years, and a member of the Sanc and Rifle Club. In his coming freshman year, John intends to continue his education at Cal.

GENE CALMAN . . . Pat was one of S. I.'s top football players. Although Pat was a comparatively small guy for the end position, he made up for what he lacked in size with tremendous desire and unlimited potential. Come fall, Pat will travel to U.S.F. where he will study electronic physics.

PETER CARCIONE . . . Pete was a little fellow with a big heart. He belonged to the Sanc for two years, the Sodality for four, played 100's Basketball, ran Cross-country, worked with the Art Committee, and also played a very active part in class intramurals. Pete plans to go to U.S.F. to study Business.

CHRISTOPHER CARPENTER . . . Chris, a resident of El Cerrito, commutes every morning on the Key System bus. Chris came to S. I. in his sophomore year, and immediately plunged into the swimming team. This year, he became Head Cheerleader. Next year the "GIANT" is going to Stanford and Pre-Med.

Calvin D. Bussi

John J. Cabral

Gene P. Calman

Peter M. Carcione

Christopher G. Carpenter

"Line-up"

Albert E. Carr

Kevin T. Casey

ALBERT CARR . . . A gold Stude, an always clicking camera, and an obsession for St. Paul's High, these are the factors which contribute to the making of Al Carr. Al came to S. I. from the wide, open spaces of Brophy College Prep. Al is a great devotee of poetry, particularly "Lepanto." Next year Al intends to go to U.S.F.

KEVIN CASEY . . . Kev entered S. I. from St. Thomas's and immediately became famous for his artistic work. He was on the Art Committee for two years and drew cartoons for the Annual and INSIDE S.I. On top of this he worked in a drugstore for four years. Kev plans to continue studies at U.S.F.

RICHARD CASSINERIO . . . an easy-to-get-along-with guy, "Cass," as his friends call him, displayed true Ignatian spirit during his stay at the Hilltop. Although he worked outside of school hours, one could always see him at the games cheering as a loyal Ignatian. Rich plans to attend either U.S.F. or S.F. State.

PAUL CASTLE . . . Paul, concerning whom rumor has it of a devout interest in North Beach poetry, was an avid jazz fan while at S. I. His spare time was taken up by Junior Achievement and hitchhiking home (two activities well known to the majority of S. I. students). Next year? Well, we haven't heard.

JAMES CATTALINI . . . Jim entered S. I. from St. Brendan's and immediately started a prosperous career. He has been a Sanc member for four years and also played baseball while at S. I. Jim is a twin which makes it very difficult to distinguish him from his brother. Jim hopes to enroll at Santa Clara next fall.

Richard J. Cassinerio

Paul A. Castle

James J. Cattalini

John A. Cattalini

David A. Ciraulo

JOHN CATTALINI . . .
Take a quiet, easy-going manner, add a real sense of devotion, and top it off with a warm smile. There you have John Cattalini. John participated freely in football and basketball intramurals, and the combination of Sanc and Sodality made him a popular Ignatian. Next year John plans to take up engineering at S.C.

DAVID CIRAULO . . .
Take hard work, a little quietness, and you have Dave Ciraulo. Dave added to S.I.'s fame in the sports world through track, Varsity football, and cross country. Dave was also seen representing S.I. in many speech tournaments, and writing for "Inside S.I." The home of the Dons and pre-med hold Dave's future.

MICHAEL CLANCY . . .
Mike will be remembered for his humorous appearances at the store, for his run-in with a fellow named Mickey, and for his many class-room debates. Well-liked by fellow classmen, Mike provided all the answers when questioned and occasionally came up with a few good questions of his own.

DENNIS CLENNELL . . .
Den came to S. I. from the Seminary during his Junior year. A sportsman, Den is a follower of all sports, particularly football and golf. Next year Den will go to S.F. State in hopes of defending the innocent in his later years.

THOMAS CLISHAM . . .
Tom has been seen in most of the dramatic productions at S. I. Among his activities are the Sanc, Sodality, and yelling "Floyd." This year found Tom as the recording secretary of the student body. Next year will find Tom at U.S.F., fighting for a degree in English.

ANTHONY COGLIANDRO . . .
Tony came to S. I. from St. Thomas's School. He was a vital member of the track team and is well-known for his great running. He was always seen loudly cheering the team at athletic contests.

Michael T. Clancy

Dennis J. Clennell

Thomas J. Clisham

Anthony P. Cogliandro

Ronald T. Cook

Robert H. Crane

Robert K. Crawford

Daniel E. Creed

RONALD COOK . . . For the last four years at S. I. "Cookie" has been the answer to a coach's dream. All-city football and baseball spoke for his efforts in the athletic field. Ron always had a smile for everyone and was a real Catholic gentleman. Santa Clara may be the next stop for Ron.

ROBERT CRANE . . . Bob came to these illustrious portals from the fog-belt of San Francisco, the famous Sunset District. After being active in various activities and basketball in his freshman year, Bob's time is now taken with his after-school job. Next year he will go north to Seattle University and major in liberal arts.

ROBERT CRAWFORD . . . Friendly in his associations, Bob managed to avoid being a point of attention while never begrudging others a timely compliment. Studies were Bob's main point of interest while here, but he could always be seen at all athletic contests. Bob's ambition is to hang up an M.D. shingle after pre-med studies at U.S.F. and after medical school.

DANIEL CREED . . . Dan came to S. I. from St. Monica's, and during his stay at S. I. he worked after school; he also has been very active in his parish Sanc, and parish basketball. After graduating, he plans to attend U.S.F. where he will major in liberal arts.

CASEY CUMMINS . . . The man with ski poles is the other side of an otherwise quiet, easy-going student. Casey started skiing a few years ago and now he is trying for the future Olympics. A good student with a good record, Casey is as yet undecided where he will go to college.

KENNETH DAMOZONIO . . . Smiling Ken, S. I.'s answer to Benito Mussolini, is always defending the great Italian nationality from verbal onslaughts by the Irish segment in the school. Besides this, Ken found time to participate in the Sodality and Art Committee. Next year Ken plans to go to U.S.F.

MANUEL DE SILVA . . . "Manny," a transfer from Hong Kong, stayed a foot ahead of the Chinese Communists in leaving the Chinese mainland. He brought to S. I. a slight British accent and a head full of brains. Next year, on to U.S.F.

Manuel A. Da Silva

James T. Davis

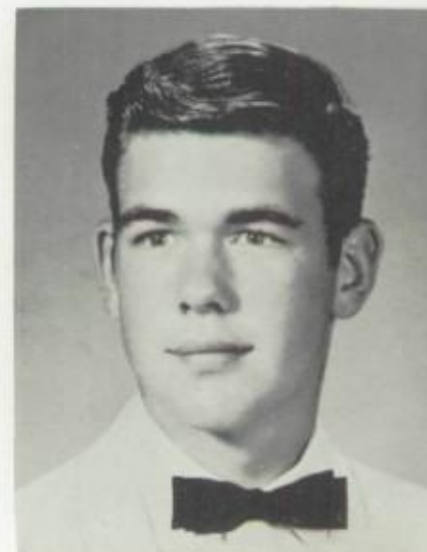

DAVID CHISHOLM . . . hails from Saint Cecilia's. He was a member of the rifle team during his stay at St. Ignatius. Dave was a fellow who was extremely interested in all the intramurals offered on the Hilltop. He also maintained good grades while here at S. I. and hopes to keep it up in college.

JAMES DAVIS . . . Jim, a graduate of St. Monica's, is a popular, easy-to-get-along-with fellow. He has been on the track team all four years and on the cross country in his Freshman year. Jim wishes to enter either U.S.F. or Santa Clara.

Kenneth J. Damozonio

Casey Cummins

Peter C. Davis

PETER DAVIS . . . is an Ignatian who will be well remembered. He was an ingenious student, which he proved by his life membership in the C.S.F. On the field, soccer took up his after-school hours. Many a school play enjoyed success due to Pete's working behind the scenes. Pete will pursue a Liberal Arts course at U.S.F.

George E. Devine

GEORGE DEVINE . . . George, a successful competitor in intramural and interscholastic speech and writing contests throughout northern California, has been a four-year member of the Sodality and a contributor to the VISTA and INSIGHT. George is seeking a State teaching credential in high school English; and so he plans to take courses at U.S.F. and S.F. State.

Kenneth J. Dekker

ROGER DE WEESE . . . Roger has led a varied life during his eight semesters at Stanyan and Turk. He participated in all S.I.'s intramurals; his ardent devotion was especially noticed in the Sodality room. It's Santa Clara next year for Roger, and an engineering degree.

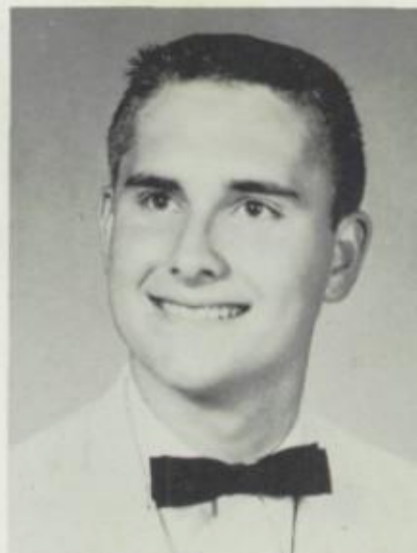

Roger E. De Weese

KENNETH DEKKER . . . Ken was a versatile athlete in every sense of the term. He not only played basketball during his stay at S.I., but was also an important member in Mr. Keating's baseball lineup. Ken's ambitions will take him to U.S.C. next year where he hopes to obtain a liberal arts degree.

ROBERT DE MARTINI . . . Coming from North Beach, De Mar became a member of the INSIDE SI staff and a worker for the Art Committee. Next year he is going to Santa Clara for a degree in engineering.

JOHN DERVIN . . . If, after an S.I. sports event you should be talking to a guy with a hoarse voice, chances are good that it would be John. From his active part in the Art Committee to his intramural sports prowess, he has given his all. John will enter pre-med at U.S.F. in the fall.

Paul A. Dezurick

PAUL DEZURICK . . . Paul joined us in his Junior year from Seattle Prep, but caught on to the S.I. spirit fast. Paul teed off for the golf team these last two years. When he was not on the greens, he was lending his support to other sports from the stands. Next, it's on to Santa Clara for Business Administration.

Robert L. De Martini

John V. Dervin

BELISARIO DIAZ - ROMERO . . . Bill has been a stalwart on the soccer team for the last three years. He is a quiet little guy, who is always willing to help out anyone, and a good student. His other interests are centered in his car. Bill will attend U.S.F. where he will study to be a teacher.

Belisario Diaz-Romero

MICHAEL DOHERTY . . . is certainly one of the greatest sources of pride for S.I. Star halfback, he helped win a football championship. A brilliant student, he placed in the National Merit and ranks high in the C.S.F. He is particularly able in science and math. He will study Physics in college.

PHILLIP DOWD . . . Phil hails from St. Philips Parish. He was a very active Ignatian, showing the great S.I. spirit. He was a member of the Sanc for four years and a member of the Chess Club in his frosh and soph years. After graduation he would like to attend Cogswell Polytechnic Institute.

WILLIAM DOWDALL . . . Bill comes from St. Emydia's, and as soon as he got to S.I., he joined the cross-country team. His Sophomore and Junior years found the swimming team as his field of endeavor. Next year he intends to go to U.S.F. to begin a career in dentistry.

JOHN DRISCOLL . . . John will always be remembered by his fellow classmates for the humor that he provided in his four years at S.I. He once was probably the only student to grow a beard in school and get away with it—reason: School Musical. John has kept a good scholastic record while he has been at S.I.

KENNETH DRISCOLL . . . Ken is a lanky, freckled fellow who is interested in all school activities. Ken was an ardent intramuralist. He played basketball well, and liked football. He never misses an S.I. sports event. His quiet wit is a source of great amusement to his classmates. Ken is undecided upon a college.

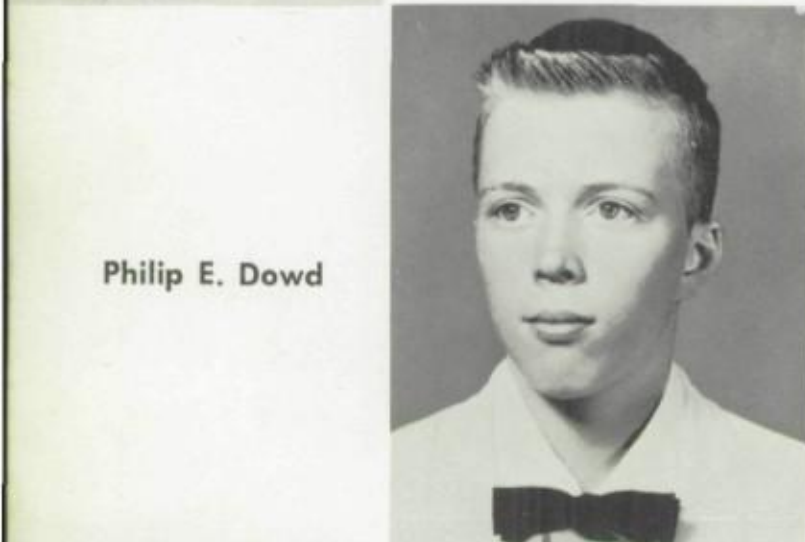

Michael J. Doherty

JAMES DRUCKER . . . Jim and his set of golf clubs have made a name for themselves around the halls of S.I. Jim's smile and humorous remarks have made him a lot of friends. He was also a letter-man on the golf team, winning many a victory for the school. Jim plans to attend U.S.F. next year.

JOHN DUGGAN . . . John lives in the Mission District in St. Paul's Parish. He attended St. Paul's School. His interest is in all sports. He coached the parish C.Y.O. basketball team for four years and also umpired C.Y.O. baseball games. After graduating from St. Ignatius he plans to attend the University of San Francisco.

LAWRENCE ENGLUND . . . Larry is commonly known around S.I. as a "good man," always smiling and ready to help anyone out. He is an ardent basketball intramuralist and has a job after school in a grocery store. He is planning to attend U.S.F. next fall.

Gordon L. Esposto

Robert W. Fardin

Eugene L. Falcone

James H. Farrell

Arnold W. Evje

Charles P. Etcheber

David F. Favro

Melvin J. Figoni

ARNOLD EVJE . . . While at S. I. Arnold strove to maintain a proper balance between sports and studies. On the side of the sports world, cross-country and varsity baseball took up a lot of his time. Off campus he worked in a downtown office, getting a picture of the business world through J.A. Next stop, U.S.F.

EUGENE FALCONE . . . While not playing "music that soothes the savage beast," Eugene found extra time for S. I.'s Sanc Society. He also was a four-year member of the C.S.F. It's more music for Eugene next year, for he will travel to San Francisco State with his accordion.

ROBERT FARDIN . . . Bob Fardin came to S. I. from St. Anne's grammar school. Bob is a dependable character who has been a member of the Sanc, C.S.F., and National Honor Society. Bob also holds down a good job at Roos Atkins. He plans to go to Cal or U.S.F. and become a doctor.

GORDON ESPOSTO . . . came to S. I. from St. Cecilia's and was an outstanding student in helping his class for two years in a row to win the Intramural Championship. Gordon has been a member of the Cecilian Club for four years also.

CHARLES ETCHEBER . . . Musically minded, Phil has been a member of the S.I. band for the four years that he has been a Hill-topper. He is also this year's president of the Chess Club. On top of these activities, Phil is a member of the Sanc, and Sodality. Next year he plans to attend U.S.F.

JAMES FARRELL . . . Jim is one of the most respected men in the Senior year. He has combined a fine academic record with a good sense of humor and a fervent interest in S. I. Jim was an active intramuralist. He will make science his career and study at U.S.F.

DAVID FAVRO . . . Dave came to S.I. from St. Elizabeth's and immediately became one of S.I.'s most well-liked fellows. He played varsity football for three years, was a member of the varsity track team for four years, and a Block Club member for two years. Dave plans to enter California or Oregon.

MELVIN FIGONI . . . Mel spent a lot of time at S.I. debating with the school Forum. The C.S.F. and Sodality were among the activities of Mel during his stay with us. He also spends a lot of time hunting in the hills of California. Pre-med at U.S.F. seems to take up most of his plans for the next four years.

ALAN FIRENZI . . . Al is famous for his Tri-power '56 Ford, his friends in North Beach, and his witty sayings. The Ford, however, is the best known of Al's living possessions. Once in the morning, once after school, and three times at lunch, Al would demonstrate his car's road ability and torque as he flew past the school.

Alan L. Firenzi

FRANK FIRPO . . . Frank was a real part of S.I.'s basketball team. He started off as twelfth man on the team, and, by persistent effort and real desire, worked his way up to first string. Next year, this fine Catholic gentleman will take his brown Chevy to Santa Clara where he will take up Liberal Arts.

Frank B. Firpo

ROBERT FIRPO . . . Smiling Bob Firpo came to S.I. from St. Brigid's Grammar School. At S.I., he built himself a fine reputation as a gentleman and a scholar. Bob's activities at S.I. (C.S.F. and Sodality) have been limited by the fact that he worked after school. Bob plans to go to U.S.F. and study electronics physics.

DANIEL FITZGERALD . . . "Fireball" Fitzgerald is a name that means what it sounds. Dan came to S.I. in his third year from the Seminary. He was acclaimed All-city pitcher because of his outstanding pitching ability. Dan is looking forward to entering Santa Clara next year to further his education.

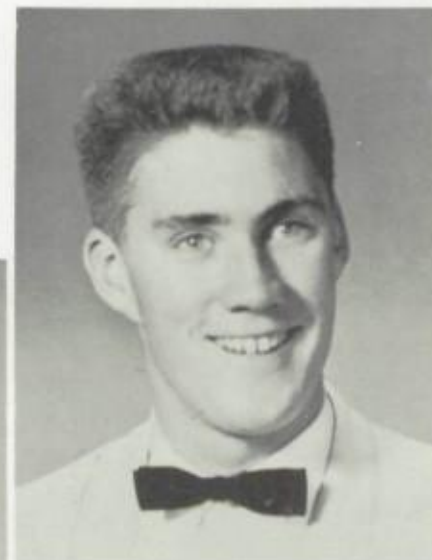

DANIEL FLANAGAN . . . A big stature, varsity basketball and track, and a fighting spirit all contributed to the winning personality of "Big Dan." Studywise he was just as well advanced. In the line of entertainment, Dan was a member of several musicals. As for the future, Dan will probably be found at Santa Clara studying Engineering.

JOSEPH FLYNN . . . He came to S.I. from Holy Name Parish and has been fairly active at S.I. since then. He has participated in the Varsity Track team, N.F.L. Sanc (in his earlier years at S.I.); and most recently he has worked with the Art Committee. He always kept a good B average in studies, and so he plans to attend St. Mary's College to pursue studies in pre-law.

JOHN FREEMAN . . . John is a top grade athlete. He played Football in his first three years at S.I. John, who is a good student, was in attendance at all S.I. social and athletic functions. He takes an active interest in the Star of the Sea teen club. John will attend U.S.F.

Robert S. Firpo

Daniel J. Fitzgerald

Daniel V. Flanagan

Joseph M. Flynn

ANTHONY FRISCIA . . . Tony, a member of the swank Marina District, is a well liked cheerleader. He is a member of the Olympic Club and the Vincetian Club. Tony hopes to attend U.S.F. and take up Business Administration.

LEROY FRITSCH . . . When Lee entered S.I., he took his talents to the Rifle Club. Besides aiming at rifle targets, Lee devoted his talents to camera shooting as well; he was a member of the Camera Club. On campus, Lee was a four-year member of the C.S.F. and a real scholar. Come Fall, it's U.S.F. for Lee.

JOHN FRY . . . John hails from Star of the Sea. He was a four year member of the Sanc and Sodality, captain of the Cross-country team, All-city in track, a member of the Block Club, and a class officer in his Junior year. He also is president of the Reginian Club. He plans to go to U.S.F.

ERNEST GARBARINO . . . Ernie's the quiet type, but he knows how to do things and how to do them well. He was a leader in the C.Y.O. and Junior Achievement. Good grades put him into the C.S.F. for three years. His interests are his car, his parish youth club, and Medicine, which he hopes to study at Georgetown.

John T. Freeman

Anthony C. Friscia

Leroy M. Fritsch

Patrick E. Gaynor

Luke J. Gerbich

Richard S. Gershenoff

John Fry

Ernest A. Garbarino

Michael T. Gillin

John T. Giovanola

PATRICK GAYNOR . . . Pat was an outstanding member of the school intramurals. During his four years at the Hilltop, Pat played all major sports with the class team, and proved himself a versatile athlete. When not playing sports, Pat was lending his talents to Inside S.I. Pat will go to U.S.F. and try his hand at Liberal Arts.

LUKE GERBICH . . . Luke came to S.I. from Saint Thomas' parish. During his four years at S.I. his after school hours were spent working. Luke could also be found at home working in his chemistry lab. He will head for U.C. after graduation and major in science.

RICHARD GERSHENOFF . . . Rich was an Ignatian of no small achievement. Soccer was his athlete field during his stay at S.I. In his senior year he was voted the best all-around player on the Soccer team. Rich would like to enroll at San Francisco State next year and win a Liberal Arts degree.

MICHAEL GILLIN . . . Mike came to us from St. Philip's. He participated in most of the activities at S.I. at one time or another. He always worked hard at his studies and has been a member of the C.S.F. for the past three years. Mike intends to go on to college and take up Law.

JOHN GIOVANOLA . . . For three years John was a star on the Baseball team and won himself a place on the Block Club. He plans to study Business at U.S.F. He will no doubt go far; and he has already proved his ability by his skillful management of school funds. (He was Senior Class Treasurer).

LESLIE GO . . . Les has spent his high school life in these hallowed halls of St. Ignatius. Les is quiet but occasionally gave the class a few laughs. He has a good record and has U.S.F. in mind to further his knowledge.

JAMES GRAVANIS . . . Jim, who hails from St. Agnes Parish, is interested in all sports, which he played well at S.I. He was very active in intramurals, but couldn't play after school because he had a job. Jim is going to U.S.F. to take up Business Administration.

JAMES GROSS . . . Jim, a fellow whom everybody knows, has been the spirit of S.I. His activities include four years Sanc, two and a half Sodality, and Sodality Prefect in Senior year. He has also played football all four years at S.I. Jim hopes to enter U.S.F. and study to be either a science teacher or a doctor.

RICHARD GUIDOTTI . . . Rich came to S.I. from St. Monica's Parish. He wrote for INSIDE S.I. for three years and was on the stage crew of RICHARD III. "Moose" plans to continue his education under the R.O.T.C. program.

ROBERT HALSING . . . Bob came to S.I. from St. Cecilia's grammar school. He worked and got favorable results. He was a faithful member of the Sanc for four years. When he wasn't home studying, he was usually working on his car. He plans on going to Santa Clara to study Engineering.

Leslie A. Go

"... leaders of a truly great team."

John B. Hanlon

Lawrence W. Harris

JOHN HANLON . . . "The smiling redhead" and his car "Stinky" were a well known twosome at S.I. He was active in the Sanc and Sodality. His first love is his car. He plans to attend either Santa Clara or Cal.

LAWRENCE HARRIS . . . Larry Harris is famous for his firm opinions about current political problems. He intends to study politics at Stanford. He was the IGNATIAN Business Manager, a writer for INSIDE S.I., a Block Club member, and a member of the Championship Swimming Team. He has also maintained a fine record of scholastic achievement in class.

PARKES HARRIS . . . was one of the Sanc's staunchest workers and will certainly be missed by that organization when he graduates. In the Sodality he has given his talent to the Art Committee. He will long be remembered in the hall of S.I. for his generous spirit. Next year it's pre-med at U.S.F.

RENNICK HARRIS . . . From Sunny Marin comes everybody's friend, Ren. His smiling countenance and affable personality made him liked by all. While at S.I. he has played intramurals and was a loyal supporter of athletic events. Come September, it's U.S.F. and liberal arts.

ANTHONY HARRISON . . . The "Veep" was one of Saint Ignatius' most versatile characters. Between student body activities and the American Health Studio, Tony found time to participate in dramatics and debating. In Sodality circles he was busy with the Laguna Honda project and Mercy committee. What S.I. loses is U.S.F.'s gain, for Tony hopes to get a degree in Law and play basketball.

Parkes A. Harris

Rennick J. Harris

Anthony L. Harrison

Brian M. Hassett

John L. Heilmann

BRIAN HASSETT

Straight B average, casual clothes, football star—these are the characteristics of one of S.I.'s finest gentlemen. Brian can also claim four faithful years in the service of S.I.'s Sodality. He hopes to continue his studies at San Francisco State where he will take up commercial art.

John came to S.I. after three years at St. Joseph's Seminary and adjusted very quickly. He played varsity football, was a member of the swimming team, and also a member of the Sanc and Sodality. Next year John intends to enter U.S.F. to study education.

ROBERT HENNING

In Bob, S.I. has one of its most loyal Wildcats. He has been a firm supporter on track, football, Band, Art Committee, C.S.F., and Honor Society. Bob is also very interested in science and would like to take pre-med at Cal

Tom came into the spotlight in his Senior year when he became the editor of S.I.'s literary magazine, INSIGHT. His dry wit and casual, easy-going manner were noticed around the Sodality or on the football field where he was an intramural stand-out. Tom's plans include U.S.F. next year.

TIMOTHY HOAGLAND

Tim is one of our greatest car enthusiasts. His supercharged green '49 Ford is a famous and familiar sight about school. His main hobbies are testing his car on the Great Highway and sailing in the Bay. He has been one of the soccer team stalwarts. He plans to enter the insurance field upon the completion of college.

Ed is a hard-working student who rarely misses a school game. Ed is friendly towards everyone; and it cannot be said that he did not supply the class with a few humorous remarks during his stay on the Hilltop. Ed has his eye on U.S.F. and more knowledge.

Robert J. Henning

Thomas F. Hicks

Timothy P. Hoagland

Edward A. Hogan

Rodney J. Holzkamp

Mark E. Hurley

Stony A. Jackson

William J. Jones

RODNEY HOLZKAMP . . . Rod's achievements at S.I. are track, cross-country, swimming, Sanc, Sodality, and camera club. He was instrumental in the founding of VISTA, and is a Junior Knight of Columbus. His future plan is for a liberal arts course at U.S.F.

MARK HURLEY . . . Mark can be found attending all athletic events and is himself quite an intramuralist. He was a varsity swimmer and a good archer. His car takes much of his spare time. College means U.S.F.

STONY JACKSON . . . Stony has devoted much of his time to the Forum, and was one of its best speakers. His face and voice are well-known in northern California because of the many speech contests in which he has been prominent. Stony plans to study Law at Georgetown.

WILLIAM JONES . . . Smiling Bill was a well-liked member of the class of '59. He was a Sodalist for four years. He enjoys a good time, and likes dancing. Next year he will enroll in U.S.F.'s liberal arts course.

BERNARD KEELIN . . . Barney was a new face among the seniors, a transfer from Loyola High. However, he soon became a rooting Wildcat, cheering at all the games. He is a Sodalist. He will study Law at U.S.F.

JOHN KELTERER . . . John's fantastic sense of humor and ability to amuse made him many friends and admirers. He was a big cog in this year's basketball team, and has been in the Sanc and the Sodality. Here's a salute to a real Ignatian.

Michael J. King

Thomas R. Kenney

MICHAEL KING . . . In Mike King S.I. had one of her best swimmers. Mike helped lead the mermen to a championship. Mike is well-known for his winning smile and pleasant personality which helped him win many friends. Next fall he will migrate to Santa Clara for liberal arts.

THOMAS KENNEY . . . While a frosh; Tom played basketball and baseball. Then he turned his attention to the soccer team. Tom has been a mainstay of the team (The team's been winning games!). and Tom has received three varsity blocks. Next year, liberal arts at U.S.F.

John C. Kelterer

Bernard J. Keelin

John F. Klein

JOHN KLEIN . . . Probably not one of the greatest S.I. students, but one of the luckiest. A swimmer and rifleman, he has also tried to be an ardent Sanc and Sodality member. John has also been a hard worker on the yearbook staff. His plans are high and he wants to study either English or Physics at U.S.F.

ARTHUR LENHARDT . . . Art was one of the better photographers for the Inside SI. During his spare time, Art was active in publicizing the recently-founded magazine Insight, of which he was the Business Manager. His favorite subject is English, and he hopes to become an English teacher. He will study Education at U.S.F.

Arthur W. Lenhardt

Robert H. Lamerdan

THOMAS LEONARDINI . . . Tom has made a real contribution to S.I. He will be remembered for his quick wit and his athletic prowess. Tom, in his Junior year, beat S.H. in the final baseball playoff with a well pitched one-hitter. Tom will toe the rubber next year for the California Golden Bears.

Thomas A. Leonardini

ROBERT LAMERDAN . . . Bob is a senior who has made many friends at S.I. Bob played intramurals, and lent his talents to many organizations in the school. Bob a quiet, unassuming fellow, receives good grades. He takes an active interest in all of S.I.'s athletic events and will attend U.S.F. in the fall.

RICHARD LA ROCCA . . . "Rich," good natured, helpful, all-around guy, has spent his four precarious years at St. Ignatius, absorbing knowledge. (He is also a good student.) C.S.F. and Junior Achievement were his major interests. Next year Rich wishes to pursue a career in engineering at Santa Clara.

GORDON LAU . . . Originally from Hawaii, Gordon Lau has brought some of its pleasantness to S.I. Gordy has excelled here in both scholastic and athletic endeavors, among these C.S.F., National Honor Society, and varsity football. Gordy intends to go to U.S.F. and major in pre-med.

WILLIAM LOVE . . . "Bill" is best known for his ability as a swimmer, which put him in the Black Club with three varsity blocks. But all his talents are not limited to swimming; he is also a member of the dance committee, Sanc, Sodality, INSIDE SI, and IGNATIAN. Bill intends to sojourn to Santa Clara where he can take up engineering.

William A. Love

Richard J. La Rocca

ROBERT LYNCH . . . For the past two years this St. Cecilia lad with a smile has been roaring down Stanyan St. every school-day in his black M.G. Bob Lynch is an agreeable mixture of hard work and play. Next fall he expects to enroll at U.S.F. where he will take up pre-med.

Gordon J. Lau

Robert F. Lynch

NOEL LYONS . . . Noel Lyons came to S.I. from Star of the Sea. While at S.I., Noel earned a reputation for his scholastic achievements. He has won honors in elocution contests and other academic endeavors. Noel plans to go to Cal Tech and become an electrical engineer.

JOHN MACKENZIE . . . John is another silent member of the Sanctuary Society, who gets up on cold mornings to serve Mass. He spends most of his time reading history and political science and has a fine background for the career he wishes to follow — teaching. He plans to achieve this at U.S.F.

DONALD MALLAMO . . . Don hails from St. Brigid's Parish in the Marina. He played two years of football and was a member of the track team for one year. Despite his activity at S.I., he maintained recommending grades. Next year Don plans to attend U.C. at Davis to further his education as an agricultural chemist.

PHILIP MALONEY . . . Phil came to S.I. from St. Joseph's during his Junior year. He was a member of the IGNATIAN, Sanc, Sodality, and a participator in the musical. Next year Phil hopes to attend U.S.F. in preparation for a degree in law.

CLIFFORD MARTIN . . . Cliff came to the honored halls of St. Ignatius in 1955 from Our Lady of Victory. He was always active in all sports while at S.I. He was one of the most popular Seniors of '59. This was proved when he was elected Student Body Treasurer. Cliff plans on pre-dentistry at U.S.F.

Noel P. Lyons

MICHAEL McAULIFFE . . . "Big Mike" has been quite a driver on the intramural football teams, using the knowledge he learned on the J.V.'s. He has also been on the baseball team, and hard study has given him the privilege of buying numerous C.S.F. pins. He intends to pin these in the engineering department at Santa Clara.

WILLIAM MCCARTHY . . . Bill McCarthy came to S.I. from St. Brendan's grammar school. While at S.I., Bill was a member of the C.S.F. and a member of the play stage crew; but most of his extra time has been taken up with his after-school job. He plans to study engineering at Santa Clara.

THOMAS MCCORMAC . . . Gary ranks as one of the top students in his class. He has always been an ardent supporter of S.I. sports events. Gary is very interested in his car and in his car club. He will take up pre-dental studies at U.S.F. next fall.

John F. Miller

Patrick J. McGibben

WILLIAM McLEAN . . .
"Bill" has spent his time at St. Ignatius playing football, running track, and being around. He is a good student and all his grades were high. His main interest is the field of Engineering. Come next September, he plans on being around Santa Clara.

George A. Montes

LEONARD MEDINA . . .
Len came to S.I. from St. Boniface. He turned out to be one of S.I.'s leading track stars. Everybody will remember Len's classic wit and his impersonations of the faculty. Len plans to enroll at U.S.F. next semester.

FRANK MIJATOVICH . . .
Frank has done more than his share of work A.M.D.G. AT S.I. He has been a member of the student council, a member of the Sanc and the Sodality, and president of the Federation of Catholic High Schools. Frank plans to go to U.S.F. and study Physics.

John M. Moore

EDWARD Mc GETTIGAN . . .
From out of St. Brendan's came Neal McGettigan. While at S.I. Neal lent his talents to the lightweight basketball team. When he wasn't working at the library, "McGet" could be found on the golf links. He also belonged to the Sodality. Next year, it's onward to U.S.F.

PATRICK McGIBBEN . . .
Pat came to S.I. from St. Matthew's in San Mateo. Although commuting from San Mateo, Pat played baseball in his first and second years and played on this year's varsity baseball team. Also, Pat was a four-year member of the Sodality. U.S.F. and liberal arts is next for Pat.

JOHN MILLER . . . John comes to us from St. Cecilia's. He played basketball, was in the Sanc four years, was in the Sodality and on the IGNATIAN. He is very active in the Cecilia Club. He hopes to study Business at Santa Clara.

GEORGE MONTES . . .
With his diploma from St. Paul's "Monty" came to S.I. Because of his after school job, George has been limited in the activities he could participate in. However, he has been a loyal rooster throughout his stay at S.I. Upon graduation it's four years for George at the "Hilltop Manor" and a major in pre-med.

JOHN MOORE . . . John came to S.I. from St. Brendan's Parish. During his four years he worked at the San Francisco Main Library. Also he kept up recommending grades while at S.I. His main outside activity was the Brendan club of which he was a faithful member. John plans to continue his education in the field of medicine.

ROBERT MOREY . . . Happy go lucky, Bob played four years of baseball while at S.I. He was also a loyal member of the Sodality and a great intramuralist. Bob, who was liked by all, plans to attend U.S.F.

MARCELLUS MORRISON . . . With eight years at St. Boniface behind him, Mark arrived at S.I. During his first two years, Mark was active in sports. In the latter years he found it necessary to hold down a job in order to keep the "Purple Onion," his sleek '55 Ford, in perfect running order. Mark plans on an education major at U.S.F.

ROBERT MULCREVY . . . Bob, who came to S.I. from St. Cecilia's, has made use of his abundance of height on the S.I. basketball team. He was a big man in varsity basketball for the past two years. Bob plans to pursue his education at Santa Clara, but is yet undecided on his major.

THOMAS MULKEEN . . . Tom came to S.I. his junior year from St. Joseph's Seminary. Tom was one of the reasons Fr. Becker's publication, INSIGHT was such a success. The Art Committee found a valuable member in Tom. With Fr. Becker's blessing, Tom will go on in architectural engineering.

JOHN MUNDY . . . John Mundy attended five grammar schools before coming to S.I. Although John's school activities have been limited because of his job at St. Mary's hospital, he showed his school and class spirit by his intramural participation. He was a member of the C.S.F., Honor Society, Shakespearean play cast.

JOHN MURPHY . . . John was an Ignatian that will be remembered by all. Sanc, Sodality leader, C.S.F., and N.F.L. were but a few of the apples on his tree of activities. And between school plays and studies, he could be seen running track. Next stop for John is toward a career in medicine.

ROBERT MUSANTE . . . Bob was one of our most loyal Wildcats. He could be seen at all the athletic contests, loudly cheering for our team. Bob's active participation in all things social — intramurals, Art Committee, Dance Committee—gave him the chance to make many new friends.

TERRY RAVAZZINI . . . During his four years at S.I., Terry has never been known to frown, and has a knack for arguing with a smile. He has been in the C.S.F., the Vincentian Club, and is a Squire in the Knights of Columbus. He wants to study law at Oregon State.

Timothy A. Reardon

Terry J. Ravazzini

Michael D. Rogers

Daniel P. Rolandson

TIMOTHY REARDON . . . Tim's great popularity and school spirit won him the post of Student Body President this year. His ability for leadership was responsible for much of the success of this school year. He was also active in Sanc, Sodality, basketball, football, baseball, and C.S.F. Next year, Santa Clara and pre-med.

MICHAEL ROGERS . . . Mike, chosen as his class's player of the year, was an ardent intramuralist. He has a large record collection and takes a great interest in popular music. He hopes to someday be a disk-jockey. Mike will study at U.S.F.

DAN ROLANDSON . . . In his junior year Dan was voted the tennis team's most spirited player. Although his job, working in a bakery, takes much of his time, he still was able to get good marks in school. Dan will play tennis for U.S.F. next year, where he will study to become a teacher.

PIERO SANDRI . . . By means of intensive study and intellectual enthusiasm, Piero rendered a good account of himself, as seen by his membership in the C.S.F. and National Honor Society. His jests never failed to amuse his class, and he went to great lengths to execute them. His education will continue at U.S.F.

FRANCIS SCARPULLA . . . The proud possessor of a '53 Ford convertible, Fran became famous as the only student who ever lit a cigarette on stage at a rally. Good running in track has also given him renown. Next, Stanford and medicine.

JERRY SCHAEFER . . . "Versatile" is the word to describe Jerry. A typical example of S.I. spirit in action, he is prominent in soccer, C.S.F., and a class officer to boot. He does a great deal of reading in his spare time. Next fall, Stanford and chemical engineering.

Piero F. Sandri

Francis V. Scarpulla

Jerry C. Schaefer

William M. Schendel

Philip E. Scherer

WILLIAM SCHENDEL . . .
Anyone who has been in any of Bill's classes will never be able to forget his jokes and funny sayings. Bill is a really nice guy who works diligently at his studies, yet always cheers the teams. Bill plans to enter U.S.F. next year.

PHILIP SCHERER . . . Phil has been an avid rooter and supporter of all the S.I. teams. Since most of his time is taken up by an after-school job, he was unable to participate in many activities. He likes math, and will study Public Accounting at Cal.

JOHN SEIB . . . John was one of the most studious boys at S.I. He spent his spare time learning about various phases of literature and music. He is rather quiet, and did not cause much of a sensation while at S.I., but devoted all of his time to study. He plans on teaching college Latin.

RICHARD SEQUEIRA . . .
That "low voice in the back of the room" was not always intent on driving teachers to distraction. Rich profitably busied himself with Sodality, Junior Achievement, tennis, and C.S.F. Next year comes U.S.F. and Law.

RICHARD SEYLER . . .
Rich transferred to S.I. from the seminary while in his junior year. He was a good student, a good friend, and pleasantly quiet. Rich will attend Santa Clara to study engineering.

JAMES SHEA . . . Jim played three years of top-flight basketball. His leadership made him captain of the 120's and the 130's. During his senior year he was president of the Cecilia Club. Next year Jim hopes to follow his father's footsteps in the field of medicine.

John R. Seib

Richard F. Sequeira

Richard J. Seyler

James F. Shea

Walter M. Shergin

Allen V. Shirley

Joseph L. Sieder

Daniel J. Siracusa

WALTER SHERGIN . . . Walt's interest in sports led him to become a key man on many intramurals teams. His determination to win often guided his team to victory. He is interested in science and will study mechanical engineering at Washington U.

ALLEN SHIRLEY . . . Al is a great intramuralist, well-known for his pass-catching ability. Much practice has made him a top member of the Rifle Team. Al plays in the band and spends his spare time making music. He will study education at U.S.F.

JOE SIEDER . . . Joe's many interests, from jazz to football, keep him occupied all the time. Because of an after-school job he was unable to continue his promising football career. Joe plans to advance in the field of mechanical engineering.

DAN SIRACUSA . . . A thundering member of our championship team, Dan played three years for S.I. His good marks have made him a member of the C.S.F. Dan's great interest is engineering, and he will further it by study at San Jose State.

PETER SLATTERY . . . Pete was a runner for the cross-country team, a marksman for the rifle team, and a member of the Sanc. Next step for Slats will be U.S.F., a preparation for his career in wild life management.

DONALD SMITH . . . Dan came to S.I. from St. Thomas's Parish. His favorite sport was basketball, which he played for three years. He was an important addition to the varsity team this year. Next year Dan hopes to study Engineering.

FRED SMITH . . . Fred came to S.I. from Most Holy Redeemer, and immediately joined the baseball team and the Sodality. Fred's main outside activities were water skiing and working with cars. Fred will study engineering at Cal.

Donald H. Smith

Peter N. Slattery

Fred C. Smith

JOHN STARK . . . John was a debater while a freshman and a Sodalist while a junior and senior. He could be seen loudly cheering at any athletic event, and was active in S.I.'s social life. John will study math, his favorite subject, at U.S.F.

JOHN STEFFENS . . . John came to S.I. from Star of the Sea. He was in the Sanc for two years, and was especially active in intramurals for four years. He considers the many friends he has made one of his best accomplishments in high school. He wants to study engineering at Cal.

John F. Stark

John R. Steffens

Joseph P. Stone

JOSEPH STONE . . . In his four years at S.I. Joe has been active in C.S.F., Sodality, and basketball. He has also developed good study habits and a strong character. He has acquired an interest in business and will develop his knowledge of this subject by majoring in business administration at U.S.F.

JOHN SULLIVAN . . . Liked by all, John was a class officer for all four of his years at S.I. His planning and organizing were responsible for the great success of the class proms. John wants to study liberal arts at U.S.F.

ANTHONY THIEBAUD . . . Anthony is another quiet but active S.I. student. During his four years at S.I. he has played basketball, has been a member of Holy Name's "Pro Deo" Club, and has been a member of the C.S.F. After graduation Anthony will study science at U.S.F.

PETER TULLY . . . Pete was one of the most able and most active intramuralists this year. His sense of humor and genial disposition made him very well liked by his classmates. His hobby is working with cars. His education will continue at U.S.F.

BOB WALKER . . . Bob, the Olympic Club Kid, came to S.I. in his junior year from New York. In only two short years Bob has become one of the best-liked seniors of '59. He was a member of the S.I. "Shin Bruisers" and an active Sodalist. Next comes a study of liberal arts at St. Mary's College in Maryland.

BART WHELTON . . . Bart came to S.I. in 1955. With graduation just around the corner, he has reaped all the benefits of a Jesuit education. His main interest has been the Sanc, of which he was a member for four years. Bart will spend the next four years at U.S.F.

EDWARD WILDERSON . . . Ed was a swimming star for three years. He was in the Forum for two years; and, as a member of the stage crew, he helped build the sets for the school plays. Next comes U.S.F. and business administration.

Peter S. Tully

Robert M. Walker

Bartlett D. Whelton

Edward Wilderson

John M. Sullivan

Anthony R. Thiebaud

Ronald Tocchini

Thomas Tice

TOM TICE . . . Tom transferred from St. Joseph's in his freshman year. He was very interested in sports, especially basketball, and played 30's basketball while a sophomore. Tom is a member of the National Rifleman's Association. College will see him studying medicine.

RONALD TOCCHINI . . . Ron, another of the Marina boys, was part of the varsity football championship team's backbone. He was a student body officer while a junior and wielded a sword in Royal Assassin. His tremendous spirit and honest generosity made him a very well-liked Ignatian.

PETER TULLY . . . Pete was one of the most able and most active intramuralists this year. His sense of humor and genial disposition made him very well liked by his classmates. His hobby is working with cars. His education will continue at U.S.F.

BOB WALKER . . . Bob, the Olympic Club Kid, came to S.I. in his junior year from New York. In only two short years Bob has become one of the best-liked seniors of '59. He was a member of the S.I. "Shin Bruisers" and an active Sodalist. Next comes a study of liberal arts at St. Mary's College in Maryland.

BART WHELTON . . . Bart came to S.I. in 1955. With graduation just around the corner, he has reaped all the benefits of a Jesuit education. His main interest has been the Sanc, of which he was a member for four years. Bart will spend the next four years at U.S.F.

EDWARD WILDERSON . . . Ed was a swimming star for three years. He was in the Forum for two years; and, as a member of the stage crew, he helped build the sets for the school plays. Next comes U.S.F. and business administration.

STEVE WILLEMSSEN . . . Steve, a true Ignatian and faithful Sanc member, would rise early on many cold mornings to serve Mass at Saint Ignatius Church. He was a member of the Radio Club and had a job after school. On leaving Saint Ignatius, he plans to take up automotive engineering at Cal.

GEORGE WINKEL . . . Wink came to S.I. from the Marina. He has been active in many phases of life at S.I. As a frosh he played baseball; as a sophomore he played 130's basketball. He has quite a collection of honor cards, and was a member of the C.S.F. Next year will find him studying pre-med.

FRED WISSING . . . Fred, a Marina boy, was a faithful Sanc member during his four years at S.I. During his sophomore year he managed all of the basketball teams. In his last two years he was a librarian in the school library. Fred has his sights set on business administration at U.S.F.

GREG WOOD . . . Greg first came to S.I. in '56. Coach Malley thanks his lucky stars that Greg transferred from Gonzaga Hi in Spokane. Greg proved to be one of the best football players to come out of S.I. in many years. He was named "all-city" this year. Greg plans a career in engineering.

GEORGE ZAITZ . . . George combined good marks with membership on the basketball squad and in the Sanc and Sodality. He is interested in aeronautics and chemical engineering, and plans to study this next year at Cal.

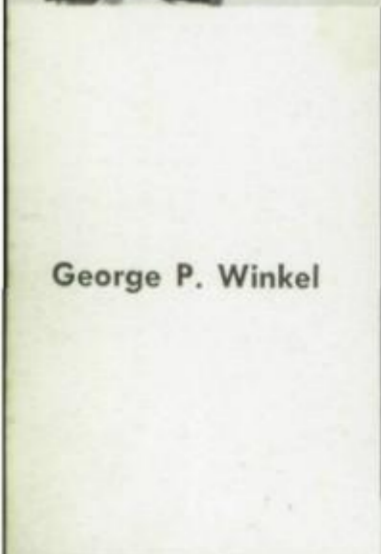

Steve Willemsen

DENNIS ZARO . . . Four years of getting up early in the morning to serve Mass have made Den one of the Sanctuary Society's most faithful members. Four years of studying hard have made him a member of the C.S.F. Den is very interested in medicine and will study pre-med at U.S.F.

SILVANO ZAVALLONI . . . Sil wrote poetry, published controversial articles in INSIDE SI, taught philosophy during lunch time, read Greek tragedy aloud in class, and wrote Latin epigrams on the walls. His hobby was telling how he won the Shakespearian Contest emoting Shylock. Sil was always trying to be controversial. He hopes to become a great writer.

ANTONIO ZULUETA . . . Tony came to S.I. in his senior year from Manila and immediately found many new friends. He was fond of collecting records and greatly enjoyed sports. Next year he will enroll at U.S.F. to study business administration.

CLASSES

Loyalty Class 4-D

Class 4-D was almost a cinch to win this year's Loyalty Award. Most of the members of 4-D have been together in class for 3 years and in that time have come to respect each other and the interests of each individual class member.

Football, baseball, basketball, swimming, track, scholastic and spiritual pursuits, Block Club, forensics—you name it, 4-D'ers were in it and chances are they headed it.

Out of this variety of activities has come a real sense of support and encouragement for someone else who may follow some other activity and who may need and appreciate support.

Sum it all up in one word—unity. Though divided in interests, 4-D was unified behind its members, ready to come out and cheer, to counsel and console, to applaud and sympathize.

As the years pass the men of 4-D are destined to follow their own paths, but they will always remain together in spirit. Especially they will not forget S.I. and all it means to them.

ACTIVITIES

This next section of the yearbook is devoted entirely to the activities which constitute the backbone of St. Ignatius. Almost every student participates in at least one activity ranging from the Chess Club to the renowned Block Club. In these activities all the students work together, meet new friends, and try to better the name of St. Ignatius. These activities, which number over twenty, are in progress throughout the school year. From the first day of school in September to the last day of school in June, student activities are at work; and we of the IGNATIAN wish to salute the members of all these activities for their time and the unselfish work that they have put into them in trying to keep S.I. the top school in the city.

Consecration Ceremonies of the Junior-Senior Sodality.

As the culmination of a three year probation period, the Junior-Senior Sodalists were officially consecrated at this ceremony. Here Jim Gross, Sodality Prefect, is consecrated by Father John Enright, S.J., Sodality Moderator.

Sodality Progress Report

In the years past the Sodality was considered by some to be a "dead" organization. This accounted for its large membership, probably built up by many who wished to belong to an organization with little or no restrictive burdens.

We intended to change the Sodality this year into a "live" organization. To do this we had to re-organize the structure of the group and set a goal to insure the fulfillment of the Sodality's purpose. Our goal was to attain unity among the divisions. Through this unification the Sodality as a whole was to function more efficiently and to carry out the primary goals of Our Lady's organization: sanctification of self, sanctification of neighbors, and defense of the Church.

Even the structural arrangement of the Sodality was altered somewhat. To bring about the complete fulfillment of the unification of the Sodality, an Officers' Council was organized to "guide, govern, and unify the General Sodality." Also, General Sodality meetings were held once a month, contributing to the goal of unification. At these meetings sodalists intermingled and heard what was taking place in other divisions. This gave them a feeling of belonging and of active participation which strengthened the idea of unification.

Then there were the new or reformed methods of completing this feeling of unity. One of these was the general projects in which all sodalists participated together. Another one of the methods of unification was the establishment of a Sodality newspaper. This little literary piece of information is called VISTA; and finally there were the Sodality socials, such as the Christmas Dance, which completed the attempts at unification.

The Sodality advanced a great deal this year due to the never-ending efforts of Rev. John Enright, S.J., the soul of the Sodality. With Father's enthusiasm and the ideas incorporated this year from the S.S.C.A., the Sodality of Our Lady took on a new and interesting look to the average Saint Ignatius student. The Sodality has become alive!

This year, under the impetus of Father Enright, a new spark was given to the S.I. Retreats. More than half of the seniors were given the opportunity to make one of the four closed retreats at El Retiro, two directed by Father Becker and one by Father Enright. The pictures on this page exemplify the calm, prayerful atmosphere which three days of close conversation with Christ provide. Spiritual reading, thoughtful reflection, and community prayers help the retreatant to know more accurately what is God's will for him and them to follow it.

Besides the senior retreats, there were a number of retreats for various sodalists out at the Jesuit villa in Marin County. These, too, were very beneficial to all who were able to make them.

"Look at those bright young faces. Surely these young men couldn't be the intellectuals of Saint Ignatius High!"

The above statement represents a typical observation of the Ignatian reader. Yes, the boys in the C.S.F. and J.L.H.S. don't look like the "book-worm" type, for these young leaders are the kind of students colleges are searching for. Students who are just as efficient in handling a basketball as tackling a difficult math problem; students who spend a couple of hours exercising their bodies under the scorching sun after school, and at night who exercise their minds under the mellow lights of their study lamps; students who want to become a really active part of the school as well as to attain their high standards in studies—these are the members of the California Scholarship Federation and of the James Laynez Honor Society.

"TWELVE ANGRY MEN"

Under the tutelage of a new director, experienced U.S.F. grad, Mr. Peter McCabe, a nucleus of S.I. thespians produced what some have called "the best St. Ignatius play in ten years!" After eight weeks of rehearsal, "Twelve Angry Men" went on stage at the University of San Francisco's Little Theater.

The S.I. version of Reginald Rose's award-winning television play starred Tony Harrison as the calm juror who seeks justice, and George Devine as his boisterous, prejudiced antagonist. The reserved banker, Chips Maurer; the casual ad man, Larry Alioto; noncommittal Dick Blackman and Bob Lamerdin, and hurried jury foreman Jeff Leith were also impartial characters in the drama; whereas Tom Clisham, Stoney Jackson, John and Al Murphy (no kin), and Dom Manzone all had some kind of axe to grind. Under these circumstances, the proceedings in the jury room of "Twelve Angry Men" provided one of S.I.'s most exciting, dramatic entertainments.

Bewildered jurors listen to Anthony Harrison as he drives home his point.

FORUM

Under the guidance of Fr. Henry, Mr. Belcher, and Mr. Wood, S.J., the S. I. debators skillfully weighed the '59 N.F.L. resolution, "America should adopt the English system of education." In particular, the powerhouse team of Tom Cahill was outstanding from U.S.F. to Santa Barbara.

In other fields, Tony Harrison, Tom Cahill, and Frank Mijatovich won strong applause in Oratorical Interpretation; John Murphy showed well in Dramatic Interpretation; Tony Madrid, with George Devine and Garry Analla, in Humor; and Sil Zavaloni won the Junior-Senior Shakespearean Contest.

Frosh-Soph Forum members likewise showed a great deal of promise; led by Ugo Balassari and John Cahill, winners of the Soph and Freshman Oratorical Contests, respectively, the future looks bright for Wildcat speakers.

"Lots of nice Algebra problems to do in your spare time," says Mr. Barry of Loyola U.

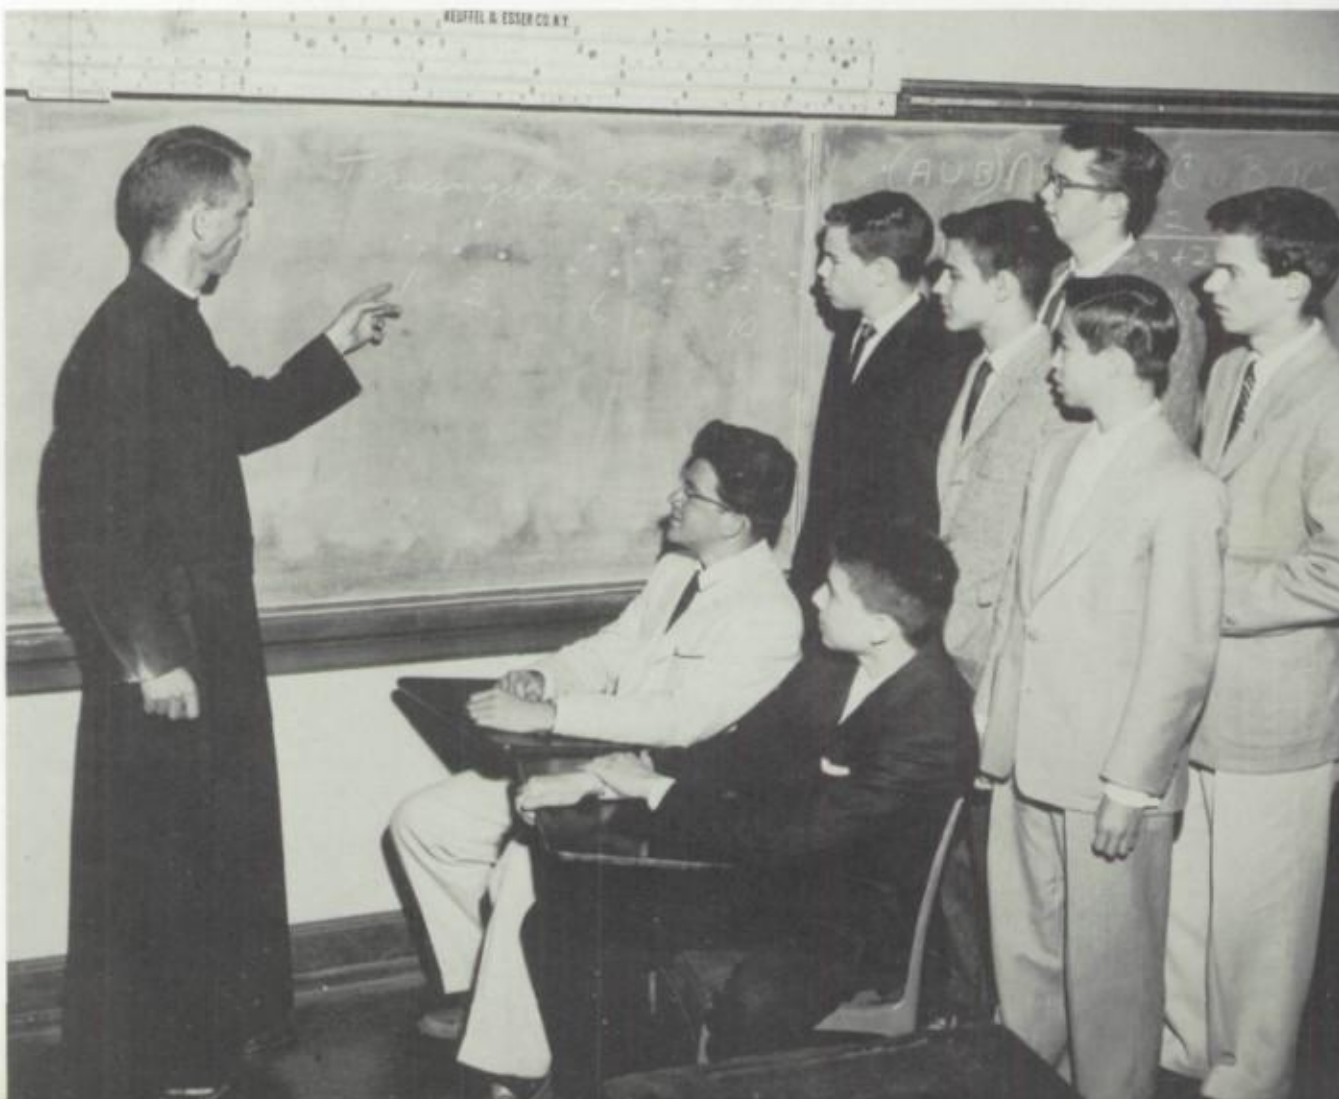

In the fall of 1956 a new activity was added to St. Ignatius High School. It was the Biological Science Club. The intention of the Club's moderator, Fr. Reed, S.J., was to group together boys who have an interest in biological science. The Science Club, still being in the experimental state, consists only of two classes—3-D and 3-H. It will enlarge as time goes on.

The purpose of the Science Club is to acquaint people with the things around them and create an interest in them. Field trips have been taken by the Science Club, one of which was a foray to Moss Beach. This trip resulted in the establishing of a fish tank in Fr. Reed's office. Meetings are held once a week and consist in lectures given about some phase of natural science. Judging from the interest shown thus far, the science club will probably grow to be one of the school's most interesting activities.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club, under the auspices of Father Morgan, S.J., had a very quiet and unpretentious beginning. But its inception has been a solid one, one that will help start off St. Ignatius' second hundred years producing and equipping her students with the necessary knowledge for guiding men to God in a materialistic space age. Meetings were held once or twice a week, and mathematical problems of great intricacy were solved. Perhaps its greatest advantage was that it afforded a time and a place where those interested and specializing in math could meet and hash out the supposedly "unsolvable" solvables.

Fr. Morgan, S.J., points out an intriguing facet of math to enthusiasts Cepeda, Leite (seated); McGinty, Thiebaud, Moy, Fitzgerald and Sammis.

Talent was not missing from this year's glee club. Such voices as the Quartet-ers—Rich Green, Bill Moore, Randy Lai, and Phil Schlobohm, who also took the reins as an able band director for the spring musical—were outstanding. However, caught in a time-jam, the glee club could itself resolve into small groups, such as the Christmas Carolers—Phil Mahoney, Mike Hanley, Randy Lai, John Dorigi, John Hurbert, and the excellent bass Phil Schlobohm. Throughout the year, the boys have gained some experience, and we hope that next year will provide greater opportunity to put this talent to good use.

When the Saints come marching in . . . (When? Whenever there's a Poly game). But when they get there, about 7 trumpets, 5 saxes, 1 base tuba, 2 clarinets, 2 snare drums, 1 base drum, 3 fiddles, 1 foghorn, 1 french horn, and 2 accordians make melody under the supervision of Student Director Thomas Clisham.

Man behind the band, Mr. Russel Johnson, indeed deserves praise for the many hours of patient labor in the third floor echo chamber. Despite difficulties he succeeded in developing the band to a point where—yes, "one time" it was a real winner in supplying the musical background for this year's spring musical, "Billion-Dollar Saint"—a real accomplishment.

Don't pull the switch, he's innocent.

Dedicated to the one-hundredth graduating class of St. Ignatius High, "The Billion-Dollar Saint" was a riotous comedy written by Miss Natalie White and directed by Mr. Peter McCabe, assisted by Mr. McNamara, S.J. An important factor in the success and humor of the musical was introduced by junior Jeff Leith, who took tunes from "South Pacific" and "My Fair Lady," and wrote new lyrics. All this, plus some of S.I.'s talented comedians, combined into one witty and delightful play which shall long be remembered in the halls of the old Jesuit schoolhouse.

The plot behind this comedy is one in which St. Francis of Assisi (Silvano Zavalloni) comes to San Francisco, 1959, and makes an appearance at the Jesuit university. He begins by influencing the football team ('58 varsity members) to foresake all books and learning and to take up the "easy life," to the consternation of the Jesuits. As the team, dressed in sackcloth, rope belts, and no shoes, goes on to wax their opponents, including arch-rival Iowa, the viewers, watching the televised game, think that the team is dressed thus because the University could not afford uniforms. The result: showers of clothing, shoes, and so on, pour in from all over the States to such extent that economy is upset and the national debt is liquidated. The excited alumni president thinks that the University is in debt and launches a billion-dollar drive to "pull them out of the hole." St. Francis winds things up by persuading the Jesuits to take up the simpler way of life—a la St. Francis.

Saint Ignace High School has a tradition of producing fine spirit among the student body. One of the contributing factors of this spirit is S. I.'s Art Committee. This year's Art Committee successfully upheld that tradition. Under the leadership of Joe O'Sullivan, Tom Mulkeen, and numerous other committee heads, the Art Committee definitely helped to produce the spirit that led towards many a championship, and has maintained its position as one of S. I.'s finest Activities.

Throughout the school year, the followers of INSIDE S.I. were puzzled by this question: "How can an award-winning magazine come from such confusion?" No one knows the answer, including the industrious moderators, Messrs. Buckley and Franxman, S.J. Led by Editor-in-chief George Devine, the frantic crew managed to meet all deadlines (well, almost) and to produce a magazine representative of S.I. Among INSIDE S.I.'s accomplishments: a special 32 page issue for the football championship; a Senior Edition in honor of the hundredth graduating class; and feature articles covering everything from class memories to European education, from rallies to vernacular liturgy, and from intramural basketball to the Blackfriars of the West. Through hard work and miracles they managed to come out with a highly successful magazine which provided excellent reading. As a matter of fact, it won national recognition as an outstanding literary production of secondary schools, and brought home the glory due a great school. It is a magazine of which we can be justly proud. For this we can thank our moderators, our editors, their assistants, our advertising department, our typists, our writers, and all who have worked for the staff this year, many of whose pictures appear on these pages. INSIDE S.I. has had a great year; but next year we can look for more of the same, for Buzz Bazzanella and Ed Garaventa, stalwarts in the past, have taken over this magnificent work of literature.

A TRIBUTE TO COACHES OF CHAMPIONS

Without capable coaching, the Wildcats would never have climbed the steps to the City Championship. The Cats' were a fine knit team characterized by the happy relationship which existed among themselves and their coaches. The sweat and strain throughout the season was typical of the Cat's final hard fought victory.

It is not difficult to point out the stars of the championship game, simply because there was only one star—the Saint Ignatius Wildcats. This spirited team was shown the lanes to victory by two of the greatest prep football coaches in the game: great, not only for their ability, but great for the Christian example they displayed. These Champion-builders taught the Wildcats how to be Champions and how to act as Champions. We of Saint Ignatius are lacking in words to express our greatest appreciation to coaches Pat Malley and Gene Lynch.

Varsity manager Bob Johnson. Missing, Mike Gillin.

The Beginning

BALBOA 6 S. I. 6

As a result of its showing in the Pageant, S. I. was rated the class of the league. The Buccaneers toed off, and the Cats began their season by powering their way 62 yards to payday in seven plays. Doherty was the big gun in this drive, pounding out 51 yards. The PAT was wide and that's how it ended. But it was really the beginning—the beginning of a hard played season which brought the Wildcats the title of "Champions."

Doherty slashes through Buccaneer defenders for a chunk of yardage.

MISSION 7 S. I. 13

Winning their first opener in 3 years, the Cats leveled Mission with two T.D.'s scored by Mike Doherty on a 4 yard smash over blocks by Wood and Cook and an 8 yard aerial from Powell to Monti.

LINCOLN 7 S. I. 19

Grinding out 133 yards on 14 attempts, Doherty powered the Cats to their second win. Tom Manney opened the scoring with an 11 yard dash over tackle. The Cats came from behind in the third period on a 4 yard jolt by Tocchini. The final T.D. was pounded out by Baffico on a one yard plunge.

A sharp aerial from Powell to Ackenheil, and Pete sprints across the goal line ahead of Washington secondary.

WASHINGTON 13 S. I. 30

Tocchini exploded for 3 T.D.'s to pace the Wildcats to their third triumph. Other highlights were the fine running of Manney and Doherty, and the terrific punts of Baffico.

Over the top of his block hurtles Ashton for extra yardage, as he returns a Bal punt.

BALBOA 19 S. I. 6

Underrated Bal turned the tables on the Cats as their line out-charged the S. I. forward wall to a victory. The S. I. backs were unable to get rolling. This poor showing was the only blotch on the Cats' record. This illustrated high school football as unpredictable.

Cook and Wood throw key blocks as Tocchini powers his way through Lions for the score.

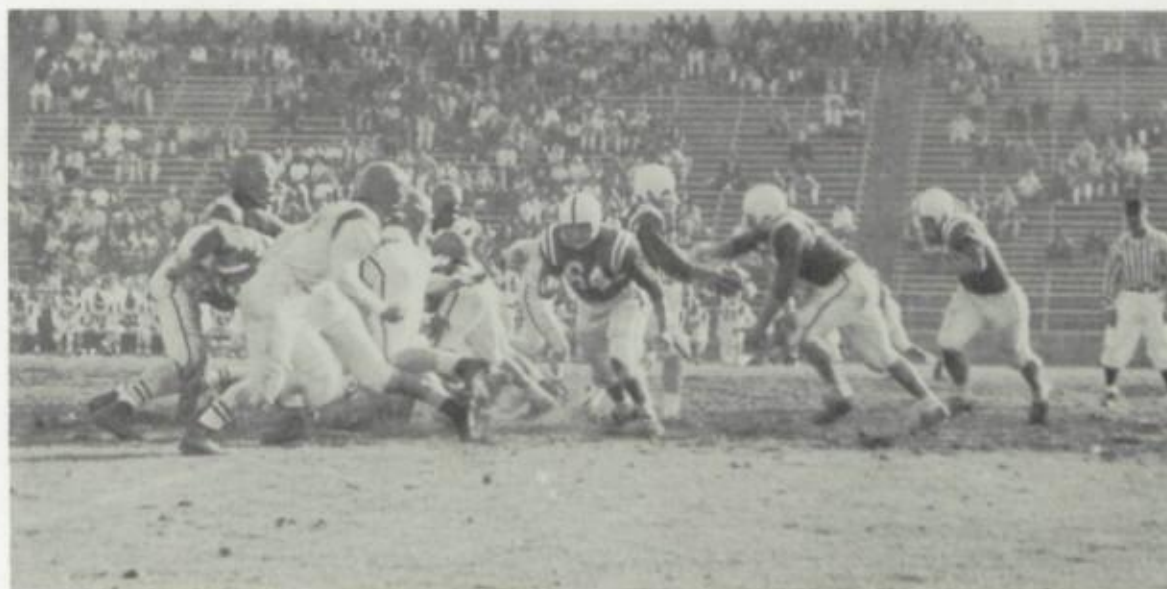

GALILEO 0 S. I. 27

Spirit was high as the Wildcats came growling back from their defeat at the hands of the Bucs. The Cats scored in every period and ran up their greatest yardage of the season—397 yards. The consistent spirit displayed by the Lions gained them much respect in the eyes of the Ignatians.

Calcagno fakes to Tocchini, gives to Doherty as Quilici prepares way by taking out a Parrot end.

POLY 9 S. I. 6

This game was the turning point in the season. This defeat gave the Cats the confidence they needed. Although the Cats lost on the scoreboard, they outgained the Parrots by 62 yards. They stopped Gary Lewis, player of the year, with a scant 54 yards on 16 totes. The Cats left the field with their heads up, sharpening their claws for their next encounter with the Parrots.

LOWELL 6 S. I. 33
The Cats searched the red school house 'til they found them Injuns. Tocchini added three scalps to his collection and Doherty ripped off one more. Brennan pulled in one of Powell's tosses for the final six. Calagno sparked with eight completions on eleven attempts. Doherty began the afternoon with an eighty-three yard dash off left tackle. The second T.D. came as Tocchini skirted left end. Next time the Cats got the ball they waltzed into the end zone on a nineteen yard aerial from Calagno to Ashton. The scoring was closed as Ashton cut the corner around his left end for six. The win enabled the Cats to tie Lincoln for second place in the Round Robin.

With Cook leading the way and Monti cutting down a Mustang, Doherty scrambles around Lincoln end in semi-finals.

LINCOLN 7 S. I. 20

First two times S. I. got the ball, Tocchini hit pay dirt on jolts of 3 yards and 49 yards respectively. The final T.D. was the result of a terrific pass from Calcagno to Ackenheil who made a sensational catch on the five and stumbled in for the score. Fine signal calling by Calcagno and the added punch provided by Doherty enabled the Cats to qualify for the Thanksgiving Day tilt. "Forget the turkey, Ma! We're having Parrot instead!"

This year the Soph-Frosh football team again showed good speed and power. The speed was supplied by fine Halfbacks Jose Juarez and Ray Braghetta. Tom Hardeman showed great potential at the fullback slot. Fran Stiegeler, our quarterback, was great on the fakes and he also showed good skill as a field general. The power was supplied by a great line led by Center Larry Richards, Guards Jim Boyd and Tony DeLucchi, Tackles Maurice Growney and Tom O'Connor, and two outstanding Ends, George Serrichia and Skip Tarantino.

The Soph-Frosh came out of their season with a tremendous 7-0-1 record. The tie, one of the biggest scares of the Frosh season, was played against the Washington Eagles. Fullback Tom Hardeman, with several long runs, led the Cats to victory over Sacred Heart. This successful season would not have been possible without the fine coaching of Fr. Hanley, S.J., Mr. Wood, S.J., and Mr. Bob Simi. This year's Soph-Frosh is to be congratulated on a job well done!

On September 26 a slightly nervous and very anxious S. I. Junior Varsity football team began a season that ended slightly less than their wildest dreams. They beat all teams except Lowell, who tied with them for co-Championship.

A large part of their success is due to Walt O'Dwyer, the chief signal-caller for the Cats. His passing attacks did not overshadow his fine ball handling. Fullbacks, Gary Musante, Ed De Zorto, and Ed Cynrich played well throughout the season. The scatback positions were capably filled by Johnston, Neenan, Boatright, Baccitich, Bruton, Dyer, Coleman, and Feeney.

The forward wall, the best in the city, had many fine stars. Ends were Bloom, B. McDonald, Cavanaugh, Toy, Duckworth and Dolan. Tackles were Kelly, Richards, Starr, McGorty, Fitzpatrick, Connolly and Drucker. Centers were Bogdan and Cloward. Three quarterbacks under O'Dwyer were Dito, G. McDonald and Nevin.

During a hard J.V. season, they played several tough teams, but showed themselves to be tougher. They worked hard for their victories and displayed a true Ignatian spirit. This is what makes champions.

Bonuccelli out-hustles Poly back on fine defensive maneuver.

This year's soccer team can easily be considered as S.I.'s best in five years. Battling against new rules and regulations, they still put up a good fight. Of the seven game season, they tallied one win against five losses and one tie. This is better than average. However, most of the glory was earned during the practice games. It was during these games that they won one game and tied three, suffering only two defeats.

Bob Braghetta was easily the best soccer coach in the city, and All-City Captain John Sullivan was the spark of the strong team spirit.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

From Cellar to Playoffs:

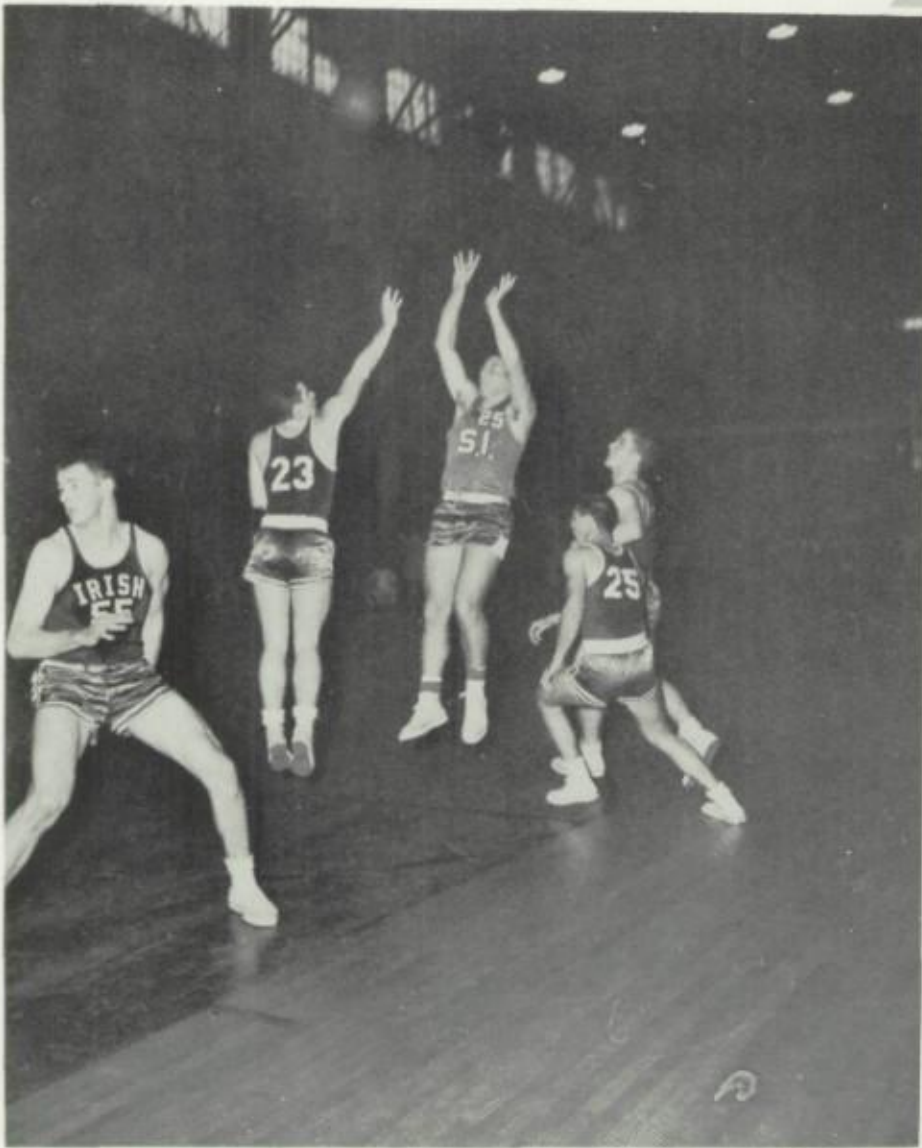

As the end of November and the beginning of December rolled around, the thoughts of Ignatiandom turned from their Championship football team to that of the coming season in basketball. What were the prospects? A new, enthusiastic coach who uses much the same style of play as the two champion college coaches in the area, Phil Woolpert of U.S.F. and Pete Newell of U.C., had arrived to lead the Wildcat cagers to victory. His name, Mr. Stan Buchanan.

There were many tall young fellows pushing themselves to the limit on the court in these early days of the season. Would they give St. Ignatius the height it lacked for the past two seasons? The 'Cats were short on experience. Pete Ackenheil and Dan Belluomini were the only two returning first string veterans. To sum up, "St. Ignatius was tall, talented, and inexperienced."

The practice season produced the desired results—not a tremendous record score wise, but everybody played and Mr. Buchanan knew exactly the content of his team—save for one thing, "how it would react under the pressure of league games."

Then the first league game arrived with defending champion Poly. Disaster struck! Three first clubbers were out with the measles, and the game was cancelled. Four days later the game was played with St. Ignatius still minus two of those starters; Poly triumphed 40-31. Less than a week later, St. Ignatius took on a strong Mission squad and was beaten by nine points. Out of the frying pan, into the fire, and the 'Cats met Washington and the wonderful Steve Gray. This game was tight until the third quarter when Gray turned it into a runaway. The following week, with Belluomini, Kelterer, Brovelli, and Mulcrevy all hitting double figures, the 'Cats broke into the win column at the expense of Lowell for a satisfying thirty point victory. This short period of victory was ended, however, by the Mustangs of Lincoln. The 'Cats now sat lonely in the league's cellar; and their next opponents were the fantastic fighting Irish of Sacred Heart who had held Steve Gray to four points, had lost to Washington by five points, and had dropped a thriller to Poly by only one point. The Ignatian Squad shouldn't even have bothered to show up; but theirs is a big rivalry, one of the biggest West of the Mississippi, and show up the 'Cats did. For the second year in a row, Pete Achenheil sparkled as he led the determined Ignatians squad to a 36-34 victory over the "high-flying" Irish of Sacred Heart. The thriller enabled the Wildcats to retain the Bruce-Mahoney Memorial Trophy for another year. This victory, followed by wins over Galileo and Balboa, put the 'Cats into the playoffs! When everyone had given up hope, save for the 'Cats themselves, they climbed out of the cellar and marched to the playoffs! The semi-finals brought the season to a close.

The Parrots of Poly had too much of everything, and the game was decided on the backboards. The 'Cats displayed courage even in defeat and Poly went on to win the city title.

That is the story of a fighting team which brought honor to themselves, to their student body, and to their school. Pete Achenheil made All-City in all the newspapers. But his drive and desire was typical of the Wildcat cagers. To Mr. Buchanan and the 1958-1959 St. Ignatius Varsity Basketball Team are dedicated these pages.

The season looked bleak. A new coach, no returning veterans, strong opposing teams, all these factors added up to what looked like a long, uphill fight for the members of the 1958-1959 30's basketball team. But when the 30's took the floor against strong, heavily favored Poly in the first league game, the members of the student body saw that theirs was no mediocre team. This team fought like wildcats down to the final buzzer. And, as one might guess, they did win. They pulled a thriller out of the fire for a spine-tingling two point victory over Poly. But then superior manpower overtook the 30's, and no matter how hard they tried, the inevitable came: three close losses to Mission, Washington, and Lowell. All hope seemed gone for a playoff spot, that is, to all except the 30's. Two big wins, over Lincoln and arch-rival Sacred Heart, put them back into the playoff picture. A close loss to Galileo and a satisfying win over Balboa put the 30's into the playoffs! Then, in the heartbreaking game of the year, the 30's finished up the season by losing 31-30 in the last fifteen seconds to the Galileo Lions. Nothing more can be said about the fighting regulars: Tom Manney, Jim Chiosso, Jim Anderson, Ed Strain, Ray Leonardini, Jim Keenan; and the battling reserves, as exemplified by Don Quiazon and Bob Anderson. The 30's may have been beaten, but they were never outfought or outthustled—a fine tribute to Mr. Sequist, S.J., their coach.

One of the most spirited teams S. I. has ever produced was the 1958 120's. Led by the scoring of Joe Alioto and the fine ball handling of Ray Mapa and Tom Piazza, our boys finished their season by defeating S.H. 19 to 14; and then by touching out Lowell by two points in a sudden death overtime.

Their fine plays and victories are all to be accredited to their coach, Mr. Stan Buchanan, as well as to the team itself. This team showed determination and hustle in all of its games—a characteristic typical of all S. I. teams.

ALL-CITY Kearney gets set for two against helpless Buc cager.

Paced by their ALL-CITY guard, Brian Kearney, the scrappy '12's finished their season with a five win-three loss record. They met defeat with fighting spirit at the hands of Lincoln, Sacred Heart, and Washington—a thriller ending with a two point margin. Their five wins enabled them to place in fourth position in their league.

The main factor for the spirit of the team was their coach, Mr. Seiquist. Under his capable training, the "Mighty Mites" showed a lot of surprise. We'll be looking for them next year, as they move up the weight divisions to give their all for Saint Ignatius.

VARSITY TRACK

Track this year at St. Ignatius is at an upswing. In fact, the team has been classified by San Francisco sports scribes as the most improved team in the city.

At this time the practice season has just ended with a 5 win, 2 loss record; and both losses were by a combined total of six points. The team lost to Serra and Westmore, and has beaten Galileo, Riordan, South San Francisco, Bellarmine and Lincoln. During the non-scored time trials with Washington the Wildcats revealed themselves as a first division contender.

Pete Downing (discus and shotput), Greg MacInnis (discus), and Bill Miles (pole vault) are the big guns in the field events. In the sprints are Jean Ashton and Vin Feeney, both good dash men. Senior speedster John Fry (captain) ran the 440, 220, and anchored the varsity relay team. Dave Ciraulo likewise was a point getter in these events. Gil Haskell, Jack Boatright, Jasper Monti, and Mike Burke handled the hurdles with outstanding form. The distance and middle distance men were Riley Sutthoff, Tony Ferrigno, Joe Becerra, and Jim Harty, all good point getters.

Among the lightweights, many should develop championship potential from this season's experience: Piro, Kehoe, Kilroy, O'Toole, O'Connell, Leary, McDevitt, Jung, Demetrescu, Cummins, Leachman, to mention a few.

Other standouts were Len Medina (10:25), Tony Ferrigno (10:26), Joe Becerra (10:28), and soph. Louis Garibaldi (10:57). Great things can also be expected from Jim O'Toole and Jim Harty along with the rest of the members of the team next season. We wish to thank Mr. Roger Hoy for giving the team a season with definite improvements. Graduating this year are only three seniors: Len Medina, Philip Etcheber and Captain John Fry; thus, the team will return next year looking forward to a successful season. Lots of luck!

"Spirit and Fight"

The traditional trait of the Saint Ignatius Golf Team in bringing home a championship will probably hold true this year. The only real threat to the cause will be supplied by the Washington Eagles (They always play better than average when up against the 'Cats.).

Led by Sophomore Dennis Drucker, winner of the Northern California last year and quarterfinalist this year, the spirit and fight of the team can only be one of an optimistic nature. Other fine standouts include seniors Jim Drucker (3rd) and Jim Baffico (5th); junior Larry Alioto (4th); and sophomores Joe Alioto (2nd), George Firpo (6th), and Michael Moriety (7th). When needed, Bob Fabing, Gordon Esposito, Frank Mc Coy, and "Wee" Willy Hayes are there to add their skill.

Once again the powerful St. Ignatius Swim Team triumphed over all City-wide competition, not to mention their numerous victories outside the city, which noted them among the leaders of swimming teams in California. Guided by the undefeated efforts of the two most outstanding swimmers in S.F.—Rich Bassi and Bob Farrell—the St. Ignatius mermen went undefeated through the city. Capt. Mike King 50 and 100 yd. ace, spearheaded the team to its second consecutive championship. Senior backstroke Bill Love was once again seen on the victory block duplicating his hard working efforts of last year. Senior sprinters Cliff Martin, John Heilmann and middle distance man "Tiger" Harris were instrumental in assuring victory for the team. Through winning efforts of 200 ace Junior Lynn Fritz, and 100 yd. breaststroke star K. C. Lynch, and coupled with tremendous performances by Dean Moser, Rich Spohn, Em Kneeffe, Steve Calegari and Tom Cahill, this proved to be more than enough for victory. Soph sensation Kev King, butterfly specialist, and Fred Ravani, frosh "phenom," turned in exceptional performances. The catfish plan to surpass their record breaking point of 131 points, which was greater than the TOTAL of ALL the other teams.

The future strength of the powerful St. Ignatius Catfish lies in their outstanding Lightweights. The Junior members of the Lightweights include such noteworthies as Bob Bricca, speedy backstroke; Jim Martin, classy breaststroke; and butterflyer Bill Foehr. Distinguished Sophomores are freestylers Dave Schnoor, John Bauer, and Tom Lewsader; butterflyers Ken Gordon, Len Schwabe, and Ron Giannini. Strong performers in the Freshman class include backstrokers A. Lee and Bill Spohn; freestylers L. Magee, J. Cahill, R. Halsing, J. Roberts, and J. O'Looney; and breaststrokers Ed Neely, G. Quintana. Although the catfish were weak in diving, due to lack of depth, Juniors Tony Madrid and Bob Magliano, Sophs Louis Garibaldi and Gary Giannini, and Freshman Ed Phelan turned in brilliant performances under fierce competition.

With less than half of last year's team returning—only 2 from the top 7—prospects for 1959 seemed bleak, at least on paper. Fall practice, however, gave us hopes. Returning veterans, almost without exception, showed remarkable improvement—the sure indication of a summer of tournament experience. New faces and new games turned up. The team ladder swelled up to 25—active throughout the fall and early spring.

When the dust finally cleared, Jim McNally, up from last year's first-doubles team, had taken over in number one singles. Bogdan, Taylor, Lonner, and Burton won the remaining singles spots for themselves, edging out Paul De Senna, a veteran of last year, and Pete Shea, a very promising freshman, who together will handle this year's first-doubles assignment. Rolanson, Tapson, Lau, and Roberts are working hard for starting spots on second-doubles. At this writing a Rolanson-Tapson combo has a slight edge, but this could shape up differently at any time during the season.

Team prospects are, on the whole, actually better than last year. How much better, though, we still have to wait to see.

RIFLE TEAM

This year's rifle team was outstanding in many ways, being the deadliest group of boys in the history of the school. Unfortunately, this led to disaster and to the breakup of the club; for every member received offers to either perform on "Maverick" or to participate in a foreign revolution.

The rifle team was an extremely popular organization with the student body; but it soon became a source of annoyance to the faculty because of the danger of stray shots from the rifle range. In fact, during one night of practice, sixty-three of these stray shots hit the faculty residence. The members, led by Dangerous Don Santina, couldn't imagine how they got so careless. Anyway, the practice sessions were moved from U.S.F. to Lake Merced.

It seems fitting to thank the rifle team for the service it has performed for the school, since it was our sole protection from those bad boys from S.H. But unless some new place is found for the team to practice, S.I. will lose this fine organization.

This year, with a host of returning veterans, S.I.'s hopes for a second straight A.A.A. championship look promising.

With All-Northern California third baseman John Giovanola and All-City catcher Ron Cook leading the batting parade, the team showed early power in the practice season with a 2-0 victory over San Mateo, thereby winning the Annual South San Francisco Baseball Tournament trophy.

The million-dollar infield is headed by Captain Ken Dekker. A three year veteran, Ken is, at this April writing, leading the team in r.b.i.'s and base hits, and has made himself a definite All-City candidate.

The most consistent hitter on the team is holding down the first base sack. Ron Calcagno played errorless ball during the practice season and showed himself to be a terror on the base paths.

Gary Attell completes the "keystone duet" with Ken Dekker. Gary, another third season man, currently is hitting well above the three hundred mark.

At third we find capable John Giovanola, leader in stolen bases and runs scored. A four-year letter man, he covers the hot spot perfectly.

The infield is anchored by capable Ron Cook, two years All-City catcher and a definite repeat this year. Ron already has slammed a 360 foot homer against the Cal. Frosh.

If one looks hard, he might spot "We Willie" Ayoob in center field. A good clutch hitter, demon slider, and a flash on the bases, Bill is number one fly snagger on the team.

In left field, one can see Junior Don Bosch. Don is already credited with two triples and a home run. His are the quickest wrists on the club.

The right field position is being hotly contested by sophs Gary Musante and Mike O'Leary. Both are fine runners and capable fielders.

Wildcat pitchers are led by veterans Chuck Rap (9-0) and Tom Leonardini (5-0). During the practice season, Chuck had two shutouts and a six win with no loss record. Tom, likewise, has tasted victory over Encinal, South City, Santa Rosa, and Cal. Frosh. Rapp definitely is All-City material; Leonardini, on the other hand, is the most underrated pitcher in the A.A.A.

Rich Johnson and John Rapp are both developing fast, and they constitute a strong relief support.

The team is augmented by a very capable reserve staff. Calcagno is closely followed at first by Tim Reardon and Art Belli. Tim, a three year veteran, is a great clutch hitter; Art, a long ball hitter, is a threat every time he pinch hits. At home, Pete Giovanola, a frosh promises to be a tough threat in future years, as does center fielder Dave Baroni, another frosh.

Coach Jim Keating has the best record of any pilot in the A.A.A. During the past five years he has led his team to two championships and three second place awards. Thanks to him and Br. Sullivan, S.J., whose assistance in just about every way imaginable is best known only to team members, the Cats are off to another outstanding season.

To Coach Jim Keating, Br. Sullivan, and the '59 Varsity, S.I. owes a huge debt of gratitude—not only for making the Cats' a baseball powerhouse but also for spreading good will in both victory and defeat.

STANDING (l. to r.): Mr. Till, S.J., Braghetta, Piazza, Ignoffo, Doran, Reardon, Carlin, Bias, Luttringer. SITTING: Duckworth, Belluomini, Dorighi, Geno, Bacigalupi, Tripaldi. ABSENT: Serrechia, Cavalli, Hudson, Wright, Palmisano, Johnson, Barca.

S.I.'s '59 Junior Varsity Baseball Team is a spirited, well-balanced club capable of going all the way to win its league. As in the previous year, the light-hitting Wildcat nine sparkled with smooth "heads-up" defense and running. Fine spirit and good hustle have helped them to wind up their pre-season tilts with five wins and only one loss. The team was lead by powerhitting outfielders: Johnson, Barca, Carlin, Belluomini, and Piazza. Glossy infielding was exhibited by Serrechia, Hudson, Carroll, and Doran, helped out by Braghetta, Duckworth, and Wright. The 'Cats had a very capable battery in the pitching of John Bacigalupi and in the powerful arm of catcher Dave Tripaldi. Pitchers John Palmisano, Chris Bias, and catcher Bob Ignoffo have also done fine work. The J.V. horsehiders will provide some very strong candidates for next year's varsity.

The frosh-soph baseball team was like Silky Sullivan. It showed poorly in early season, hampered by rain and thrust into games without preparation. But as the season progressed, teamwork took the place of errors and miscalculations so that, towards the season's home stretch, a band of little professionals would take the field for each game. Outfielder-catcher Tom Delaney played very good defensive ball and hit over .500 by mid-season. The team was strong through the middle, with the smooth shortstop-second combination of Gerald-Luttringer turning in consistently smart play. First base was handled with ease by another good batter, Bill Dorney. And at the hot corner, Mike Tobin developed with the season into a fine third baseman. The same can be said of the outfielders and pitchers, including Tim Pinelli and "the Arm"—Tom Gallagher. Of all of these boys and their spirit and play we are rightly proud.

Football Intramurals - - "Hail, 3-G!"

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM . . .
Bosch (Qb); Stewart (H); Kelly (E); Johnson (G); Arnold (C); Woods (G); R. Flynn (E).

Who's the receiver?

One thing about intramurals . . . there's never any pushing.

Nice hands, Gene.

The 1958 intramural football league was strong; but fast, tough 3-G easily smashed through all opposition to take the school intramural football championship. Led by team captain and quarterback, Don Bosch, and backed by terrific class spirit, 3-G plowed through 2-E in the playoff semi-finals and then went on to demolish 4-E in the finals. Outstanding during the victory march were John Kelly, Roger Arnal, Tom Stuart, Pete McElliott, Jim Wood, and Santiago Cruz.

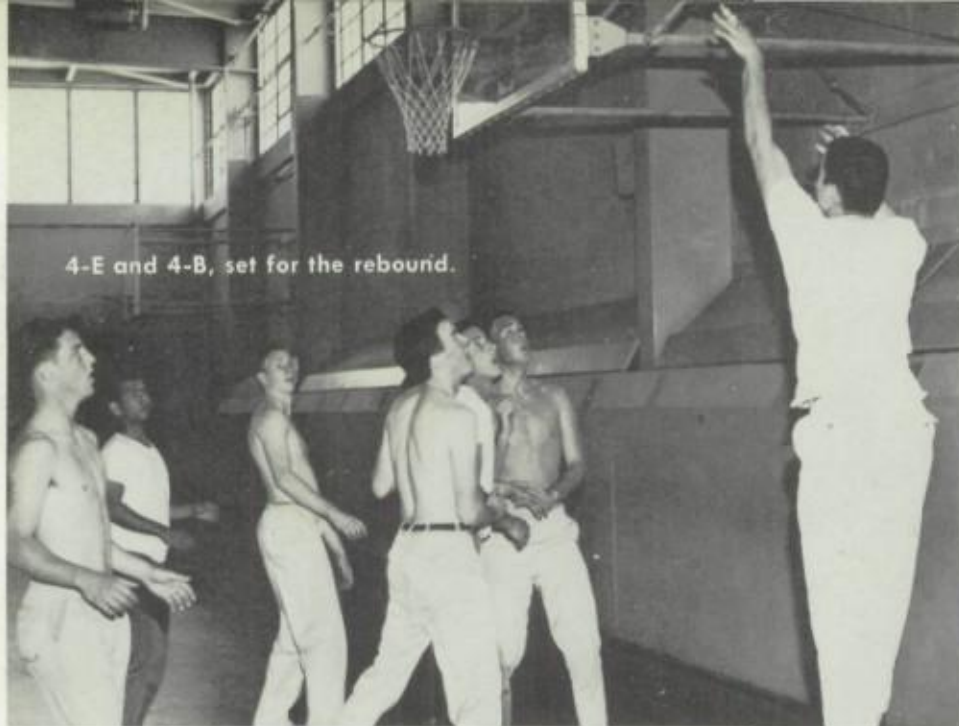

4-E (Walker, Sieder, Attell), headed by Dan Belluomini, pushed its way through sharp Senior competition into second place, but lacked the speed necessary to contain such backs as Tom Stuart.

In a private feud, Mr. Bush's 1-F swept the freshman league, but could not prevent a spirited 2-E team from winning the Lower Division Championship for its retiring coach, Mr. Buckley, S.J.

When all was said and done, however, the "old pro" faculty squad again conquered all. The fancy quarterbacking of Fr. Devlin, sensational pass catching of Mr. Castagnola, and deception of Bob Simi were too much, as 3-G went down fighting, 13-7, in the traditional post season match.

Look out for Alioto!

4-E and 4-B, set for the rebound.

BASKETBALL INTRAMURALS

4-C Downs 1-F for Championship

Basketball intramurals went two rounds this year, with the following classes ending up on top for their respective years: 4-C, 3-B, 2-C, and 1-F. The senior and sophomore years saw 4-C win out over tough 4-D in a play-off game while 2-C defeated battling 2-B.

The play-offs opened with 4-C contending 3-B. The first two games ended in one win for each; but in the third and final game, 4-C caught fire and trounced 3-B for the upper division championship. During the second noon on the days the senior-junior battles were fought, 2-C tried to hold its own against the terrific hustle displayed by Mr. Bush's fired up 1-F. The "Bushmen" prevailed.

The finals were contested between 4-C and 1-F. The superior manpower and experience of the seniors were too much for the hustling frosh, however; and 4-C won the school championship with two straight victories.

A word of congratulations is in order for all those who participated, thereby making the season one of fun and success.

DADS' CLUB

The Fathers' Club at St. Ignatius concludes its tenth year of existence with another fine record. Under the presidency of Mr. Michael Doherty, every event the Fathers' Club sponsored was a greater success than even previous years. The Father-Son Communion Breakfast and the Parents' Day of Recollection were outstanding successes. This year, too, the Cadillac Raffle was a complete sell-out, largely due to the work of Chairman Roy Criss, Mr. Jules Leonardini, and Mr. Dennis Jordan. The officers and members of future years will have a difficult time surpassing the Fathers' Club of 1959.
