"But at my back I always hear/Time's winged chariot hurrying near",
Andrew Marvell

Saint Rose is not a static institution; change is part of its long, illustrious history. We have witnessed the instructors change from almost all nuns to mostly lay teachers. The Church itself has made some drastic changes since the Vatican II council began in 1962. We have many students from all over the City and from as far away as Pacifica, Marin County and Berkeley, whereas previously students were almost all from the surrounding neighborhoods or parishes.

Each year the students metamorphose. The once gawky, giddy freshmen become poised and polite seniors. They look back fondly at their former selves and reflect on how they've changed. The teachers, too, notice the difference the passing of four years has made in these sophisticated young women.

Some things, however are tradition bound.

The philosophies and goals in education behind the Academy are still the same. Our uniforms have remained unchanged, with few minor additions and subtractions, for over 50 years. We still have Big-Little Sister Day, the Junior-Senior Ring Ceremony, and the Father-Daughter Dance, and probably always will. St. Rose girls still have their reputation as being pretty, vivacious and intelligent, and still go out with men from Saint Ignatius, Sacred Heart and Riordan. We still try to perk up our uniforms by wearing tennis shoes and non-regulation sweaters, and suffer the consequences.

THE AMERICAN DAME, an unusual comedy by C.S. Lewis, was the Fall drama production for 1981. The show traced the role of women from Adam & Eve through the turn of the century. This year, the drama director, Ms. Marie Frenna, decided to have two free performances of the play. One was performed during an assembly for the student body on Thursday, October 22, and the other performance was that evening for friends and family of students in the play. The drama was uniquely presented, which added to its theme and its enjoyability for everyone who saw it.

UNDERCLASSMEN

THE MALE BOX

"What is the first thing that comes to mind when you think of a St. Rose student?"
(asked at the SI-SH football game)

Tom Peabody, '82, SI: "They've got more class than Mercy or Pres."

Eric Nelson, '82, SI: "Hot!"

Steve Tocchini, SI graduate: "I don't know...brown skirts?"

Gino Cerchiai, '82, SI: "Good personality, easy to get along with, and loves to have a good time."

Anonymous, '83, SI: "Intelligent and well-dressed, not like Mercy."

Mark Miller, '83, SH: "They wear those 'Pascals' sweatshirts, and they look mean."

Brother Philip, Dean of Students at SH: "Very selective, discriminating, and very good-looking."

Michael Van Bommel, '82, SH: "Not enough support for SH."

John Devine, '83, SI: "I believe St. Rose girls are intellectually stimulating, have good figures, have unequivocal personalities, and go to the best school in the city, except St. Ignatius College Preparatory."

Bill Taylor, '82, SI: "They're always seemingly polite, superficially nice-looking, and very cliquish. I think St. Celeste is a sweetheart."

-Linda Herrera, '82

ANNEMARIE CONROY

Memories may be beautiful, and yet,

What's too painful to remember we simply choose to forget,

So it's the laughter we will remember,
whenever we remember

The way we were.

—Barbra Streisand

What a drag it is getting old!

—The Rolling Stones

What lies behind you, and what lies before you are tiny matters compared to what lies within you.

The most controversial version of the MONA LINDA is in the Vernon collection in the U.S. Its owners consider it authentic and value it at $2.5 million.

You ask why mary was called contrary? Well, this is why, my dear:

She planted the most outlandish things in her garden every year:

She was always sowing the queerest seed, and when advised to stop,

Her answer was merely, "No, indeed—Just wait till you see the crop!"

Friends Make Life Worth Living,
and we see that every day.
For friends make good times better, as they share what comes our way.
Friends make problems simpler, and when troubles come along,
their help and understanding do a lot to keep us strong.
Friends make all things special, and an hour of talk or laughter often leaves a memory we'll enjoy a long time after . . .
Yes, friends make life worth living—we know so well that's true, for surely no one ever had a dearer friend than you, Noel.

We hope that this book will conjure up wonderful memories of good friends, crazy experiences, and the traditions that have been a part of Saint Rose for 120 years. The job of co-editors was certainly one experience we will never forget.

Many people contributed to this book. We would like to thank our financial backers—the Patrons and the Sponsors. Thank you to an outrageous and dedicated staff. We are especially grateful to Dee Dee, Tracy, Kate, Leslie, Lucille, Linda, Liudyte, and Mr. Devine, our moderator. The long hours they stayed after school, the work they took home, the lunch hours they gave up, and their encouragement and ideas were of great help to us. We hope you enjoy the 1982 edition of VERITAS.

Dear Lisa,
Another year and another year. It's not it through another year of Spanish. I know I'm crazy as I go to Spanish me what I'll see you next summer and I'll see you next year or maybe I'll see you next summer. See you

Dear Mary Jane,
How I had a good time
I'm glad this year is finally over. I find that you are very dorky. But don't tell anyone.
Have a wild summer. Lots o
