Understanding what is happening
inside oneself is essential to communicate with others.

When he analyzes his many needs, a person finds a real need to communicate meaningfully with others; not only the surface,
but emotions deep inside himself.

The teaching process should not be intellect
to intellect, but person to person.
The teacher should use the subject matter of the curriculum to which both teacher and student have been assigned as the medium through which they can relate as human beings.

In an accepting atmosphere,
an individual is allowed and encouraged to have and to express personal feelings.
His feelings are valued by others
because they have meaning to the person.

There is an effort made
on the part of the members of the group
to understand one another.
Individuals express themselves freely
without concern that they may be rejected
as persons.

Dialogue is in large part disciplining our prejudices and our speech
and patiently learning to listen.
Listening is a creative response.
We are affirming the other as a person
with our eyes, our ears, our attention, and our heart.
We are accepting him totally.

Listening can be threatening.
we are open to reality which can make demands upon us.
Listening can dissipate our prejudices
and can load us with healthy guilt
about what we have previously refused to face.
Listening is the key to understanding and understanding to dialogue
and dialogue to personality growth.

The basic values of life often come through the unstructured communication that goes on in the out-of-classroom situations.

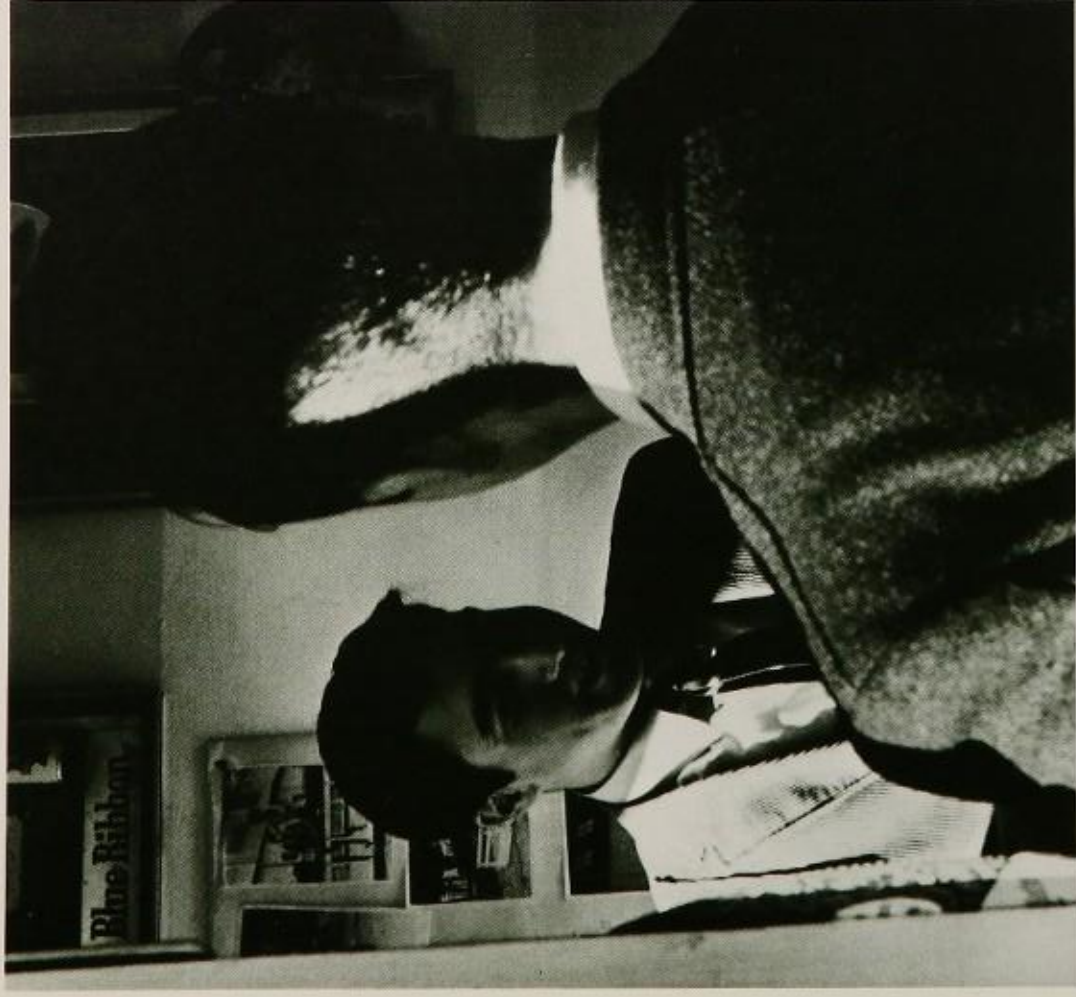

In these casual situations,
the student is able to communicate
his insights, his successes, his conflicts,
but on the condition that the teacher take off his mask and reveal himself as a fallible human subject to conflicts and uncertainties.

Communication means more than merely talking or spouting information. Interpersonal communication is the sharing of personal thoughts, feelings, and experiences, rather than just relating cold facts in an impersonal and detached way. Such interpersonal communication leads to true friendships rather than mere acquaintances.

Unless one risks exposing his thoughts, feelings, and aspirations to another person, he will never learn the language of friendship.
He will be forever closed up within himself
and miss all the joy
that comes from sharing his successes
and failures,
his joys and sorrows with others.

Students must realize that communication must go beyond the specific setting of school and permeate all their relationships with others if they are to become mature and effective persons.

Reach out in the darkness.

We sat and talked about things
on our mind,
and now, this man,
he is a friend of mine.

Reach out in the darkness.

SODALITY

THE SODALITY PROVIDES OPPORTUNITIES FOR A STUDENT WHO WANTS TO DEVELOP AS A CHRISTIAN IN THE REALITY OF HIS DAILY LIFE. THROUGH THE APOSTOLATES, THE SODALIST HELPS PEOPLE WHO NEED FOOD AND MONEY, BUT MORE IMPORTANT, HE EXTENDS A HAND OF FRIENDSHIP TO THE UNDERPRIVILEGED EXPRESSING THE WARMTH OF HUMAN LOVE.

A SODALIST SHARES A PART OF HIS LIFE EACH TIME HE REACHES OUT AND ATTEMPTS TO TOUCH THE MIND AND HEART OF A HANDICAPPED CHILD, AN ELDERLY WOMAN, OR A DEPRESSED TEENAGER. THROUGH THIS LEARNING, THIS HELPING, AND RELATING TO OTHERS, THE INDIVIDUAL TAKES ANOTHER STEP TOWARDS CHRISTIAN MANHOOD.

INSIDE S.I. IS A HIGH SCHOOL NEWSMAGAZINE PRODUCED ENTIRELY BY STUDENTS AT THE SCHOOL.

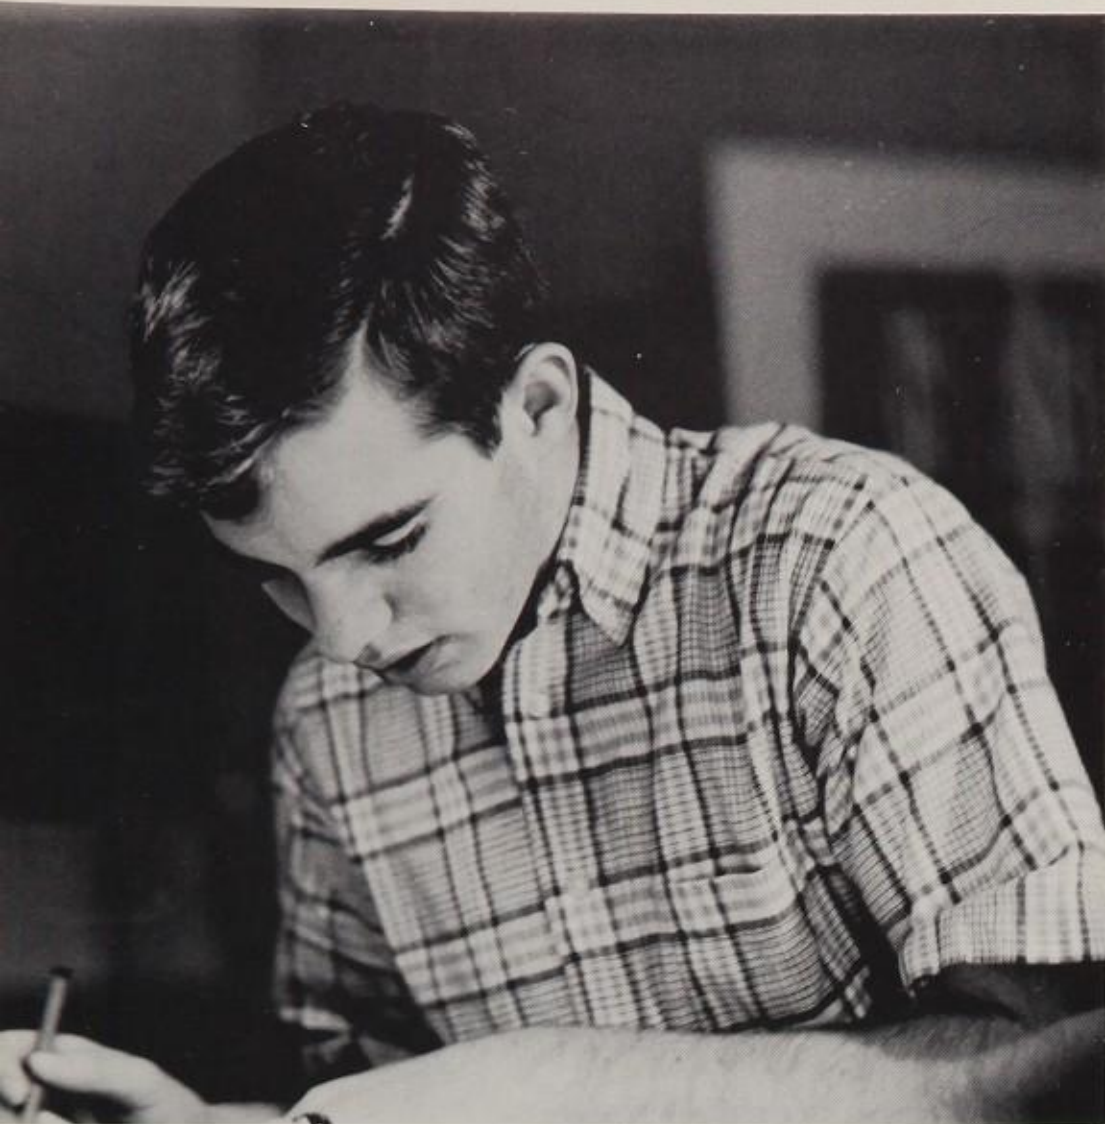

THROUGH ITS PRODUCTION, THE MAGAZINE COMBINES FACTUAL NEWS ACCOUNTS, SATIRE, LITERATURE, HUMOR, AND MATURE CRITICISM TO EDUCATE THE STUDENT BODY OF SAINT IGNATIUS HIGH SCHOOL.

COMPLETE STUDENT PRODUCTION DEMANDS ORGANIZATION AND RESPONSIBILITY FROM THE WILDCATS ON THE STAFF. THIS STAFF IS CONFRONTED WITH INTERPERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. WHETHER OR NOT THEIR PRAGMATIC GOALS ARE MET, THE STUDENTS FACE THE REALITY OF ADULT INDUSTRY AND LIFE IN GENERAL.

A STUDENT COUNCIL MEETING IS AN OCCASION FOR STUDENTS TO EXPRESS THEIR GRIPEES AND TO GIVE CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTIONS. PEOPLE IN AUTHORITY, SUCH AS THE MEMBERS, MUST HAVE WAYS OF FEEDBACK TO FIND OUT IF THEIR WAY OF DIRECTING A SITUATION IS FITTING THE NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL. PERMITTING PEOPLE TO RESPECTFULLY TALK BACK AND EXPRESS THEIR POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE FEELINGS IS THE SUMMIT OF GOOD COMMUNICATION.

COME BUY THE WORLD

"THERE'S MY BRIGHT HORIZON, THERE'S MY STAR...."

IN SEARCHING FOR SOMETHING MORE THAN MERE EXISTENCE, THE ARTIST OFTENTIMES SEN-TIMENTALIZES. TRITE PHRASES AND WELL-WORN
CLICHES SO OFTEN ABOUND IN THE ANNALS OF MU-SICAL THEATER AS TO STUN THE SENSES.

IN THIS "DRAMATIC MUSICAL COMEDY" WE HAVE MADE OUR REACH FOR "SOMETHING MORE."
IF WE HAVE FALLEN INTO STEREOTYPE, WE CAN HOPE IT WAS ONLY BECAUSE WE TRIED TOO HARD.

Dear Graduates,

During the five years I have been president of St. Ignatius High School, we have undertaken many new ventures and faced many unprecedented problems. These have included the decision to build a new school, participation in a different athletic league and curriculum and schedule changes. Nevertheless, the year just concluded has been a milestone. It is both a beginning and an end.

For you our graduates, it is the end of your high school preparation. Now you will go on to advanced studies in specific areas before playing a significant and productive role in society.

Much will be expected of you. You are now a part of a tradition of excellence that spans more than a century, and the S.I. men before you have set a splendid example of service to God and fellow man that cannot be ignored.

As you the Class of 1969 ends its high school days, the very buildings that housed you come to an end as well. But your spirit and the spirit of the thousands of alumni that have gone before you--that very real "S. I. Spirit" goes on.

You now go on to face new challenges in different surroundings, and I am confident that you are ready.

The school moves on to new buildings at a different site, in order to provide better facilities to carry out more effectively the educational mission God has committed to us, and we are confident that we are ready.

So we have come to an end of one road together, and now we look forward to new horizons but the pain we feel at this parting is more than a "growing pain." To those of you who leave us now, we have dedicated all of our efforts in helping you grow and develop, and our human pride in your achievement and potential makes the loss a real one.

Fortunately, Almighty God has seen fit to entrust another group of young men to us and we now turn our full attention to seeing them safely along their journey to manhood, while at the same time, following your progress through life with deep interest and concern.

God bless you.

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Harry V. Carlin, S.J." The signature is fluid and elegant, with a large initial 'H' and a long, sweeping underline.

Reverend Harry V. Carlin, S.J.
President

Without individual initiative and unselfish contributions, conformity diminishes the creativity of the members of any organization. A staff is as strong as the individuals who compose it. If the group is composed of all "let him do it" types, the book cannot be effective, and no real growth of individual personality is possible. It is the contribution of every "I" in the staff which makes the book successful.

Many students are so caught up in their own personal world that they never learn to take part in what's going on around them. In the process of becoming an adult, one achieves his identity by becoming involved with the people around him. Dan Bosque and John Vallelunga became involved and recaptured the year through photographs. I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to them for their countless hours of sacrifice.

I'd also like to thank Larry Brennan and John Martini for their able photographic assistance throughout the year.

The people of the production crew: Frank Dunnigan, Kev Leidich, Jim Walsh, Bob Conti, Mark Ehrmann, Jim Flaherty, Ray Solari, and Eric Goosby are to be commended for their dedication.

I would especially like to thank Lane Russell, Mr. D. Dangaran, S.J., Kee-Coleman Studios, and Gil Duncan for their advice and individual contributions.
